"The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries."

We are here not merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

WORSHIP LEADERSHIP

“ . . . you shall not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God— otherwise you might make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land and they would play the harlot with their gods and sacrifice to their gods, and someone might invite you to eat of his sacrifice, . . .” (Exodus 34:14-15; NASB)

“Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples. Ascribe to the LORD glory and strength. Ascribe to the LORD the glory due His name; Bring an offering, and come before Him; Worship the LORD in holy array.” (1 Chron 16:-29; NASB)

“Come, let us worship and bow down. Let us kneel before the LORD our Maker. For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His hand.” (Psalm 95:6-7; NASB)

“ . . . an hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for such people the Father seeks to be His worshipers. God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.” (John 4:23-24; NASB)

“And they sang the song of Moses, the bond-servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, ‘Great and marvelous are Your works, O Lord God, the Almighty; Righteous and true are Your ways, King of the nations! Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy; For ALL THE NATIONS WILL COME AND WORSHIP BEFORE YOU, FOR YOUR RIGHTEOUS ACTS HAVE BEEN REVEALED.’” (The Revelation 15:3-4)

“We believe that the Bible is the Word of God in the highest and fullest sense, and is the unrivalled authority in determining the faith and practice of God’s people; . . .” NOBTS Articles of Religious Belief (Article I – Sole Authority of Scriptures)

“[The Holy Bible] reveals the principles by which God judges us, and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. . . . The first day of the week is the Lord’s Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should include exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private. Activities on the Lord’s Day should be commensurate with the Christian’s conscience under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.” The Baptist Faith and Message 2000 (Article I – The Scriptures; Article VIII – The Lord’s Day)

OBJECTIVES:

By the end of the course the student who satisfactorily fulfills the requirements should be able to:

1. Understand the biblical, theological, and historical foundations of Christian worship as a form of religious expression;
2. Appreciate the forms of biblical worship in the light of the broader cultural environment in which Israel and the Church expressed their faith;
3. Understand the worship elements, as well as various designs and philosophies, used in the planning of Christian worship in evangelical churches;
4. Evaluate a variety of contemporary forms of worship in light of a biblical theology of Christian worship;
5. Appreciate important worship issues facing local churches today;
6. Lead worship in a local church based upon principles for faithful worship that brings glory to God and transformation to those worshipping; and
7. Value staff relationships in planning and leading worship.

REQUIREMENTS:

1. BLACKBOARD: Students will create an account on NOBTS Blackboard and enroll in this course, using the authorization code which will be emailed to enrolled students by December 15. All assignments will be submitted via the course Blackboard.

NOTE: Documents emailed to the professors will not be accepted.

REMEMBER that you must choose “Send File” (not just “Add File”) in order for an assignment to be deposited in the digital drop box of the course.

2. COURSE READING: Students should acquire and carefully read the two required texts prior to the workshop.
3. BOOK REVIEW: Each student will prepare a book review of the textbook Exploring the Worship Spectrum by Paul Engle (editor). The book review should include the following: author and bibliographic entry; a brief summation of the material presented from each of the six divisions of the book addressing the various worship perspectives; and a personal “take away” section in which the student provides commentary on helpful aspects gleaned from each section. Consult “Guidelines for a Book Review”.

Due: January 4, 2010 (FIRST DAY of workshop)

4. WORSHIP ASSESSMENT CRITERIA: Working together in small groups, students will develop a 2-3 page worship assessment tool. Based on course readings and sample assessment tools as well as outside resources, students will develop a worship assessment instrument to be used in the observation and written evaluation of three distinct worship services. Due: Friday, January 8, 2010 (during on-site workshop)

5. GROUP PROJECT PRESENTATION: Students will collaborate in small groups to explore and present material related to issues of worship as presented in the text Exploring the Worship Spectrum. The groups will be announced in class. Group presentations will focus on engaging the class in a discussion of the assigned topics. Due: during on-site workshop

6. DESIGN WORSHIP SERVICES: Design three distinct worship services using each of the three following models: aesthetic; kinesthetic; and blended, based on the same theme. Information on these models will be provided in course lectures and Holy Gatherings. Designs should include a worship guide outline as well as a two- to three-page commentary explaining how the particular worship elements are used and how they should flow in the particular worship service plan. Issues such as logistics, sequence of events, planning intention, and potential impact upon worshipers should be noted in the plan. Post-workshop Due Date: January 29, 2010

7. WORSHIP OBSERVATIONS: Attend and construct a written observation of two worship services (e.g., Jewish, Eastern Orthodox, Roman Catholic, Charismatic, Vineyard, Episcopalian). Using the biblical assessment tool developed by your group, each student will attend and observe both an aesthetic and a kinesthetic worship service. Strengths and weaknesses as well as recommendations for improvement will be reported in separate 1500-word evaluation essays (one for each of the services). An on-site observation of the worship services is required rather than video observation. Post-workshop Due Date: January 29, 2010

8. FINAL EXAM: Each student will write a 500 word response to each of the assigned questions. These questions will be posted on the course Blackboard. The student will need to use Internet Explorer (nor Firefox) as their web browser. Post-workshop Due Date: February 5, 2010

FINAL GRADE:

|--|-----|
| 1. Attendance, participation, and meaningful contributions in class discussion | 10% |
| 2. Course Reading  | 10% |

Late Work: Assignments turned in past the date due will incur a minimum penalty of one letter grade per day. Assignments will not be accepted more than two weeks past the date due without express prior permission of the professors. In such cases a grade of D will be the maximum grade given. Note: In order to receive credit for the class, all assignments must be completed.

STUDENT / PROFESSOR CONFERENCES:

The professors are available to meet with students by phone, email, or by appointment during office hours.

This syllabus proposes a course of study for a given time period. However, occasionally things change. The professors reserve the right to adjust the syllabus when they reasonably think that doing so will enhance the learning experience of the students.
