

LSCM2382 GREEK 1
New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary

Disclaimer: This syllabus is intended to give the student a general idea of the content, format, and textbooks used for this class. The professor will submit a full syllabus at the beginning of the class which will contain a course schedule and the instructor's information.

Course Description

This course enables students to read New Testament Greek. The result will be the equipping of the student to interpret the books and letters of the New Testament. An emphasis is placed upon grammar and vocabulary. Some consideration is given to the practice of translation. The course, Greek 1, is the first of two semesters of Greek grammar offered through the College of Undergraduate Studies. The student should plan on completing both semester length courses in order to have an understanding of New Testament Greek. Each course (Greek 1 and Greek 2) is three hours in credit for a total of six semester hours of Greek if both courses are completed.

Required Text

Black, David Alan. Learn to Read New Testament Greek. Nashville: Broadman and Holman Publishers, Third Edition.

Course Objectives

By the end of the semester, the student will:

1. Have a basic vocabulary of New Testament Greek.
2. Have an understanding of the basics of Greek grammar.
3. Begin to translate basic sentences from the Greek New Testament.
4. Develop the discipline of consistent, regular study.

Netiquette Statement on Appropriate Online Behavior

Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on the Discussion Board. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity will be expected at all times in the online environment.
