I. NOBTS Mission Statement:
The mission is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

II. NOBTS Core Values:
The seminary’s core values are: (1) doctrinal integrity, (2) spiritual vitality, (3) mission focus, (4) characteristic excellence, and (5) servant leadership. This course addresses Doctrinal Integrity by using the Bible to help determine the characteristics of a healthy church. Characteristic excellence is a focus of this course because it deals with the most important characteristics required for a church to be healthy. Spiritual vitality is important to the course because it is believed that spiritually vital persons are a necessary part of a healthy church. The core value for NOBTS this year is characteristic excellence.

III. Key Competency
The Seminary has seven key competencies in its program. They are: Biblical Exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Discipleship Making, Interpersonal Skills, Servant Leadership, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Worship Leadership. The key competency addressed in this course is Discipleship Making.

IV. Course Description
The purpose of this course is to identify the significant trends and changes affecting evangelism and church growth based on the historical backdrop and principles of the church growth movement. The course introduces students to the current literature and gives attention to the applications and implications of these trends for local church evangelism.
IV. Course Methodology

A. Lectures. The lectures of the professor will be a resource material for the course. The lectures will be posted on Blackboard. Students are expected to download the lectures, study the contents, and use them in class assignments.

B. Discussion. Students are expected to participate in online discussion using the Discussion Board section in Blackboard based on questions raised in the assigned reading and in the lectures.

C. Individual work. Each student will be expected to read, conduct research, and engage in critical thinking and clear writing.

V. Course Objectives

A. Students will be able to assemble a list of the top emerging issues in evangelism and church growth and defend their selection.

B. Students will be able to thoroughly discuss the issues surrounding several emerging issues.

C. Students will develop a broad base understanding of some of the emerging issues in evangelism and church growth.

D. Students will be able to prepare an extensive bibliography of books and articles on the emerging issues studied in the seminar.

E. Students will become familiar with topics which are foundational in church growth from which to build expertise in emerging issues.

VI. Course Requirements

A. READING ASSIGNMENTS:

1. Each student will read the three required textbooks. The textbooks are:

2. Written Report: A 5-6 page (typed; double-spaced) critique:
   Answer at least the following.
   a. What was the author’s primary purpose in writing this book?
   c. Did the author accomplish his purpose?
   d. What did you like about the book?
   e. With what did you disagree or have questions about?

3. Due: February 20, April 2, and April 23
B. CHURCH RESEARCH PAPER:

1. A research paper dealing with a specific church related to a topic chosen in consultation with professor. Example: Topic: Youth evangelism. Church: A congregation with an exceptional number of youth baptisms.

2. Paper should develop the issue using the subject using the church as a source of information and discuss the implications to evangelism.

3. Length: Approximately 20 pages with high quality writing demonstrating critical thinking skills.
4. Due: May 7

C. TOPICAL PAPER: Prepare a topical paper on an emerging issue in evangelism or church growth.

1. Report on emerging issues in the field of evangelism or church growth.
2. Topic selected from professor’s list or other with the professor’s approval.
4. Due: March 19

D. CLASS PARTICIPATION: Active participation through class discussion on Blackboard is integral to the design of this course. Class participation counts for 25% of your final grade. Comments related to lectures and materials posted on Blackboard, presentation of a student’s cases, discussion of other student’s cases, and response to the assigned readings are essential to class performance. Each student is expected to participate by posting at least once to each of the professor’s posts and to one of the posts made by another student in the threaded discussions on Blackboard. This means that a student should make at least four posts per week.

VII. Course Evaluation

1. Book Reviews 25%
2. Church Research Paper 25%
3. Topical Paper 25%
4. Class Participation 25%

VIII. Blackboard:

ITC will enroll each student into Blackboard at the end of the registration period and after all fees have been paid.
Lecture notes, PowerPoint files, links to helpful web sites, etc. will be posted throughout the semester. Students are encouraged to check Blackboard on a regular basis. Each week the professor will post detailed PowerPoint lectures on the subject of the week.
