

Successfully completing an Internet course

1. Understand that Internet courses are not “easier” than classroom courses. Disabuse yourself of any notion to the contrary. In a typical semester, 20% of my Internet students do not complete the course whereas 95+% of classroom students do.

2. You must be able to envision specific blocks of time in which you can complete your work, something like regular class times in a traditional course.

3. If you plan to do the work in your spare time, don't take the course because no one has any spare time.

Important note regarding Incomplete Work: Please know that students may not receive an Incomplete for any Internet course--i.e., all work must be completed during the academic duration of the Internet course. (Page 185, Graduate Catalog 2017-2018.)

Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values.

- 1. Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. This course addresses Doctrinal Integrity specifically by preparing students to grow in understanding and interpreting of the Bible.
- 2. Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshiping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word. Spiritual Vitality is addressed by reminding students that a dynamic relationship with God is vital for effective ministry.
- 3. Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. This course addresses Mission Focus by helping students understand the biblical foundations for fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments.
- 4. Characteristic Excellence: What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Characteristic Excellence is addressed by preparing students to excel in their ability to interpret Scripture, which is foundational to effective ministry.

5. Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us. Servant Leadership is modeled by classroom deportment.

The core value focus for this academic year is Doctrinal Integrity.

Curriculum Competencies

The curriculum competency addressed in this course is Biblical Exposition.

Course Description

Readings from all the different genres of the Hebrew OT will provide the basis for solidifying and expanding students' grammatical knowledge and for introducing them to all the basic components required for advanced work in the Hebrew text. Foundational elements of the study will be limited grammar review, and introductions to the standard critical edition of the Hebrew Bible, textual criticism, translation theory and method, and syntactical analysis. Guided practice in reading, textual criticism, grammatical and syntactical analysis, and translation will prepare students to achieve maximum benefit from subsequent advanced Hebrew exegesis courses.

Textbooks

Ellis R. Brotzman and Eric J. Tully, Old Testament Textual Criticism: A Practical Introduction. Baker, 2016. [TC]
Robert B. Chisholm, Jr. From Exegesis to Exposition: A Practical Guide to using Biblical Hebrew. Baker, 1999. [EE]

The student should have the following texts from Introductory Hebrew:

Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia.

Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew and English Lexicon. Hendrickson, 1996. (Other lexicons are permissible)

Recommended texts:

William R. Scott, Simplified Guide to BHS: Critical apparatus, Masora, accents, unusual letters & other markings, 4th ed. D & F Scott Publishing, 2007.

Course Requirements

The student will:

1. Complete weekly quizzes on the lectures, reading assignments, and vocabulary assignments.
2. Translate assigned passages from the BHS.
3. Complete a mid-term examination.
4. Prepare an exegetical paper on an assigned passage. (Embedded Assignment for Student Learning Outcomes assessment)

Embedded Assignment—Exegetical Paper

1. Prepare an exegetical paper on 1 Samuel 8 and address textual meaning, textual criticism, Masorah notes, grammar, syntax, context, and the literary structure of the passage. This paper should be 12-15 pages, double-spaced, using 12 pt Times New Roman font, and employ no less than 12 critical and/or technical sources. This paper should be 12-15 pages of text, double-spaced, with no less than 12 critical or technical sources. Text pages do not include title page, table of contents, or the bibliography.
2. Document and interact with key contributors in the field of study and demonstrate how the use of appropriate tools and resources can assist in the exegetical research process of investigating a selected passage for exegesis.

3. Communicate how exegesis of biblical texts impacts the faith and life of contemporary believers.

Evaluation of Grade

1. Weekly Reading Questions – 25%
2. Vocabulary Quizzes – 15%
3. Translations – 5%
4. Mid-Term Exam – 20%
5. Exegetical Project – 35%
- Total – 100%

Student Learning Outcomes

1. The student will be able to understand how to improve biblical exegesis by the means of Hebrew grammar and syntax.
2. The student will demonstrate how to apply the benefits of Hebrew word studies, syntax, literary analysis, genre nuances, or text critical issues in the proclamation of the Bible (Hebrew Bible).
3. The student will be able to communicate clearly the meaning of the original Hebrew text, especially as influenced by genre, lexicography, context, and literary structure.

Course Teaching Methodology

The course methodologies include video lectures, oral readings, article and textbook readings, weekly quizzes, and exams.
