Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. The core value focus for this academic year is Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us. Servant Leadership is modeled by classroom deportment.

Curriculum Competencies

All graduates of NOBTS are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in each of the following areas: Biblical Exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, Servant Leadership, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Worship Leadership. The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are: Biblical Exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, Servant Leadership, and Spiritual and Character Formation.

Course Description

In this course students are introduced to Christian missions through a brief examination of biblical and theological foundations and a historical overview. Attention is given to the International and North American Mission Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention, including their administration and programs. Particular attention is given to strategic concerns affecting the future of the mission enterprise.

Student Learning Outcomes

In order to help fulfill the Great Commission, the students, by the end of the course, should:

1. Be able to apply their knowledge and comprehension of the biblical, theological, historical, and cultural foundations of Christian Missions to the process of mobilizing the church for missions.
2. Develop a church missions strategy based on partnership with SBC missions organizations.
3. Value strategic concerns affecting the future of missions.
4. Be able to accomplish the following:
 - a) Participate in a volunteer missions experience.
 - b) Advocate missions among Southern Baptists.

Course Teaching Methodology

The course will involve the following methodologies:

A variety of teaching methods will be utilized such as class presentations by the professor using Power Point and handouts. Other teaching methods include small and large group discussion, multi-media presentations, utilization of missions related websites, and other communication mediums. A Blackboard shell for the class will be utilized extensively as a resource for students. Students will be expected to be thoroughly prepared for class discussions through readings and the Blackboard weekly unit supplements.

Embedded Assignment

The Acts 1:8 Plan is the embedded assignment that will be completed by all students for all sections of this course. The rubric for grading this embedded assignment is attached to the syllabus. Students are to complete the embedded assignment according to the syllabus requirements and be mindful of the grading rubric.

Textbooks

Barnett, Mike and Robin Martin, eds. Discovering the Mission of God: Best Missional Practices for the 21st Century. Downers Grove, IL: IVP Academic, 2012.

Optional Textbook (See Project Assignment Choices)

Shipman, Mike. Any 3: Anyone, Anywhere, Anytime. Monument, CO: WIGTake Resources, 2013.

Recommended Reading

Ripkin, Nik. The Insanity of God: A True Story of Faith Resurrected. Nashville, B & H Books, 2013.

This book is not required reading, but would be very beneficial for learning more about missions. You will not be tested on the book, but there might be a bonus question or two.

Course Requirements

1. Blackboard.
 - a. Once each student has completed the registration procedures and had cleared the Business Office, he or she will be automatically enrolled in the Blackboard portion of the course. The class will begin on Jan. 23. The first thing each student should do is go through “Unit 1: Getting Started”. This will explain course procedures.

- b. Students in an internet course are responsible to check the announcements and units in Blackboard as well as emails from the professor to stay up to date on assignments or any adjustment to due dates listed in the course syllabus. You must maintain a valid e-mail address recorded in your Blackboard account at all times.

Class Meetings. The dates of the class meetings are January 23, February 6, 20, March 6, 27, April 10, 24 and May 8. The class will meet from 7:00 – 8:50 P.M. (Central Time). Because this is a hybrid course, students are only permitted one absence from a class meeting.

2. Units.

- a. Students should proceed through the learning units in numerical order beginning with “Unit 1: Getting Started.” New units will be released weekly so students should not expect to work ahead too far. Units will be due on each Sat. at 11:59 PM. All units must be completed along with required readings. At the end of each section of a unit students will indicate completion of that section of the unit by clicking on the “Reviewed” button. Orderly completion of the weekly Units along with attention to the specific assignments given in this syllabus will keep the student on track for successful completion of the course.
- b. Reading, review, and completion of unit materials. Mark each item as reviewed when you have completed it. A quiz may be given on any materials in the unit. Missing more than two quizzes may result in a minimum of a letter grade deduction for the course.

3. Projects (Assignments not found in Blackboard Units but to be submitted on Blackboard as noted below):

a. Missionary Biography or other Missions Book.

Choose a missionary bibliography (from list supplied by professor) or a missions book from the course syllabus or textbook bibliographies or another missions book approved by the professor. Email the professor for approval of the book you request to read. After completion of reading a missionary biography or a missions book, post a discussion about the book on the discussion board. Your discussion should be three or four substantial paragraphs between two-thirds to one full page in which you discuss the missionary and the ministry of that missionary. Evaluate the life and work of the missionary and point out major contributions. If reading a missions book other than a missionary biography, post a discussion about key points from the book and ways to apply insights from the book in local church ministry or missions. Your discussion should be three or four substantial paragraphs between two-thirds to one full page. After posting your discussion, read and respond to at least 5 other posts. The post on your missionary biography or missions book should be entered by Thurs., Feb. 22, 11:59 P.M. and your response to 5 other posts should be completed by Sat. Feb. 24, 11:59 P.M.

- b. Acts 1: 8 Plan. Research and write a strategy designed to enable a local church to implement an Acts 1:8 strategy which includes intentional local (Jerusalem); regional (Judea); North America (Samaria) and international missions (ends of the earth) with direct involvement by church members. If your church already has an Acts 1:8 strategy, develop your plan for how to expand its ministry in the four areas or develop an Acts 1:8 strategy for another existing church or planned new church. This plan should be a minimum of six to eight full double-spaced pages in length. The Acts One 8 website shows the basic expectations for Acts 1:8 churches which includes committing a church

“to a comprehensive missions involvement in our community (our Jerusalem), state (our Judea), continent (our Samaria), and world (our ends of the earth).”

<http://dev.actstone8.com/>

- i. Your paper will be a brief description of how you will carry out missions in the four geographic areas and separately how to use each of the eight commitments for your church. (See “Acts One 8” website for a description of the eight commitments.) Begin your plan with a brief description of your church and its present involvement in missions. An overview of information on the Acts 1:8 Challenge will be given during the course. Use headings: Introduction, Description of Church, Geographic Areas of Missions, Commitments, Conclusion.
 - ii. Examples of Acts 1:8 churches may be found in articles from Commission Stories available online through <http://www.commissionstories.com/>; <http://imb.org>; and <http://www.namb.net>. For detailed information on the Acts 1:8 challenge, go to the website: <http://dev.actstone8.com/>
 - iii. The plan is due on Thurs., Apr. 5, 11:59 P.M.. Helps for the Acts 1:8 Plan can be found on the External Links site. This assignment is an embedded assignment that will be completed by all students for all sections of this course. The rubric for grading this assignment is attached to this syllabus. Please complete the assignment according to the syllabus guidelines and this rubric.
- c. Reflection Paper. Write a 3-4 double-spaced page reflection paper on how you sense God’s leadership to be involved in missions? Describe how you have examined the missionary call to determine whether or not God has or is calling you to service as a long-term missionary at this point in time. Include how you will be available for possible short term missionary service in your ministry if not called to long-term missionary service. Discuss further aspects of how you will be involved in missions. Chapter thirty-eight of the textbook provides helpful insights for exploring a missionary call in one’s life and should be consulted for this reflection paper. The paper should include appropriate references to Bible verses and passages and other sources as needed. It may be written using first person. The reflection paper will be graded for clarity, content, creative expression, and proper grammatical expression and form. This assignment is due on Thurs., Apr. 12, 11:59 P.M., and is to be submitted via the Blackboard Assignment File.
- d. Research Project. Do one of the following projects which must be approved by the professor. Choose one of the following to complete from i. or one of the options under ii. An introduction, headings for key points, conclusion and a separate bibliography of works cited in research should be included.
- i. Academic: The student will research and write a paper on an approved topic related to missions and ministry. Examples: How to involve more church members in mission projects and mission service; The Cooperative Program and its missionary impact on Southern Baptists; The Life and Ministry of Lottie Moon, Annie Armstrong (or) other missionaries or mission figures; The Call to Be a Missionary: Is Everyone a Missionary or Is It a Spiritual Gift; The Impact of the Great Commission Resurgence Task Force Recommendations on the local church (or) state conventions (or) NAMB (or) IMB.
 - ii. Any 3 Witnessing Assignment : Read the book, Any 3: Anyone, Anywhere, Anytime

- by Mike Shipman. Submit a 3-5 page review of the book by Thurs, March 8, 11:59 P.M. Memorize the Any Three presentation and practice it with at least two people (these can be Christians) and enter a one paragraph discussion of your two practice attempts in the appropriate discussion forum by Thurs., Apr. 12, 11:59 P.M. No later than Apr. 21 attempt to share the Any Three presentation with at least three Muslims. Submit a 2 to 4 double-spaced page summary of your Any 3 witness attempts with the three Muslims by Thurs., Apr. 26, 11:59 P.M.
- iii. Ministry Focused:
1. Develop a people profile and strategy proposal for an unreached people group, population segment, or city which may be selected in consultation with the professor. The proposal should include the five pillars of a comprehensive strategy outlined in New Directions, (course document), as a guide to help develop a strategy for reaching the unreached people group. The IMB Regional offices or IMB missionaries may be contacted about possible people groups to profile.
 2. Develop an actual prayer and advocacy network for a specific unreached people group, population segment, city, or related ministry. This network should include at least two congregations and 25 individuals, and should include basic promotional material. The people group or related ministry should be selected in consultation with the professor.
 3. Develop a profile and evangelistic strategy for a people group or population segment in a city or area. Include the five pillars of a comprehensive strategy found in New Directions, pages 41-42, as a guide to help develop a strategy. You should seek to share your findings with someone working in the ministry through a local church or with that people group or segment of the population.
 4. Do research on a specific geographic location such as a city, town or rural area. Determine what is being done now to reach people in that location for Christ. Develop a missions strategy for reaching a special target or ethnic group in the geographic location that includes a three year plan of ministry. Seek to contact at least one person or group targeting that city or area if possible. Make your strategy available to them when complete. The five pillars of a comprehensive mission strategy found in New Directions, (course document) should be used as a guide for developing a strategy to reach the people in the location with the gospel.
- iv. Do an alternative research paper upon approval from the professor.
- v. Due dates and format: By Thurs., Feb. 15, 11:59 P.M., each student will submit the topic of the project in the appropriate discussion forum. For the academic and ministry focused projects each student will turn in a preliminary outline of his or her project with at least 6 of the 14 sources that will be used by Thurs., March 8, 11:59 P.M. This will be submitted in the Assignment File. The final project is due on Thurs. Apr. 26, 11: 59 P.M., and should be submitted on the appropriate discussion board so that all students will have access to papers. The paper should be at least 12-14 pages in length (the text portion) and use at least 12 different sources. All papers should be in Turabian format. Use footnotes to show your sources. Students will also be responsible for reviewing other research papers as assigned at the end of the semester. Failure to review the assigned research papers of fellow students will negatively impact your research paper grade.

- e. Volunteer service. Spend 4 hours in volunteer mission work at a North American Mission Board, state convention, or local church/association community service ministry site. One goal of the assignment will be for you to be involved in ministry beyond the four walls of a church building or traditional ministry structures. This project may be completed any time between registration and the due date below. Write a brief summary of your experience, along with personal reflection on the experience. This project will be graded on a pass/fail basis but is a necessary component of passing this course. The typed summary and reflection should be one to two double spaced typed pages. (Students who are not Southern Baptist may discuss with the professor an appropriate substitute for this assignment).

Report on the experience in the Blackboard Discussion Board. Clear the volunteer experience with the professor before you commit to the volunteer placement. The volunteer work must be completed by Thurs., May 3 and the discussion entered in Blackboard by Sat., May 5, 11:59 P.M. This assignment will be graded on a pass/fail basis and is required component for passing this course.

Evaluation of Grade

The student grades will be computed as follows:

Unit Quizzes	10%
Acts 1:8 Church Plan	15%
Research Project Preliminaries	5%
Research Project	20%
Reflection Paper	5%
Mission Volunteer Hours	Pass/Fail
Missionary Biography	10%

2. BlackboardHelpDesk@nobts.edu - Email for technical questions/support requests with the NOBTS Blackboard Learning Management System NOBTS.Blackboard.com.
3. ITCSupport@nobts.edu - Email for general technical questions/support requests.
4. www.NOBTS.edu/itc/ - General NOBTS technical help information is provided on this website.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all classes. No more than three hours of classroom time can be missed. Any absence over that amount will result in a failing grade. In the event that the normal NOBTS schedule is impacted due to a natural event or epidemic go to the seminary website for information. Our class will continue through our Blackboard site. Please note announcements and assignments on the Blackboard site in the event one or more of our classes is cancelled.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Each student is responsible for the academic integrity of his/her work. The following are examples of violations of academic integrity: cheating on an exam, plagiarism, turning in work done by someone else, and submitting a paper which has been submitted in another class. These and other violations of academic integrity may result in failure of the course.

Help for Writing Papers at “The Write Stuff”

NOBTS maintains a Writing Center designed to improve English writing at the graduate level. Students can receive writing guides, tips, and valuable information to help in becoming a better writer.

Plagiarism on Written Assignments

NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism. Plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. See the NOBTS Student Handbook for definition, penalties, and policies associated with plagiarism.
