Seminary Mission Statement

The mission of the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Purpose of the Course, Core Value Focus, and Curriculum Competencies Addressed

The purpose of this course is to provide quality theological education for students in the discipline of pastoral ministries. The core value focus of the course will emphasize mission focus. The course will also address the competencies of interpersonal skills, characteristic excellence, servant leadership, spiritual vitality, and disciple making.

Course Description

This course will aid students to develop competency in pastoral ministry through a study of being called to a church, beginning a pastoral ministry, building relationships, leading a church, and leaving a church field. Practical ministry matters, as well as theological and philosophical considerations, will include training in planning preaching, administrating the ordinances, performing weddings, conducting funerals and ordinations, visiting, counseling, and sustaining spiritual growth.

Student Learning Outcomes

Pastoral ministry is a specific and important type of Christian shepherding. While all Christians shepherd others in various roles and relationships (such as pastors, parents, friends, counselors, teachers, mentors, helpers, and supervisors), not all are involved in a pastoral ministry vocation or calling. However, while students who take this course may have a variety of ministry callings and may pursue different academic degree programs, this course is particularly designed for students with a pastoral ministry calling (such as pastors, staff members, chaplains, missionaries, and church planters).

A. By the end of this course, students will:

1. Be able to understand selected pastoral ministry principles, concepts, and methodologies.
2. Be able to apply selected pastoral ministry principles, concepts, methodologies, and resources to their situation of beginning and carrying out ministry in a church or in selected shepherding situations.
3. Demonstrate acceptable proficiency in pastoral ministry functions (such as being able to articulate a clear theology and philosophy of pastoral ministry, carry out a personal prayer ministry and pastoral visitation, administer the ordinances, perform weddings and premarital counseling, conduct funerals and ordinations, do pastoral [non-licensed] counseling, manage some types of interpersonal conflict, enact people-sensitive and task-focused leadership, do basic organizational problem-solving and planning, and manage time) with the aid of course resources.
4. Value pastor-type shepherding as a vital part of their ministry calling and work.
Course Methods

1. Lecture presentations and other methods will be utilized to teach the course concepts and methodologies, as well as to present various resources available for pastoral ministry and Christian shepherding.

2. Writing assignments will be required to facilitate experiential learning regarding the role, responsibilities, and ministries of pastor-type shepherds.

3. Resource comparisons will be used to enhance and promote personal insights in ministry. Student interaction with peers, pastoral ministry resources, and the course instructor are encouraged during the duration of this course to facilitate such insights.

4. Conferences with the instructor are invited and may be accomplished via telephone or e-mail. Even informal conferences can stimulate learning and application of course principles and concepts.

Textbooks

Students are encouraged to explore the variety of resources useful for contemporary pastoral ministry. The texts listed below and in the Selected Bibliography will be helpful.

The following textbooks are required (will be cited in various class presentations and/or used in assignments):

The following textbooks are optional (will be helpful and may be used in class assignments):

Course Requirements

Students are required to accomplish reading assignments, theology and philosophy ministry assignments, and a major ministry assignment, as follows:

A. Reading Assignments (you must do both of these two reading assignments).

1. Submit one typed, six pages or less (single-spaced) annotated analysis of the three required textbooks (i.e., Bisagno, Cothen/Barlow, and Witmer) and two books from the syllabus bibliography of the student’s choice on pastoral ministry or on Christian shepherding. Format: this one single-spaced analysis should give a correct bibliographic listing of each of the five books with their associated annotations, which answer the following questions:
   a. What is a two-paragraph (or less) summary of the book?
   b. What is one (or more) helpful feature(s) of the book for pastoral ministry or Christian shepherding?
   c. What is one difficulty, deficiency, or limitation in using the book for pastoral ministry or shepherding?

   A cover page is to be used, but do not include an intervening blank page (nor a binder, if submitted by mail).

2. Textbooks/Presentations Reading Assignment. Read the required course textbooks and view the PATH5331 presentations on Blackboard as listed on page 6 of this syllabus and submit reading reports as noted on p. 5.
B. Theology and Philosophy Ministry Assignments (you must complete both ministry assignments).

1. Prepare a typed (single-spaced), four-page (or less) theology of pastoral ministry (or shepherding), which gives biblical references (i.e., two to five references per topic) and discusses these topics: the calling to pastoral ministry (or to Christian ministry), the church, the office of pastor, the office of deacon, preaching, ordination, the ordinances, pastoral visitation and evangelism (or personal ministry visitation and evangelism), the pastor’s (or Christian’s) family and ministry priorities, servant leadership, and the pastor’s (or Christian’s) spiritual life and example. Format: each topic is to be taken in the order given herein and is to be listed as a heading followed by its respective biblical references and discussion. A cover page is to be used, but do not include an intervening blank page (or binder).

2. Prepare a typed (single-spaced), four-page (or less) philosophy of doing pastoral ministry with regard to: church revitalization, church worship (or personal worship), outreach/witnessing, discipleship, missions, ministries, stewardship, conflict management, time management, funerals, weddings, and church staff relationships (or ministry staff relationships). Note: if you are married, then your philosophy paper must conclude with a discussion of getting your family adjusted at a new church field (or in a new ministry area or church). Format: same as the theology paper, except that biblical references are not to be cited and discussed. A cover page is to be used, but do not include an intervening blank page (or binder).

C. Major Ministry Assignment Options (choose only one of these three major ministry assignment options):

Option one—documented ministry research essay;

Barlow: “Fear can be friend or foe” (Barlow 1999, 23)]. The paper topic is to be entitled: WHAT I NEEDED TO LEARN ABOUT PASTORAL MINISTRY THIS SEMESTER (or entitled: WHAT I NEEDED TO LEARN ABOUT MINISTRY SHEPHERDING THIS SEMESTER), with the title placed on the cover page and first essay page. Students may select one or more topics to research from the course topics listed in the Course and Assignments Schedule in this syllabus. Note: the selected bibliography of the essay must list a minimum of 6 print sources (books, journals, or periodicals) and a minimum of 4 Internet sources which have informed your knowledge of the topic researched. Please note: all bibliography entries must be cited in the essay as parenthetical references.

2. Option two: pastoral ministry handbook—specifications:

   b. Handbook assignments will include eight typed prayers, two wedding ceremonies, four funeral services and sermon briefs, a quarterly sample church calendar, a plan of preaching for four Sundays and Wednesdays (with sermon briefs), and eight orders of worship (with two sermon briefs). The specified sermon brief form is on Blackboard.

3. Option three: pastoral ministry praxis experience—specifications:
