Course Requirements

1. Students will attend class. The course is divided into 8 one-week units. Each week's unit will have a variety of in-class content items, typically consisting of a video lecture and a slide show. Class attendance is based on a self-reported percentage of content completed. The student will provide a written statement of the percentage of completion of all in-class content items, due four weeks after completing the last week of class.
2. Students will read the assigned textbook and other reading assignments. Reading assignments will include readings from the textbook, Scripture, and other sources. The student will provide a written statement of completion of all reading assignments, due four weeks after completing the last week of class.
3. Students will participate in class discussion. Participation is determined by postings and responses in the Threaded Discussions held each week. These discussions will be related to the material covered in each week's content. All students are required to post a minimum of three responses in the main discussion each week: one in answer to the presenting questions and two in response to postings by classmates. In order for the threaded discussion to be of maximum benefit to everyone involved, students must stay as close to the course schedule as possible—so that everyone will participate in the discussion in the same week. Please limit discussions in this venue to the assigned topic. Students may e-mail or use the miscellaneous forum to discuss other topics with your classmates.
4. Students will complete a missions project. Evaluate the present missions programs of their own church and propose strategies for increasing missions involvement. The report should be ten to fifteen pages (double spaced) and include the following section headings:
 - Description of Present Missions Programs
 - Evaluation of Present Missions Programs
 - Recommendations of Future Missions Programs
 - Integration of Missions into other Church Programs

5. Students will complete a final examination.

Mail the reading statement, report, and final examination to Dr. Rhonda Kelley, NOBTS, 3939 Gentilly Blvd., New Orleans, LA 70126 or email rkelly@nobts.edu no later than four weeks after class. Requirements must be received by the end of each semester or the student will receive a course grade of an "F." Students may request an incomplete in the course in case of emergency.
