Course Number-Section:  CECM3325
Course Title: Introduction to Group Work

The mission of Leavell College of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value
Each academic year, a core value is emphasized. This academic year, the core value is Spiritual Vitality
"We are a worshipping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word."

Course Description
Introduction to Group Work is the study of different types of groups and group process. The course focuses on beginning and sustaining a group, principles of group dynamics, and using facilitators in the group. The closure stage of a group is explored as well as how personality and problems affect the group experience.

Student Outcomes
At the conclusion of the semester, the student will be able to:
1. Construct a group proposal of a group that can be implemented.
2. Explain and recognize the characteristics of stages of groups.
3. Discuss how personality and problems can affect a group experience.
4. Recognize through observation group dynamics and group process.
5. Evaluate a group.

Additional Course Information:

Late Submission Penalty: There will be a 10% deduction in points from the assignment per week that an assignment is late. For example if an assignment is worth 100 points, then 10 points will be taken off each week the assignment is not turned in. All assignments will be submitted by uploading it on Blackboard. No points will be given for late Discussion Board assignments after the final day of the discussion for that particular week. If you have not responded by Sunday at 11:55 p.m. (or the date that is given) you forfeit your opportunity to get points for the Discussion Board for that week.

Attendance:

Class attendance is essential for effective learning. Students who do not attend class are subject to fail the class.

Netiquette: Appropriate Online Behavior. Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Academic Integrity: Each student is responsible for the academic integrity of his/her work. The following are violations of academic integrity: plagiarism, turning in work done by someone else, submitting a paper which has been submitted for another course, and cheating on a quiz or exam. These and other violations of academic integrity may result in a failure of the course.
