OTEN5300 Exploring the Old Testament, Online
3 Hours Fall Online 2015, Aug 24 – Dec 16
Brian Richards
Brianrichards22@yahoo.com

Catalog Description:
This course is an introduction to the literary, historical, and theological contents and contexts of the Old Testament. Significant interpretive issues are noted, major theological themes covered, and their relevance for Christian living addressed.

Seminary Mission Statement:
The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill The Great Commission and The Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Student Learning Outcomes:
1. The student will read and comprehend the Old Testament noting the structure and content of the various books contained within.
2. The student will apply principles of interpretation (Biblical Hermeneutics) to the text of the Bible in order to glean its meaning and importance for the Christian community of faith in the 21st century.
3. The student will explore materials related to cultural and religious practices among the ancient Israelites and other ethnic cultures of the Ancient Near East.

Core Values Addressed:
New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary focus this year is Mission Focus (Matt. 28:18-20). The Great Commission is more relevant today than ever before so it seems, hence with this focus in mind, this course is designed to prepare the student to a certain extent, to grow in both the understanding and interpreting of the Word of God so that the servant of God is prepared for the task at hand – “making disciples of all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit”.

Textbooks
1. Contemporary English Bible (a good translation such as the revised NASB, NKJV, HCBS, NRSV)
3. Notes in Course Documents

Recommended reading:
1. Readings From the Ancient Near East by Bill T. Arnold and Bryan E. Beyer (Baker, 2002)
3. Manners and Customs in the Bible by Victor Matthews. (Hendrickson)

2. Each student must also comment on at least two other student’s posts for each area.
3. A reduction in percentage for each day late, after 4 days no credit given.

Course Procedure:
This course is primarily a reading course, which involves three major activities. First is the reading the Old Testament in its entirety following the three-fold organization of the Hebrew Bible: Torah (Pentateuch) Former and Latter Prophets (Joshua-Kings and Isaiah-Malachi respectively), and the Writings (Psalms, Wisdom, Megilloth, Chronicles-Ezra/Nehemiah). The exception is reading Daniel, which is found in the Writings, along with the reading of the Book of Ezekiel. The reading assignments are outlined in the "Course Syllabus" according to a date schedule, which has corresponding "Discussion Board" postings and quizzes in the "Test" section.

Second, additional notes and helps in interpretation are posted in the "Course Documents" section which includes such items as outlines of the Biblical books, Biblical Backgrounds information, and articles for reading for which you are responsible.

Third, you will need to enter the "Discussion Board" section in which ten different sections are posted. Each of the ten sections has a question (or questions) under the subject area for which you will enter your contribution to the discussion. During the prescribed time frame you will also need to make two responses to those contributions made by fellow classmates or additions I may make to the area. You make more contributions, but two are required.

Fourth, you will take the given quiz by the date posted in the syllabus and in the Blackboard test area, (you can take them early, and hence once you complete one the next will open automatically). Midterm and Final Exams are also posted in the Test section and are to be taken by the given dates in class schedule. Note point reduction mentioned above.

The final requirement is a research paper on a chosen topic by the end of the course. If you choose one of the listed topics, let me know your choice. You may have another area of interest on which you desire to write, and if so, please email me your request in this regard.

Blessings on your studies this semester, and I look forward to working with you.

Research Paper: Due Dec 11 - additional advice in Course Information, Please Read
