Seminary Mission Statement:

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill The Great Commission and The Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. The core value focus for this academic year is Servant leadership.

Curriculum Competencies

All graduates of NOBTS are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in each of the following areas: Biblical Exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, Servant Leadership, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Worship Leadership. The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are: Biblical Exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Servant Leadership, and Spiritual and Character Formation

Course Description

This course combines an overview of the Book of Jeremiah with an in-depth analysis of selected portions of the Hebrew text. Primary attention will be given to the grammatical, literary, historical, and theological features of the text. The study will include a discussion of the process leading to hermeneutical goals of teaching and preaching.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon the successful completion of this course the student will have demonstrated a proper knowledge of and an ability to use effectively in study, teaching and preaching:

1. The overall literary structure and content of the Book of Jeremiah.
2. The major theological themes and critical issues in the book.
3. The Hebrew text of the Book of Jeremiah.
4. Hebrew syntax and literary style.

Textbooks:

Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia.

Book of Jeremiah by J.A. Thompson (NICOT) (Eerdmans)

Basic Forms of Prophetic Speech, by Claus Westermann (Westminster/John Knox)

Course Assignments:

2. Introduction to Jeremiah (10%) Due Date: Sat February 17
3. Literary - Rhetorical Analysis (15%). Due Date: Monday, March 26
4. Book Reviews (10% each) Due Dates Mondays, March 12 and April 16
5. Exegetic research paper (25%). Due Date Tues, May 15
6. Discussion Board Areas: 4 Topics + Personal Introduction (10%) See schedule

Book Reviews (2) Post your Book Reviews in the Assignments

Due Dates March 12 and April 16

Choose two books from the "Books" section of the "Selected Bibliography"

Marked by the double asterisk **.

These will be shared with your classmates.

Procedures

1. Translations -- Weekly translations shall be submitted via the "Assignments" section in Blackboard. See posted example in "Course Documents" These are DUE ON SATURDAY NIGHT at the conclusion of the given week of the seminary Internet course calendar.
The translations should include:
 - (1) a "rough/rote" translation of the words in the Hebrew word order in, followed by
 - (2) the parsing of key verbs (not all, only those of "significance" and/or difficulty), and then
 - (3) a dynamic or formal equivalency translation of the text, keeping the following model in mind: "the accuracy of the New American Standard Version with the readability of Today's New International Version."
2. Discussion Board -- In the Four Subject areas, each student is to post his or her own discussion on the given topic assignment, and then contribute responses to the postings of at least two other students in the course.

3. Key Questions - Several of the translation passages will have a "Key Question" regarding the interpretation of the given text.
4. Video Guides and Lectures - Video lectures are interspersed through the various Units. Some are introductory lectures to the course, the book, or the various translation sections. Others will guide you in the process of interpreting Jeremiah through the Hebrew literature.

EXEGETICAL RESEARCH PAPER: 20-25 pages

The student is to write an exegetical research paper on a section of the Book of Jeremiah, chosen in consultation with the professor. The passage should be approximately 12-20 verses.

Students will turn in a statement regarding their chosen passage on or before .

Rhetorical/Structural Analysis (Length 5-7 pages) due Mon, March 26, 2018.

After reading Westermann's Basic Forms of Prophetic Speech, and reviewing the examples posted in the "Course Documents" the student shall complete a rhetorical and structural analysis of their chosen passage.

See video and handouts for guidelines posted in "Course Documents" as well as a sample paper.

The Exegetical Research Paper should include the following elements:

Introduction - To the passage (not the entire biblical book) including the historical and cultural setting, important biblical background material, etc.

Translation - Your own translation, having the following quality goal: the precision of the NASB or the NKJV, with the readability of the NIV, ESV, or NLT.

Textual Footnotes: Address the issues in important text critical notes, as well as any key words which you have translated in a nuanced manner.

Exegetical Outline - Provide an exegetical outline of the chosen passage, based upon your "Rhetorical / Structural Analysis" with at least one but no more than two sub-levels. The outline should reflect the prophetic literary structure of the passage.

Exegetical Notes and Discussion - Explicate the meaning of the text, highlighting words studies, structural elements, pertinent background material. This is the most in-depth section of the paper. Include here the findings from your "Rhetorical / Structural Analysis" as well as material from word studies, syntax, etc. that aid in the interpretation of the passage as a holistic text.

Homiletical Outline - Assuming you will be teaching or preaching from this material, provide an outline of your presentation, including: Title, Theme or Key Point, Outline with no more than two sub-levels, Conclusion. This may or may not directly reflect your exegetical outline, depending upon your homiletical emphasis.
