The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church.

Purpose of the Course
Children and the Christian Faith is designed to equip students to help each child experience and respond to God at his/her own level of development.

Core Value Focus
Doctrinal Integrity – Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. The doctrinal statements used in our evaluations are our Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message Statement.

Spiritual Vitality – We are a worshiping community, with both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Mission Focus – We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Characteristic Excellence – What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Servant Leadership – We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us.

Annually, the President will designate a core value that will become the focus of pedagogy for the year. For 2015-2016 academic year that Core Value is Mission Focus. The course will emphasize the seminary’s current core value focus of Mission Focus.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

1. Exegetical Paper on the Shema: You will write a 4 to 5-page exegetical paper on the Shema (Deut. 6:1-9) following Guidelines for an Exegetical Paper posted on Blackboard under Paper Writing Resources. A minimum of three academic resources, at least two of are commentaries, are to be used. This assignment is related to SLO #3. Due: Friday, Sept. 4

2. Spiritual Disciplines Group Presentation: You will be placed in a small group to present a spiritual discipline (i.e., service, prayer, family worship, Scripture memory, Bible study, silence and solitude, and evangelism) and how children and families may engage in the practice of the discipline. Your presentations should be creative and address various learning styles.

   All group members must participate in the development of the presentation. Each group member will have the opportunity to rate the quality of each member’s contribution to the project. Your rating of your group members should be emailed to the professor on the presentation due date. Your participation score from your group will be taken into consideration when assessing your individual project grade.

   The presentations will be posted to the assigned Discussion Board on the due date. Group size will be determined by class size. This assignment is related to SLO #1. Due: Monday, Sept. 14

3. Media Evaluation and Reflection:
   You will: (a) attend one movie (rated G or PG) currently in theatres and evaluate its worldview using the Let’s Go to the Movies handout provided by the professor and located in this course on Blackboard.

   (b) visit a major bookstore (not online) and review current literature, music, and electronic games for children. Consider the physical environment (i.e., what children see as they approach the children’s section and once they arrive there), and the worldview promoted through the materials.

(c) Write a 2-3 page summary of your findings and their possible implications for the spiritual formation of children. Submit the summary to Blackboard. This assignment is related to SLO #2. Due: Monday, Sept. 14

4. Reading Log: You will submit a log of completed weekly readings as outlined in the course schedule. Reading logs should also contain one to two reflective paragraphs regarding the weekly reading assignments. Reflections can be written in first person. Reading logs will be submitted to Blackboard on Weeks 4 and 7. A Reading Log Template is provided in the Assignment Upload for this assignment on Blackboard. This assignment is related to SLO #2 and #3. Due: Friday, Sept. 18 and Friday, Oct. 10

5. Book Assessment: You will (a) select a text from the Book List section of the course’s Blackboard and submit the title to the professor via email. (This is to avoid duplication). Titles will be assigned on a first come first served basis. Upon approval, you will complete a 2 to 3-page assessment of the text which addresses:
   • its theological and doctrinal integrity;
   • usefulness in ministry with children and families;
   • application within your ministry context and personal life.
This may be written in first person.

(b) create a 1-page handout including an annotated bibliography which highlights the strengths of the text and its applicability to ministry. This handout is to be posted on the assigned Discussion Board for classmates to review. This assignment is related to SLO #3. Due: Monday, Sept. 21

6. Spiritual Formation Plan: You will develop a one-year plan to shepherd (a) children birth – twelve, (b) families, and (c) children’s ministry leaders in spiritual formation. Consider why you are including each component of the plan and submit a rationale for each. This plan should focus on spiritual formation and include more than the basic program ministries of the church (Sunday School, Missions organizations, etc.).

This should not be a report of your church calendar, although it may include elements of such. This is to be a plan that you design. The year may be a calendar year (Jan. – Dec.) or the school year which many children’s ministries follow – August through July. Submit the plan to Blackboard. Use the following template. This assignment is related to SLO #3. Due: Monday, Sept. 28

Course Policies

Academic Honesty Policy: All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Assignment Formatting: Unless otherwise noted, all assignments are to be created in Turabian format. All written assignments must be Word documents, written in third person unless otherwise instructed, and created in 12 pt. Times New Roman font. PDFs will not be accepted.

Assignment Submission: All assignments are to be submitted to Blackboard by 11:59 p.m. of the due date unless otherwise indicated. Do not send files as attachments via email to the professor. For technical reasons, this mode of file transmission is extremely inefficient.

Electronic Devices: Electronic devices may be used in class only for taking notes and other activities assigned by the professor. Other activities are strictly prohibited. Laptops may not be open during presentations unless requested by the presenter. Phones must be silenced during class time. Any student found violating this policy may be asked to leave class and will be counted absent.

Grading Scale: Your final grade will be based on your total accumulation of points as indicated under the Assignments and Evaluation Criteria section of this syllabus according to the grading scale in the NOBTS 2013-2014 catalog.

A  93-100  B  85-92  C  77-84  D  70-76  F  69 and below

Late Assignments: Only under extreme circumstances, and with prior approval, will a late assignment be accepted. Late assignments will be assessed an initial 10 percent penalty and 1 percent for each day after the due date (i.e. 10/1 points for a 100 point assignment, 3/.3 points for a 30 point assignment). No assignments will be accepted more than two weeks after the original due date.

Netiquette: Appropriate Online Behavior: Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.
Plagiarism: A high standard of personal integrity is expected of all students. Copying another person’s work, submitting downloaded material without proper references, submitting material without properly citing the source, submitting the same material for credit in more than one course, and other such forms of dishonesty are strictly forbidden. Although anything cited in three sources is considered public domain, we require that all sources be cited. Any infraction will result in failing the course. Any infraction will be reported to the Dean of Students for further action.

Professor’s Absence or Tardiness: If the professor is late in arriving to class, you must wait a full 20 minutes after the start of class before you may leave without being counted absent, or you must follow any written instructions that may be given to you.

Recording Policy: Recordings of class, including any audio and/or video recordings, regardless of the media or format, and regardless of the intended or actual use, are not permitted without prior written permission of the professor. The class will be notified in advance should any such recording be approved. This policy is intended to protect the privacy of the students.

Revision of the Syllabus: The course syllabus is not a legal contract. Any syllabus revision will be preceded by a reasonable notice to students. The standards and requirements set forth in this syllabus may be modified at any time by the professor. Notice of such changes will be by announcement in class or by email notice.

Withdrawal from the Course: The administration has set deadlines for withdrawal. These dates and times are published in the academic calendar. Administration procedures must be followed. You are responsible to handle withdrawal requirements. A professor can’t issue a withdrawal. You must do the proper paperwork to ensure that you will not receive a final grade of "F" in the course if you choose not to attend once you are enrolled.
