Mission Statement
The mission of the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus
New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary highlights five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. While all five core values are emphasized, the primary focus for this academic year is Mission Focus. Throughout this course students will be encouraged to consider how the core value of Mission Focus impacts their development as a Christian counselor called to support the ministries of the local church.

Course Purpose & Curriculum Competencies Addressed
The purpose of this course is to provide theological training designed to enhance a student’s potential to respond effectively and redemptively to persons struggling with emotional, relational, and/or spiritual problems. Students will be challenged to see how both personally and in the lives of families they can help families discover the importance of God’s presence and impact in their relationships; students will be challenged to see how both personally and in the corporate life of the church body, they can have a part in changing the world through participating in the helping effort as they learn techniques to work with families. This course will specifically address the competencies of interpersonal skills, servant leadership, and spiritual/character formation.

I. Course Description:

In this course the main stages of the family life cycle are studied as a means of understanding the family as a system of human relationships.    2. How variables such as divorce, remarriage (blended families) death, alcoholism, and socio-economic background impact and change the family life cycle by responding to case studies.
B. increase skills related to counseling families in different life cycles by:
   1. Analyzing a family situation and responding with a suggested treatment plan for the family.
   2. Demonstrating the application of theory and a therapy to the specific case situation.
   3. Interviewing a family in various life cycles to discover common problems and perspectives.
C. increase in their ability to identify personal perceptions about infants, children, adolescents, parenting, and senior citizens that are skewed by personal experience or bias by learning about the needs and experiences of others.

III. Course Methodologies

Course goals and objectives will be met through a variety of instructional activities. Reading assignments, reading of PowerPoint lectures, interviews, research, and case studies will be included. This course will be delivered in a four-meeting hybrid format with significant support from online materials and activities delivered through the Blackboard course management system.

IV. Required Textbooks:

(ISBN numbers are included for your convenience. Used, electronic, or earlier edition copies are acceptable.)

Optional Texts

V. Course Assignments:

Reading Reports:

All assignments, the textbooks, and all documents and PowerPoint lectures posted in the Course Documents section must be read completely. The material posted in the Course Documents section should be read before 12:00 AM on Sundays, so the student can discuss the material on the Discussion Board. Students will report the percentage read of each book on Blackboard on the date the book is due. Reading accounts for 20% of your grade. Students will be expected to come to class meetings prepared to participate in discussions over the assigned reading since the last meeting.

For the Optional Reading: students will choose one book from the optional list (or another book of the student’s choice as approved by the professor) to read. Students will upload to Blackboard a summary of the book and evaluate it for usefulness, appropriateness and quality of content, and best target audience in the final week discussion board. This summary should be approximately two pages in length, double spaced.

Blackboard Discussion Board

Students are required to participate in weekly discussion boards. The instructor will post prompts for each unit of the course. Prompts may be case studies or questions based on the reading or other course materials for a given week. Student posts will take two forms: Major Post = responses to the instructor prompt and Minor Posts = response to another student’s major post.
Students are expected to make 1 major and 2 minor posts for each prompt. This means that each unit, students will make one major post and two minor posts. Major posts must be made by Friday at 11:59 PM of the first week of the unit. Minor posts must be submitted by the time the discussion board closes at the end of the unit (Saturday at 11:59 PM).

A new discussion board will be made available on Sunday at 12:00 AM at the beginning of each unit. Discussion boards will be closed Saturday at end of day (11:59 PM) at the end of each unit. Discussion boards will not be reopened once they are closed.

Treatment Plans
Students will prepare three treatment plans based on the case study family. Each treatment plan will be turned in on Blackboard in the Assignments section. Treatment plans are due by end of day on the last day of the appropriate unit. Exact due dates are specified on the sign-up Wiki on Blackboard. Treatment plans will include the following:
- A General Overview of the Life Stage
- A Summary of Biblical Teachings and Illustrations related to the life stage
- A Review of Counseling Techniques Effective at the life stage
- A Resource Summary related to the life stage
- A Treatment Plan for the family (outline provided)

Family Interviews
Students will conduct and report on three interviews of families at assigned life stages. Interviews will focus on the specific challenges, issues, and problems faced by the family at that life stage. Interviews are due by end of day on the last day of the appropriate unit. Exact due dates are specified on the sign-up Wiki on Blackboard.

All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, Internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

- Late assignments will be assessed an initial 8 point deduction, then 2 points per subsequent day.
- All assignments will be submitted electronically through Blackboard in the “Assignments” section of the course shell.
- All assignments must be submitted as Microsoft Word files (doc and docx) or PDF. If you use Word Perfect, Pages, Open Office, etc., please render the document as a PDF before submission. For handouts produced in graphics or publishing platforms (MS Publisher, Adobe CS, etc.), please render as PDF before submission.
- All assignments are due by 11:59 PM (CST) on the due date.
- Assignments will be graded in Blackboard and available for review in Blackboard by the student after grading is completed.

Attendance:
This course is designed to be an interaction between the professor and students and between students. Attendance for this course will be determined by the students’ responses to questions posted to the discussion board each week. Each student must make substantive responses to the activities and question(s) posted. You are encouraged to interact with the responses of your fellow students beyond the minimum requirements.

Communication:
Communication to students will be in the form of email, including email sent from the seminary’s Blackboard and SelfServe systems. Please update your email (and other contact information) in both systems to ensure you receive course-related communications.

Emergencies:
In cases of emergency, such as hurricanes, disease outbreaks, or other disasters, go to the seminary website (www.nobts.edu) for information. The seminary administration will post information, such as the nature of the emergency, instructions for response, and evacuation and return dates. Please check Blackboard for information specific to this course. Because Blackboard is available, the course will continue even if the main campus is closed. Please consider registering for the seminary’s priority text messaging service through SelfServe. This service is used only in emergencies, and will allow the seminary to deliver urgent information to you as needed.

Online Etiquette:
As a student preparing for ministry and enrolled in a graduate level course, a mature attitude toward education is expected. Material posted to this course’s Blackboard shell should reflect scholarly thought appropriate to both ministry and graduate level work. Please do not post non-course material to the Blackboard shell. Observing the following suggestions will help ensure a positive experience for everyone.

1. Use courtesy and discretion.
2. Be precise in your writing and keep in mind that your audience does not have the benefit of seeing you or observing your body language, including your facial expressions, and, in particular, hearing your “tone of voice.” What you may intend as humor could be interpreted in a variety of ways by your readers, so try to communicate as accurately as possible.
3. Feel free to disagree with one another, including your instructor, but do so in an agreeable manner. Treat one another with Christian respect.
4. Respond to each Discussion Board assignment to the best of your ability, keeping in mind that your responses, for better or for worse, may influence others.
5. Appropriate humor and levity are a valued part of group discussions.

Help make our class discussions some of the most fruitful and enjoyable experiences of this course.

Plagiarism:
Plagiarism is considered by NOBTS to be a serious academic and ethical offense. It also has implications in the student’s adherence to copyright laws. Read the NOBTS Student Handbook (p. 9) (See: http://www.nobts.edu/resources/pdf/StudentHandbook.pdf) for a description of plagiarism and how to avoid it. The seminary has instituted serious disciplinary consequences for plagiarism. The seminary policy will be followed to the letter in this course. See your style guides (APA or Turabian) for correct format for citation in your assignments.
