Course Requirements

1. Attend class. The course is divided into 8 one-week units. Each week's unit will have a variety of in-class content items, typically consisting of a lecture and slide show. Class attendance is based on a self-reported percentage of content completed. The student will provide a written statement of the percentage of completion of all in-class content items, due four weeks after completing the last week of class.
2. Participate in class discussion. Participation is determined by postings and responses in the Threaded Discussions held each week. These discussions will be related to the material covered in each week's content. All students are required to post a minimum of three responses in the discussion each week: one in answer to the presenting questions, and two in response to classmates' postings. In order for the threaded discussion to be of maximum benefit to everyone involved it is recommended that you stay as close to the course schedule as possible—so that everyone will participate in the discussion in the same week. Late postings will be penalized 1/2 point for each day late. Please limit discussions in this venue to the assigned topic. Students may email or use the miscellaneous forum to discuss other topics with your classmates.

Netiquette Statement on Appropriate Online Behavior

Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on the Discussion Board. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity will be expected at all times in the online environment.

3. Read assigned textbooks and other reading assignments. The student will provide a written statement of completion of all reading assignments, due --.

4. Students will complete a project proposing a Girls' Enrichment Ministry program in the church. The written project report should include the following section headings:
 - a. Purpose/Rationale of Girls' Ministry in the local church
 - b. Format of the Girls' Ministry in the local church
 - c. Leadership development of the program
 - d. Proposed annual calendar (to include organization and implementation of mentoring/discipleship groups as well as special events)
 - * Name each event, purpose of event (with particular attention to what need it will address), description of theme, and brief overview of planning process
 - * Name mentoring/discipleship group(s), purpose of group (with particular attention to what need it will address), target age of group, how long group will meet, what group will study
 - * While planning this calendar, consider placement in total youth ministry plan for church
 - e. Evaluation of Girls' Ministry (what format or guidelines will you use to evaluate each component you have planned above)

The project report should be ten to fifteen pages, typed and double-spaced, following guidelines in A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate Turabian, published by University of Chicago Press. The project report is due --.

5. Students will complete a take-home final examination which will be due --.
