NOBTS President Chuck Kelley and his wife, Rhonda

Welcome to the inside of a miracle! On August 29, 2005 Hurricane Katrina moved ashore and created the greatest natural disaster in the history of the United States. New Orleans and the Mississippi Gulf Coast were devastated beyond description, and some wondered if this storm would be the end of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. Three days after the storm, however, the leadership team of the seminary gathered in Atlanta, GA and made the decision to continue teaching all the courses started before the storm hit. Ten days after the storm the faculty met and reinvented the entire curriculum, devising ways to teach without a campus until all was restored. Less than a month after the storm the Trustees met, reviewed the damage and cost of recovery and made the decision to fully restore the campus and keep the school in New Orleans. By year's end we realized we had seen a miracle take place. In the face of the unspeakable tragedy brought about by the storm, the Seminary continued to function, teaching a full schedule of classes and conducting graduation exercises in December and May. The Cooperative Program of the Southern Baptist Convention and the gifts of Southern Baptists and their churches made it possible to provide relief assistance to our families living on campus and to fully restore our facilities. The grace of God was sufficient for our needs.

The miracle that started in the aftermath of the hurricane is still unfolding. Students coming to New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary this fall have one of the most remarkable opportunities in the history of theological education. In addition to their education and training, they will experience what it is like to live inside a miracle of God as it unfolds day by day.

Our seminary family will experience the miracle of provision. The campus restoration process is far ahead of the rest of the city because God has provided in remarkable ways. Electrical power, money, and vast quantities of materials have come to our campus long before reaching other areas, allowing us to stay on schedule to have the campus ready for the fall. God has already provided resources for us to help every displaced campus family from last fall make the move back to New Orleans. Also special financial aid is already available for new students who begin on the home campus in the fall. Contact the Dean of Students for details, but the bottom line is that we have never had so many resources to help students prepare for ministry as we do now.

In addition to God's provision through Southern Baptist support for the Seminary and its families, God is also providing through the local economy in a miraculous way. Employers all over the city in every kind of work are hiring, often for higher wages than New Orleans has ever paid before. Millions and millions of dollars of aid for the city's homes and businesses will be released about the time we begin classes. Time will tell, but all indications are the coming generation of students will find it far easier to get work to help them through seminary than any other generation of students in Southern Baptist history. These work opportunities in the city will also be a very crucial part of the church's witness to Christ. The scale of this tragedy has created an openness to conversations about the Lord that I have never seen before. The presence of our seminary family in the workforce will be "leaven in the lump" of the new New Orleans, making Jesus known at every level of city life as the city rebuilds.

We are also seeing the miracle of ministry. The original slogan of the Seminary when it was first established was "Learning to do; Doing to learn." At NOBTS we have always emphasized involvement in ministry as a critical aspect of training students for the church. Never has a seminary been located in a setting with so many ministry opportunities. Southern Baptist churches are hungry for leaders to help them rebuild. A great deal of church planting will be going on, as we seek to replace the churches that were not able to survive the storm and its aftermath. The presence of Christians who will go into the neighborhoods and volunteer to help people clean up and rebuild has been having a huge effect in whole neighborhoods who previously had little or no interest in hearing the gospel. You will have opportunities to earn course credit by helping the people of New Orleans recover. We are quite confident that God spared our seminary from what could have been far worse damages so that we can be here enabling the city to recover, sowing down the neighborhoods and businesses with the seeds of the gospel.

Perhaps the miracle that will affect you the most, however, is the miracle of family. More than half of our faculty live on campus. Their presence living side by side with students and staff creates an atmosphere on campus unlike any other place you have ever been. We walk and take our exercise on the same paths. Our children play together in the same playgrounds. With no faculty lounge on campus we all share the same cafeteria and coffee shop. As a family faculty, staff, and students together face the challenges of living in an urban environment like New Orleans. When Katrina struck the disaster affected us all. In the midst of wrestling with grief, loss, insurance agents and FEMA, however, something remarkable happened to our faculty. They held on to their passion for equipping our students for excellence in ministry. In a matter of days they completed reinvented the curriculum, finding ways to continue to teach with no access to the campus and with students scattered across 29 states. They taught a full schedule in both fall and spring, making it possible for students to stay on track for graduation plans. To my knowledge it was a feat unmatched in the history of theological education. It was the kind of sacrificial effort one puts forth for family. God's grace took us to another level in what has always been a profound commitment to our students and to one another.

MISSION STATEMENT & CORE VALUES

To enter New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in any of its programs or locations is to become part of the NOBTS family. It is a family with a passionate commitment to reaching the world with the gospel, and a passionate commitment to one another. Student and teacher each have a role to play in the process of education. You can be assured during your time as a student here, the faculty who teach will do whatever it takes on their part to equip you for excellence in ministry.

As I write this welcome the campus is entering the last phase of restoration. Families are living on campus again. Students are attending classes on campus again. The grass is green and the flowers are blooming. We are ready to start the first chapter of the new New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. God has done an amazing work in the remarkable aftermath of Hurricane Katrina. We can hardly wait to see what miracles await as we translate our Katrina lessons into how to grow healthy churches. We can hardly wait to see what God is going to do in our city. What was one of the oldest cities in America has now become America's newest frontier. What will happen as we sow it down with the seeds of the gospel in the rebuilding process? We can hardly wait to incorporate you into our seminary family, teaching you all that we have learned and working with you to change the world through the gospel of Jesus Christ. We are confident that the promise of God in Jeremiah 29:11 is true:

For I know the plans that I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for calamity to give you a future and a hope.

Welcome to God's future for New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and you!

Dr. Charles S. Kelley, Jr.

Historical Sketch

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary marks its 89th year during this 2006-2007 academic session.

Voted into being by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1917 as messengers met in New Orleans for their annual meeting, New Orleans Seminary was the first theological institution to be created by direct action of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Bearing the name Baptist Bible Institute until 1946, the school was actually the fulfillment of a century-old dream of Baptists to establish a missionary training school at the gateway to Latin America.

Many requests were made throughout the nineteenth century for a Baptist school to be established in New Orleans. Following unanimous SBC approval in 1917, the institute opened its first session in October 1918 under the leadership of Byron H. DeMent, who served as president of the Baptist Bible Institute from 1917 to 1928.

“The Baptist Bible Institute is preeminently a child of providence and prayer,” DeMent said at his inauguration. Since that day, New Orleans Seminary has been known as “The School of Providence and Prayer.”

Others who have served as president of the school are William W. Hamilton Sr. (1928-42); Duke K. McCall (1943-46); Roland Q. Leavell (1946-58); H. Leo Eddleman (1959-70); Grady C. Cothen (1970-74); and Landrum P. Leavell II, nephew of Roland Leavell, (1974-95).

On February 23, 1996, Dr. Charles S. “Chuck” Kelley Jr. of Beaumont, Texas, was elected unanimously as the seminary’s eighth president. Prior to his election he had served at the seminary for 13 years as the Roland Q. Leavell Professor of Evangelism and most recently as the director of the Seminary’s Leavell Center for Evangelism and Church Health.

From its beginning until 1953, the school was located at 1220 Washington Avenue, in the heart of the Garden District of residential New Orleans.

The current campus at 3939 Gentilly Boulevard was purchased in 1947. The landmark entrance gates and fence from the Garden District mansion now are located on the front block of the Gentilly campus. The current property, once a 75-acre pecan orchard, has been transformed into a beautiful campus with 12 additional acres; and more than 100 buildings.

New Orleans Seminary is fully accredited to offer degrees on both the undergraduate and graduate levels: associate, baccalaureate, masters, and doctoral. The Seminary also is committed to making quality theological education as accessible and affordable as possible to as many as possible. Therefore, New Orleans Seminary operates many extension center campuses across the Southeast.

Evangelism, missions, and, most importantly, local church ministry have always been at the heart of the educational process for this school. Nearly 20,000 men and women have studied and prepared themselves for ministry at NOBTS.

In August 2005, New Orleans Seminary faced one of its most difficult times - Hurricane Katrina. Floods resulting from levee failures left the campus and the city under water. The storm displaced over 1,000 main campus residents and put a new semester on hold. Almost immediately, God began a work of redemption in the life of NOBTS.

The seminary administration quickly formed a plan to meet the needs of students and their families. They also worked with the faculty to find a way to continue the semester through a combination of online courses, extension center work and workshops. Eighty-five percent of NOBTS students continued to take courses throughout the 2005-2006 school year.

Southern Baptists rushed to the aid of the seminary family. The SBC Executive Committee provided $6.2 million in Cooperative Program giving that exceeded 2004-2005 SBC budget requirements. SBC entities, churches and individuals also gave sacrificially to help the seminary. Churches quickly offered to come to New Orleans to help clean and restore the campus. Their volunteer labor saved NOBTS of over $2 million in restoration costs. God has truly blessed New Orleans Seminary.

Now the campus has been restored and students are back. The seminary administration is committed to be an important part of the city’s restoration. Their goal is to take an even more active role in sharing the message of Jesus Christ throughout the city of New Orleans - to be “salt and light” in the community.

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is a confessional seminary. Our faculty subscribed to the NOBTS Articles of Religious Beliefs and the Baptist Faith and Message 2000.

ARTICLES OF RELIGIOUS BELIEF

Article I - Sole Authority of Scriptures.

We believe that the Bible is the Word of God in the highest and fullest sense, and is the unrivalled authority in determining the faith and practice of God's people; that the sixty-six books of the Bible are divinely and uniquely inspired, and that they have come down to us substantially as they were under inspiration written. These Scriptures reveal all that is necessary for us to know of God's plan of redemption and human duty. We deny the inspiration of other books, ancient or modern, and exalt the Bible to an unchallenged throne in our confidence. These Scriptures do not require the authorized interpretation of any church, or council, but are divinely intended for personal study and interpretation, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Article II - One Triune God Who Is Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We believe in one only true and living God, the Creator and Sustainer of all things, who is infinite, eternal and unchangeable in every spiritual excellence, and who is revealed to us as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, three in one and one in three, as the essential mode of His existence. The Father is the Head of the Trinity, into whose hands finally the Kingdom shall be given up. The Son is the promised Messiah of the Old Testament, Jesus Christ who was born of the Virgin Mary, given to reveal God, died to redeem man, rose from the dead to justify the believer, is now at the right hand of God as our Advocate and Intercessor, and at the time the Father keeps in His own power, He will return in visible, personal and bodily form for the final overthrow of sin, the triumph of His people and the judgment of the world.

The Holy Spirit is a Person who has been sent from God to convict the world of sin, of righteousness and of judgment, to regenerate and cleanse from sin, and to teach, guide, strengthen and perfect the believer.

Article III - Satan and Sinful Man.

We believe that man was created innocent, but that being tempted by Satan, he sinned, and thereafter all men have been born in sin, and are by nature children of wrath. The original tempter was Satan, the personal devil, who with his angels has been since carrying on his work of iniquity among the nations of the earth. The essence of sin is non-conformity to the will of God, and its end is eternal separation from God.

Article IV - Christ, God's Way of Atonement.

We believe that a way has been provided whereby men born in sin may be reconciled to God. That Way is Jesus Christ, whose death atoned for our sin, and through union with Him we become partakers of His merits, and escape the condemnation of God's holy law. The atonement becomes personally effective through the foreordination and the grace of God, and the free choice and faith of man.

Article V - Christ, the Only Savior From Sin, Without Whom Men Are Condemned.

We believe that apart from Jesus Christ there is no salvation. He is the only and all-sufficient Savior of sinners, irrespective of natural talents, family connection, or national distinction. All men are under condemnation through personal sin, and escape from condemnation comes only to those who hear and accept the gospel. The heathen, then, are under con-demnation just as well as those who hear and reject the gospel, for they are sinners by both nature and practice. The pressing and inviolable obligation rests upon every church and individual to present the gospel to all men, that to all men may come the means of eternal life. Unless we proclaim the gospel we shall suffer loss, not only in this life, but in the day when we render to God the account of our stewardship.

Article VI - Conversion Includes Repentance, Faith, Regeneration, and Justification.

We believe that the Christian life begins with conversion. Conversion has several aspects, including repentance, faith, regeneration and justification. Repentance implies a deep and sincere change of thinking, feeling and willing toward sin and God, and faith is the surrender of the entire personality, thought, feeling and volition to Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. Regeneration is the act of the Holy Spirit by which the sinner is born again, and his whole being is radically changed so that the believer becomes a new creation in Christ Jesus. Justification is the judicial act of God by which the sinner is declared forgiven and freed from the condemnation of his sin, on the ground of the perfect righteousness of Christ, imputed by grace through faith. The life begun in regeneration is never lost, but by the grace and power of God, and the faith and cooperation of the believer is constantly brought nearer to that state of perfect holiness which we shall experience finally in heaven.

Article VII - Final Resurrection of All Men.

We believe in the final resurrection of all men, both the just and the unjust; and that those who here believe unto salvation shall be raised to everlasting life, while those who here disbelieve shall be raised to everlasting condemnation.

Article VIII - A New Testament Church Is a Body of Baptized Believers, Observing Ordinances of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

We believe that a New Testament Church is a voluntary assembly, or association of baptized believers in Christ covenanted together to follow the teachings of the New Testament in doctrine, worship, and practice. We believe there are only two Church ordinances-baptism and the Lord's Supper-and that a church, as a democratic organization, is served by only two types of officers-pastors or bishops, and deacons. We believe that saved believers are the only scriptural subjects of baptism, and that immersion, or dipping, or burial, in water, and resurrection therefrom is the only scriptural act of baptism. We believe that the Lord's Supper is the partaking by the church of bread and wine, as a memorial of the Lord's death, and our expectation of His return. The bread typifies His body; the wine typifies His blood. We deny the actual presence of His body and blood in the bread and wine.

Article IX - Lord's Day and Christian Support of Civil Government.

We believe that the Christian Sabbath, or Lord's Day, should be observed as a day of rest and Christian service in memory of the resurrection of Christ, and as a means of Christian development and usefulness. We believe in civil government as of divine appointment, in the complete separation of church and state, and in the universal right to civil and religious liberty.

Article X - Baptist Loyalty to Distinctive Baptist Doctrines.

We believe that Baptists stand for vital and distinctive truths, to many of which other denominations do not adhere, and that we cannot compromise these truths without disloyalty to the Scriptures and our Lord. We believe that we should cooperate with other denominations insofar as such cooperation does not affect these truths, but no union with them is possible, except on the basis of acceptance in full of the plain teachings of the Word of God.

REPORT OF THE BAPTIST FAITH AND MESSAGE STUDY COMMITTEE

Baptists are a people of deep beliefs and cherished doctrines. Throughout our history we have been a confessional people, adopting statements of faith as a witness to our beliefs and a pledge of our faithfulness to the doctrines revealed in Holy Scripture.

Our confessions of faith are rooted in historical precedent, as the church in every age has been called upon to define and defend its beliefs. Each generation of Christians bears the responsibility of guarding the treasury of truth that has been entrusted to us [2 Timothy 1:14]. Facing a new century, Southern Baptists must meet the demands and duties of the present hour.

New challenges to faith appear in every age. A pervasive anti-supernaturalism in the culture was answered by Southern Baptists in 1925, when the Baptist Faith and Message was first adopted by this Convention. In 1963, Southern Baptists responded to assaults upon the authority and truthfulness of the Bible by adopting revisions to the Baptist Faith and Message. The Convention added an article on "The Family" in 1998, thus answering cultural confusion with the clear teachings of Scripture. Now, faced with a culture hostile to the very notion of truth, this generation of Baptists must claim anew the eternal truths of the Christian faith.

Your committee respects and celebrates the heritage of the Baptist Faith and Message, and affirms the decision of the Convention in 1925 to adopt the New Hampshire Confession of Faith, "revised at certain points and with some additional articles growing out of certain needs . . ." We also respect the important contributions of the 1925 and 1963 editions of the Baptist Faith and Message.

With the 1963 committee, we have been guided in our work by the 1925 "statement of the historic Baptist conception of the nature and function of confessions of faith in our religious and denominational life . . ." It is, therefore, quoted in full as a part of this report to the Convention:

(1) That they constitute a consensus of opinion of some Baptist body, large or small, for the general instruction and guidance of our own people and others concerning those articles of the Christian faith which are most surely held among us. They are not intended to add anything to the simple conditions of salvation revealed in the New Testament, viz., repentance toward God and faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord.

(2) That we do not regard them as complete statements of our faith, having any quality of finality or infallibility. As in the past so in the future, Baptists should hold themselves free to revise their statements of faith as may seem to them wise and expedient at any time.

(3) That any group of Baptists, large or small, have the inherent right to draw up for themselves and publish to the world a confession of their faith whenever they may think it advisable to do so.

(4) That the sole authority for faith and practice among Baptists is the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. Confessions are only guides in interpretation, having no authority over the conscience.

(5) That they are statements of religious convictions, drawn from the Scriptures, and are not to be used to hamper freedom of thought or investigation in other realms of life.

Baptists cherish and defend religious liberty, and deny the right of any secular or religious authority to impose a confession of faith upon a church or body of churches. We honor the principles of soul competency and the priesthood of believers, affirming together both our liberty in Christ and our accountability to each other under the Word of God.

Baptist churches, associations, and general bodies have adopted confessions of faith as a witness to the world, and as instruments of doctrinal accountability. We are not embarrassed to state before the world that these are doctrines we hold precious and as essential to the Baptist tradition of faith and practice.

As a committee, we have been charged to address the "certain needs" of our own generation. In an age increasingly hostile to Christian truth, our challenge is to express the truth as revealed in Scripture, and to bear witness to Jesus Christ, who is "the Way, the Truth, and the Life."

The 1963 committee rightly sought to identify and affirm "certain definite doctrines that Baptists believe, cherish, and with which they have been and are now closely identified." Our living faith is established upon eternal truths. "Thus this generation of Southern Baptists is in historic succession of intent and purpose as it endeavors to state for its time and theological climate those articles of the Christian faith which are most surely held among us."

It is the purpose of this statement of faith and message to set forth certain teachings which we believe.

THE BAPTIST FAITH & MESSAGE 2000

I. The Scriptures

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture of error, for its matter. Therefore, all Scripture is totally true and trustworthy. It reveals the principles by which God judges us, and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. All Scripture is a testimony to Christ, who is Himself the focus of divine revelation.

Exodus 24:4; Deuteronomy 4:1-2; 17:19; Joshua 8:34; Psalms 19:7-10; 119:11,89,105,140; Isaiah 34:16; 40:8; Jeremiah 15:16; 36:1-32; Matthew 5:17-18; 22:29; Luke 21:33; 24:44-46; John 5:39; 16:13-15; 17:17; Acts 2:16ff.; 17:11; Romans 15:4; 16:25-26; 2 Timothy 3:15-17; Hebrews 1:1-2; 4:12; 1 Peter 1:25; 2 Peter 1:19-21.

II. God

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. God is all powerful and all knowing; and His perfect knowledge extends to all things, past, present, and future, including the future decisions of His free creatures. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal triune God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

A. God the Father

God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purposes of His grace. He is all powerful, all knowing, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.

Genesis 1:1; 2:7; Exodus 3:14; 6:2-3; 15:11ff.; 20:1ff.; Leviticus 22:2; Deuteronomy 6:4; 32:6; 1 Chronicles 29:10; Psalm 19:1-3; Isaiah 43:3,15; 64:8; Jeremiah 10:10; 17:13; Matthew 6:9ff.; 7:11; 23:9; 28:19; Mark 1:9-11; John 4:24; 5:26; 14:6-13; 17:1-8; Acts 1:7; Romans 8:14-15; 1 Corinthians 8:6; Galatians 4:6; Ephesians 4:6; Colossians 1:15; 1 Timothy 1:17; Hebrews 11:6; 12:9; 1 Peter 1:17; 1 John 5:7.

B. God the Son

Christ is the eternal Son of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ He was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself human nature with its demands and necessities and identifying Himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His substitutionary death on the cross He made provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, fully God, fully man, in whose Person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever present Lord.

C. God the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God, fully divine. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts men of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment. He calls men to the Saviour, and effects regeneration. At the moment of regeneration He baptizes every believer into the Body of Christ. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the guarantee that God will bring the believer into the fullness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

III. Man

Man is the special creation of God, made in His own image. He created them male and female as the crowning work of His creation. The gift of gender is thus part of the goodness of God's creation. In the beginning man was innocent of sin and was endowed by his Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race. Through the temptation of Satan man transgressed the command of God, and fell from his original innocence whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin. Therefore, as soon as they are capable of moral action, they become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore, every person of every race possesses full dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

Genesis 1:26-30; 2:5,7,18-22; 3; 9:6; Psalms 1; 8:3-6; 32:1-5; 51:5; Isaiah 6:5; Jeremiah 17:5; Matthew 16:26; Acts 17:26-31; Romans 1:19-32; 3:10-18,23; 5:6,12,19; 6:6; 7:14-25; 8:14-18,29; 1 Corinthians 1:21-31; 15:19,21-22; Ephesians 2:1-22; Colossians 1:21-22; 3:9-11.

IV. Salvation

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense salvation includes regeneration, justification, sanctification, and glorification. There is no salvation apart from personal faith in Jesus Christ as Lord.

- A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures in Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Repentance and faith are inseparable experiences of grace.

Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Saviour.

- B. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer unto a relationship of peace and favor with God.
- C. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual maturity through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerate person's life.
- D. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed.

Genesis 3:15; Exodus 3:14-17; 6:2-8; Matthew 1:21; 4:17; 16:21-26; 27:22-28:6; Luke 1:68-69; 2:28-32; John 1:11-14,29; 3:3-21,36; 5:24; 10:9,28-29; 15:1-16; 17:17; Acts 2:21; 4:12; 15:11; 16:30-31; 17:30-31; 20:32; Romans 1:16-18; 2:4; 3:23-25; 4:3ff.; 5:8-10; 6:1-23; 8:1-18,29-39; 10:9-10,13; 13:11-14; 1 Corinthians 1:18,30; 6:19-20; 15:10; 2 Corinthians 5:17-20; Galatians 2:20; 3:13; 5:22-25; 6:15; Ephesians 1:7; 2:8-22; 4:11-16; Philippians 2:12-13; Colossians 1:9-22; 3:1ff.; 1 Thessalonians 5:23-24; 2 Timothy 1:12; Titus 2:11-14; Hebrews 2:1-3; 5:8-9; 9:24-28; 11:1-12:8,14; James 2:14-26; 1 Peter 1:2-23; 1 John 1:6-2:11; Revelation 3:20; 21:1-22:5.

V. God's Purpose of Grace

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, justifies, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is the glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility.

All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall persevere to the end. Believers may fall into sin through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, and bring reproach on the cause of Christ and temporal judgments on themselves; yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

Genesis 12:1-3; Exodus 19:5-8; 1 Samuel 8:4-7,19-22; Isaiah 5:1-7; Jeremiah 31:31ff.; Matthew 16:18-19; 21:28-45; 24:22,31; 25:34; Luke 1:68-79; 2:29-32; 19:41-44; 24:44-48; John 1:12-14; 3:16; 5:24; 6:44-45,65; 10:27-29; 15:16; 17:6,12,17-18; Acts 20:32; Romans 5:9-10; 8:28-39; 10:12-15; 11:5-7,26-36; 1 Corinthians 1:1-2; 15:24-28; Ephesians 1:4-23; 2:1-10; 3:1-11; Colossians 1:12-14; 2 Thessalonians 2:13-14; 2 Timothy 1:12; 2:10,19; Hebrews 11:39-12:2; James 1:12; 1 Peter 1:2-5,13; 2:4-10; 1 John 1:7-9; 2:19; 3:2.

VI. The Church

A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is an autonomous local congregation of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel; observing the two ordinances of Christ, governed by His laws, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth. Each congregation operates under the Lordship of Christ through democratic processes. In such a congregation each member is responsible and accountable to Christ as Lord. Its scriptural officers are pastors and deacons. While both men and women are gifted for service in the church, the office of pastor is limited to men as qualified by Scripture.

The New Testament speaks also of the church as the Body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all the ages, believers from every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation.

Matthew 16:15-19; 18:15-20; Acts 2:41-42,47; 5:11-14; 6:3-6; 13:1-3; 14:23,27; 15:1-30; 16:5; 20:28; Romans 1:7; 1 Corinthians 1:2; 3:16; 5:4-5; 7:17; 9:13-14; 12; Ephesians 1:22-23; 2:19-22; 3:8-11,21; 5:22-32; Philippians 1:1; Colossians 1:18; 1 Timothy 2:9-14; 3:1-15; 4:14; Hebrews 11:39-40; 1 Peter 5:1-4; Revelation 2-3; 21:2-3.

VII. Baptism and the Lord's Supper

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and the resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the vine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

Matthew 3:13-17; 26:26-30; 28:19-20; Mark 1:9-11; 14:22-26; Luke 3:21-22; 22:19-20; John 3:23; Acts 2:41-42; 8:35-39; 16:30-33; 20:7; Romans 6:3-5; 1 Corinthians 10:16,21; 11:23-29; Colossians 2:12.

VIII. The Lord's Day

The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should include exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private. Activities on the Lord's Day should be commensurate with the Christian's conscience under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

Exodus 20:8-11; Matthew 12:1-12; 28:1ff.; Mark 2:27-28; 16:1-7; Luke 24:1-3,33-36; John 4:21-24; 20:1,19-28; Acts 20:7; Romans 14:5-10; 1 Corinthians 16:1-2; Colossians 2:16; 3:16; Revelation 1:10.

IX. The Kingdom

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

Genesis 1:1; Isaiah 9:6-7; Jeremiah 23:5-6; Matthew 3:2; 4:8-10,23; 12:25-28; 13:1-52; 25:31-46; 26:29; Mark 1:14-15; 9:1; Luke 4:43; 8:1; 9:2; 12:31-32; 17:20-21; 23:42; John 3:3; 18:36; Acts 1:6-7; 17:22-31; Romans 5:17; 8:19; 1 Corinthians 15:24-28; Colossians 1:13; Hebrews 11:10,16; 12:28; 1 Peter 2:4-10; 4:13; Revelation 1:6,9; 5:10; 11:15; 21-22.

X. Last Things

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world to its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

Isaiah 2:4; 11:9; Matthew 16:27; 18:8-9; 19:28; 24:27,30,36,44; 25:31-46; 26:64; Mark 8:38; 9:43-48; Luke 12:40,48; 16:19-26; 17:22-37; 21:27-28; John 14:1-3; Acts 1:11; 17:31; Romans 14:10; 1 Corinthians 4:5; 15:24-28,35-58; 2 Corinthians 5:10; Philippians 3:20-21; Colossians 1:5; 3:4; 1 Thessalonians 4:14-18; 5:1ff.; 2 Thessalonians 1:7ff.; 2; 1 Timothy 6:14; 2 Timothy 4:1,8; Titus 2:13; Hebrews 9:27-28; James 5:8; 2 Peter 3:7ff.; 1 John 2:28; 3:2; Jude 14; Revelation 1:18; 3:11; 20:1-22:13.

XI. Evangelism and Missions

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. The Lord Jesus Christ has commanded the preaching of the gospel to all nations. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by verbal witness undergirded by a Christian lifestyle, and by other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

Genesis 12:1-3; Exodus 19:5-6; Isaiah 6:1-8; Matthew 9:37-38; 10:5-15; 13:18-30, 37-43; 16:19; 22:9-10; 24:14; 28:18-20; Luke 10:1-18; 24:46-53; John 14:11-12; 15:7-8,16; 17:15; 20:21; Acts 1:8; 2; 8:26-40; 10:42-48; 13:2-3; Romans 10:13-15; Ephesians 3:1-11; 1 Thessalonians 1:8; 2 Timothy 4:5; Hebrews 2:1-3; 11:39-12:2; 1 Peter 2:4-10; Revelation 22:17.

XII. Education

Christianity is the faith of enlightenment and intelligence. In Jesus Christ abide all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. All sound learning is, therefore, a part of our Christian heritage. The new birth opens all human faculties and creates a thirst for knowledge. Moreover, the cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is coordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian education is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.

In Christian education there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the preeminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scriptures, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists.

Deuteronomy 4:1,5,9,14; 6:1-10; 31:12-13; Nehemiah 8:1-8; Job 28:28; Psalms 19:7ff.; 119:11; Proverbs 3:13ff.; 4:1-10; 8:1-7,11; 15:14; Ecclesiastes 7:19; Matthew 5:2; 7:24ff.; 28:19-20; Luke 2:40; 1 Corinthians 1:18-31; Ephesians 4:11-16; Philippians 4:8; Colossians 2:3,8-9; 1 Timothy 1:3-7; 2 Timothy 2:15; 3:14-17; Hebrews 5:12-6:3; James 1:5; 3:17.

XIII. Stewardship

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

Genesis 14:20; Leviticus 27:30-32; Deuteronomy 8:18; Malachi 3:8-12; Matthew 6:1-4,19-21; 19:21; 23:23; 25:14-29; Luke 12:16-21,42; 16:1-13; Acts 2:44-47; 5:1-11; 17:24-25; 20:35; Romans 6:6-22; 12:1-2; 1 Corinthians 4:1-2; 6:19-20; 12; 16:1-4; 2 Corinthians 8-9; 12:15; Philippians 4:10-19; 1 Peter 1:18-19.

XIV. Cooperation

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or compromise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

Exodus 17:12; 18:17ff.; Judges 7:21; Ezra 1:3-4; 2:68-69; 5:14-15; Nehemiah 4; 8:1-5; Matthew 10:5-15; 20:1-16; 22:1-10; 28:19-20; Mark 2:3; Luke 10:1ff.; Acts 1:13-14; 2:1ff.; 4:31-37; 13:2-3; 15:1-35; 1 Corinthians 1:10-17; 3:5-15; 12; 2 Corinthians 8-9; Galatians 1:6-10; Ephesians 4:1-16; Philippians 1:15-18.

XV. The Christian and the Social Order

All Christians are under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in our own lives and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Jesus Christ. In the spirit of Christ, Christians should oppose racism, every form of greed, selfishness, and vice, and all forms of sexual immorality, including adultery, homosexuality, and pornography. We should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the abused, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. We should speak on behalf of the unborn and contend for the sanctity of all human life from conception to natural death. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

Exodus 20:3-17; Leviticus 6:2-5; Deuteronomy 10:12; 27:17; Psalm 101:5; Micah 6:8; Zechariah 8:16; Matthew 5:13-16, 43-48; 22:36-40; 25:35; Mark 1:29-34; 2:3ff.; 10:21; Luke 4:18-21; 10:27-37; 20:25; John 15:12; 17:15; Romans 12-14; 1 Corinthians 5:9-10; 6:1-7; 7:20-24; 10:23-11:1; Galatians 3:26-28; Ephesians 6:5-9; Colossians 3:12-17; 1 Thessalonians 3:12; Philemon; James 1:27; 2:8.

XVI. Peace and War

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ they should do all in their power to put an end to war.

The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love. Christian people throughout the world should pray for the reign of the Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 2:4; Matthew 5:9,38-48; 6:33; 26:52; Luke 22:36,38; Romans 12:18-19; 13:1-7; 14:19; Hebrews 12:14; James 4:1-2.

XVII. Religious Liberty

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and He has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

Genesis 1:27; 2:7; Matthew 6:6-7,24; 16:26; 22:21; John 8:36; Acts 4:19-20; Romans 6:1-2; 13:1-7; Galatians 5:1,13; Philippians 3:20; 1 Timothy 2:1-2; James 4:12; 1 Peter 2:12-17; 3:11-17; 4:12-19.

XVIII. The Family

God has ordained the family as the foundational institution of human society. It is composed of persons related to one another by marriage, blood, or adoption.

Marriage is the uniting of one man and one woman in covenant commitment for a lifetime. It is God's unique gift to reveal the union between Christ and His church and to provide for the man and the woman in marriage the framework for intimate companionship, the channel of sexual expression according to biblical standards, and the means for procreation of the human race.

The husband and wife are of equal worth before God, since both are created in God's image. The marriage relationship models the way God relates to His people. A husband is to love his wife as Christ loved the church. He has the God-given responsibility to provide for, to protect, and to lead his family. A wife is to submit herself graciously to the servant leadership of her husband even as the church willingly submits to the headship of Christ. She, being in the image of God as is her husband and thus equal to him, has the God-given responsibility to respect her husband and to serve as his helper in managing the household and nurturing the next generation.

Children, from the moment of conception, are a blessing and heritage from the Lord. Parents are to demonstrate to their children God's pattern for marriage. Parents are to teach their children spiritual and moral values and to lead them, through consistent lifestyle example and loving discipline, to make choices based on biblical truth. Children are to honor and obey their parents.

COOPERATIVE PROGRAM EMPHASIS AT NOBTS

The Cooperative Program is a crucial financial lifeline that makes possible the ministry of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. The Cooperative Program is a plan that channels the giving of dedicated Christians in Southern Baptist churches to provide for the ministries of the Southern Baptist Convention. Each year approximately $500 million is given through the 40,000 SBC churches to the Cooperative Program. Of that money, about $300 million is channeled through state Baptist conventions to provide support for state and associational Baptist work, Christian colleges, orphanages, hospitals, crisis intervention centers, Christian camps, collegiate ministries, and mission churches.

The remaining amount of approximately $200 million is distributed through the SBC Cooperative Program budget to the national and international ministries of the SBC. Of this amount, the International Mission Board receives 50 percent, and the North American Mission Board receives approximately 23 percent. Approximately 21 percent of the Cooperative Program budget goes to support the six SBC seminaries. New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary receives approximately 4 percent of the Cooperative Program budget. The remaining monies (about 5 percent) are distributed to the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission, the Annuity Board, the SBC Historical Library and Archives, the SBC Foundation, and the SBC Executive Committee.

The Cooperative Program provides almost $8 million annually, or the equivalent of the income from an endowment of over $130 million, to New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary each year. This Cooperative Program funding provides almost half of the annual budget of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. In essence, the Cooperative Program provides each full-time Southern Baptist student a scholarship of about $4,200 a year.

The Cooperative Program was designed in 1925 as an alternative to the “society method,” in which each society or ministry sends a representative to local churches for a special offering. Unfortunately, in the “society method” the largest offerings go to the ministries with the most effective speakers, not necessarily to the greatest priorities and needs. Also, in the “society method” missionaries must leave their field of ministry to raise money from the churches, rather than having a steady and secure income provided through the Cooperative Program.

The Cooperative Program has proven to be the most effective means of reaching the world for Christ. Each year over 800,000 persons come to faith in Christ through the ministries of the Southern Baptist Convention.

COOPERATIVE PROGRAM COURSE

All incoming graduate students must take the Cooperative Program course* during orientation in their first semester. Students will receive one credit hour, but will not be charged for the course.

COOP5100 NOBTS, SBC, and Cooperative Program 1 hour

This course is a core curriculum course offered during graduate student orientation. The course will acquaint students with a brief history of NOBTS, the SBC, and the Cooperative Program, as well as their current leadership and operation. Students will also gain in this course an understanding of the significance and relationship of the Cooperative Program to the SBC and NOBTS.

The Southern Baptist Convention is confronting one of the biggest crises in our history – a silent crisis that many people don't realize is happening. It is a crisis of reaching people for Christ. The Southern Baptist Convention had an amazing spiral of additions by baptism in the first half of the nineteenth century. Our increase in baptisms was capped by a dramatic vision of Southern Baptists in the 1950s called "A Million More in '54." Baptisms in SBC churches exploded from about 100,000 in 1900 to over 400,000 after 1954. Between 1900 and 1960, while SBC church membership increased nearly four times the rate of American population.

Sadly, the number of baptisms in Southern Baptist Churches have not increased significantly in the half century since A Million More in '54. Shockingly, there were fewer baptisms in 2004 than in 1954. In the last fifty years, our churches have increased significantly in every key area except baptisms. We have added 13,000 more new churches, doubled church membership, and increased giving by $8.7 billion a year, but we are witnessing 40,000 fewer baptisms each year. The population of the United States has grown by over 100 million since 1960, but baptisms in Southern Baptist churches has not budged. In 1900 a person was baptized for every 21 church members; in 2004 that had doubled to a baptism for every 42 church members. What's worse, over half of the adult baptisms in SBC churches are actually rebaptisms rather than first time baptisms. Over 70 percent of our churches are plateaued or declining.

Addressing this crisis in Southern Baptist life is what New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is all about. Ecclesiastes 10:10 teaches that it takes much more effort to swing a dull axe, but wisdom (a sharp axe) brings success. We believe that seminary training equips ministers with sharper axes. Our faculty not only have world-class academic preparation, but they also average over 10 years of ministry experience in Southern Baptist Churches. They've been there and they know what they're talking about. We have designed our curriculum to equip each student in the key competencies essential for effective ministry. We welcome you to New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary not just to get an academic degree, but to get equipped to help change the world!

Provost

NEW ORLEANS CAMPUS

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary's 85-acre campus has over 70 buildings, most in French Colonial architectural style. The Gentilly location, purchased in 1947 after the original Garden District campus became too small for the seminary family, originally was a pecan orchard.

Roland Q Leavell Chapel

Roland Q. Leavell Chapel is the central building on the campus, stressing the worship of God as primary in the life of the seminary. The spire, 170 feet tall, is a modification of the steeple adorning the First Baptist Church of Providence, Rhode Island. Originally constructed in 1959, the chapel was completely renovated in 1990.

Roland Q. Leavell Chapel

M.E. Dodd Building

The M.E. Dodd Building is a two-story building facing Gentilly Boulevard. It contains faculty offices and a conference room, the Cecil B. Day Center for Church Planting, the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies, and the Research Doctoral Programs Office.

J.M. Frost Building

The Frost Building houses the offices of the President, the Provost, the Vice President for Development, and the Dean of Graduate Studies, Church Minister Relations, the Alumni Office, as well as the office of Institutional Effectiveness. John H. Martin Chapel, located in Frost, is used for student prayer meetings and student-led chapel services.

John Bunyan Classroom Building

Across the courtyard from the Dodd Building is the John Bunyan Classroom Building, housing most of the graduate classrooms. It includes a preaching chapel and also a pastoral ministry chapel equipped with a baptistry and a Lord's Supper table.

William Carey College Building

Built in cooperation with William Carey College, this facility houses the WCC School of Nursing and the Seminary's Providence Learning Center, MissionLab and the city's only 24-hour FM Christian radio station, LifeSongs 89.1.

John T. Christian Library

John T. Christian Library

The library was constructed in 1951 and expanded in 1975. The library is named in honor John T. Christian, a Church History professor from 1918 to 1925. Dr. Christian's bequest of 18,000 volumes from his personal library, many purchased while on trips around the world, formed the nucleus of the seminary's early library.

One of the largest theological libraries in the Southeast, the present collection of 290,000 items includes 220,000 bound volumes and over 1,100 active journal subscriptions as well as annuals and minutes, microfilm, vertical file materials, manuscripts, and a rare book collection.

The Martin Music Library is a specialized collection of sacred music materials on the second floor of the main library. It includes more than 17,000 books, reference works, and periodicals; 12,000 scores; 4,000 hymnals and psalters; 4,000 recordings and several thousand anthems and larger classical works.

E. O. Sellers Building

This building contains four classrooms, nine individual teaching studios for the faculty, a choral classroom and recital hall, sixteen piano practice rooms, a conference room, a choral library, a Music Education Resource Center, offices for the Division of Church Music Ministries, two conducting labs, one piano lab, and a computer technology lab.

E.O. Sellers Building

Nelson L. Price Center for Urban Ministries

In response to the growth of MissionLab New Orleans, a new 32-room dormitory and conference facility was opened in May 2002. Built and operated by the Providence Educational Foundation, the Nelson Price Center for Urban Ministries provides guest housing and conference space for MissionLab groups and a variety of events hosted by the Providence Learning Center.

President's Home

The President's Home, built in 1952, is dedicated to Corra Berry Leavell, mother of Roland Q. Leavell, the seminary's fourth president.

The President's Home

Hardin Student Center

The first floor of the student center contains the offices of the Dean of Students and the Registrar, Academic Counseling, Student Counseling and Testing, Housing Office, Business Office, and Public Relations; as well as the LifeWay Christian Store, Cafe New Orleans, the Campus Clinic, and the Post Office.

On the second floor are offices for the Baptist College Partnership Program, Leavell College and the Leavell College faculty, the Center for New Testament Textual Studies, New Testament faculty, Psychology and Counseling faculty, Youth Ministry Institute and the Communication Center (the seminary's television production studio).

The Information Technology Center is also on the second floor. ITC provides a computer lab for individual and class use.

Hardin Student Center

Leavell Legacy Room

The Leavell Legacy Room, located in the Hardin Student Center, is a tribute to the legacy left by George and Corra Leavell and their descendents, who have had a significant impact on the seminary and on the Southern Baptist Convention. The museum contains family memorabilia, particularly of Roland Q. Leavell and Landrum P. Leavell II, who served as the seminary's fourth and seventh presidents, respectively.

Recreation Facilities

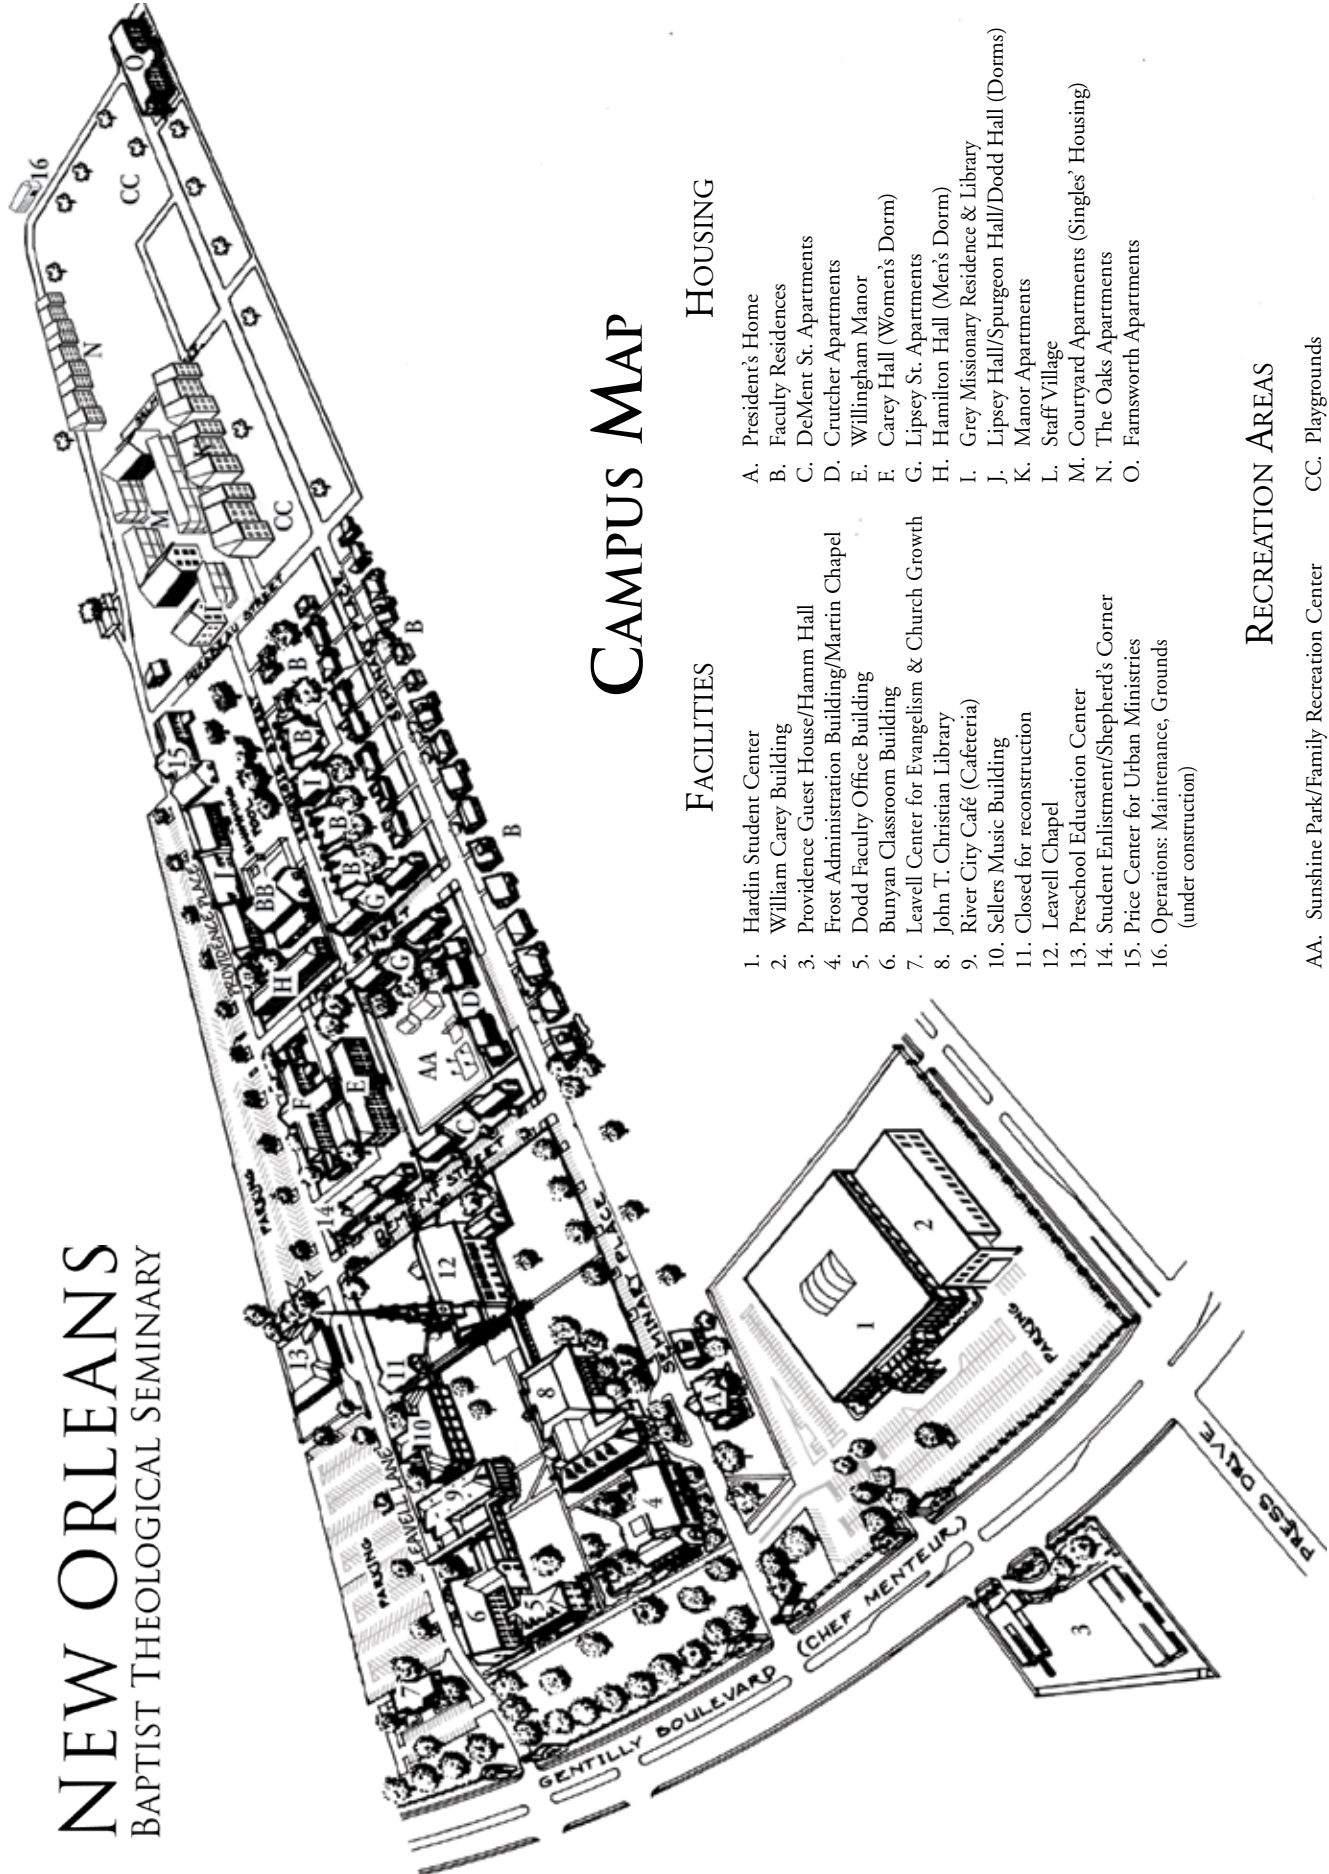

The newly-renovated recreation facilities on campus include four lighted tennis courts, a junior Olympic-size swimming pool, and a gymnasium equipped with a basketball and volleyball court, weight room, and a recreation area for TV, table tennis, pool, and other table games.

The Seminary's newest recreation area, Sunshine Park, is located behind the DeMent Street Apartments between Willingham Manor and the Crutcher Apartments. The Park includes children's play equipment, a walking track, exercise stations, basketball goals, a soccer field, a sand volleyball court, covered pavilions and barbeque grills.

William Hamm, Jr. Hall

Located across from the Hardin Student Center, the new William Hamm Hall provides furnished rooms for student and guest housing, as well as housing for conferences, retreats, and mission trips.

Greeting from the Associate Dean

Since 1982 New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary has been providing theological education at the master's degree level through extension centers. While seminary education is prerequisite to ordination for many denominations, Southern Baptist churches do not require it. Consequently, more than half of the pastors of Southern Baptist churches are not seminary trained. Many of these pastors are married with families and they cannot uproot their families to move to the campus in New Orleans. The traditional approach to theological education alone is no longer sufficient for an institution of our type. The faculty, administration, and trustees feel it is our mission to provide as much help for these untrained pastors and other ministers as we possibly can, as near as possible to the scene of their church ministries.

We welcome you to take a look in this catalog at theological education that is truly accessible. Eleven graduate centers are maintained by NOBTS throughout the southeastern United States. You can contact the local centers through the information provided in this section or on the web at www.nobts.edu/Extension_Centers. From there you can go to any of the local extension center pages and find the information you need. Below a map highlights the NOBTS extension centers throughout the southeast.

Our extension center system staff and I will be happy to help you get the information you need to get started with your theological education close to home. We look forward to assisting you.

Blessings,
Dr. Jimmy Dukes
Associate Provost

Making Theological Education Accessible to All

Since 1982 New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary has been providing theological education at the master's degree level through extension centers. While seminary education is prerequisite to ordination for many denominations, Southern Baptist churches do not require it. Consequently, more than half of the pastors of Southern Baptist churches are not seminary trained. The traditional approach to theological education alone is no longer sufficient for an institution of our type. The faculty, administration, and trustees feel it is our mission to provide as much help for these untrained pastors and other ministers as we possibly can, as near as possible to the scene of their church ministries.

The Extension Center System maintains eleven graduate centers throughout the southeastern United States. The Extension Center Office is located on the Seminary's main Campus in New Orleans. Dr. Jimmy Dukes serves as Dean of the Extension Center System.

Locations

NOBTS provides graduate courses toward the basic Master of Divinity degree at these off-campus class sites:

- Central Louisiana Center in Pineville, Louisiana
- North Louisiana Center in Shreveport, Louisiana
- Clinton Center in Clinton, Mississippi
- Birmingham Center in Birmingham, Alabama
- North Georgia Campus in Decatur, Georgia
- South Georgia Center in Albany, Georgia
- Pensacola Center in Pensacola, Florida
- Graceville Center in Graceville, Florida
- Jacksonville Center in Jacksonville, Florida
- Orlando Center in Orlando, Florida

The Master of Divinity degree is offered in all the extension center sites. The Master of Arts in Christian Education program is offered at some extension center sites as noted below.

New Orleans Campus Requirements

All graduate extension center students must fulfill a residency requirement of 30 semester hours on the campus in New Orleans. The Seminary offers special summer terms each year. These special terms offer the extension center students the opportunity to experience campus life and to get to know the on-campus faculty, staff, and administration. Students also may fulfill residency requirements by taking classes in the special one-week academic workshops available on the New Orleans campus.

Teaching Faculty

The teaching at the graduate extension centers is done by commuting professors from the main campus, by on-campus professors using interactive television to teach students at the extension centers and the campus in New Orleans, and by adjunct professors who live near the site of each center. A careful balance is maintained among the three. Most adjunct teachers have terminal degrees in the disciplines in which they teach. Some advanced Doctor of Philosophy students who hold the Master of Theology teach coursed under the supervision of faculty members in the divisions related to their disciplines.

Compressed Interactive Video (CIV)

Several extension center classes are taught simultaneously through compressed interactive video (CIV) in various sites, including New Orleans; North Georgia; South Georgia; Pensacola; Graceville; Jacksonville; Orlando and Miami. This real-time video and audio makes it possible for teachers to interact with students in all of these connected centers.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for the extension centers are the same as the requirements for all the graduate programs of the Seminary. Please see the section on admission requirements in this catalog for details.

Application Process

Applications for new students must be submitted to the Registry Office not later than thirty days before the beginning of classes.

Orientation

All students enrolling in the graduate extension centers are required to attend a period of orientation to the Seminary and the extension center program. These periods of orientation for new students are usually held near the beginning of the semester and are conducted in the centers. Check the Seminary website at www.nobts.edu or contact the local directors or the Extension Center Office for specific dates and times for the orientation meetings.

Registration

New students in the extension centers are required to register for classes on the announced date of registration. Admission to classes is not permitted after the beginning of the second week of the class.

Registration for returning students must be done on the Internet. Returning students should check the Seminary website at www.nobts.edu for information on Internet registration. Questions also may be directed to the Registrar's Office on campus or the Extension Center Office.

Late registration for any reason results in a late registration fee of $100.00. Students are responsible for receiving information concerning registration dates and details. This information may be received from the Seminary website, from the center directors, from the Registry Office, or from the Extension Center Office. Registration for classes is not permitted after the beginning of the second week of the class. When the student registers after the beginning of the class, he or she is responsible for all classes missed.

Four-Year Cycle of Courses

The following courses are offered in the graduate extension centers on a four-year cycle. Students entering the extension centers at any point and taking all of the courses offered in the cycle can finish the Master of Divinity program in four years, including thirty hours of short-term Academic Workshop Courses (AWS) on the campus in New Orleans. Master of Divinity specializations are not offered in the extension centers. Master of Arts in Christian Education courses are only offered at some of the graduate centers. Library Services for Extension Center Students

Access to library materials is an important part of the seminary experience. Each center has a library at the site where classes are held. At three of our centers, Graceville, Clinton, and Central Louisiana, students have access to the college libraries on whose campuses classes are held. At the other centers, libraries are available where classes meet. Each of these centers has a library of basic books and periodicals that may be checked out for student use. Usually, instructors request from the main library in New Orleans a number of books to place on reserve during the semester a course is taught. These reserve books may be used by the students according to the instructions of the professors.

Computers at each center are available so that students will be able to access the NOBTS Library Computer System. Through this system students are able to search for materials by author, title, and subject. Books may be requested over the system and sent to the student by mail from the main library in New Orleans. Students who have access to the Internet also can access the on-campus library system from their homes.

The library has also subscribed to several powerful bibliographic search engines so that many scholarly journals are available online to extension center students. The John T. Christian Library has secured library agreements with several institutions near our extension centers so that students may access those libraries as well. Information on these agreements may be secured at the library on campus or at the Extension Center Office.

The Seminary employs an Extension Center Librarian who is located at the North Georgia Campus in Marietta, Georgia. The librarian may be reached through the Extension Center Office at (770) 321-1606.

THE SEVEN BASIC COMPETENCIES GUIDING THE NOBTS CURRICULUM

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following seven areas:

Biblical Exposition

To interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.

Christian Theological Heritage

BAPTIST COLLEGE PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

Directed by Dr. Archie England

The Baptist College Partnership Program can help students who major or minor in religion at a Christian college or university to save money and time in graduate study at NOBTS. Through the Baptist College Partnership Program, students who qualify may earn up to 32 hours of credit toward a master's program in areas studied at the undergraduate level. Also, two additional options exist for qualifying students to earn master's level credit before completing undergraduate study. Those options are credit earned through independent studies (4 hours possible) and through early seminary courses (8 hours possible). The program can help students in three ways:

Special Seminars for BCPP Participants

Students may earn up to 20 hours by beginning seminary classes during their junior and senior year of undergraduate work. A junior who has maintained a "B" cumulative average can complete up to 8 hours of graduate course work during the summer workshops held at NOBTS. Also, seniors may earn up to 12 hours of credit (up to 3 of the 4 seminars) by means of the one-week Baptist College Partnership Program seminars offered in January, May, June, and August of each year.

The four areas of seminars include the following:

BCOT5400: BCPP Old Testament Seminar

The purpose of this seminar is to provide supplemental knowledge in the areas covered in the course OTEN 5300, Exploring the Old Testament (plus one elective hour in biblical studies is gained). Besides reviewing the content of the Exploring the OT course through textbook readings prior to the start of the seminar, the seminar also will provide students with the opportunity to research and discuss specific topics related to the Old Testament. The prerequisites to taking this seminar are the completion with a "B" or better of at least two college courses in the area of Old Testament and the approval of the Director of the Baptist College Partnership Program. (4 hours: 3 = Exploring the OT, 1 = Biblical Studies Elective)

BCNT5400: BCPP New Testament Seminar

The purpose of this seminar is to augment the student's knowledge of the areas covered in the course NTEN 5300, Exploring the New Testament (plus one elective hour in Biblical Studies is gained). Besides reviewing the content of the Exploring the NT course through textbook readings prior to the start of the seminar, the seminar also will provide students with the opportunity to research and discuss specific topics related to the New Testament. The prerequisites to taking this seminar are the completion with a "B" or better of at least two college courses in the area of New Testament and the approval of the Director of the Baptist College Partnership Program. (4 hours: 3 = Exploring the NT, 1 = Biblical Studies Elective)

BCHI5400: BCPP Church History Seminar

The purpose of this seminar is to augment the student's knowledge of areas addressed in the courses HIST5200 and HIST5201 (History of Christianity: Early and Medieval and History of Christianity: Reformation and Modern). The seminar provides students an opportunity to review the content of these courses through textbook readings and to research and discuss further topics related to the history of Christianity. The prerequisites to taking this seminar are the completion with a "B" or better of at least two college courses in the area of the history of Christianity and the approval of the Director of the Baptist College Partnership Program. (4 hours)

BCCE5400/BCPY5400:

BCPP Christian Education Seminar/Psychology Seminar

This seminar addresses the areas covered by courses on lifespan and/or human development and the special needs of various age groups in Christian education programs. The seminar provides students an opportunity to review the content of these courses through textbook readings and to research and discuss further topics related to developmental studies in Christian education. The prerequisites to taking this seminar are the completion with a "B" or better of at least two college courses in the area of Christian education, including one on human development or lifespan development, and the approval of the Director of the Baptist College Partnership Program. (4 hours)

Earning Credits by Testing

Students may earn up to 16 hours of credit in specific introductory courses by successfully completing a one-hour test on the subject matter. The tests are administered on a pass/fail basis and are coordinated through the BCPP office (H256). Each test costs $35 per credit hour. A study guide which details the material the test will cover is available through the BCPP director's office.

Courses for which one might be eligible to earn credit through testing include:

- Introduction to Biblical Hermeneutics (3)
- Encountering the Biblical World (3)
- Baptist Heritage (3)
- Introduction to Christian Ethics (3)
- Introduction to Missions (3)
- Introduction to Pastoral Counseling (3)
- Church Evangelism (3)
- Basic Church and Education Administration (3)
- Historical Foundations of Christian Education (2)
- Introductory Greek (3)
- Intermediate Greek (3)
- Introductory Hebrew (3)
- Intermediate Hebrew (3)

Credit in language courses is based upon the student passing a higher-level NOBTS language course, such as an exegesis course or an intermediate grammar course.

Specialized Independent Studies

Students may earn 4 hours of credit through an independent study on an area of particular interest and previous research. Those students who have done substantial work on specific subjects at the undergraduate level can further that research through a directed study instead of repeating a course covering the basic information on the subject. At the time of evaluation of a student's transcript (when you enroll at NOBTS), the student that might warrant this consideration will be notified so that plans can be made to pursue a directed study on the subject. The student would thus be able to engage in advanced research on the subject area instead of taking the normal course offerings in the area.

M. Div. Church Planting, International Track

This degree plan is offered by the Seminary in cooperation with the International Mission Board (IMB) of the Southern Baptist Convention. The degree is specifically designed for those who are preparing for long term service with the IMB as career missionaries as well as those who feel called to serve short term for two years as an international church planter through the International Service Corps (ISC) of the IMB. The first 61 semester hours of the degree are completed on the New Orleans campus or one of the graduate extension centers. The remaining thirty hours are completed on the international mission field after a candidate has been appointed by the IMB.

Entrance Requirements

1. The entrance requirements are the same as those established for enrollment in the basic Master of Divinity degree for New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.
2. The application process with the IMB usually begins at least a year before possible appointment. Normally a student will begin seminary studies before applying for service with the IMB. The student should understand that enrollment in the degree plan at NOBTS and the applicant's acceptance for service by the IMB are separate issues. In other words, enrollment in the degree plan does not guarantee acceptance by the IMB for ISC, Apprentice, or Career service. Individuals or couples with divorce in their background are not eligible for this program according to IMB guidelines. However, such persons may be candidates to be appointed through the ISC of the IMB separate from this degree plan.

Choices for Completing the Degree Plan

There are two ways a person can serve with the IMB while completing this degree. Course work will be coordinated with the professor working with students in this degree plan.

1. The two year track would be through appointment for a two-year term of service with the International Service Corps of the IMB. The course work of 30 hours would be completed on the field usually during the fall and spring semester schedule for NOBTS during four semesters over the two year period. Course work would be approximately 7-8 hours each semester.
2. The three-year track would be through appointment as a Missionary Apprentice. The course work would include 5 semester hours of language study during the first year on the field. The remaining 25 hours would be completed on the field normally during the fall and spring semesters in the second and third year. This would usually involve 6-7 hours of course work each semester.

Additional Information

Those interested in the degree plan may contact the Registrar's Office of NOBTS or the office of Dr. Philip Pinckard. Phone: (504) 282-4455, Extension 3224. Email address: ppinckard@nobts.edu.

Entrance Requirements

1. The entrance requirements are the same as those established for enrollment in the basic Master of Divinity degree at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.
2. After the first year of studies, the students will complete an assessment to determine student's potential suitability for church planting. At this time the student will either be redirected to another field of study or continue in the program.
3. Students interested in this specialization should contact the Director of the Cecil B. Day Center for Church Planting to assess their suitability for SBC church planting appointment.

Educational Methods

The students will be exposed to a variety of methods of learning: classroom, field, and independent study. The distinctive pedagogy of this program will be a significant component of supervised ministry. For the North American track of 92-97 hours, students will take 70-75 hours on campus and up to 22 hours on the field as the church planting component. For the North American track, off-campus work will consist of a church planting practicum, independent study courses and a research/reflection project.

Uniqueness

The characteristics of this degree will be beneficial to the student, the new church plant and the seminary, including the following:

1. In the North American track partnerships will be developed with the Southern Baptist Convention's North American Mission Board. Many of the programs necessary to complete the degree are already in existence at NAMB.
2. It will provide students with the opportunity of completing about one-third of the requirements on the field of ministry.
3. The degree will have multiple educational components to better equip the students for the task facing them upon graduation. The students could participate in some combination of Nehemiah Church Planting short-term internships and serve as a two-year Nehemiah Church Planter. The model would allow for both clusters of students in a given region and/or allow students to serve under the mentorship of a church planter who has recently planted a church.
4. The degree is competency-based. The degree is designed with the end result in mind. With the components of assessment, course design and supervised field work, the students are better positioned to develop the skills necessary to plant a new church.

Components

The degree will consist of multiple components designed to equip the student for church planting:

Assessment

There will be a two-phase assessment in the North American track:

1. Initial Interview and Assessment, to be completed after the first year of study. The purpose is to determine the student's interest, gift-mix, abilities, temperament, and past experience which might affect their effectiveness as a church planter. Areas of strength are noted and areas needing strengthening will be identified to the student.
2. Second Interview and Reassessment, to be completed at the end of the student's second year of study and after an internship has been completed. The purpose is to reassess the potential church planting compatibility and success in light of additional academic studies and observations of their field experience
3. Assessment will be channeled through the NAMB initial screening process to insure that candidates have the potential for career appointment.

Internship North American Track

The purpose of this component is to give students a short-term (10-13 weeks) experience as a key participant in a new or recent church plant. This experience will allow the student to evaluate his personal interests, skills and possible calling into church planting.

Apprenticeship/Mentoring

The purpose of this component is to give students an in-depth, hands-on experience in a new or recent church plant. The student will serve in some type of leadership capacity. A qualified person, such as sponsoring church pastor, minister of missions, church plant pastor, director of missions would serve as the field supervisor. After input from the field personnel, the student may be afforded the opportunity to plant a new church under the mentorship of a qualified person. The mentor will guide the student in all of the pre-public phases of the church start.

Master of Arts (Biblical Studies)

Admission Requirements and Process

Admission to the Master of Arts (Biblical Studies) requires the following:

1. Applicants must fulfill all the normal admission requirements for NOBTS, including the admission form, transcript, church endorsement, statement of call, medical clearance, TOEFL for international students, etc.
2. Applicants must have earned a baccalaureate degree, normally with at least a 3.0 grade point average (GPA) on a 4.0 scale, from an institution accredited by a regional accreditation agency recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation or holding membership in the Association of Universities and Colleges in Canada, or the educational equivalent.
3. Applicants must have completed a total of at least 24 transcript credit hours with a grade of "B" or above in biblical studies, theology, historical studies, philosophy, and ethics.
4. Applicants must submit a research paper on a topic in some area of theological studies for consideration by the Division of Biblical Studies. In some cases the division may require a personal interview with the applicant.
5. The Division of Biblical Studies, in consultation with the Registrar, will evaluate the transcript of the applicant. Students should evidence the interests, aptitudes, and personal qualities necessary for the particular application of this degree. Students with weak undergraduate preparation in a discipline may be required to take introductory courses or, in some cases, remedial work to insure minimum competency in that discipline. Students with strong undergraduate preparation in a discipline may be eligible for advanced standing, and may therefore take advanced electives in that discipline rather than the introductory courses in that discipline. After the transcript evaluation and the approval of the Division of Biblical Studies, a faculty will be assigned who will assist in the design of a plan of study tailored to meet the needs of the student.

Prerequisite Studies

Prerequisite to entry into Intermediate Greek and Hebrew courses are elementary Greek and Hebrew and Biblical Hermeneutics at the collegiate level, and thus would be able to go directly into advanced Greek and Hebrew exegesis courses. The students would thus have the 10 hours each in Greek and Hebrew required for admittance into the Ph.D. majors in Biblical Studies. Applicants who cannot earn credit in elementary and intermediate Greek and Hebrew through the Baptist College Partnership Program must earn these credits prior to entry into the M.A. (Biblical Studies) program.

Academic Requirements

The 53-54 hour course requirement of the Master of Arts (Biblical Studies) degree (as delineated below) is intended to introduce students to a broad range of theological disciplines necessary for further studies in biblical studies. A thesis is required. Students in the M.A.(Biblical Studies) must maintain at least a B average in the program. Those who do not maintain a 3.0 GPA will go on probation status after the first semester, and will be dismissed after the second consecutive semester below a 3.0 average.

Thesis Guidelines

An acceptable research thesis of 75-100 pages in Turabian style must be done in the student's area of concentration.

1. Upon the student's completion of 30 semester hours of the degree program, the division chairperson will appoint a Thesis Advisor who will assist the student in development of a Thesis Proposal.
2. The student shall present the Thesis Proposal for approval to the Thesis Advisor no later than one semester after the completion of all course work in the degree program.
3. The Thesis Advisor will approve the Thesis Proposal in consultation with the Division of Biblical Studies and provide guidance to the student during the writing of the thesis.
4. The thesis shall be submitted not later than March 1 for May graduation or October 1 for December graduation. Corrections shall be completed no later than May 1 and December 1 respectively.
5. An additional reader will be appointed to assist the Thesis Advisor in evaluating the thesis.

Ph.D. Eligibility

Students who complete all the degree requirements of the M.A. (Biblical Studies) are eligible to apply to the Ph.D. at NOBTS in the majors of Old Testament or New Testament. Students who choose to major in other disciplines may be required to take other prerequisite courses as required in those majors.

Departmental Entrance Interview

The final step in the application process is the departmental interview. A satisfactory interview with the Admissions Committee from the Department of Psychology and Counseling is required for admission. Once a completed application has been received by the seminary and forwarded to the Psychology Department, an interview will be scheduled with one of the department faculty members. This interview may be waived at the discretion of the committee for students who have been enrolled in other NOBTS graduate counseling curriculums for at least one year.

Application Process

1. Request an application for admission from the Registrar's Office and return completed form and all requested references to that office.
2. Request that all transcripts of college, university, and seminary work be forwarded to the Registrar's Office, if those have not been filed there previously.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the Master of Arts in Missiology requires the following.

1. Applicants must fulfill all the normal admission requirements for NOBTS, including the admission form, transcript, church endorsement, statement of call, medical clearance, TOEFL for international students, etc.
2. Applicants must have earned a baccalaureate degree, normally with at least a 3.0 grade point average (GPA) on a 4.0 scale, from an institution accredited by a regional accreditation agency recognized by the Council of Higher Education Accreditation or holding membership in the Association of Universities and Colleges in Canada, or the education equivalent.
3. Applicants may apply for acceptance to pursue the Master of Arts in Missiology upon approval for admission to the seminary. The application forms will be available through the Registrar's office.
4. Applicants must submit a research paper on a topic in an area of missiological studies for consideration by the missions admissions committee and/or the Pastoral Ministries Division.
5. In some cases the missions admissions committee and/or the Pastoral Ministries Division may require a personal interview with the applicant.
6. Applicants must submit to the seminary a sense of call to ministry that includes cross-cultural sharing of the gospel in some type of missions setting in a three- to five-page typed essay.
7. Each applicant should demonstrate in a written form that one has completed a minimum of two years in missionary service or has plans to complete a minimum of a two years cross-cultural missions assignments. This may come through verification of a mission-sending agency or a written explanation of present or future ministry goals that include cross-cultural evangelism and missions ministry verified by an outside source such as a missions agency or local church.
8. The missions admissions committee and the Pastoral Ministries Division, in consultation with the Registrar, will evaluate the transcript of the applicant. Students should evidence the interests, aptitudes, and personal qualities necessary for the particular application of this degree. Students with strong undergraduate preparation in a discipline may be eligible for advance standing, and may therefore take advanced electives in that discipline rather than introductory courses in that discipline. After review of the transcript, research paper, and cross-cultural ministry essay, the missions admissions committee and Pastoral Ministries Division will weigh these factors and approve those accepted for this degree plan. Applicants accepted into the degree plan will be assigned a faculty advisor to design a plan of study tailored to the needs of the student and guide them in their course of study. The student will be expected to cooperate with their advisor to complete degree requirements.

Thesis, Project, Practicum, or Specialized Courses

One of the following options must be approved and completed to meet this requirement of the degree plan.

1. An acceptable research thesis of 75 - 100 pages must be written on a topic approved by the mission professors in the Pastoral Ministries Division. The thesis should follow the guidelines of the latest edition of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate L. Turabian. The missions admissions committee will appoint a Thesis Advisor to approve the thesis proposal (in consultation with the division) and provide guidance to the students in writing the thesis. One other reader will join the Thesis Advisor in evaluating the thesis.
2. An acceptable project report of 75 - 100 pages must be written on a topic approved by the missions professors in Pastoral Ministries Division. The project proposal should follow the guidelines of the latest edition of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate L. Turabian. The missions admissions committee will appoint an Advisor to approve the project proposal (in consultation with the division) and provide guidance to the students in writing the project report. One other reader will join the Advisor in evaluating the project.
3. Those who are accepted to participate in a practicum will do specialized academic work on the mission field under the direction of a qualified field supervisor and a faculty advisor. The church planting practicum represents an option for those primarily engaged in cross-cultural church planting. The missions practicum would be an option for those engaged in missions service that have primary job responsibilities in an area other than church planting. They would also be expected to be involved in church planting efforts during the missions practicum.
4. A candidate with the faculty advisor's approval may in some cases substitute specialized courses in lieu of a thesis, project, or practicum.

Ph.D. Eligibility

Students who complete the degree requirements of the M.A. in Missiology must also meet all of the application requirements for a Ph.D. at NOBTS with a major in missions. Prior to application, applicants must have completed a minimum of 8 semester hours of master's level Greek and 8 semester hours of master's level Hebrew (for NOBTS students these courses would include NTGK6300 Intermediate Greek Grammar and OTHB6300 Intermediate Biblical Hebrew); and 9 semester hours of German, French, or Latin. Details are given in the NOBTS Graduate Catalog under Admission Requirements for the Doctor of Philosophy degree.

Inactive Status

Missionaries serving with a mission-sending agency such as the IMB of the SBC may apply for an inactive status for the degree plan if they do not want to take courses for the degree plan while on the mission field by notifying the Registrar's Office in writing.

MASTER OF ARTS (THEOLOGY)

Vocational Calling

To prepare students for research degrees in theological studies for the purpose of teaching, research, or writing in a field of theological studies. Students may opt for a generalist degree or for a concentration in Theology, Church History, or Philosophy/Ethics.

Basic Ministerial Competency Component * (33-35 hours)

Through the Baptist College Partnership Program, such students would automatically receive transcribed credit at NOBTS for elementary and intermediate Greek and/or Hebrew. The students would thus have the 10 hours each in Greek and Hebrew required for admittance into the Ph.D. majors in Theology and Church History. Applicants who cannot earn credit in elementary and intermediate Greek and Hebrew through the Baptist College Partnership Program must earn these credits during the M.A. (Theology) program as condition of graduation.

Historical Studies Component (7-8 hours)

 History of Christianity: Reformation-Modern 2 hours
 Baptist Heritage (OR Elective in Church History) 2-3 hours

Theological Studies Component (6 hours)

Systematic Theology 1 3 hours
 Systematic Theology 2 3 hours

*Upon the transcript evaluation by the division, students with strong undergraduate preparation may be accorded advanced standing for certain introductory classes, and advanced electives may then be substituted for those introductory courses.

Credit for some courses may be achieved through the Baptist College Partnership Program.

Theology Concentration & Electives Component (12 hours)

Concentration (8 hours)

Electives (4 hours)

In order to complete these hours, students may choose to pursue a generalist degree or a concentration in one of the following areas:

Theological Studies Generalist
 Church History
 Theology
 Philosophy/Ethics

Note: No later than the third semester of course work the student should declare an area of concentration and secure a thesis advisor.

Thesis Component (4 hours)

Thesis (4 hours)

An acceptable research thesis of 75-100 pages in Turabian style must be written in the student's area of concentration. The division will appoint a Thesis Advisor to approve the thesis proposal (in consultation with the division) and provide guidance to the student in the writing of the thesis. The thesis proposal must be submitted for approval no later than within one semester of completion of coursework. The thesis will be evaluated by the thesis advisor and one additional reader.

Admission Requirements

Applicants for the M.A. (Theology) degree must fulfill all the normal admission requirements for NOBTS, including the admission form, transcript, church endorsement, statement of call, medical clearance, TOEFL for international students, etc. Upon admission to the seminary, students desiring admission into the M.A. (Theology) program will apply to the Theological and Historical Studies division for admission into the M.A. (Theology) program. The following criteria will be used in reviewing applications for the M.A. (Theology) program:

1. Applicants must have earned a baccalaureate degree, normally with at least a 3.0 grade point average (GPA) on a 4.0 scale, from an institution accredited by a regional accreditation agency recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation or holding membership in the Association of Universities and Colleges in Canada, or the educational equivalent.
2. Applicants must have completed a total of at least 24 transcribed credit hours with a grade of "B" or above in biblical studies, theology, historical studies, philosophy, and/or ethics.
3. Applicants must submit a research paper on a topic in some area of theological studies for consideration by the Theological and Historical division. In some cases the division may require a personal interview with the applicant.
4. Students should evidence the interests, aptitudes, and personal qualities necessary for the particular application of this degree.
5. The Theological and Historical Studies division in consultation with the registrar shall determine the applicant's suitability for admission, and admit qualified candidates into the M.A. (Theology) program. Upon admission to the M.A. (Theology) program, the Theological and Historical Studies division will tailor a program of study for each student. Students with weak undergraduate preparation in a discipline may be required to take introductory courses or, in some cases, remedial work to insure minimum competency in that discipline. Students with strong undergraduate preparation in a discipline may be eligible for advanced standing, and may therefore take advanced electives in that discipline rather than the introductory courses in that discipline.

Academic Requirements

The 49/50 hour course requirement of the M.A. (Theology) degree (as delineated below) is intended to introduce students to a broad range of theological disciplines necessary for further studies in theological research, or interdisciplinary studies related to theology. A thesis is required. Students in the M.A. (Theology) must maintain at least a B average in the program. Those who do not maintain a 3.0 GPA will go on probation status after the first semester, and will be dismissed after the second consecutive semester below a 3.0 average.

Ph.D. Eligibility

Students who complete all the degree requirements of the M.A. (Theology) are eligible to apply to the Ph.D. at NOBTS in the majors of Church History and Theology. Students who choose to major in other disciplines may be required to take other prerequisite courses as required in those majors.

MASTER OF THEOLOGY

Vocational Calling

To provide Master of Divinity graduates the opportunity to achieve fuller mastery in a discipline or disciplines than afforded in their previous work.

The Master of Theology degree at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is a research degree designed to provide qualified students the opportunity to achieve fuller mastery in a discipline or disciplines than afforded in their previous master's work. Those completing the degree are prepared for further graduate study, some forms of teaching, and disciplined reflection in ministry.

The Th.M. program is designed to lead graduates to meet the following goals:

- An advanced understanding of a focused area or discipline in the context of general theological study
- Ability to formulate productive questions
- Capacity to design, implement, and report research

Degree Components (31 hours)

Major Concentration Component	16 hours
Electives Component	7 hours
Graduate Orientation (COOP7100)	1 hour
Intro to Research and Writing	3 hours
Thesis Component (in the area of the major concentration)	4 hours

Total Required: 31 hours

Admission Requirements

Students may choose one of five major areas of study in this degree program: Biblical Studies, Christian Education, Pastoral Ministries, Psychology and Counseling, and Theological and Historical Studies.

1. An applicant must hold a bachelor's degree from a college or university accredited by an agency related to the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).
2. Applicants must have completed the M.Div. degree, the M.A. degree, or the first theological degree in the appropriate area of study from a theological institution accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (ATS).
3. Applicants must demonstrate evidence of aptitude for advanced theological study. For unconditional acceptance of the application, the minimum GPA for prior graduate-level theological work is 3.25 on a 4.0 scale. Persons with a GPA of less than 3.25 may demonstrate potential through the GPA and the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) according to the following five-point sliding scale. For the application to be accepted unconditionally for further consideration, pending the other steps in the approval process, the individual must have a combined score of "0" or higher on the three components. Applicants with a combined score of -3 to -1 may be eligible for acceptance on probation. Scores can be no older than 5 years.
4. Applicants must have completed the following prerequisites in languages prior to admission.

Biblical Studies: A minimum of 10 semester hours of master's-level Greek; 10 semester hours of master's-level Hebrew (for NOBTS students these courses would include NTGK6300 Intermediate Greek Grammar, OTHB6300 Intermediate Biblical Hebrew, and advanced exegesis courses); and 5 semester hours of French, German, or Latin

Christian Education or Psychology and Counseling: 8 semester hours of graduate-level research statistics and method. Applicants are encouraged to complete this requirement prior to admission to the program but must complete it before approval of the thesis proposal. Upon request in writing, the division faculty will evaluate undergraduate courses to determine which, if any, apply toward the research statistics and methods requirement. Courses considered would be those similar in nature to NOBTS graduate courses PSYC6474 Scientific Research I: Descriptive Statistics to Analysis of Variance and PSYC6475 Scientific Research II: Multivariate Analyses, Research Design and Methods.

Pastoral Ministries or Theological & Historical Studies: A minimum of 6 semester hours of master's-level Greek; 6 semester hours of master's-level Hebrew (for NOBTS students these courses would include NTGK6300 Intermediate Greek Grammar and OTHB6300 Intermediate Biblical Hebrew); and 5 semester hours of French, German, or Latin

For all majors, academic credits that are to be considered for meeting non-biblical language or research statistics and methods requirements may not be more than 7 years old. The divisions will consider requests concerning unique circumstances. In addition to transcripted course credits, competency in a nonbiblical language can be verified by testing arranged through the office of Research Doctoral Programs.

5. Applicants whose primary spoken language is not English should follow the instructions in the International Students section of the catalog (see p. 141). The International Student Advisor for the seminary is Dr. Paul Gregoire. Applicants may contact him by phone at 504-282-4455 or 1-800-NOBTS-01 or by e-mail at pgregoire@nobts.edu.
6. The applicant must submit a graded research paper from the master's program for review by the division. If no paper is available, the applicant should contact the Director of the Master of Theology Program.

Admissions Process

1. A completed application including all supporting documents is due to the office of the Director of the Master of Theology Program by April 1/November 1.
2. The Director normally will conduct an interview with the applicant.
3. The division faculty will make a recommendation to the Master of Theology Admissions Committee regarding admission. The division chairperson may require an interview.
4. The Master of Theology Admissions Committee is comprised of the chairpersons of the four divisions (Division of Biblical Studies, Division of Christian Education Ministries, Division of Pastoral Ministries, and Division of Theological and Historical Studies) and the Director of the Master of Theology Program, who chairs the committee.

Program Issues

1. Five majors are offered: Biblical Studies, Christian Education, Pastoral Ministries, Psychology and Counseling, and Theological and Historical Studies.
2. Normally, students would not take over 12 hours per semester. Exceptions must be approved by the Director of the Master of Theology Program.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE AND GRADUATE RECORD EXAMINATION
	-2	-1	0	+1	+2
GPA	below 3.0	3.0-3.25	3.26-3.5	3.51-3.75	3.76-4.0
GRE Verbal	below 400	400-490	500-540	550-610	above 610
GRE Writing	below 4.0	4.0	4.5	5.0-5.5	6.0

Although not included in the above calculation, the quantitative score will be considered in the overall evaluation of the applicant.

- Prior to taking doctoral seminars that may be eligible for transfer into a research doctoral program, the student must achieve a combined score of "0" or higher on the five-point sliding scale for application.
- Doctoral students have first priority to enroll in doctoral seminars. If space permits, Th.M. students may enroll in doctoral seminars if they have the appropriate prerequisite course work and the approval of the instructor, the division of study, and the Associate Dean of Research Doctoral Programs.
- Normally, a Th.M. student would take no more than one doctoral seminar at a time. Exceptions must be approved by the Director of the Master of Theology Program.
- Normally, the Th.M. work will be completed on campus. However, in some cases (for example, a D.Min. seminar or a Th.M. course at an extension center location) up to 4 hours of work may be completed in an extension center setting with the approval of the Director of the Master of Theology Program.
- Up to 4 hours may be taken in independent study under direct faculty supervision.
- Students must maintain a 3.0 GPA on a 4.0 scale to remain enrolled in the Th.M. program.
- An acceptable thesis of 60-100 pages in the area of the student's major concentration ordinarily is required. In some circumstances, with the approval of the Research Doctoral Oversight Committee, an acceptable alternative to the thesis requirement is the completion of two research doctoral seminars in the major area.
- Continuous enrollment in the program is required.
- The maximum time limit for completion of the program is 4 years.
- For a student who completes the degree, up to two research doctoral seminars completed with a grade of "B" or above may be eligible for doctoral program credit, should the student be admitted to a research doctoral program and if permission is granted by the Research Doctoral Oversight Committee.

Thesis Process

- During the first semester of the program, the student should be in dialogue with the chairperson of the division regarding a possible thesis direction. The student should dialogue with the division chair to make a request for a Thesis Advisor during the first semester. The Director of the Master of Theology Program, in consultation with the division chairperson, will appoint the Thesis Advisor in accordance with the proposed area of research.
- During the semester before the writing of the thesis and thesis registration, the student should work with the Thesis Advisor to develop a Thesis Proposal. The Thesis Proposal should include the following components:
 - Thesis Statement
 - Hypothesis
 - Review of Literature
 - Description of Research Methodology
 - Selected Bibliography

- The Thesis Proposal is normally no longer than 20 pages, not counting the bibliography.
- The student should audit RDOC9303 Prospectus Development during the January or June doctoral miniterm.
 - The Thesis Advisor will work with the student to present the Thesis Proposal to the Research Doctoral Oversight Committee for review.
 - Final approval of the Thesis Proposal by the Thesis Advisor must be secured by the last day of the semester prior to the first semester of thesis registration.
 - The Thesis (three copies) must be submitted to the Director of the Master of Theology program no later than 45 days prior to graduation.
 - Appropriate thesis and diploma fees must be paid at the time of submission.
 - A Thesis Review Committee shall be composed of the Thesis Advisor, one faculty member in the major area, and one faculty member outside the major area (appointed by the Director of the Master of Theology Program).
 - Corrected final copies (four on white, 100% cotton paper) must be submitted no later than 10 days prior to graduation.

Th.M. Courses

Th.M. course work is at an advanced level, either in Th.M. courses or in doctoral seminars. (Most Th.M. courses are designed around a core M.Div. course. Thus, students normally attend the M.Div. course meetings. Th.M. courses require additional or lengthier assignments, particularly in research and writing.) See the M.Div. section of the catalog for course descriptions of parallel courses.

COOP7100 An Introduction to NOBTS, the SBC, and the Cooperative Program

This course is a core curriculum course offered in conjunction with Introduction to Research and Writing and is required to be taken in the first year. The course will acquaint students with a brief history of NOBTS, the SBC, and the Cooperative Program, as well as their current leadership and operation. In this course students also will gain an understanding of the significance and relationship of the Cooperative Program to the SBC and NOBTS.

RDOC9300 Introduction to Research and Writing (3 hours)

In this course students will be introduced to the literature and techniques of advanced research. Special attention will be given to the development of research proposals and the presentation of research, including individual guidance in the form and style of research writing. The course must be taken during the student's first year in the program.

THMD7400 Th.M. Directed Readings Study

Former Th.D. or Ph.D. students who did not complete the degree may apply for the Th.M. program and request transfer of credit to the degree. If accepted, the student would register for the Directed Readings Study, in which a literature review of current works in the field would be produced.

THMP7010 Th.M. Program Proficiency

This is not a course per se. Students should register for this component in semesters in which no Th.M. course work is taken.

DELIVERY SYSTEMS

Graduate Virtual Campus Internet Courses

Purpose

The purpose of the NOBTS Virtual Campus is to make Seminary training accessible to ministers and lay Christian leaders all over the world, regardless of location. The Seminary is committed to provide theological education via the Internet that is comparable in quality to on-campus classes.

Enrollment

Students may enroll for Internet courses on a credit or non-credit basis with degree or non-degree status. Those enrolled in the courses as non-degree students are not guaranteed admission to the Seminary as degree-seeking students.

The courses are designed for off-campus students who do not have easy access to the New Orleans campus. On-campus students may take Internet courses only if they meet one of the following two criteria: the student has full-time status, taking a minimum of 9 hours (not including the Internet course or Directed Study courses) or in cases where the student needs a particular course for graduation. When an Internet course is needed for graduation the student must submit a written request to the Dean of Graduate Studies.

Students may enroll for Internet courses in one of the following three ways: for academic credit toward the baccalaureate or graduate degree in which the student is enrolled at NOBTS, for academic credit as a non-degree student at NOBTS, or for non-academic credit, such as continuing education.

Courses taken for non-academic credit can never be applied for credit at the Seminary. Students desiring to enter an NOBTS degree program must meet all normal requirements for admission to the Seminary.

Tuition and Fees

The tuition and fees for Internet courses must be paid in addition to regular tuition and fees. Internet course hours are not covered by the tuition cap. The schedule for Internet course tuition and fees is found on the Student Fees page in this catalog.

Registration

Students may register for Internet courses by completing the Virtual Campus Registration Form found on the NOBTS website. The form should be mailed to the Registrar's Office. Registration dates are posted in the school calendar. No late registration is accepted for on-line courses. The deadline for registration is the same as that of the New Orleans campus.

Course in a Box

The Seminary has initiated a Course in a Box pilot project to design a limited number of classes in which the course content is delivered at least in part on compact discs (CDs). The lectures and other materials are recorded on CDs, and the learning experience may be enhanced through Internet tools such as email or threaded discussion.

Course in a Box is a hybrid version of an independent directed study course, with most of the content of the course being provided on the CDs and other related materials. The enrolled student will receive the CDs and other course materials, view the lectures, complete assignments, and maintain regular contact with the instructor through means such as blackboard.com or email, providing a richer educational experience than the regular independent directed study format may permit. The alternative delivery fee applies to these courses.

Night Track

The seminary offers the basic Master of Divinity track and the Master of Arts in Christian Education degrees in a night school format.

With the exception of free electives, Night Track students are able to complete these degree programs in four years. The free electives are available in workshops and short-term courses.

Night Track courses are conducted on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday nights during regular semesters.

Weekend Courses

These courses are offered in a different format on weekends, usually Thursday - Saturday. Also, the classes utilize a variety of delivery systems and experiential training.

PROFESSIONAL DOCTORAL PROGRAMS

A Message from the Associate Dean of Professional Doctoral Programs

Thank you for examining the ProDoc portion of the catalog. In this section, you will find information on entrance requirements, curriculum, and specific aspects of the administration of the Professional Doctoral Degree Programs. If you are interested in a fully accredited Doctor of Ministry or Doctor of Educational Ministry degree, we hope you will prayerfully consider doing your study at NOBTS. We are excited about the record number of students that God is sending us. Above all, our aim is to equip students to lead healthy churches. We attempt to do this by providing learning opportunities for students with the goal of raising their ministries to a higher level of excellence. We are committed to making our program as relevant, challenging, and as accessible as possible. Please do not hesitate to contact any of us in the Professional Doctoral Programs Office for any additional information that you may need, or visit our web site at www.nobts.edu/dmin or www.nobts.edu/dedmin.

Associate Dean of Professional Doctoral Programs

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

DOCTOR OF EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY

D.Min./D.Ed.Min. Purpose

The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) and the Doctor of Educational Ministry (D.Ed.Min.) are professional degrees accredited by the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) and designed to provide qualified students the opportunity to achieve a high level of excellence in the practice of ministry. The degrees are built on respective prerequisite masters degrees or equivalent theological preparation, high intellectual achievement and professional capability, and three years of substantial professional experience in ministry between the completion of a theological master's degree program and application for the professional degree program.

The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) degree requires an ATS-accredited Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree or equivalent theological preparation. The D.Min. program normally requires three to five years of study beyond the master's degree. The Doctor of Educational Ministry (D.Ed.Min.) degree requires the Master of Religious Education (M.R.E.), Master of Arts in Christian Education (M.A.C.E.), or equivalent theological preparation. The D.Ed.Min. program normally requires four to six years of study beyond the master's degree.

Components of both programs include a combination of workshops, seminars, and a ministry project designed to meet a major need in the student's ministry context. A formal written Project Report is required. Complete and current information on the professional doctoral degree programs please see the Professional Doctoral Programs (hereafter ProDoc) websites at <http://nobts.edu/dmin> or <http://nobts.edu/dedmin>.

Goals

The goals for the D.Min. program are as follows:

1. To stimulate the minister's total growth toward personal maturity and to assist in developing goals and methods to achieve maximum excellence.
2. To assist the minister in practical ministry through resources afforded by additional study in the classical areas.
3. To encourage and develop critical thinking and wise and intelligent decision-making capabilities.
4. To strengthen basic knowledge and professional skills essential to effective ministry.
5. To teach those skills and instill those attitudes which will develop greater competency in ministry: preaching, teaching, counseling, administration, and witnessing.
6. To inspire ministers to move beyond the routinely accepted methods of ministry toward innovative methods, procedures, and outreach.
7. To develop the student's capacity to analyze the needs within a community and to lead a church in developing a program to meet those needs.
8. To motivate ministers to develop a unified ministry philosophy which involves the staff and laity in a worldwide ministry through churches.

The goals for the D.Ed.Min. program are as follows:

1. To facilitate an advanced understanding of the nature and purposes of educational ministry.
2. To develop an enhanced capacity to reflect theologically on issues and practices related to educational ministry.

3. To aid in the acquisition and refinement of skills and competencies for more effective ministry.
4. To facilitate an understanding of emerging models in educational ministry and ability to critically evaluate those models.
5. To foster continued growth in spiritual maturity.

Admissions

In addition to following guidelines, students interested in a professional doctoral program should review the general seminary guidelines of this catalog regarding international students, immunizations, and divorce and estrangement. Those guidelines can be found in the current edition of the graduate catalog. The Professional Doctoral Oversight Committee (ProDOC) grants applicants unconditional admission, probational admission, or denial of admission for both programs.

Unconditional Admission

Unconditional admission is granted based upon successful completion of the following steps and submission of related materials:

Step #1: The applicant must complete an Application Request Form on the ProDoc web site or from the Office of Professional Doctoral Programs reflecting:

1. the prerequisite master's degree (M.Div. for D.Min., M.R.E. or M.A.C.E. for D.Ed.Min.) from an ATS accredited school, or its equivalent
2. a 3.0 out of 4.0 GPA (2.0 out of 3.0)
3. 3 years of substantial post-master's degree ministry experience

Step #2: Upon receiving a formal application packet, the applicant must submit the following:

1. an official transcript verifying the above requirements
2. an autobiographical essay and photo of applicant
3. a statement of church support
4. a health certificate and immunization form
5. personal, professional, and academic references
6. verification of Internet/e-mail capability
7. verification of English language requirements (foreign students only) as outlined in the section for "International Students."

Step #3: Upon receiving the applicant's completed application, the Director of the D.Min. Program or Director of the D.Ed.Min. will schedule an interview with the applicant.

Step #4: Upon receiving notification of acceptance into the program, the applicant must complete any additional requirements specifically related to his or her specialization (if any).

The students are provided a handbook through the website. Students are required to read the entire handbook for the Program Overview and Research Writing course. The student is responsible for checking for periodic updates of the handbook that are posted on the website. Some students may be required to remove deficiencies in their preparation for particular specializations by taking courses from the master's-level curriculum for credit. In any case, students are encouraged to audit master's-level classes in their field. If the student does not begin work toward his or her program requirements within a year from the date of approval, a new application must be processed.

Probational Admission

At the discretion of the ProDOC, applicants having a 2.75-2.99 on a 4.0 scale (or 1.75-1.99 GPA on a 3.0 scale) may be considered for probationary enrollment upon demonstrating academic potential by scoring 450 on the verbal and a total of 800 on the verbal and quantitative sections of the Graduate Record Exam (GRE). In addition, a 3.5 score is required on the written analytical section. Probational enrollment will be considered primarily upon demonstration of evidence that the applicant's low GPA was due to extenuating circumstances.

Probationary candidates must make a "B" in each of their first three seminars to remain in the program.

Denial of Admission

An applicant who is denied admission to a professional doctoral program must wait at least one year to reapply and must meet all requirements which have been implemented in the intervening time period.

Special Circumstances

M.Div. or M.R.E./M.A.C.E. Equivalency

Students desiring to pursue a professional doctoral degree whose master's degree is not equivalent to the required ATS prerequisite degree may consider doing equivalency work in order to qualify for a program. All equivalency work must be satisfied completely before an application to a professional doctoral program can be considered. The successful completion of the equivalency program does not guarantee admission into the professional doctoral program.

Individuals desiring to pursue the D.Min. program whose seminary degrees were either the M.R.E., M.A.C.E. or equivalent normally must earn additional credit hours in Biblical, Theological Historical, and Pastoral studies. Individuals desiring to pursue the D.Ed.Min. program who hold education degrees other than an ATS accredited M.A.C.E., M.R.E., or equivalent normally must earn additional credit hours in basic ministerial and Christian education courses. Prospective applicants should always first contact the ProDOC office to inquire about the various possibilities for attaining equivalency.

Drop/Add Policy

Students may drop and/or add courses up to thirty (30) days after the registration deadline for the fee stated in the current Graduate Catalog. No courses may be added after that time. Courses may be dropped from thirty (30) to sixty (60) days after the registration deadline with a forfeiture of fifty percent (50%) of tuition per course. Any changes made in registration status after sixty (60) days from the registration deadline will result in forfeiture of one hundred percent (100%) of tuition per course. All requests for changes in registration status must be made in writing to the Office of Professional Doctoral Programs and be received by the aforementioned deadlines.

Continual Enrollment Status

ALL students enrolled in a professional doctoral program MUST register online each trimester regardless of their status. A late fee of $100 will be assessed for any student who does not register. Students who are not registering for at least one workshop or seminar or who are not working on their Project in Ministry must register as Continual Enrollment students. Students are allowed to register for Continual Enrollment status for no more than two consecutive trimesters before they either must register for some component of their program, register for Program Delay status or request Inactive status from the Pro DOC. No fee is charged for Continual Enrollment status.

Program Delay Status

Students who have been accepted into one of the programs automatically attain active status. Active status is maintained by registering for at least one workshop or seminar per year and by paying the appropriate fees. If a student plans not to register for at least one workshop or seminar per year, he or she must register for Program Delay and pay a per trimester Program Delay fee (see Student Fee page in this Graduate Catalog). If a student fails to register for such status and does not register for at least one workshop or seminar per calendar year, the per trimester fee will be charged to his or her account automatically. The student's program limit continues to be tracked during the Program Delay period.

Inactive Status

Students who have extenuating circumstances which demand Program Delay status for an indefinite period of time must appeal to the ProDOC for Inactive status. If the request is approved, the Program Delay fee will be waived for up to one year. The ProDOC will review the student's status on an annual basis. As long as the Committee determines the Inactive status is justified, the student may reactivate his or her program as circumstances permit. No fee is charged for Inactive status. Trimesters on Inactive status do not count toward the student's program limit.

Non-degree Status

Students who hold a master's degree from a theological institution accredited by ATS in the United States and Canada, but who do not wish to apply for admission to a doctoral program, may apply to take one seminar as a non-degree student. Non-degree students may be admitted to one professional doctoral seminar provided they have met the following requirements: (1) a grade point average of at least 2.75 (on a 4.0 scale) on all previous seminary work and (2) the completion of all prerequisites for the seminar. Non-degree students may not take workshops or directed study seminars. The seminary is under no obligation to accept the credit earned by a non-degree student as credit toward any doctoral program should the student decide to apply for doctoral work at a later time. Master's hours earned for equivalency by taking professional doctoral seminars can never be used to meet doctoral requirements.

International Students

Applicants whose primary spoken language is not English must fulfill one of the following options as part of the application process to the Professional Doctoral Programs:

Option 1:

1. Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) score. The minimum score for consideration is 550 on the paper test (213 on the computer test.)
2. Test of Written English (TWE) score. The minimum score for consideration is 4.5.
3. Speaking Proficiency English Assessment Kit Exam (SPEAK) or the Test of Spoken English (TSE). The minimum required score for SPEAK or TSE is 45. The SPEAK test can be taken at NOBTS by contacting the SPEAK Coordinator (Dr. Francis Kimmitt). There is a fee for the exam.
4. Pass the NOBTS English Entrance Exam. (This exam is offered during orientation each January and August.)
5. It is highly recommended that applicants take the two courses offered at NOBTS: Reading and Writing English, Speaking and Listening English.
6. All test scores must be within 3 years.

Professional Doctoral Programs

Option 2:

1. Completion of an appropriate master's degree at NOBTS (or an accredited U.S. institution).
2. TOEFL, TWE, and SPEAK or TSE scores are normally required as part of the evaluation of the applicant.
3. It is normally recommended that applicants take the two courses offered at NOBTS: Reading and Writing English, Speaking and Listening English.

Specializations

Students may choose any number of specialization tracks in order to design their doctoral program for a particular ministry context or goal. On-going specializations are selected divisional and inter-divisional emphases offered on a regular basis. Current offerings can be obtained from the ProDOC website or from the ProDOC office. User-driven specializations allow students to make requests for specializations not listed as regular offerings through the ProDOC office. Every effort will be made to provide the requested specialization. The non-specialization track enables students to take their specialization seminars from any division as part of a general studies track.

Extension Center Offerings

In addition to the New Orleans campus, workshops and seminars will be offered at the Atlanta, Ga.; Orlando, Graceville, Miami and Pensacola, Fla.; Birmingham, Ala.; Nashville, Tenn.; and Ruston/Alexandria, La. locations via on-site professors and/or Compressed Interactive Video (CIV).

A student likely can complete his or her program from an extension center site in the same amount of time as a student at the New Orleans campus. Students may take seminars from any of the campus locations. To aid in meeting residency requirements and enhance interaction with students from other centers, Mid-Career Assessment is taught only at the New Orleans campus. Due to the nature of the Project in Ministry, however, extension center students must come to the New Orleans campus in order to take the Project in Ministry Design workshop.

Course Load and Duration

Students may take no more than 8 hours maximum per trimester, excluding the Professional Development component in the D.Ed. Min. program. A full 8-hour load normally would be comprised of one workshop and two seminars during a trimester. Time extensions and/or accelerations beyond the normal 3-5 years for the D.Min. and 4-6 years for the D.Ed.Min., as well as course load exceptions, may be granted for students with extenuating circumstances.

Delivery System

The professional doctoral programs are conducted according to three trimesters per year. The Winter Trimester runs from November-February, with most New Orleans campus seminars and workshops meeting the second and third weeks of January. The Spring Trimester runs from March-June, with most New Orleans campus seminars and workshops meeting the two weeks immediately after Spring graduation in May. The Fall Trimester runs from July-October, with most New Orleans campus workshops and seminars meeting the two weeks in September immediately after the week of Labor Day.

Workshops and seminars are offered at the New Orleans, Atlanta, Orlando, Pensacola, Graceville, Ruston/Alexandria, Birmingham, and Nashville campuses. Many seminars and workshops held on the New Orleans campus are broadcast via CIV to the Atlanta, Nashville, Orlando, Graceville, Miami, and Pensacola sites.

Workshops and seminars meet in a variety of formats. In the two-week format, the workshops meet on the two consecutive Mondays and seminars meet Tuesday-Friday during the two-week period.

Selected workshops, however, are available in a one-weekend format. Other seminars follow two-weekend, one-week, or other concentrated formats. Periodically, Special Event Seminars are offered in conjunction with selected campus and off-campus events. The delivery format for each course is noted on the registration form for each trimester or can be found on the ProDOC website.

Curriculum Description

Each workshop and seminar will have advance assignments which, in most cases, are communicated to students at least 60 days before the scheduled meeting time. Assignments are practical and ministry-oriented, reflecting the practice of ministry in the respective field. The meetings are designed to be practical, ministry-oriented, and interactive. All research writing during the student's program, including the Project Report, must be prepared according to the latest edition of the program handbook approved by the faculty, A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate Turabian, and A Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press).

Exceptions may be made for selected assignments in a particular seminar as directed by the professor(s).

Course Syllabi

In most cases, course syllabi will be posted on the website within a few days after registration. Many assignments are often due before the seminar begins. Therefore, as soon as possible, the student should examine the syllabi and begin working on pre-seminar assignments. Students are responsible for getting assignments to the professors in a hard copy form on the due date listed in the syllabus.

Workshops, Seminars, and Residency Requirements

The workshops are designed to provide students with selected ministry assessment opportunities and personalized guidance in their programs. Workshops are led by elected or adjunct faculty members and involve students in independent study, group discussions, presentations, and one-on-one dialogue. All workshops must be completed at one of the campus locations in the order listed in the program requirements above.

Seminars are designed to lead students to wrestle with contemporary ministry issues in dialogue with the various theological disciplines. Most seminars are taken concurrent with the workshops and may be completed in any order. All seminars must be completed prior to or concurrent with the completion of the Project in Ministry Design Workshop. If enrollment in a seminar is below the minimum established by the ProDOC, those students who have enrolled will be notified regarding alternatives.

At least one-half of the student's seminars must be taken as campus seminars at one of these locations (New Orleans, Atlanta, Orlando, Pensacola, Graceville, Birmingham, Ruston/Alexandria, or Nashville), two of which must relate to the student's area of specialization. Periodic Special Event Seminars may be offered in conjunction with selected campus and off-campus events, involving substantial contact hours with a professor at the site of the event. These seminars may not be counted toward the students on-campus seminar requirements, but may be taken in place of Directed Study seminars. At the discretion of ProDOC, selected seminars taken through other institutions may be counted toward a student's on-campus seminar requirement when substantial contact hours with a recognized faculty member is involved. As a minimum, students must take the Mid-career Assessment Workshop and the Project in Ministry Design Workshop on the New Orleans campus in order to fulfill residency requirements. Details can be obtained through the ProDOC Office.

No more than one-half of the student's seminars may be taken as Directed Study Seminars (independent of on-campus meetings under the direction of an elected faculty member), Specialized Directed Study Seminars (customized individual study under a faculty member that is distinctive from any currently offered seminar), or Special Event Seminars. Requirements for Directed Study Seminars are commensurate with those in On-campus Seminars (including assignments which compensate proportionately for class time). Registration and assignment deadlines also correspond with those of On-Campus Seminars in the same trimester.

Directed Studies Paralleling on-campus seminars enable students to take a seminar meeting on-campus as a Directed Study. Specialized Directed Studies allow students to petition a professor to design a Directed Study which addresses some specific area related to his/her specialization or project in ministry. Specific guidelines for all Specialized Directed Studies may be found in the respective program handbook.

Course descriptions for all workshops and seminars can be found at the end of this section. A list of specific offerings for upcoming trimesters can be obtained from the Professional Doctoral Programs office or its website.

Guidance and Evaluation

Course Work

Workshops and seminars are conducted by faculty members and/or other qualified professionals. Students will receive either a "Pass" or "Fail" assessment for workshops. Students will be assigned letter grades "A" through "F" for seminar performance. No seminar grade below a "B" will count toward degree requirements. Students making a grade of "C" or below must consult with the Associate Dean of Professional Doctoral Programs. Two seminar grades of "C" or below will result in the student's dismissal from the doctoral program.

Project Supervision

Prior to beginning the Project in Ministry Design Workshop the student will enlist a Faculty Mentor who will assist him or her in the development of both the Preliminary and Final Project Proposals. The Faculty Mentor also will provide guidance and accountability during project implementation, assist the student in analyzing and articulating implications for theological and ministerial leadership in the Project Report, and guide the student in writing a high quality Project Report, both in content and in form. The Faculty Mentor will be assisted at various points in the project by a Field Mentor and by selected Faculty Readers. Specific roles of each of these persons is delineated in the respective program handbook.

A Message from the Associate Dean of Research Doctoral Programs

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary offers two fully accredited research doctoral degrees, the Doctor of Musical Arts and the Doctor of Philosophy, which are accredited by A.T.S. and S.A.C.S. The faculty is a close-knit community of scholars committed to guiding and shaping the next generation of religious teachers and leaders. Both faculty and students are active members of various professional societies, engaging in research aimed at producing healthy churches. Students are encouraged to follow the faculty's model in presenting the results of their research to the academic community through publication and presentation to professional societies.

Students in the Doctor of Musical Arts degree program pursue foundational studies in advanced musicianship and its application to the local church. They also choose to specialize in one of nine supportive areas. Students in the Doctor of Philosophy degree program concentrate their studies in one of nine major areas of research. Opportunities are also available within majors for interdisciplinary study, as well as pursuit of a minor concentration in one of ten areas.

Dr. Charles A. Ray Jr.
Associate Dean of Research Doctoral Programs

RESEARCH DOCTORAL PROGRAMS

Research Doctoral Oversight Committee (ReDOC)

The Research Doctoral Oversight Committee (ReDOC) is composed of the Associate Dean of Research Doctoral Programs, a representative from each of the academic divisions, two at-large faculty members, the Dean of Graduate Studies, the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies, and the Registrar. The committee meets monthly during the academic year. ReDOC provides administrative oversight for each of the research doctoral programs. The Associate Dean of Research Doctoral Programs is Dr. Charlie Ray. He can be contacted by phone at 504-816-8010 or 1-800-NOBTS-01 ext. 8010 or by email at phd@nobts.edu.

Application Process

Application packets for the D.M.A. and Ph.D. may be secured by contacting the Office of Research Doctoral Programs. Printable forms also are available on the Seminary website (www.nobts.edu/research). Potential applicants should review carefully all degree admission requirements before requesting an application. Those requirements are enumerated on the following pages. Completed applications must be submitted to the Office of Research Doctoral Programs no later than February 15 for August admission and September 15 for January admission. The following items must accompany the application by the February 15 or September 15 deadlines:

- Signed application form complete with all supporting documentation (Statement of Call and Commitment, Ethical Conduct, Church Endorsement, Health Certificate, Proof of Immunization, 4 reference forms)
- Application fee
- Verification of GRE verbal, quantitative, and analytical writing scores
- Official transcripts from all colleges, universities, and seminaries
- Written plan for completion of course prerequisites such as languages and hours in the major
- Graded research paper from the master's degree program
- International students should see the section "International Students" for additional requirements

Once the application is submitted, the applicant works with the Office of Research Doctoral Programs to complete the following:

- Entrance examination
- Division interview

The Doctoral Admissions Committee approves and denies admission to all research doctoral programs. All relevant information in the application packet (GPA, GRE scores) and the recommendation from the division (including evaluation of the master's paper, entrance exam, and division interview) are considered in ascertaining the applicant's potential for advanced research studies and making a final decision concerning admission.

After a decision of acceptance or denial by the Doctoral Admissions Committee, the Associate Dean of Research Doctoral Programs will notify applicants of acceptance/denial to a doctoral program. Application decisions usually are made within six weeks following the application deadline. Applications are valid for one year. A person can apply only twice for a research doctoral program at NOBTS. An applicant who is denied admission to a research doctoral program must wait at least one year to reapply and must meet all requirements in effect at the time of reapplication. An application will not be accepted following two admission rejections.

Enrollment

Once accepted into a research doctoral program, a student must begin his or her program of studies and enroll for seminars in the next regular semester.

If an applicant approved for admission to a doctoral program cannot begin studies, the applicant's slot normally will be vacated and the application will be returned to the division applicant pool for consideration in the next semester.

After beginning studies, the student must maintain enrollment (register and pay matriculation fees) each semester until the doctoral program is completed. The research doctoral program is a continuous enrollment program until graduation. Failure to register and pay fees each semester will result in termination from the program.

Faculty Guidance

At the time of admission to a research doctoral program, a faculty advisor from the major field of study will be assigned to serve as a resource person to the student concerning program matters and to guide the student through the residency/Th.M. candidacy stage. Upon successful completion of the qualifying examination, a two-member guidance committee will be assigned to mentor the student for the senior residency and candidacy stages of the program.

General Policies

1. All entering doctoral students in research degree programs must register for RDOC9300 Introduction to Research and Writing during their first year in the program. Students will be registered for RDOC9100 in conjunction with this course.
2. All research doctoral students must secure and maintain an e-mail address throughout the program. A free hotmail account is available through the NOBTS library.
3. The research doctoral programs are residential programs with courses offered on the main campus only. Students should plan to spend minimally one full day in on-campus research for each seminar. Thus, a student taking two seminars should be engaged in on-campus research minimally two full days. Allocation of the necessary time on campus is subject to review by the student's guidance committee. The committee might recommend or require a reduced course load.
4. No seminar grade below "B" (3.0) will count toward degree requirements. Students making a grade of "C" or below must consult with their faculty advisor or guidance committee. Two seminar grades of "C" or below will result in the student's dismissal from the doctoral program.
5. Students may be required by their department to remove deficiencies in their preparation by taking for credit courses from the master's-level curriculum. In any case, students are encouraged to audit master's-level classes in their field.
6. The period allowed for the completion of the D.M.A. and Ph.D. programs is seven years from initial registration. After the fourth year the matriculation fee is increased, as stated in the student fee schedule in this catalog.
7. A master's student may at times be allowed to take a doctoral seminar for master's credit. Students should contact the Associate Dean of Research Doctoral Programs for guidance and approval. (See the section "Master's Credit for a Doctoral Seminar," p. 145.)

Manual for Research Doctoral Programs

Following acceptance into a research doctoral program, students should download a copy of the Manual for Research Doctoral Programs from the Research Doctoral Programs area of the seminary website (nobts.edu/research) and bring a printed copy to the first session of the Introduction to Research and Writing course (spring semester) or New Student Orientation (fall semester). This manual is the official handbook for research doctoral programs. It includes information on current procedures and policies. Students are notified of updates as appropriate.

Style Guides

The official style guides for NOBTS research doctoral programs are the current editions of the SBL Handbook of Style (biblical studies only); the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (psychology and counseling only); A Guide to Research in Music Education by Roger P. Phelps (D.M.A. only); A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate L. Turabian; and A Manual of Style published by the University of Chicago Press. Questions concerning form matters peculiar to NOBTS may be addressed to the Office of Research Doctoral Programs.

Established Program Dates

The following are general dates for program components. See the calendar of events for research doctoral programs (pp. 200-201) for specific dates for the 2006-7 academic year.

Qualifying exams..... Wed.-Fri. during the first week of Jan./Aug.
Dissertation submission/Application for graduation..... Oct. 1/Mar. 1
Application for qualifying exams Nov. 1/Apr. 1
Research proposal submission..... Nov. 1/Apr. 1
Research proposal approval..... Last day of semester

Fees for Doctoral Students

Fees, effective August 1 each year, are listed in the "Graduate Student Fees" section of this catalog. Students who are not members of Southern Baptist churches should note the fees for Non-Southern Baptists.

Requirements for Graduation

In order to graduate from the seminary, students must meet all academic requirements set forth in this catalog, settle all financial obligations to the seminary, and maintain high standards of moral and ethical conduct. The faculty or any appropriate committee of the faculty may at any time advise the President that a student evidences spiritual, ethical, emotional, psychological, or attitudinal deficiencies which in the judgment of the faculty disqualify the student for continued study at the seminary. The student may appeal this determination to the President. The decision of the President shall be final.

Participation in graduation exercises is required of all students unless permission is granted to graduate in absentia. Requests for permission to graduate in absentia should be made in writing to the Registrar. Permission is granted only in emergency cases.

Transfer of Credit

There is a possibility of transferring a minimal number of doctoral-level courses completed at another accredited institution prior to admission or while enrolled at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. Applicants who believe they qualify should contact the Associate Dean of Research Doctoral Programs during the application process.

International Students

Research doctoral program applicants whose primary spoken language is not English should follow the instructions in the International Students section of this catalog (see p. 141). The International Student Advisor for the seminary is Dr. Paul Gregoire. Applicants may contact him by phone at 504-282-4455 or 1-800-NOBTS-01 or by email at pgregoire@nobts.edu.

Degree Equivalency

Applicants who do not hold the appropriate prerequisite degree should contact the Office of Research Doctoral Programs for information concerning degree equivalency requirements.

Non-Degree Students

Students may apply to take one doctoral seminar as a non-degree student. An individual desiring non-degree status must make application as a non-degree student. Non-degree students may be admitted to one doctoral seminar provided they have met the GPA and GRE requirements and the degree prerequisites for the major in which they plan to take the seminar (see pp. 105-8 for specifics). In addition, students must complete all prerequisites for the seminar.

The academic division in which the study is to be done must give a positive recommendation. Final approval will be given by the Research Doctoral Oversight Committee.

The seminary is under no obligation to accept the credit earned by a non-degree student as credit toward any doctoral program should the student decide to apply for doctoral work at a later time.

Financial Assistance

Southern Baptist Doctoral Teaching Fellowship

The Southern Baptist Doctoral Teaching Fellowship provides financial assistance and teaching opportunities to qualified doctoral students through funds generated by the Cooperative Program of the Southern Baptist Convention. Students who qualify for the program are guaranteed at least one teaching opportunity during their doctoral studies. For more information about the fellowship or for application forms, contact the Office of Research Doctoral Programs.

Teaching and Research Assistantships

A limited number of teaching assistantships are available on a regular basis. Duties include grading and limited teaching opportunities. Interested persons should contact individual professors or the chair of the division in which the student wishes to work. Research assistantships are available as required by the research projects of the faculty.

Research Fellowships

NOBTS sponsors several research institutes, such as the Baptist Center for Theology and Ministry, the H. Milton Haggard Center for Textual Studies, the Youth Ministry Institute, and the Leavell Center for Evangelism and Church Health. Employment opportunities are available for PhD students based on the needs of the research institutes. Interested persons may contact the directors of the various institutes.

Visiting Student

A student who is enrolled in a doctoral program at another accredited seminary, college, or university may enroll in doctoral seminars for credit or audit at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary as a visiting student.

1. An individual desiring visiting student status must make application to the Associate Dean as a non-degree special student. Other items needed include the following:
 - a. A letter to the Associate Dean of Research Doctoral Programs stating the desire and rationale for doing seminar work at NOBTS
 - b. A letter from the appropriate academic officer at the student's institution indicating approval to do seminar work at NOBTS.The Associate Dean will forward a copy of the application to the division chairperson.
2. The student must meet all prerequisites for enrollment required of other doctoral students in the seminar.
3. The division will examine the student's background and preparation and make a recommendation to the Associate Dean, who will submit the application to the Research Doctoral Oversight Committee.
4. The Research Doctoral Oversight Committee will approve or disapprove the application for visiting student status. The Associate Dean will inform the student of the committee's decision in writing.
5. The visiting student must pay the applicable matriculation and student fees at the level of doctoral students.

Visiting Scholar

A professor who is employed at another accredited seminary, college, or university and who has attained the D.M.A., Ed.D., Ph.D., Th.D., or the equivalent may apply to New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary for the status of visiting scholar.

1. An individual desiring visiting scholar status should submit a request to the Associate Dean. The Associate Dean will forward a copy of the request to the chairperson of the division in which the scholar wishes to pursue study. The division will consider the request and make a recommendation to the Research Doctoral Oversight Committee. The Associate Dean will inform the applicant of the committee's decision in writing and send copies of appropriate materials to the Registrar.
2. A visiting scholar may audit doctoral seminars and master's-level courses (with the permission of the professor) without the payment of fees.
3. A visiting scholar who desires credit for a seminar will need to register as a special student. The individual will be charged a matriculation fee equal to one-half of the normal semester cost for doctoral students.
4. A visiting scholar may apply for student housing through the normal channels of the Housing Office.

At present, the NOBTS visiting scholar program does not provide for issuance of the J-form required for international scholars to obtain a visiting scholar visa.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

GRADE POINT AVERAGE AND GRADUATE RECORD EXAMINATION

The grade point average (GPA) and the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) verbal and analytical writing scores will be considered on the following five-point sliding scale. The divisions will consider requests concerning unique circumstances. In addition to transcribed course credits, competency in a nonbiblical language can be verified by testing arranged through the office of Research Doctoral Programs.

Division Interview

Applicants normally are required to come to campus for an interview with the division faculty related to the proposed area of major study. The interview focuses on one's conversion experience, call to ministry, family relationships, reasons for pursuing the doctoral degree, interests and reading in the proposed field of study, and other concerns that may enable the faculty to know the applicant better and to ascertain his or her potential for advanced studies.

Program Overview

The Ph.D. curriculum consists of 8 semester-length Ph.D. seminars (in designated areas, depending on the major), 4 supervised reading colloquia, Introduction to Research and Writing, Teaching Methods and Learning Theory, a written qualifying examination (halfway through seminar work), an oral comprehensive examination (at the completion of seminar work), Prospectus Development, and the submission and defense of a dissertation.

The Ph.D. program is divided into three stages: Ph.D. residency/Th.M. candidacy; Ph.D. senior residency, and Ph.D. candidacy. The student enters the Ph.D. senior residency stage following the completion of 37 semester hours of Ph.D. work and the conferral of the Th.M. degree. The student enters the Ph.D. candidacy stage after completion of the oral comprehensive examination.

A student's program is guided by a faculty advisor during the residency/Th.M. candidacy stage and guidance committee during the senior residency and candidacy stages. Faculty guidance assignments are made by the Associate Dean in consultation with the chairperson of the major division.

A student may take no more than two Ph.D. seminars per semester. Full-time students generally can complete the program in 3 1/2 to 4 years. A full-time student would finish Ph.D. seminars after four semesters or 2 years. The qualifying examination is administered after the student has completed a minimum of four seminars and two supervised reading colloquia. The oral comprehensive examination is administered after the completion of all eight seminars and four supervised reading colloquia.

Students who are engaged in full-time ministry are strongly encouraged to take only one seminar per semester, thus lengthening the program considerably. The program must be completed within seven years.

A directed study provides a unique opportunity for a student to work one-on-one with a professor. Directed studies enable a student (1) to engage in specialized research under a professor's supervision or (2) to cover an area not included in the regular seminar offerings during the student's scheduled seminar work. Contact the Associate Dean of Research Doctoral Programs concerning the procedure for submitting a proposal.

Dissertation Requirements

Doctoral candidates must write a dissertation that demonstrates the candidate's ability to do independent and original research, mastery of a research methodology, competency to report logically the results of the research, expertise in presenting the research in acceptable style, and contribution to the academic discipline. The dissertation may contain no less than 25,000 nor more than 50,000 words, unless otherwise authorized by the student's guidance committee. The approval of a dissertation topic goes through several stages:

- Approval of a research proposal by the division (must be approved before the oral comprehensive examination)
- Completion of RDOC9303 Prospectus Development
- Review of a prospectus by the Research Doctoral Oversight Committee (cannot be done until after the student passes the oral comprehensive examination)
- Following ReDOC review, approval of a prospectus by the guidance committee at least four months before the dissertation is presented

Students are required to use the style guides approved by the seminary faculty.

Four copies of the completed dissertation (plain-paper copies in four separate boxes) must be submitted unbound to the Office of Research Doctoral Programs by the March 1 or October 1 deadline. Appropriate dissertation and diploma fees must be paid at the time of submission.

Following the dissertation defense, four copies of the final corrected document as approved by the guidance committee must be submitted on white, 100% cotton paper, unbound, in four separate boxes, through the guidance committee chairperson to the Office of Research Doctoral Programs no later than two weeks prior to graduation.

Copies must be accompanied by the Doctoral Dissertation Agreement Form (including the copyright authorization portion) at the back of the UMI Dissertation Services booklet Publishing Your Dissertation: How to Prepare Your Manuscript for Publication. For details, students should request the Graduation Checklist sheet from the Office of Research Doctoral Programs.

If the dissertation is rejected following an unsatisfactory dissertation defense and if the guidance committee looks with favor upon its resubmission, a period of three months must elapse before it may be presented again. The student would register as a writing candidate and pay full tuition.

If the dissertation is rejected for form, style, and/or minor content reasons following a satisfactory dissertation defense and if the guidance committee looks with favor upon its resubmission, the dissertation may be presented again no sooner than two months after the dissertation defense and no later than two months prior to the following graduation date. The student would register for Program Continuance and pay a reduced tuition.

Permission to resubmit the dissertation does not involve a commitment as to the time of graduation. If final presentation of the dissertation exceeds seven years after the initial registration for the degree, candidacy for the degree is forfeited.

BIBLICAL BACKGROUNDS

BSBB9401 The Dead Sea Scrolls (4 hours) Cole

Research includes historical background and description of the Qumran cult and problems relating to the significance and dating of the Scrolls. Special emphasis is placed on a theological analysis of the nonbiblical scriptures of the Dead Sea library on subjects such as God, humanity, and eschatology. Meaningful comparisons are sought in the Qumran view of angels, sin, forgiveness, ethics, and messianic expectation with Jewish and Christian views of the Old and New Testaments and the intertestamental period. Also serves as an Old or New Testament seminar.

BSBB9402 Archaeology in the Ancient Near East (4 hours) Cole

A survey is made of the political, socioeconomic, and religious aspects of ancient Near Eastern cultures in order to contextualize the history of Israel from its formative Patriarchal to Post-Exilic periods. Findings from archaeological excavations in Egypt, Asia Minor, Mesopotamia, and the Levant are highlighted so as to enhance the student's understanding of the literary, cultural, and physical environments of the Old Testament world. Also serves as an Old or New Testament seminar.

BSBB9403 Studies in Syro-Palestinian Archaeology (4 hours) Cole

Current issues and discoveries in the field of Palestinian archaeology which supplement and illuminate the study of the Old Testament are examined. Major finds from the Neolithic through Early Roman periods are discussed. The study includes an assessment of the current status of the field of biblical archaeology, Neolithic/Chalcolithic research, the Early Bronze Age, the Patriarchal period, issues in the Exodus/Conquest Settlement period, the kingdoms of David and Solomon, and the international situation in the Iron Ages-Divided Kingdoms, Persian, and Hellenistic/Herodian periods. Also serves as an Old or New Testament seminar.

BSBB9404 Studies in Greco-Roman Archaeology (4 hours) Cole

The Doctor of Musical Arts degree is designed to lead graduates to meet the following goals:

- Mastery of a body of knowledge related to required course work
- Skill in written and oral communication
- Skill in planning and conducting classroom or studio learning experiences
- Attitudes and skills conducive to healthy interpersonal relationships
- A high level of skill development in a chosen performing and/or research area

Dr. Ken Gabrielse is chairperson of the Division of Church Music Ministries. He may be contacted by phone at 504-282-4455 or 1-800-NOBTS-01 or by email at kgabrielse@nobts.edu.

Admission Requirements

Specific admission requirements for music degrees may be obtained by contacting the Division of Church Music Ministries office.

Degree Prerequisites

Applicants must have a bachelor's degree in music and a Master of Music in Church Music degree or the equivalent from an institution accredited by National Association of Schools of Music/Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada. Applicants having a master's degree (but not in church music) from an accredited institution may fulfill church music deficiency requirements in one of two ways:

1. Register for Master of Music in Church Music courses not previously taken before being admitted to the D.M.A. program, or
2. Submit for consideration a paper relating in depth the experience of the applicant in church music leadership positions, and satisfactorily complete entrance examinations. Paper specifications and information regarding entrance examinations are provided by the division chairperson's office.

Language

The applicant must have completed 9 semester hours in Latin, French, German, or Italian prior to admission. Course credits that are to be considered for meeting the language requirement may not be more than 7 years old. The Division of Church Music Ministries may consider requests concerning unique circumstances. In addition to transcribed course credits, competency in French, German, or Latin can be verified by testing arranged through the office of Research Doctoral Programs.

Research Paper

The applicant must submit a graded research paper from the master's program for review by the division. If no paper is available, the applicant should contact the Associate Dean of Research Doctoral Programs for guidance.

Division Interview

Applicants are required to come to campus for an interview with the music division faculty related to the proposed area of major study. The interview focuses on one's conversion experience, call to ministry, family relationships, reasons for pursuing the doctoral degree, interests and reading in the proposed field of study, and other concerns that may enable the faculty to know the applicant better and to ascertain his or her potential for advanced studies.

Audition

An audition in the applicant's major field of performance is required. The literature to be performed should represent the major style periods of Western music. A tape recording and a copy of the recorded program may be submitted in lieu of the prepared program, but the recording must have been made within six months prior to the division interview.

Placement/Proficiency Examinations

The faculty interview and evaluation of the audition may lead to oral and/or written placement/proficiency examinations in any specified areas of music and music ministry study.

Professional Experience

Applicants should have a minimum of two years of substantial experience in church music leadership. If such experience has not been obtained prior to admission to the D.M.A. program, it may be accomplished during the program of study but must be completed prior to the qualifying examination.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE AND GRADUATE RECORD EXAMINATION

The grade point average (GPA) and the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) verbal and analytical writing scores will be considered on the following five-point sliding scale. For the application to be accepted, the individual must have a combined score of "0" or higher on the three components. Scores can be no older than 5 years.

	-2	-1	0	+1	+2
GPA	below 3.0	3.0-3.25	3.26-3.5	3.51-3.75	3.76-4.0
GRE Verbal	below 400	400-490	500-540	550-610	above 610
GRE Writing	below 4.0	4.0	4.5	5.0-5.5	6.0

Although not included in the above calculation, the quantitative score will be considered in the overall evaluation of the applicant.

Doctor of Musical Arts

Program Schedule

Full-time students generally can complete the program in 3 1/2-4 years. A typical semester load for a full-time student is six to ten semester hours of courses (1-2 semester hours each). On this schedule a student would complete course work after five semesters.

The qualifying examination (written and/or oral) is administered at the end of the first year of study (20 semester hours of courses) and includes music history and literature, music theory, recognition of musical styles, and bibliography. The results of the qualifying examination are used to determine the student's continuance in the D.M.A. program. Should the student qualify, the results of the examination are utilized in determining courses for the senior residency stage of the student's program.

The comprehensive examination (written and/or oral) is administered near the completion of course requirements and covers the major field of church music plus one of the following supportive areas: church music education, composition, conducting, hymnology, music history, music theory, organ, piano, or voice.

After submission of the dissertation, the candidate is given a final examination focusing on the dissertation.

Students who are engaged in full-time ministry are strongly encouraged to take only six semester hours of courses during senior residency, thus lengthening the program.

The program must be completed within seven years.

Program Stages

The D.M.A. program at NOBTS has three stages:

1. Residency: the first 20 semester hours of course work and a qualifying examination
2. Senior residency: the remainder of the course work and a comprehensive examination
3. Candidacy: dissertation research and writing

Dissertation Requirements

D.M.A. candidates must write a dissertation that demonstrates the candidate's ability to do independent and original research, mastery of a research methodology, competency to report logically the results of the research, expertise in presenting the research in acceptable style, and contribution to the academic discipline. The dissertation may contain no less than 25,000 nor more than 50,000 words, unless otherwise authorized by the student's guidance committee. Students with recital requirements will not be expected to write such an extensive dissertation.

The approval of a dissertation topic goes through several stages.

- Approval of a research proposal by division (must be approved before the oral comprehensive examination)
- Completion of RDOC9303 Prospectus Development
- Review of a prospectus by the Research Doctoral Oversight Committee (cannot be done until after the student passes the comprehensive examination)
- Following ReDOC review, approval of a prospectus by the guidance committee at least four months before the dissertation is presented

Students are required to use the style guides approved by the seminary faculty, as listed above.

Four copies of the completed dissertation (plain-paper copies in four separate boxes) must be submitted unbound to the Office of Research Doctoral Programs by the March 1 or October 1 deadline. Appropriate dissertation and diploma fees must be paid at the time of submission.

Following the dissertation defense, four copies of the final corrected document as approved by the guidance committee must be submitted on white, 100% cotton paper, unbound, in four separate boxes, through the guidance committee chairperson to the Office of Research Doctoral Programs no later than two weeks prior to graduation.

Copies must be accompanied by the Doctoral Dissertation Agreement Form (including the copyright authorization portion) at the back of the UMI Dissertation Services booklet Publishing Your Dissertation: How to Prepare Your Manuscript for Publication. For details, students should request the Graduation Checklist sheet from the Office of Research Doctoral Programs.

If the dissertation is rejected following an unsatisfactory dissertation defense and if the guidance committee looks with favor upon its resubmission, a period of three months must elapse before it may be presented again. The student would register as a writing candidate and pay full tuition.

If the dissertation is rejected for form, style, and/or minor content reasons following a satisfactory dissertation defense and if the guidance committee looks with favor upon its resubmission, the dissertation may be presented again no sooner than two months after the dissertation defense and no later than two months prior to the following graduation date. The student would register for Program Continuance and pay a reduced tuition.

Permission to resubmit the dissertation does not involve a commitment as to the time of graduation. If final presentation of the dissertation exceeds seven years after the initial registration for the degree, candidacy for the degree is forfeited.

CENTERS FOR RESEARCH & MINISTRY

Baptist Center for Theology and Ministry

Directed by Dr. Stan Norman

The Baptist Center for Theology and Ministry exists to provide theological and ministerial resources to enrich and energize ministry in Baptist churches. Our goal is to bring together professor and practitioner to produce and apply these resources to Baptist life, polity, and ministry.

The mission of the BCTM is to develop, preserve, and communicate the distinctive theological identity of Baptists. Some of the best minds for developing theology from a distinctively Baptist perspective are found in our Baptist seminaries, colleges, and universities, as well as in many Baptist churches. The Baptist Center serves as a “converging point” to develop theology that shapes the beliefs of the Church, structures the life of the Church, directs the decision-making processes of the Church, and defines the ministry practices of the Church.

The Baptist distinctives that have fostered so much ministry and mission in previous generations are waning in today’s Baptist churches. A renewed vision for what it means to be a Baptist is desperately needed. The Center attempts to recover and communicate this vision by exploring and publicizing our Baptist heritage, distinctives, and polity.

The Baptist Center strives to “push theology out of presentations and books and into the pews of our churches.” The Center is devoted to ensuring that the “theological reflection of the academy” results in “ministry that lives in the church.” The integration of theology targets concerns such as motivation for ministry, integrity within ministry, methods of ministry, and goals for ministry.

The BCTM seeks to interact and assist Baptist churches in their obedience to the Great Commandment and participation in the Great Commission. “Theology is the servant of the Church.” The Baptist Center specifically targets issues directly related to Baptist life and ministry through a variety of platforms, networks, partnerships, meetings, and publications. The various forums that address issues relevant to Baptist life and ministry include: the Journal for Baptist Theology and Ministry, professional meetings and conferences, a variety of publications, and online resources.

Center for Archaeological Research

Directed by Dr. Dennis Cole

The Center for Archaeological Research serves to encourage the scholarly development and research of the Seminary faculty, and to train and inspire a new generation of biblical scholars to engage in current research in the disciplines of biblical archaeology and biblical studies. The Center for Archaeological Research was established as a Southern Baptist effort to provide a presence in the field and impact the discipline of biblical archaeology.

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary has a long history of involvement in Biblical Archaeology. For over half a century, seminary professors have served as directors and field supervisors for students who have participated in various archaeological research and field schools such as Aphek, Beersheba, Tel Masos, Batash- Timnah, Tel Qasile, Tel Beth Shean, and Tel Rehov. In addition, NOBTS has been a consortium member at Tel Aphek and Tel Batash. The current director brings a wealth of experience and direction to the archaeology program at NOBTS.

The Seminary offers a variety of concentrations and minors related to the field of archaeology. A concentration in Biblical Backgrounds is available with the M.Div. in Biblical Studies and the M.A. (Biblical Studies). A minor in the field is offered through the Th.M. degree and a Ph.D. minor is available with 5 doctoral seminars offered in the area.

Currently, the main objective of the program is to secure an archaeological research site. This program will consist of an on- going field project in the Middle East and support the research and scholarly pursuits of the faculty.

The center will also support a field school that will provide students with an opportunity to participate in scholarly research, participate in an overseas study program, and visit the Lands of the Bible. The Center will also develop and provide resources for students who are in Biblical Studies, Bible Backgrounds, and Archaeology programs at the seminary.

The Archaeological Research Program now holds the collection of artifacts from the archaeology museum formerly housed at the John T. Christian Library. This collection with the various artifact study collections of faculty will be the basis for the program’s artifact study collection. In addition, an extensive collection of maps, digital images, slides, and videos is also a part of the Seminary’s archaeological holdings.

Center for New Testament Textual Studies

Directed by Dr. Bill Warren

The Center for New Testament Textual Studies (CNTTS) is an internationally recognized research center devoted to the study of the New Testament text in the Greek manuscripts. The Center houses a substantial collection of New Testament manuscripts in various formats, including photographic facsimiles, printed editions, microfilms, and bound photocopies, and supports researchers engaged in a variety of studies.

The CNTTS is dedicated to training and inspiring a new generation of scholars who will engage in serious study of the Greek New Testament. As the heirs of the sacrificial work of others who have given their lives to preserving, copying, and studying the manuscripts and printed text of the New Testament, the CNTTS represents a Southern Baptist effort to contribute responsibly to that work.

The Center works with current efforts in the field of New Testament textual studies in order to aid in providing access to texts and textual data as feasible. Besides its own collection, the CNTTS can coordinate access to manuscripts through loans from other libraries and institutions. Also, based upon collaborative agreements and research, the CNTTS provides access to microfilms from the International Greek New Testament Project's collection.

The CNTTS seeks to aid in the integration of technology with the study of New Testament manuscripts and the task of collating manuscripts. The CNTTS utilizes a computer database system for manuscript collations to enhance the possibilities for entering, retrieving, and analyzing the evidence found in manuscripts.

The CNTTS also provides a platform for enhancing the possibilities for NOBTS students to engage in intensive study of the New Testament text through the collation of New Testament manuscripts and analysis of manuscript relationships. Courses on both the M.Div. and Ph.D. level provide training in the use of this technology within the field of New Testament textual criticism. NOBTS offers more courses in the area of New Testament textual criticism, including two courses on the M.Div. level and two Ph.D. seminars, than any other graduate institution in North America.

To contact Dr. Warren concerning textual research and study opportunities, or to obtain more information call (800) 662-8701, ext. 3735; send e-mail to wwarren@nobts.edu, or access the CNTTS web site at www.nobts.edu/cntts.

Cecil B. Day Center for Church Planting & The Nehemiah Project

Directed by Dr. Jack Allen

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary's Cecil B. Day Center for Church Planting is the coordination site for The Nehemiah Project, an innovative church planting endeavor sponsored by the Southern Baptist Convention's North American Mission Board.

The Nehemiah Project is an agreement between NAMB and NOBTS, seeking to bring about a dramatically higher percentage of seminary students who will graduate to become church planters across the United States. NAMB is establishing the Nehemiah Project at all six of the SBC seminaries, as well as the Canadian Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Calgary.

The Nehemiah Project strengthens several church planting opportunities already available to students at New Orleans Seminary, established by the SBC in 1917 in the most urban setting of any of the six SBC seminaries:

- NOBTS has two master of divinity degrees with specializations in church planting, one in partnership with the SBC's International Mission Board and the other with NAMB. Each degree program includes a funded two-year internship on the field.
- In 1987, New Orleans Seminary became the first SBC seminary to establish an endowed professorial position in church planting, named in honor of Cecil B. Day, an entrepreneur, compassionate Christian statesman and faithful Christian gentleman. Day, the founder of the national Days Inn motel chain, had a passion for church planting, especially in the northeastern United States.

Through the Nehemiah Project, NAMB provides resources for each seminary to call a professor of church planting who also is director of each seminary's church planting center.

At NOBTS, because of the already established church planting endowment fund, the church planting center is called the Cecil B. Day Center for Church Planting. The church planting director, who all also are fully appointed NAMB missionaries, teaches church planting principles and partners with the seminaries to discover students with a calling, a giftedness, an ability and a temperament necessary for church planting. Through the Nehemiah Project, NAMB provides stipends to assist students during church planting internships in both short-term and long-term assignments.

Landrum P. Leavell II Center for Evangelism & Church Health

Directed by Dr. David Meacham

Statistics indicate that 73% of Southern Baptist churches are plateaued or declining, 8 out of 10 new members to Christian churches are from someone else's church, and most churches have no clearly defined strategy for making disciples by moving unsaved and unchurched people through conversion to the image of Jesus Christ.

The Landrum P. Leavell II Center for Evangelism and Church Health, as a ministry of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, seeks to be informed by such statistics, looks to the LORD of the Church for His expectations, then faithfully seeks to make a difference through evangelism, church growth, and church health strategies.

Named for our seventh president, Dr. Landrum P. Leavell II, the Leavell Center exists as the seminary's ministry to churches, agencies and institutions of the Southern Baptist Convention. Our purpose is to assist Southern Baptist churches, agencies and institutions in the development and implementation of strategies for effective evangelism and measurable church health.

Using the latest in computer technology the Leavell Center, for a nominal fee, can access data from the U.S. Census Bureau for any community within the United States. This information, when interpreted by the Leavell Center's team of church health analysts, will yield a demographic and psychographic profile helpful in developing a customized strategy of evangelistic outreach for a local church and in identifying evangelistic methodologies which will prove helpful in reaching a specific community for Christ.

One of the primary goals of the Leavell Center for Evangelism and Church Health is to motivate and equip students to fulfill the Great Commission. To prepare students for a lifetime of Great Commission service, the Leavell Center, in conjunction with the faculty of the seminary, is constantly developing evangelistic mission projects in which our students participate. Throughout the school year students have the opportunity to share the Gospel throughout New Orleans and around the world.

For more information about the Landrum P. Leavell II Center for Evangelism and Church Health, its programs, services or calendar of events, contact the Leavell Center at (504) 282-4455, ext. 3320, or visit us on the Internet at www.leavellcenter.com.

Global Missions Center

Directed by Dr. Philip Pinckard

The vision of the Global Missions Center of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to research effective global mission strategies, train Christians for global missions service, resource global mission Christians, and reach the globally unreached with the gospel. Matthew 4:19 states the Lord's call: "And He said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.'"

1. Researching Effective Missions Strategies for Unreached People Groups

The student body and faculty are encouraged to develop specific strategies for reaching unreached people groups and population segments. Missionaries may spend their stateside assignments conducting research and doing further study on our campus.

2. Training Christians for Global Missions Service

The Global Missions Center provides a visible way to integrate classroom experience with a seminary entity dedicated to international missions and to heighten awareness of global missions on our campus. The Global Missions Center partners with the Providence Learning Center and other entities such as the IMB to offer training events for persons related to international missions.

3. Resourcing Global Mission Christians

Coordinating the interaction of IMB missionaries and personnel with the seminary community represents an important element of resourcing global mission Christians. A website provides online resources, links to other missions websites, and resources for local churches.

4. Reaching the Globally Unreached

Reaching the globally unreached means all seminary students should be challenged to help local churches become Acts 1:8 churches with a vision to take the gospel to the ends of the earth. Coordination of seminary sponsored international missions trips and partnerships with overseas missionaries provide seminary students, faculty, and staff the opportunity to participate in overseas mission projects.

Dr. Ken Taylor serves as the Missions Mobilization Coordinator for the Global Missions Center. View the website for the Global Missions Center on the NOBTS website, call (504) 816-8124, or email globalmissionscenter@nobts.edu for more information.

Providence Learning Center

Directed by Dr. Allen Jackson

The mission of the Providence Learning Center (PLC) is to create and facilitate lifelong learning opportunities that encourage and equip individuals, churches, and ministries to achieve and maintain vital, healthy Kingdom ministry. PLC serves as the continuing education, conference planning and coordinating ministry of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.

A wide variety of conferences, seminars, workshops, and other special events are offered that focus on the current needs and concerns of church ministry leaders, seminary students and NOBTS alumni. Qualified and experienced faculty members and other Christian leaders are selected to present practical, relevant continuing education opportunities that emphasize doctrinal integrity, spiritual vitality, mission focus, characteristic excellence, and servant leadership. Continuing Education Units (CEUs) are offered to those individuals who complete full participation requirements in these continuing education events.

The PLC also facilitates MissionLab New Orleans. MissionLab New Orleans is an exciting ministry that provides custom-tailored, short-term mission opportunities for church youth groups, college students, families and senior adults who desire to join God at work in the Greater New Orleans area. Customizing a group's mission trip involves coordinating their mission project sites, mission site orientation, housing, meals and worship opportunities.

By allowing MissionLab to coordinate these logistics, incoming mission groups are able to invest more time and energy into the physical, mental, and spiritual health of the communities they minister in throughout the Greater New Orleans area. MissionLab desires to be a catalyst for life change for both the residents of New Orleans and the incoming mission groups. MissionLab New Orleans will host over 2,000 missionaries throughout this year!

To find out more about MissionLab New Orleans and other lifelong learning opportunities through the Providence Learning Center, visit our web sites at www.providencelearningcenter.com or www.missionlab.com; or email us at plc@nobts.edu; or call us at 504-282-4455 ext. 3260 or 800-662-8701, ext. 3260.

Women's Ministry Program

Directed by Dr. Rhonda Kelley

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary was the first Southern Baptist school to offer formal, specialized theological education in the area of women's ministry. Since its beginning in March 1997, this innovative program has increased in student enrollment and degree options. Its success is the result of growing interest in women's ministry, the need for pragmatic training in women's work, and increased leadership roles for women in the local church. God is preparing hundreds of women to minister to other women through their local churches.

The Courses

The Women's Ministry Program offers short-term courses at the main NOBTS campus year-round during academic workshops. Courses are offered in a convenient three or five-day class format, approximately five times each year. In addition, two courses are taught online each semester.

The Course Schedule

A multi-year course schedule and description of courses may be obtained from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. Students who have received at least a high school diploma or its equivalent may earn baccalaureate academic credit for these certificate courses and graduate students can earn masters level credit.

Youth Ministry Institute

Directed by Dr. Allen Jackson

The Youth Ministry Institute (YMI) of the New Orleans Seminary was created in 1999 to provide an intentional strategy for youth ministry training. YMI features multiple delivery systems, taking into consideration the training needs for on-campus students, extension students, graduate students, undergraduate students, and volunteer or bivocational youth ministers who desire continuing training.

YMI has grown to encompass all of the youth ministry training offered at the Seminary. The mission of the Youth Ministry Institute is to extend the mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary by providing leadership in: advanced research, practical application, quality training, and on-going dialogue, for those who work with youth.

Youth Ministry classes offered annually during the regular semester sessions include Introduction to Youth Ministry, Advanced Youth Ministry, Youth Culture, Adolescent Psychology, and Youth Ministry: Issues and Practice. Weekend classes (Thursday - Saturday schedule) address discipleship competencies: theology, doctrine, polity, ethics, leadership, and ministry skills.

The Youth Ministry Institute in January is an event--two one-week sessions, back to back and designed intensive training for students and youth ministry veterans based on expert presentations and round table discussion. It can be taken for academic credit or as a module in the new Certificate in Youth Ministry.

The Certificate in Youth Ministry is a way that youth ministers and volunteer youth workers can get training in specific aspects of youth ministry through a combination of YMI in January and a series of weekend events (modules). Eight modules are required for the certificate which can be completed in as little as two calendar years.

For more information on the Youth Ministry Institute, check out the website at www.youthministry.org.

HOUSING

Assignment of Seminary Housing

A request for seminary housing must be made in writing to the Housing Office. The request should be made immediately upon receipt of a letter of approval from the Registrar. Assignments are made in order as space is available. A letter of assignment will be sent to the applicant once assignment is finalized.

Deposit

The following policies will govern deposits:

Dormitories. A non-refundable confirmation/deposit fee (see fee schedule) is to be submitted with the dormitory application. At check-in, the breakage deposit (see fee schedule) is to be paid when the keys are received. This deposit will be refunded at the end of the student's residence in the dormitory, as long as proper check-out procedures are followed and no damage has occurred.

Apartments. Upon receipt of the letter of apartment assignment, the student will submit a confirmation fee (see fee schedule) to confirm the reservation of the residence. If the applicant cancels the application prior to occupancy, the confirmation fee may not be refunded if the residence cannot be reassigned before it stands vacant. This confirmation fee is counted toward the deposit (see fee schedule) which is due when keys are received. A refundable portion may be given back to the resident upon move-out as long as proper check-out procedures are followed and no damage, painting and/or extensive wallpapering has occurred. Once a residence has been accepted, rent will begin on the date the residence is assigned to the applicant whether the keys have been obtained or not.

Priority of Assignment

Priority of apartment assignment is determined by the date the application is made and the date that the applicant has indicated acceptance of an apartment. The waiting list for apartments consists of three groups: (1) students who have been enrolled at least one term, (2) students currently enrolled, and (3) students who have been approved for admission, but have not enrolled.

A dependent other than a child will be considered as one child. No additional charge will be made in cases where the dependent is truly a dependent and not merely using seminary housing while earning a living or attending school, etc.

Students who register or drop courses such that it puts them below a full-time load will be reported from the Registrar's Office to the Housing Office and the Financial Aid Office. Students who are not full-time students are not eligible for campus housing or financial aid. A full-time graduate student must take 9 hours per semester. Academic workshop hours do not count toward full-time load.

Laundry

Washer and dryer hookups are available in States, Farnsworth, and Manor apartments. All other residents have access to laundry facilities in their respective complex. Campus laundry facilities are also available at the Courtyard Apartments.

Refrigerators

Dormitories. Personal refrigerators are not permitted in the dormitories. Community refrigerators are provided by the seminary and are located in the various kitchenette units within each respective building.

Refrigerator requests may be made at any time prior to or during residency. However, all requests are subject to availability and a three day waiting period for the unit's transfer.

Utilities

Water for all apartments is furnished by the seminary. Students occupying apartments where utilities are not furnished by the seminary are required to use individual meters for gas and electricity, dealing directly with Entergy.

Phone

All student-housing units are provided with local phone service through the seminary phone system. Telephone charges (local) are included with rent. Long-distance calls are billed through the seminary phone systems. Any student on the Seminary system may elect to use a long distance calling card (refer all questions regarding this arrangement to telephone services at ext. 8599). Telephones are not provided in any campus housing units (including dormitories).

Pets

Dormitories. No animals of any kind. Dormitories are not allowed to have small caged pets or aquarium pets of any kind.

Apartments. No animals of any kind (exclusive of aquarium and small caged pets) are allowed in seminary-owned student housing units. Dogs, cats, and ferrets are not considered to be small caged pets.

Dormitory Rooms

Dormitory rooms are provided for both men and women. This area of housing accommodates single students or married students whose families are not in residence with them at the seminary.

Room assignments are made by the Housing Office after a student has been accepted by the seminary and has submitted an application for housing. Specific room number assignments are made upon arrival.

Room rental charges begin when the keys are obtained from the Housing Office upon moving out. The room will be inspected for cleanliness and damages, and the deposit will be refunded/forfeited based on this inspection. Rental payments must be made to the Business Office at the beginning of each calendar month.

The seminary reserves the right to require that all dormitory rooms be semi-private in occupancy when the enrollment makes such occupancy necessary. Furniture may not be moved in or out of the rooms. Each room is equipped with two beds and desks, which must remain in the room; removal of these items will result in a forfeiture of deposit. These organizations provide opportunities for service, friendship development, and personal growth. Various organizations on the campus minister to the spiritual as well as the social needs of Bivocational Pastors Fellowship (BPF) is an organization for undergraduate and graduate students who are serving or will serve as bivocational pastors. As an auxiliary organization to Shepherds Fellowship Forum, BPF also meets each semester to encourage and mentor students in bivocational pastoral ministry. Individuals interested in finding a place of service are encouraged to contact this office for counsel, resume development, and information. The Financial Aid Office is a point of reference for students and spouses seeking information about jobs.

As a result, New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary students pay lower tuition-based fees as compared to fees in non-SBC evangelical seminaries. Non-Baptist students pay an added fee for instruction (see Student Fees section).

Federal and State Loan Deferments

The seminary does not participate in any state or federally funded loan or grant programs.

However, enrolled students do qualify for deferment of payment of existing federally guaranteed student loans and should contact their lender for specific information.

Financial Aid Office

The Financial Aid Office is a part of the Dean of Students Office, located in the Hardin Student Center and can be contacted at (504) 282-4455, ext. 3348.

Grants

Applications are available for grants to assist with current tuition costs during the Fall and Spring semesters. Awards are made on a need basis and vary in amount. Application does not insure that an award will be made. Application periods are April 1-30 (Fall semester) and September 1-30 (Spring semester). All applicants must apply online at the NOBTS website, www.nobts.edu/students/nobts_grant.htm.

Main campus graduate students must maintain full-time status (9 semester hours) through the academic period covered by the grant award. Extension Center students must maintain enrollment in at least two courses per semester through the academic period covered by the grant award. Anyone who receives an award must return a thank-you letter and a copy of the letter to the Financial Aid Office within two weeks of notification of the award.

In order to be awarded a grant, each applicant must have a zero balance on his/her student account.

Fast Automated Cash Transfer System (FACTS)

FACTS is a tuition management program that provides students with a low cost plan for budgeting tuition expenses. It is not a loan program; therefore, the student has no debt, there are no interest or finance charges assessed, and there is no credit check. The only fee to budget payments through FACTS (ACH/ bank draft) is a nonrefundable enrollment fee of $25.00 per semester. Payments can also be budgeted through a Credit Card option. However, FACTS (CC) fees are based on the amount budgeted, including an enrollment fee of $2.50.

How to enroll with FACTS: Using FACTS is simple. Once students determine the amount needed to budget, they complete the Automatic Tuition Payment Agreement form. Problems accessing IQ Web should be directed to the ITC office at (504) 282-4455 extension 8180.

The form must be completed by the day of validation set by the Registrar's Office. This agreement allows the students' financial institution to automatically make payments for the amount established in section four of the FACTS Agreement Form. The financial institution will make these payments on the students' behalf from either their checking or savings account.

Payment Schedule: Students may budget 4 months per semester with payments beginning in September (Fall semester), February (Spring Semester) and June (Summer terms). Agreement forms should be submitted online. Any form not submitted online must be received by the seminary 30 days prior to the first payment date. All payments should be processed on the 20th of the month, unless a student is graduating at the end of the current semester. Students are responsible for notifying the seminary of any changes they would like made to the original agreement. In the event there are consistent problems with any student's agreement, the Financial Aid Office reserves the right to terminate the FACTS agreement and restrict the use of the FACTS program.

Emergency Aid

The seminary maintains an active program of assistance for students who are experiencing short-term financial emergencies. Students seeking such assistance may contact the Financial Aid Office.

Miscellaneous Scholarships

The Financial Aid Office maintains a web page which contains descriptions of various non-seminary sources for financial assistance. Included in the information will be qualifications, contact persons and phone numbers or addresses. State Baptist conventions and foundations are listed on the web page.

Any church, organization, or donor may contribute funds for a particular student by including written instructions with their donation. For information on the deductibility of the gift for tax purposes, please contact the NOBTS Office of Development.

Additional options for making a gift are also available.

Financial Counseling

The Dean of Students Office is aware of the unique pressures associated with seminary life in the area of personal finance and family relationships. The Director of Financial Aid is available to assist current students and students approved for admission in the analysis of financial matters or to provide encouragement in other areas of student family life.

Awards

A "Celebration of Excellence," the annual awards assembly, occurs near the end of the spring semester each year. The purpose of the assembly is to recognize and honor outstanding senior students in the graduating class of the academic year in the various degree programs.

Students are chosen by an Awards Committee composed of the Provost, the Dean of Graduate Studies, the Dean of Leavell College, the five divisional chairpersons, the Registrar, and the Dean of Students. The committee gives major consideration to evidences of an uncommon measure of excellence in personal and spiritual qualities, academic and scholarly achievement, and capacity for Christian ministry.

The awards consist of appropriate plaques for all recipients, books for most, and one monetary award.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshipping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Local Churches

The Southern Baptist churches provide opportunities for worship, Bible study, prayer, witnessing, leadership, spiritual discipline, and missions activities for the seminary family. A list of these churches may be obtained from the Baptist Association of Greater New Orleans office (504) 282-1428.

Chapel Services

The Fall and Spring semesters allow the seminary family to gather each Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 10:00 a.m. in Leavell Chapel for worship. The Summer term chapel services are conducted on Tuesdays at 11:00 a.m. in Martin Chapel.

Founders' Day

Founders' Day is observed each October to celebrate the opening of the school on October 1, 1917, which was led by the seminary's first president, B. H. DeMent.

Missionary Days

Special chapel days are designated to invite missionaries, pastors, and denominational workers to lead the seminary family in missions awareness and commitment.

A Message from the Dean of Admissions and Registrar

The Dean of Admissions and Registrar's Office has the privilege to serve students from the time they apply to New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary to the time they graduate. Our responsibility is to navigate the students through each semester, each academic year, and through their entire degree program so that they may successfully complete the specialization to which God has called them. The Dean of Admissions and Registrar's Office provides the services of academic advisement, permanent maintenance of all academic records, and provision of transcripts. Our desire is to help students finish the requirements for their degree in a timely manner so that they will be able to go to all parts of the world to fulfill the Great Commission.

Our main objective is to make sure the students of New Orleans Seminary are able to understand and interpret the Academic Policies of the institution that are listed in the catalog. The Dean of Admissions and Registrar's Office is a resource for students to receive direction in their degree programs.

Dr. Paul Gregoire
Dean of Admissions and Registrar

EDUCATIONAL PREPARATION

Students who have received a Bachelor of Arts degree or its equivalent from a college or university accredited by a regional accrediting agency approved by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) may be admitted as candidates for master's degrees at NOBTS.

Prerequisite baccalaureate-level work at institutions not accredited by an agency recognized by CHEA may be accepted in full or in part, or rejected, according to the evaluation given by a state university in the state in which the institution is located. Students admitted under this provision are admitted on a probationary basis for one semester in which they must maintain a "C" average. Such admissions are normally restricted to the graduates of schools that are in the process of earning regional accreditation.

In cases in which baccalaureate level work was earned at an institution which is neither recognized by a CHEA recognized accreditation agency nor accepted by a state institution, the Registry Office will perform an individual transcript evaluation of the applying student's academic work. Such students might be admitted with the following stipulations:

1. The student must have earned at least a 2.5 GPA out of 4.0 in their academic preparation, preferably earned in on-site classes rather than through correspondence.
2. The student must demonstrate their potential for graduate academic work by scoring at least 350 on verbal and quantitative sections of the GRE and 3.5 on the writing section of the GRE.
3. The student might be required to take some remedial or leveling course work as a prerequisite for admission.
4. The student might be admitted under academic probation for one semester, in which the student must maintain at least a "C" average.
5. In no case may such admissions exceed 10 percent of the student body, or 20 percent of an individual class.
6. There is no guarantee that any such academic work will be accepted for credit at NOBTS. The Registrar may recommend denying admission, accepting partial credit, or allowing admission with certain stipulations. The decision of the Registrar and Provost is final with regard to admission.

ADMISSIONS PROCEDURES

All applications must be made on an official form, furnished by the Registry Office on the first floor of the Hardin Student Center. Applications include a health certificate and immunization form, church statement, statement of conversion and call, and the additional information sheet.

When the necessary information has been received, action will be taken on applications by the Admissions Council. The Council is composed of the President, the Provost, the Dean of Leavell College, the Registrar, the Academic Advisor, and the Director of Testing. Division chairpersons and others are called upon to assist as needed.

The Registrar will notify applicants of decisions. Applicants will not be admitted until they have received formal notice of approval from the Provost or the Registrar. If an applicant has been denied admission, he or she must wait a minimum of twelve months before he or she can reapply.

A full application must be submitted to the proper office after the one year has passed.

Eligibility

To be eligible for admission an applicant must have been a Christian for at least one year, must meet the educational prerequisites for the degree program he or she plans to pursue, and must be at least 20 years of age. All students must have the endorsement of a local church. All qualified applicants are admitted without reference to race, sex, or national origin.

Deadlines

The admission form should be completed and returned to the Registry Office at least thirty days prior to the date the applicant wishes to enroll. In no case should the application be submitted later than thirty days prior to the beginning of the term. If an applicant has experienced divorce or is an international student, the admissions form should be completed and returned to the Registry Office at least 60 days prior to the anticipated date of enrollment to allow time for interview and personality profiles.

Application materials submitted to the Registry Office are valid for one year from the date filed.

Students who do not enroll within a year after being granted admission to the seminary must file a new application. Former students who have been out of the seminary for one academic term, but not for a full year, must bring their admission materials up-to-date by submitting an Application for Readmission. Former students who have been out of the seminary for one year or more must file a new application and must re-enter under the latest Catalog.

Immunizations

In compliance with Public Health regulations in the State of Louisiana for all students in institutions of higher learning, the following immunizations are required for students attending in the State of Louisiana:

1. Tetanus/Diphtheria - every ten years.
2. Mumps/Rubella - once in lifetime.
3. Measles - students born on or after 1/1/57 must have two inoculations since 1968.

The seminary recommends an influenza vaccine in the fall of each year for students with certain health concerns as follows: congenital or acquired heart disease, chronic pulmonary disorders, chronic renal disease or nephrotic syndrome, sickle cell anemia or other chronic anemias, Diabetes Mellitus, any transplant patient or HIV-positive patient, or any student over age 65.

TB testing is required of all New Orleans main campus new students prior to their first registration. The seminary also recommends a T.B.-P.P.D. test for any new tuberculosis (TB) exposure. All prior exposures with a positive P.P.D. should be followed by chest X-rays at regular intervals.

Proof of immunizations in writing on official agency letterhead and signed by a health care professional must be provided as a part of the admissions process. Without such proof, the student will not be admitted into the seminary. Immunizations are available in the Clinic for a fee. This fee varies each semester, so please feel free to call for information. Students who request exemption for medical reasons must provide documentation by a physician and be cleared for exemption by the campus medical director and the Dean of Students.

Health Insurance

All students are required to have some type of hospitalization plan. Students with private health policies must provide evidence of this coverage at registration.

The seminary has arranged a group student health plan for persons needing coverage. Coverage for dependents also is available in this group plan.

Divorce and Estrangement

Applicants who are married but living in estrangement from their spouses will be considered on an individual basis. Every effort will be made to be sympathetic with applicants while upholding high Christian principles in keeping with the process outlined below.

Applicants who have been divorced may be admitted to the Seminary if they meet the following conditions:

- (a) that the marriage relationship has been terminated by divorce judgement.
- (b) that at least one year has passed since the divorce judgement.
- (c) that the applicants present evidence that they have dealt appropriately with the emotional pain and financial consequences of the divorce;
- (d) that the applicants' usefulness in Christian service be highly recommended by a local church and personal references;
- (e) that both the applicant and spouse (if remarried) are committed to the sanctity of marriage.

Divorced or separated applicants are required to complete a Divorce/ Separation Information Form and be interviewed by the Seminary counselor. In some cases, the Seminary counselor may require the applicant to complete standard psychological tests. The Seminary Admissions Council reserves the right to base its decision about admission on the facts found in each case in accordance with the Seminary's policies on divorce.

Current students who experience a separation or divorce will be required to drop out of the Seminary for at least a year in order to allow adequate time for the individual to recover emotionally, spiritually, and financially from the pain and scars left by separation and divorce. In such cases, the student and/or non-student spouse will not be allowed to remain in Seminary student housing. The specific timetable for the academic withdrawal and vacating housing will be determined in light of the circumstances by the Dean of Students.

Opportunities for service in local churches may be more limited for Seminary graduates with a divorce than for other graduates. Divorced applicants should explore a realistic assessment of the range of opportunities of service open to them before pursuing Seminary training.

International Students

International students must be able to present evidence that they have earned a degree which is the equivalent of the Bachelor of Arts degree offered in American colleges and universities. International students will need to have their academic records and transcripts evaluated by World Education Services, Inc., Post Office Box 745, Old Chelsea Station, New York, NY 10011, www.wes.org

World Education Services, Inc., should be contacted for information in obtaining the necessary forms. World Education Services, Inc., charges a fee for this evaluation. Please request that World Education Services, Inc., forward directly to the seminary a document-by-document copy of the evaluation.

Students whose native language is not English must take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). The minimum score for admissions approval is 550 on the paper test or 213 on the computer test. Students must also score a minimum of 4.5 on the Test of Written English (TWE), which is now given concurrently with the TOEFL. Both tests must be taken prior to the Admissions Council granting admissions approval. The tests are given through Educational Testing Service, Box 899, Princeton, NJ 08540, www.ets.org

United States Immigration regulations make it mandatory that persons entering the United States on a student (F-1) visa show adequate resources for their seminary training. Therefore, international students will need to provide a written certification from a bank or similar financial agency certifying they presently have on deposit in a savings account the minimal requirement for one year of study at the seminary for a single or a married student. Applicants may contact the International Student Advisor in the Registry Office for the adequate funds required.

To fulfill Department of Homeland Security requirements, international students must:

- (1) maintain full-time status which equates to nine (9) graduate semester hours per semester.
- (2) students must maintain full-time status to remain in campus housing.

Students whose native language is not English must also take the Speaking Proficiency English Assessment Kit (SPEAK) exam or the Test of Spoken English (TSE) for placement once they are approved for admissions. Students should contact Educational Testing Service (ETS) for the TSE test fee and schedule.

Students may choose to take the TSE prior to their enrollment in NOBTS, or they may take the SPEAK exam which is administered at NOBTS any time prior to the week of registration of the fall and spring semesters. They should contact the NOBTS Coordinator of Language Testing to schedule an examination time for SPEAK and to obtain information on the testing fee.

Students enrolled in Speaking and Listening English and/or Reading and Writing English may take no more than 12 hours of classes per semester, including these classes.

English Competency

All new master's level students are required to demonstrate a level of competency for reading and writing in the English language that is consistent with graduate level coursework. Level of competency will be determined by analysis of undergraduate transcripts. Individuals with a combined GPA of less than 2.0 in undergraduate English coursework will be required to enroll in English Composition during the first semester of study at NOBTS. Students required to take English Composition will receive notification in their letter of acceptance.

Orientation and Registration

All students enrolling in New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary for the first time will be expected to attend the full period of orientation. Students who find it impossible to participate in all of these activities during the closest new student orientation period at the beginning of the fall and spring semesters will be charged a late orientation fee of $100.00 and will be required to participate in the next orientation period. During this period of orientation students will receive instructions concerning various phases of seminary life and will be given materials necessary for registration. Students who are re-entering will be expected to attend the first session of the registration schedule as outlined in instructions mailed to them prior to enrollment. If applicants have not received specific instructions, they should check at the Registry Office.

When enrolling at any term other than the fall, applicants should check with the Registry Office for instructions. Students are expected to watch official bulletin boards and The Gatekeeper for notices concerning such official matters as registration and tuition. Admission to classes will not be permitted after 4:00 p.m. on Friday of the second week of class meetings of each regular semester. A late registration fee is required of all students who do not complete registration before 4:00 p.m. on the last day of registration.

Credit Evaluation

Academic credits may be transferred from other institutions toward a baccalaureate or master's degree in some cases, if they meet the following stipulations:

- The credit hours transferred may not exceed an amount equal to half of the degree from the original institution and half of the requirements of the degree being sought at NOBTS.
- The final 30 semester hours toward a degree must be taken at NOBTS.
- All courses transferred must be substantially parallel to the offerings of NOBTS and fulfill the requirements of the relevant degree plan. Courses which do not fulfill the requirements of the degree being sought cannot be transferred.
- Credit hours from seminaries which are members of ATS (the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada) must carry a grade of at least a "C" to be transferred.
- Credit hours from academic institutions accredited by an agency recognized by CHEA must carry a grade of at least a "B" to be transferred.
- Credit hours to be transferred from academic institutions not accredited by an agency recognized by CHEA must carry a grade of at least a "B" and preferably be earned in on-site classes rather than through correspondence up to 16 hours can be transferred.
- The decision of the Registrar and Provost is final with regard to the evaluation of all graduate transfer credits.

Full-time and Maximum Course Load

A full-time graduate student load is a minimum of nine (9) credit hours per semester. Students must have full-time status in order to be eligible for student housing and financial aid.

Maximum course load is 18 credit hours per semester. Students desiring to take additional courses must have the approval of the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies, and will be charged additional per credit hour tuition charges beyond the maximum tuition cap.

Academic Advising

Graduate faculty provide general guidance for specialized programs during the degree program orientation section of Student Orientation and by appointment in their offices. Students can monitor their academic progress online through IQ Student. However, the academic advisors in the Registrar's Office are the primary source for academic advising of graduate students. It is essential that students maintain frequent contact with their academic advisor in order to assure that they maintain progress toward their degree. Students who do not benefit from the advice of their academic advisor may be unaware of the scheduling of limited class offerings or overlook a degree requirement that could delay their graduation. Academic advisors for most graduate students are housed in the Registrar's Office, however, extension center students may also utilize academic advisors associated with the Extension Center System. Some specialized programs such as Music or Psychology and Counseling may require academic advising in these respective offices.

Students should consult their academic advisor during every registration period and before adding, dropping, or withdrawing from a class. Students should be sure to update their academic advisor immediately upon any change in the degree, specialization, or concentration they are seeking from the Seminary in order that their degree plan can be updated and to assure they may progress toward graduation without delay.

Writing Guides

In preparing research papers, seminar reports, and dissertations, students are required to follow the latest edition of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate Turabian, published by the University of Chicago Press.

All counseling students enrolled in counseling courses are required to follow the latest edition of The Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. Students in biblical studies are to follow the latest edition of the SBL Handbook of Style.

Absences

Class attendance is essential for effective learning. Students will be expected to attend all classes unless prevented by illness or emergency. No student who misses more than the maximum number of hours as prescribed below can receive credit for the course. A grade of "F" will be assigned to students who fail to attend class the minimum number of hours.

Class periods missed because of late enrollment will be counted as absences. Students may not enter after the end of the second week of the beginning of each regular semester. Three occasions of arriving late for a class or leaving early from class will count as one absence.

Students should take care to avoid unnecessary absences, so that illness or emergencies will not cause failure in the class. The maximum number of absences without failure are:

- 1 hour courses - 3 classroom hours absent
- 2 hour courses - 6 classroom hours absent
- 3 hour courses - 9 classroom hours absent
- 4 hour courses - 12 classroom hours absent

No absences are allowed in Saturday classes or Academic Workshops.

Independent Directed Study

Students may earn a limited amount of credit through independent directed study. The student may take no more than four independent directed studies per academic year (Fall, Spring, Summer) - one per regular semester, and no more than two in the summer. If taken in the summer, students may enroll in only one additional summer class while enrolled in an Independent Study. No independent directed study can be taken during an Academic Workshop session.

Independent Directed Studies include reading, writing, and research projects and must be done under the direction of a seminary faculty member. Students desiring independent directed study should submit a written proposal for the planned course to the professor who will direct the study. The professor will provide the appropriate form to request permission to take the independent directed study. All proposals must be approved by the professor, the appropriate division chairperson, and the Dean of Graduate Studies prior to registration. A copy of the proposal will become a part of the student's permanent file.

Students should register for an independent directed study during the regular registration process. Deadlines will be strictly enforced. Assignments must be completed two weeks before the end of the semester or one week before the end of a summer term. The fees for an independent directed study are not included in the student's regular tuition fees.

The fees include the current tuition fee for one course and an instruction fee. Fees must be paid at the time of registration for the course. See the section on student fees in this Catalog for current independent study fees. Students approved to register for an independent study after the regular registration period will pay the $100.00 late registration fee.

Auditing Classes

Seminary classes may be audited under certain conditions without credit. Regularly enrolled students are permitted to audit additional courses by scheduling such courses during the normal registration process. In no case may a student take more than a total of 19 hours in credit and audit classes per semester. Non-degree students desiring to audit must complete an application form available in the Registry Office for each semester in which they audit classes. Such applications must be approved by the Registrar in consultation as needed with the Provost and/or the professor involved, considering such factors as available space and academic prerequisites.

Academic Policies

See the section on student fees in this Catalog for current audit fees. Audit fees do not count toward load on tuition cap or scholarship/grants.

Auditors are expected to adhere to normal attendance requirements, but ordinarily are not expected to take tests or write papers. Participation in class discussion is allowed at the discretion of the professor. A grade of "S" or "U" will be given based upon attendance. Audited classes will never be counted as credit toward a degree. Students who have audited classes earlier may repeat the classes later for credit.

Dropping or Adding a Course

Adding a Course

Adding another course in addition to the student's schedule at registration must be done before August 29 (Fall Semester) and January 30 (Spring Semester). This can be done in the Registrar's Office and/or the academic advisor's office by completing the "Course Change Notice" form and paying the $10.00 per course fee. Students may not enroll in nineteen semester hours or more without permission of the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies, and they will be required to pay hourly tuition for the additional hours. A student should consult an academic advisor before dropping or adding any courses.

Classes Dropped during the Drop/Add Period

Dropping a course must be done before August 29 (Fall Semester) and January 30 (Spring Semester). Students who are properly registered for the course but do not need to take the course at this time must complete the "Course Change Notice" form in the Registrar's Office and/or academic advisor's office. A student should consult an academic advisor before dropping or adding any courses. The fee for dropping a course is $10.00 per course.

Withdrawal from a Course

Withdrawal from a Class after the Drop/Add Period

Classes cannot be dropped or added after August 29 (Fall Semester) and January 30 (Spring Semester). However, a student may withdraw from a class without complete withdrawal from school. In such cases, the student should request in writing the withdrawal in the Registrar's Office and/or the academic advisor's office. The student may receive a grade of "WP", "WF", or "F". A $60 course change fee will be assessed and tuition will not be refunded.

Withdrawal from a Saturday Class

Saturday students cannot receive credit for the course if they miss a class. After the first class meeting, the student who withdraws from a Saturday class forfeits tuition but is not charged a withdrawal fee. In such cases, the student should request in writing the withdrawal in Registrar's Office and/or academic advisor's office. The student may receive a grade of "WP", "WF", or "F". A $60 course change fee will be assessed and tuition will not be refunded.

Withdrawal from Internet Courses

Students may receive a refund of course tuition, less $50.00, if the withdrawal is prior to receiving access to course content. After receiving access to course content, no refund is available. Both the tuition for the course and the technology fee are nonrefundable after the student receives access to the course content.

Withdrawal from an Academic Workshop

Students withdrawing from an academic workshop will receive a refund for the course tuition, less $50. Students cannot receive credit for the course if they miss a class.

Complete Withdrawal from School

Students who request Complete Withdrawal from all classes before August 29 (Fall Semester) and January 30 (Spring Semester) may receive a full refund less $100.00 withdrawal fee ($50 for a student spouse). If the student has received a grant or scholarship, they will be required to repay that grant or scholarship when they withdraw from school. Students approved for Complete Withdrawal from school after August 29 (Fall Semester) and January 30 (Spring Semester) will not receive a refund and are required to repay any grants or scholarships that they have received.

A student who must withdraw from a class because of a personal or family emergency may receive a EW (Emergency Withdrawal) for the course and a partial refund. To qualify for this withdrawal, the student must petition the Provost of NOBTS before the Friday prior to the semester break.

Grading Scale

The grading scale for the master's programs is as follows:

- A - 93-100
- B - 85-92
- C - 77-84
- D - 70-76
- E - Course in progress
- F - Below 70 or failure in Pass/Fail course
- P - Pass in Pass/Fail Class
- I - Incomplete
- S - Satisfactory
- U - Unsatisfactory
- AW - Admin. Withdrawal
- WP - Withdrew Passing
- WF - Withdrew Failing
- FR - Failure Repeated
- EW - Emergency Withdrawal

Examinations

The time limit for final examinations shall be two hours and shall be strictly adhered to according to the schedule published in the Catalog. Late finals are permitted only in extreme emergencies and must be approved by the Academic Advisor. Early finals are not permitted. Scheduled sectional/unit exams: Prior arrangements made in consultation with the professor are at the discretion of the professor. A student who misses an exam because of illness or personal reasons should contact the professor to indicate the problem and a suggested time for make-up. A student who misses for no valid reason should be expected to take a make-up at the professor/grader's convenience and will incur a point penalty. Any student who misses a scheduled exam is expected to schedule with the professor (or grader) a make-up within one week of the missed exam. A minimum five-point penalty will be incurred for failure to do so.

Report of Grades

Grade reports are no longer mailed from the Registrar's Office. Students may obtain their grades through I.Q. Student on the seminary's website. Students who do not have internet capability may call the Registry Office. The seminary may withhold grades or transcripts of any present or former student if financial obligations are outstanding.

Academic Grievance Procedures

In accordance with the practice of biblical precedent, all student complaints and concerns regarding academic matters will be dealt with in the following manner: The student is first to contact in writing the professor of the course in which the concern has arisen. The two are then to seek to understand the situation and to bring about a resolution. If the student is not accepting of the resolution proposed by the professor, then the student is to contact the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies to establish a time when the student, the professor, and the Associate Dean can meet to discuss the situation. If the student is not satisfied with the results of this meeting, the student can appeal to the Dean of Graduate Studies. The Associate Dean of Graduate Studies may serve in the absence of the Dean of Graduate Studies.

Quality Points

For each semester hour of credit earned, quality points will be recorded as follows: A-4; B-3; C-2; D-1. To complete requirements for a degree, a student must earn a minimum average of one quality point for each semester hour of credit.

Incomplete Work

At the end of a semester, an incomplete mark shall be placed in the teacher's record in case a student is granted permission to complete any part of the required work after the date set for the examination. Such permission is granted only by the Academic Advisor and only in case of an emergency. Requests for such permission must be made in writing by students on Student Request Forms provided by the Academic Advisor's Office. If possible, requests should be made before the time for the examination. The deadline for requests is two weeks following the date set for the examination. If delay is granted, but not extended in view of continuing emergency, the work must be completed during the semester following in a regular session (summer school is not included). There will be no further penalty for delays. If permission is not granted or not exercised during the time set, the work involved will be graded zero. The Academic Advisor's Office bears no responsibility for incomplete work.

Financial Obligations

Credits for grades will not be effective in the Registry Office until satisfactory agreement concerning financial obligations has been made with the Business Office.

Academic Probation and Suspension

If a student's total grade point average falls below 2.0, the student will be placed on academic probation for the next semester in which the student enrolls. A student will be permitted to enroll for a maximum of 12 semester hours during the semester of academic probation. Failure to achieve a 2.0 grade point average during the semester of academic probation will result in immediate suspension of the student for at least one full semester.

A student on academic suspension may apply for readmission to the seminary up to one month in advance of the anticipated enrollment date. If readmission is granted, the student will be on academic probation for one semester. A student who fails to achieve a 2.0 grade point average during this semester of academic probation will be immediately and permanently suspended from school.

The faculty or any appropriate committee of the faculty may at any time advise the President that a student evidences spiritual, ethical, emotional, psychological, or attitudinal deficiencies which in the judgment of the faculty disqualify the student for continued study at the seminary. The student may appeal this determination to the President. The decision of the President shall be final.

Standard Policy for Student Conduct

Seminary students are expected to live according to the high standards of conduct befitting a Christian minister.

Seminary Policy on Plagiarism

The Student Handbook section on Ethical Conduct includes plagiarism as one type of unacceptable conduct.

Definition of Plagiarism

Students are given the task of writing papers in order to help them learn how to think critically about the ideas of others and to present the result of their analysis in a readable form. Plagiarism defeats these purposes by cheating the student out of an opportunity to grow. Plagiarism is, therefore, a failure to distinguish between the work of the student and the work of others, either intentionally or unintentionally. It may take several forms:

- Taking one or more sentences verbatim from a source and inserting it into a paper without the proper citation obviously is plagiarism. The student should note that a failure to document credit for a direct quotation is also a violation of copyright law (See Student Handbook section on Electronic Reserves).
- Representing the words or ideas of another person as your own words or ideas is plagiarism, even if you summarize. However, loosely paraphrasing a sentence without proper citation also is plagiarism.
- Borrowing without proper citation such things as an outline, an idea, or an approach to dealing with a problem that is unique to an author is plagiarism. This type of plagiarism often results from poor note taking on the part of the student.
- Plagiarism also can result from improper methods of citation. The student is responsible for learning the appropriate rules for citing sources and for following those rules throughout the paper. Ignorance of rules of citation is not an excuse.
- In addition plagiarism is a violation of the use of the Seminary's computing resources (See Student Handbook section on Computer Use Policy Violations).

For other definitions of plagiarism and ways to avoid it see Robert A. Harris, The Plagiarism Handbook: Strategies for Preventing, Detecting, and Dealing with Plagiarism (Los Angeles, CA: Pyczak Publishing, 2001).

Consequences for Violations of Plagiarism

When a Professor discovers a student has committed plagiarism, the Professor should report this violation to the Dean of Students. In making this report, a copy of the paper in question is supplied to the Dean of Students for the purpose of documentation. A letter of warning will be issued from the Dean of Students Office to the student notifying him/her of the violation. This letter will serve as the official notice of the violation and a copy will be placed into the student's permanent file along with the copy of the student's paper(s). Copies of the letter will be forwarded to the appropriate academic Dean, the Registrar, the Professor, and the Provost. This letter will state clearly that if the student plagiarizes a second time, the offense will be reported directly to the President. At the discretion of the President, a second offense of plagiarism may result in the student's dismissal from the Seminary.

Repeating a Course

When students have received credit for a course, they will not be allowed to repeat it for credit except through petition and approval of the Registrar. For students who have been approved to repeat a course for which they have received prior credit, the most recent grade in that course will count toward their GPA. The previous grade will remain on the official transcript but will not be calculated in the student's GPA.

Discrimination

The seminary does not discriminate in admissions or in the administration of its educational policies on the basis of race, color, national origin, or ethnic origin. Only to the extent required by its religious tenets and allowed by law does the seminary make distinctions between men and women.

The fulfillment of the seminary's religious mission requires the seminary to be the sole judge of which students should be admitted and, once admitted, to continue to pursue a course of study and to receive a degree. In these decisions, the seminary is concerned with the spiritual, ethical, emotional, psychological, moral, behavioral, and attitudinal traits evidenced in the student's life which suggest a foundation upon which a lifetime of Christian ministry can be built.

Seminary and Third-Party Access of Student Information

Appropriate admissions and academic personnel have access to student records for processing and maintenance purposes. Directory information, data that normally is public information, is available to seminary and outside sources. Additional information will not be released without the written permission of the student.

Senior Status

Master of Divinity students reach senior status when they have completed 50 semester hours. Master of Arts in Christian Education students become seniors when they have completed 27 semester hours. Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Counseling students reach senior status at 43 semester hours, and Master of Music in Church Music students reach senior status at 10 hours.

Students may declare their specialization prior to becoming seniors, but they are required to do so by the time they reach senior status. All M.Div. and M.A. students must have a senior conference with the Academic Advisor during the term prior to reaching senior status or as soon as possible thereafter. Master of Music in Church Music students should consult with the Division of Church Music Ministries Chairperson.

Master's Credit for a Doctoral Seminar

1. Candidates in basic degree programs of the seminary may be admitted to doctoral seminars when they have met the following requirements:
 - a. A combined score of "0" or higher on the five-point sliding scale for doctoral application acceptance (see p. 105).
 - b. A maximum of 32 semester hours remaining to complete the basic degree.
2. Permission for registration is granted through the Office of Research Doctoral Programs.
3. Credit for one seminar (4 hours) may be applied to an appropriate master's-level degree.

Seminar credit earned prior to the completion of requirements for the basic degree cannot be applied to a doctoral program.

Requirements for Graduation

In order to graduate from the seminary, students must meet all academic requirements set forth in this Catalog, settle all financial obligations to the seminary, and maintain high standards of moral and ethical conduct. The seminary requires that all students anticipating graduation be currently enrolled and have earned minimally the last 30 hours for the degree program consecutively at the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. Requests for exceptions may be considered by the Provost.

Students who wish to graduate must apply for graduation by the date listed in the Academic Catalog.

Participation in graduation exercises is required of all students unless permission is granted to graduate in absentia. Requests for permission to graduate in absentia should be made in writing to the Registrar. Permission is granted only in cases of emergencies.

Key to Identifying Courses

Courses listed in the Catalog are identified by four letters and four numbers. The letters indicate the division and/ or the department. For example, the letters PSYC indicate that the course is in the department of Psychology and Counseling. The letters CESW indicate Christian Education Division and the department of Social Work.

The first number indicates the course level:

- 1 - 4: Undergraduate level courses
- 5: Basic master's level courses without graduate prerequisite or considered beginner's level. These courses, especially if required as prerequisites for other courses, should be taken as early as possible in the student's program of study.
- 6: Advanced master's level courses having prerequisites, or courses which by their nature should be taken after the student's initial year of theological study.
- 7: Master of Theology courses are to be taken only by students pursuing the Master of Theology degree program.
- 8: Doctor of Ministry and Doctor of Educational Ministry courses only.
- 9: Doctor of Philosophy and Doctor of Musical Arts courses only.

The second number indicates the hour value of the course.

Courses in Administration are designed to acquaint the student with leadership techniques in various phases of the church and the denominational programs. Emphasis is given in each case to the place and function of the minister of education, pastor, and other staff members in leadership roles in the church and denominational organizational life.

Adult Education

Courses in Adult Education have been developed in response to the growing need of adult workers in and beyond local churches. Courses have been developed with the recognition that all church leaders will minister with and to adults. In addition, some leaders will vocationally focus specifically on the needs of adults or a specific group of adults. Courses in the area of adult education, adult psychology, family life education, student ministry, ministry with single adults, and gerontology are included.

Childhood Education

The Childhood Education area includes both Preschool Education and Children's Education. Courses are designed to provide understandings and skills for ministry to preschoolers and children, birth through eleven years, in churches and denominational fields. Emphasis is placed on the age-group characteristics, aims, programs, methods and materials, organization and administration, evaluation, and practical experience.

Church Music

A student may earn a Master of Arts in Christian Education with a concentration in Church Music by completing the basic courses in Christian Education and taking other courses in church music education, conducting, and performance.

Church Recreation and Wellness

Courses in the Church Recreation and Wellness concentration are designed to broaden the student's understanding of how to reach the leisure-oriented society of the 21st century. Course work will challenge students to examine their own commitment to personal wellness, in addition to looking for avenues of impact in the local church and mission settings. Students are encouraged to pursue field experience in an effort to gain a broader vision of ministry potential through recreation and wellness.

Collegiate Ministry

Courses in Collegiate Ministry are designed to equip students to lead collegiate ministry in Baptist Student Union settings or local churches. Emphasis is given to history, philosophy, organization, administration, programs, methods, and strategies. Professional college ministers routinely participate in the teaching process. The goal is to provide students with the tools to lead effective college ministries in the 21st century.

Educational Foundations

The area of Educational Foundations seeks to examine the foundation, in Scripture and in later history, upon which Christian education rests. The relationships between objectives and means in religious instruction are the primary concerns of the area.

Generalist

A student who does not choose to complete a concentration in any one particular area of study may select any 14 hours from the courses offered in the Division of Christian Education Ministries.

Gerontology

Courses in Gerontology are designed to equip students to minister with and to older adults both within the church setting and beyond. Special recognition is given to the diverse and changing characteristics of today's older adults. Opportunities are provided for a supervised experience in an agency or facility serving older adults.

Social Work

Social work seeks to assist individuals, families, and groups in relation to social, economic, and psychological forces which affect social well-being, with special emphasis on spiritual needs. This seminary is located strategically in a metropolitan area where many social work agencies are located. Students have opportunities to do practical work in Baptist centers, social agencies, and churches. Assignments are made after consultation with the social work professor and the supervisor. Students work under supervision of the seminary social work professor and the supervisor where the student chooses to work. The North American Mission Board provides stipends for the internships in Baptist Mission Centers. The work is supervised by persons approved by both the seminary and the Board.

Increasingly, requests are made by churches, agencies, and institutions of the Convention for graduates trained in both Christian education and professional social work. Some students have an interest in obtaining a Master of Arts in Christian Education (MACE) degree and a Master of Social Work (MSW) degree. NOBTS has a cooperative agreement with the University of Southern Mississippi (USM), in which USM will accept 12 hours of NOBTS course work toward the MSW degree. Application and admission to the graduate school of Social Work at USM is completely controlled by and is at the discretion of the University of Southern Mississippi.

A concentration in Women's Ministry requires a minimum of fourteen academic hours and is available through the Master of Arts in Christian Education degree or the Master of Divinity in Christian Education degree.

Youth Education

An understanding of adolescence and the adolescent is basic to the religious guidance of young people. Courses in the areas of youth education, youth ministry, and adolescent psychology are offered. Mission

The mission of the Division of Church Music Ministries is to equip leaders for excellence in music ministry among Southern Baptists through performance, education, and technology. The resources of the Division are committed to the assistance of persons who have responded to a divine call to minister and are attempting to fulfill educational and professional goals preparatory to ministry in the local church, teaching, or denominational service.

General objectives of the Division of Church Music Ministries are: (1) to prepare competent Christian workers for ministry through music; (2) to offer a well-defined program of education in church music; and (3) to develop a genuine involvement in and an understanding of the total ministry of the local church.

Historical Background

In September 1919, the department of music at Baptist Bible Institute was begun by E.O. Sellers.

In 1953 the department became the School of Sacred Music. The title was changed to the School of Church Music in 1960 and to the Division of Church Music Ministries in 1972. Since its inception this division of the seminary has been dedicated to providing instruction in a broad field of musical study which enables the student to render more effective Christian service.

Musical Activities

These groups are open to the seminary community. Previous choral or instrumental experience is recommended. An audition may be required for some of the following groups.

Seminary Chorus. This choir of men and women sings major choral works each year. Orchestral accompaniment is a regular part of these concerts.

The Seminarians. Seminary Chapel performances, Fall and Spring tours, and other concert appearances are made each year by this group of male singers.

Ladies Ensemble. The ensemble performs in Seminary Chapel, for church services, and for other occasions in the greater New Orleans area.

Handbell Ensemble. The ensemble performs in Seminary Chapel and for other occasions. It is open to those who have had previous experience ringing handbells. The ability to read musical notation is required.

Recital Project Choir. The choir is composed of approximately sixteen to twenty men and women students and seminary family members, and is directed by M.M.C.M. conducting concentration students. A faculty supervisor monitors selected class meetings. The choir performs on recitals for conducting students.

Instrumental Ensemble. Chapel programs, recruiting trips, concerts, recitals, and the accompanying of various seminary choral groups comprise the activities of this group. Membership is based upon musicianship and instrumental skills of interested persons within the seminary family.

In addition to campus opportunities in the Division of Church Music Ministries, the city of New Orleans affords the students a rare musical laboratory. Experience can be gained both as a listener and as a performer. The Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra sponsors an Orchestral Series, and The New Orleans Opera Guild sponsors an Opera Series. Student discount tickets are available.

Participation in the New Orleans Opera House Association Chorus, the Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra Chorus, as well as the Concert Choir of New Orleans is open to students by audition.

Music students are encouraged to accept church positions while in seminary. In fact, in the past ten years, over ninety percent of the students in this Division have served in local church music ministry for the majority of their stay in the degree program. It is believed that involvement as music leaders in churches gives students a practical outlet for what they experience in the seminary classroom.

The Music Division encourages participation in the following professional societies:

American Choral Directors Association. A student chapter of this national professional organization for choral conductors was organized in 1984.

The Hymn Society in the United States and Canada. The first student chapter affiliated with the Hymn Society in United States and Canada was formed in 1966 at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. This organization is open to all interested students.

MENC Student Chapter. This organization is affiliated with the Music Educator's National Conference, which serves as leader and spokesman for music education in the United States. The local seminary organization is designed to help students maintain awareness of music education methods and trends which are adaptable and available to the music education program of the local church.

Baptist Church Music Conference. This chapter seeks to familiarize the student with the national organization of Southern Baptist church musicians and provides information, fellowship, and exchange of ideas during the student's seminary tenure.

Musical Resources

Sellers Music Building. The E.O. Sellers Music Building was built during 1952-53 and contains five classrooms, eight individual teaching studios, three Doctoral student's studios, a recital hall, eighteen practice rooms, a conference room, a Music Education Resource Center, a choral library, music offices, two conducting labs, and state-of-the-art technology and keyboard laboratories.

Wright Memorial Organ. The first stage installation of the Daisy Deen Wright Memorial Organ (1967), constructed by the Aeolian-Skinner Organ Company, is located in Leavell Chapel. The organ is named for a New Orleans resident who left a bequest for the instrument. The specification in its completed form calls for 86 ranks of pipes (or 67 stops), distributed among five divisions: Great, Swell, Choir, Positiv, and Pedal, totaling approximately 5,000 pipes. The console has four manuals. Presently there are 39 ranks completed.

Möller Organ. The Mrs. Ida Kelley Sudduth Memorial Möller Organ (1954) is in the Recital Hall of the Sellers Music Building. This organ was designed to meet the musical requirements of all organ literature. It is a twenty-seven rank, three manual instrument. The walk-in organ chambers are quite adequate, with very large tone openings, designed to be used as laboratory equipment in the study of organ construction. This instrument provides additional opportunities for teaching and practice.

Handbells. The five-octave set of Schulmerich Handbells was a gift of Mrs. T. O. Winn of New Orleans for use by the handbell choir of the seminary.

Placement Examinations

A student admitted to the institution to study for the Master of Music in Church Music (M.M.C.M.) degree must take a series of examinations at the beginning of the student's first semester in order to determine the level of undergraduate music proficiency. The results of the examinations and auditions will assist the faculty in determining for the student any courses which may be required to remove undergraduate level deficiencies. These examinations are given prior to registration in August and January, and in the week following graduation in May. Music placement examinations and performance auditions cover the following areas:

1. Music Theory - harmony, ear training, sight singing, form and analysis, sixteenth and eighteenth century counterpoint, and orchestration.
2. Music History - literature (choral, solo vocal, instrumental), composers, and important facts of all periods. This examination also includes a listening examination.
3. Conducting
4. Keyboard
5. Voice

Detailed information concerning these examinations may be obtained from the Music Division Office.

A student who has earned a baccalaureate degree in music must complete required remedial work within eighteen months. Students who did not receive a baccalaureate degree in music must complete required remedial work within twenty-four months.

All deficiencies must be completed before a student may apply for an area of concentration, present a graduate recital, or take comprehensive examinations.

Graduate Music Proficiency Workshop

The Division of Church Music Ministries offers a workshop for students interested in classroom preparation for the Music Placement Examinations. This workshop is offered the first two weeks of August each year. It includes classroom experience and tutoring in all areas of testing. The placement examinations will be given at the end of the two-week workshop.

To be eligible for workshop registration, the student must show evidence of earned baccalaureate credit in music classroom and performance experience from an accredited institution. Students may register for all sections of the workshop, or for the portions that they believe will be most beneficial to them in their preparation for the examinations. A small fee is required for each section of the workshop. Complete information and a schedule of the classroom and tutoring sessions is available in the Music Student Handbook. Interested students may call the Music Office for a schedule, fee structure, and registration information concerning the Graduate Music Proficiency Workshop.

Jury Review

A faculty jury review is required of all students enrolled in graduate applied music (performance), except for students who presented a graduate recital in that semester. Jury examinations are held at the end of each semester.

Proficiency in Performance
