Purpose of Course

The purpose of this course is to provide practical knowledge and skills for students preparing to minister to children and families. Services available through the church and Child Welfare Agencies including services to families in their homes, foster care, adoptions, residential placements, and protective services are investigated.

Our Core Values

The seminary has five core values. The focal core value for 2017-2018 is Servant Leadership.

Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us. Servant Leadership is modeled by classroom deportment.

Curriculum Competencies Addressed

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following seven areas:

Biblical Exposition: To interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.

Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.

Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.

Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.

Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.

Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.

Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are:

- 1. Servant leadership: This competency will be addressed through interviews and case studies with individuals and children and families.
- 2. Interpersonal relationship skills: Students will have opportunities to practice listening skills, assertion skills, conflict resolution skills, collaborative problem solving skills, and skill selection.
- 3. Spiritual and character formation: Students will demonstrate that they value ministry to children and families within the church and community.

Course Catalog Description

This course examines issues related to the welfare of families and children. Topics included are foster care, adoption, institutionalization, domestic violence, and divorce. The role of the church in addressing the issues is discussed. Students will spend eight hours with a child or family.

Student Learning Outcomes

The student involved in this course should be able to accomplish the following:

- Understand the essentials of healthy family-centered case practice, which includes understanding family systems and environment.
- Strengthen the church's ministry to children and families by examining the dynamics of child abuse, neglect, and family violence.
- Use family-centered practice by being sensitive to the cultural orientation of families.
- Value a commitment to assuring the safety of children as a priority.

Textbooks

The following texts and resources are required reading for class discussions and are to be read in the entirety unless otherwise specified.

Required Textbooks

- Golding, K. S. (2008). Nurturing attachments: Supporting children who are fostered or adopted. Philadelphia: Jessica Kingsley Publishers.
- Mather, J. H., Lager, P. B., & Harris, N. J. (2007). Child welfare: Policies and best practices (2nd ed). Belmont, CA: Brooks/Cole.

Course Requirements

I. Final Exam

Each student will complete a take home final exam.

For the final exam each student is asked to reflect on some of the changes in his/her knowledge, attitudes and/or skills prompted by the material studied in this class. Based on that reflection, the student should make five recommendations for changes in welfare-related policy, practice, resources and/or training.

- (1) Provide your rationale for creating these recommendations including examples from your reading or class material to support these needed changes. You are encouraged to be creative in developing your five recommendations. Try not to be constrained by issues of limited funds or staff. This is your opportunity to contribute to creating a more responsive child welfare system.
- (2) Come prepared to share some of your recommendations during our final class session. Feedback from the class can be incorporated into your final exam.
- (3) Each person also is to explore the role of the church in ministry in Child Welfare. Check journals and newspapers. Present your viewpoint of the role of the church on your final exam.
- (4) Additional questions will be distributed on the last day of the workshop.
- (5) Take home final exam is due May 29, 2018.

II. Research Presentation

Results of research on topic of choice will be presented on date scheduled.

1. Each student will submit a first, second, and third choice for group involvement/class presentation. The selection may be made from the following: Reality Therapy, Play

Therapy, Person Centered Counseling, Gestalt, Rational-Emotive, Cognitive Behavior, Behavioral, Transactional Analysis, Individual and Family Therapy. Submit the choices in writing by April 26, 2018 to lrivers@nobts.edu.

- 2. Each person will have 45 minutes to present their topic on the designated date.
- 3. Each individual is to prepare an annotated bibliography for each class member and the professors. The bibliography should be related to the class presentation and should contain a minimum of 20 sources (10 of these sources must be dated later than 2010). The bibliography is to be submitted typed on the date of the presentation (class time).

III. Family Assessment/Case Study

Each student is to be involved in a family case study of one child between the ages of 6 and 12 years. This typed case study should include the following requirements:

- a. Identifying information
- b. Composition of the family
- c. Record of eight hours of contact with the child or family
- d. Written permissions from his/her parents
- e. One interview with the parent or parent substitute (more, if needed)
- f. Summary of contacts with professionals if interviews are related to the case study
- g. Summary of individual sessions (approximately one page per session)
- h. Typed case study are due two weeks after class, June 8, 2018.
- i. Oral presentation of case studies on Friday, May 25, 2018.

IV. Class Involvement

- a. Attendance
  - Class sessions will include a discussion of the assigned readings, small group exercises, guest speakers, audio-visuals and presentations of case examples by the professor and students. Therefore, consistent attendance and class participation in addition to the written assignments will be necessary to qualify for a grade of A.
  - No absences are allowed in academic workshops.

b. Participation

• Student involvement is required in this class. Our expectation is that when you are present physically, you are also present emotionally and prepared to participate in the class discussions. Benefit from this class will depend upon your commitment to be prepared and involved each class period. Please turn off your cell phone. Text messaging is not acceptable during class. Computer use is acceptable only for class work.

- c. Reading Assignments
  - Students are responsible for completing all reading assignments.
- d. Agency Visit

The student will visit one child welfare agency during the workshop. Reports of the visit must be individual. The following outline will serve as a guideline for preparing a two page typed, double-spaced report on the visit.

Identification of the agency: Give name and location of the agency. Identify the name of the person interviewed, his/her title(s), and role(s) in the organization. Include the date and time of the interview. Identify all present at the time of the interview, including classmates.

- Mission of the agency: What is the mission of the organization?
- Target population: Whom does the agency serve? How are persons referred to the agency?
- Tour: Describe the facility.
- Impressions: Include your impressions of the organization and its services.
- Interest statement: Would you like to work at this agency? Why or why not?
