Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values.

1. Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. This course addresses Doctrinal Integrity specifically by preparing students to grow in understanding and interpreting of the Bible.
2. Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshiping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word. Spiritual Vitality is addressed by reminding students that a dynamic relationship with God is vital for effective ministry.
3. Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. This course addresses Mission Focus by helping students understand the biblical foundations for fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments.
4. Characteristic Excellence: What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Characteristic Excellence is addressed by preparing students to excel in their ability to interpret Scripture, which is foundational to effective ministry.
5. Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us. Servant Leadership is modeled by classroom deportment.

The core value focus for this academic year is Servant Leadership.

Curriculum Competencies

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following areas:

1. Biblical Exposition: to interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.
2. Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.
3. Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.
4. Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.
5. Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.
6. Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.
7. Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

The curriculum competency addressed in this course is biblical exposition.

Textbooks and Resources

Holladay, William L. A Concise Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament. Grand Rapids: William B. Eerdmans, 1998. Concise Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon

Elliger, K. and W. Rudolph. Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia. New York: American Bible Society, 2001. BHS SPTiberian Font (which may be downloaded from the Week 1 material in Blackboard)

Optional Resources

Kelley, Page H. Biblical Hebrew: An Introductory Grammar. Grand Rapids: William B. Eerdmans, 1992. Kelley's Grammar

This is a deductive grammar. Dr. Jim Parker has cross-referenced the material in Hunter's Workbook with Kelley's Grammar and this material will be provided. This grammar, and the work Dr. Parker has done, is a great aid for students who find the inductive method of learning to be more challenging.

Brown, F., S. Driver, and C. Briggs. The Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew and English Lexicon. Rev. ed. Peabody, MA: Hendrickson Publishers, 1996. BDB

Dillard, Raymond B. Biblical Hebrew Vocabulary Cards. Springfield, OH: Visual Ed., 1981. Hebrew Vocabulary Cards

Flashcards like these are a great tool for learning vocabulary. Other digital options for vocabulary flashcards are also available. The NOBTS app available on Apple and Android devices provides a "Toolkit" with both Hebrew and Greek flashcards. Also, quizlet.com offers students the opportunity to create their own digital Hebrew flashcards.

* Any student planning to graduate in May must have all assignments submitted by Dec 14 in order to give the professor ample time to grade these assignments and have a grade submitted before graduation.

** The Blackboard shell for this class will close on Friday of exam week (Dec 15). All assignments, including the Final Exam, must be submitted on or before this date. Any assignments not received by this time will not be accepted and the student will receive a grade of 0.

Extra Credit: Students are given the option to earn up three (3) points toward their final grade by turning in their own rough ("wooden") translations of each passage translated for class. These translations are due by Sunday night following the completion of each section. A part of the work for this class is translating the texts as we work through them, so there should be no reason for anyone to miss out on the extra credit!

Additional Items

Attendance: The term may seem strange for an Internet course, but you are expected to "show up" on a regular basis, participate consistently, and submit work as indicated in unit instructions. Failure to "show up" regularly may result in an administrative withdrawal from the course. If you have severe problems that are hindering your adequate participation, please contact the professor as soon as possible.

Courtesy: All members of the class are to follow the rules of common courtesy in all communications and interaction. Remember that real people are out there struggling at their keyboards just as you are. Timely and considerate response will be particularly important when students are interacting with other members of the class individually or corporately.

Submission of Work: The course is taught at present in something of an "open format," meaning that to some extent you may work at your own pace, within reason of course, but you should submit work on a regular basis. The problem, particularly in study of a language, is that if you get behind in the course, you will find it very difficult to catch up as you might in other types of courses. So approach the work in a disciplined manner, plan specific times to complete your work, and submit assignments regularly and systematically no later than the date given on the schedule above.

NOTE: Calling the course "open format" and allowing you to submit work at your own pace, within reason, does not mean that you can submit assignments in any order that you choose. The course is designed so that you make gradual progress in mastery of the language, and assignments that you are to submit are a part of that design. Consequently, assignments are to be submitted according to the order in which they are assigned and will be accepted for grading only in that order. If you are having problems with a particular assignment, that may be a sign that you need to do more study/work/review at that point. It may also be a signal that you need to consult with the professor on the matter.

Marvels and Messes: Computers are great tools, but they do not always work correctly all the time. You already know that, so make a practice of backing up your work. Because this is an online class, students are expected to have regular access to a working computer as well as an internet connection. While the professor recognizes that computers sometimes crash or are otherwise problematic, it is the student's responsibility to have a "back-up plan" in place should his/her computer malfunction. In addition, do not wait until the last day, hour, or minute to complete and/or submit your work. You may not be able to log on, the server may down (which does happen from time to time), and God alone knows what else might happen. So plan ahead. Encountering these kinds of problems during last minute rushes does not constitute an excuse for failure to complete your work in a timely fashion.

Honesty and Education: The Course Covenant already addresses some issues falling into this arena, but another note is in order. In a standard classroom educational environment, the time that all students are together with the professor is a very restricted time, so that great potential for dishonesty has always existed in that setting. With an Internet course, such a potential is certainly more real. While most components of the course will have built-in safeguards, some will not, by the very nature of the work. The challenge, then, for each of you, is to keep before you the goal of learning well the subject matter of this course. In your case, it is the Hebrew language, mastery of which will allow you to read the word of God written in one of its original languages. Such a privilege can hardly be overvalued. So determine to do the work, as it is assigned, so that you will have the best opportunity to succeed in the best sense.
