Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values.

- 1. Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. This course addresses Doctrinal Integrity specifically by preparing students to grow in understanding and interpreting of the Bible.
- 2. Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshiping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word. Spiritual Vitality is addressed by reminding students that a dynamic relationship with God is vital for effective ministry.
- 3. Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. This course addresses Mission Focus by helping students understand the biblical foundations for fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments.
- 4. Characteristic Excellence: What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Characteristic Excellence is addressed by preparing students to excel in their ability to interpret Scripture, which is foundational to effective ministry.
- 5. Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us. Servant Leadership is modeled by classroom deportment.

The core value focus for this academic year is Doctrinal Integrity.

Purpose of the Course

The purpose of this course is to prepare students to develop weekday programs for churches and faith-based community ministries based on the needs of the community as well as spiritual needs.

Curriculum Competencies

This course will address the following curriculum competency:

Disciple making: This course will prepare the student to mobilize the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and applied ministry.

Course Description

A special study is made in the development of weekday programs for churches and faith-based community ministries. Emphasis is placed on discovering needs of a community and developing programs to meet these needs as well as the spiritual needs of people. Attention is given to church and community surveys in addition to supervision and administration of weekday ministries.

Student Learning Outcomes

In order to serve churches effectively through Christian Education, the student, by the end of the course, should:

1. Be able to apply their knowledge and comprehension of church and community weekday ministries to meet community needs.
2. Value community ministries.
3. Be able to administer church and community surveys and to supervise and administer weekday ministries.

Embedded Assignment

Ministry Project Paper

Each student is to design a ministry for his or her church. The paper should include the following: introduction, description of ministry area and need for ministry, Biblical basis for ministry, description of the church and community (including demographic information), design of the ministry, plan for implementation in the church (including a plan for recruiting, training, and supervising volunteers), conclusion, footnotes, and works cited. Each section of the paper should relate specifically to the student's chosen ministry.

Papers should be typed, double-spaced with 12 point type. The body of the paper should be 14-15 pages in length. Twelve sources are required for the paper in addition to class notes and textbooks.

Required Readings

The following textbooks and resources are required reading for class discussions and are to be read in their entirety unless otherwise specified.

Required Textbooks

Gospel of Luke

McKee, Jonathan, and Thomas W. McKee. The New Breed: Understanding and Equipping the 21st Century Volunteer, 2d ed. Loveland, CO: Group, 2012.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

I. Reading Assignments/Reading Quizzes

Students are responsible for reading the textbooks required in the class. Students will complete a quiz on the reading assignments for each unit of the course. Students should complete all reading assignments and quizzes by the assigned dates. Each quiz must be taken by the due date given for each unit assignment; no late quizzes are allowed. Quizzes will not be accessible after the due date. Students will receive a final quiz grade which will be the total points earned on all quizzes divided by the total points possible on all quizzes.

II. Discussion Boards

Threaded discussion is intended to foster dialogue concerning the subject matter. Timely answers are critical for participating in threaded discussions. Initial posts to threaded discussions should be submitted by 11:59 p.m. on Thursday of each unit to allow time for further dialogue. All students are expected to respond to at least 2 initial posts per week. Response posts are due when the unit for which they are assigned closes. Threaded discussions should be timely and thought provoking, referencing reading content and making real-life application. Points will be deducted for late initial posts. No late response posts are allowed in this course. [See the grading rubric at the end of the syllabus for more information.]

III. Church Evaluation

Each student will complete an evaluation of his/her church using The Externally Focused Church. Students should use the discussion questions at the end of each chapter as a guide for their papers. The evaluation should be 5 typed, double-spaced pages with a Turabian cover sheet. Upload your paper on Blackboard in .doc (Microsoft Word).

IV. Resource File

Students will research one of the following areas of church community ministries: campground ministry, criminal justice ministry, English as a Second Language, homeless ministry, hunger ministry, ministry with migrant workers, pregnancy care ministries, nursing home ministry, refugee resettlement ministries, raceway ministries, transportation ministries, multihousing ministries, substance abuse ministries, ministry with seafarers, tutoring children and youth, special needs ministries for families, afterschool programs.

The chosen topic should be different than the ministry area that is the focus of the Ministry Project Paper. Topics will be assigned on a first come, first served basis. Students should email their top 3 topic choices to Dr. Rivers (lrivers@nobts.edu) by 9/3.

Students will research their chosen topic, interview two people serving in the ministry area, and compile a resource file for the chosen ministry.

The resource file should include the following:

- An annotated bibliography of 10 current books or articles (since 2010) about the ministry area. The annotation should include the following: brief summary of the book or article, information about the author, intended audience, and relevance of the book or article to the ministry area.
- A list and description of 10 websites related to the chosen ministry area.
- Five examples of churches and organizations conducting ministry in the chosen area, including a description of each ministry and contact information for each ministry. The student should interview a person at two of the ministry sites. The student should submit a one page summary of each interview, including contact information for the interviewee and a description of the person's work within the ministry area.
- All entries in the resource file should be mutually exclusive.

The interviews and resource file will be graded as follows:

Annotated Bibliography	30 points
Websites	20 points
Ministry Examples	20 points
Interviews	30 points

Note: All information must be properly cited to avoid plagiarism (e.g., If students utilize resources such as book reviews to complete the annotated bibliography, students should cite the sources in correct form.).

V. Ministry Project Paper

Each student is to design a ministry for his/her church. The paper should include the following: introduction, description of ministry area and need for ministry, Biblical basis for ministry, description of the church and community (including demographic information), design of the ministry, plan for implementation in the church (including a plan for recruiting, training, and supervising volunteers), conclusion, footnotes, and works cited. Each section of the paper should relate specifically to the student's chosen ministry.

Papers should be typed, double-spaced with 12 point type. The body of the paper should be 14-15 pages in length. Twelve sources are required for the paper in addition to class notes and textbooks.

Papers will be graded on content, organization, and form. The points for each section are:

Title Page/Table of Contents/Introduction	5 points
Description of Church and Community	10 points
Description of Ministry Area and Need for Ministry	10 points
Biblical Basis for Ministry	10 points
Design of the Ministry	20 points
Plan for Implementing the Ministry	20 points
Conclusion	5 points
Works Cited	10 points
Grammar/Spelling/Style (including footnotes)	10 points
Total	100 points

Possible ministry topics include campground ministry, criminal justice ministry, English as a Second Language, homeless ministry, hunger ministry, ministry with migrant workers, pregnancy care ministries, nursing home ministry, refugee resettlement ministries, raceway ministries, transportation ministries, multihousing ministries, substance abuse ministries, ministry with seafarers, tutoring children and youth, special needs ministries for families, afterschool programs. Any topic not listed above should be approved by the professor.

The chosen topic should be different than the ministry area that is the focus of the Resource File. Topics will be assigned on a first come, first served basis. Students should email their top 3 topic choices to Dr. Rivers (lrivers@nobts.edu) by 9/3.

VI. Final Exam

Students will complete a final exam. The exam is due at 1 p.m. (CST) on Monday, December 10, 2018.

Final Exam	20%	12/10/18, 1:00 p.m. (CST)

Course Policies

Professor's Policy on Assignments

All work is due on the assigned day. The grade for late assignments will automatically be reduced by 10 points. Assignments that are over one week late will not be accepted.

All assignments should be uploaded to Blackboard in .doc (Microsoft Word), unless otherwise stated on the syllabus. Please do not upload papers in pdf.

Style Guides for Assignments

Social work students should use the APA style guide for all assignments. Non-social work students may use Turabian or APA.

Academic Honesty Policy

All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, Internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Netiquette: Appropriate Online Behavior

Appropriate Online Behavior. Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Plagiarism

Students are reminded to demonstrate high standards of conduct in writing assignments and to not violate the Seminary's policy on plagiarism in the current Graduate Catalog and the Student Handbook.

Academic Policies

Academic policies related to absences, examinations, and other topics can be found in the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Academic Catalog.

Emergency Plan

In the event of a hurricane or other emergency, go to the seminary web site for information: www.nobts.edu. Also, students should use Blackboard to follow any announcements that may be posted. Students should ensure their current email address is updated on Blackboard.
