Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values.

1. Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. This course addresses Doctrinal Integrity specifically by preparing students to grow in understanding and interpreting of the Bible.
2. Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshiping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word. Spiritual Vitality is addressed by reminding students that a dynamic relationship with God is vital for effective ministry.
3. Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. This course addresses Mission Focus by helping students understand the biblical foundations for fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments.
4. Characteristic Excellence: What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Characteristic Excellence is addressed by preparing students to excel in their ability to interpret Scripture, which is foundational to effective ministry.
5. Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us. Servant Leadership is modeled by classroom deportment.

The core value focus for the 2017–18 academic year is Servant Leadership.

Curriculum Competencies

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following areas:

1. Biblical Exposition: to interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.

2. Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.
3. Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.
4. Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.
5. Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.
6. Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.
7. Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are: Biblical Exposition and Christian Theological Heritage.

Course Description

This second course in systematic theology introduces the student to the doctrines of the work of Christ, salvation and the Christian life, the Holy Spirit, the church, and last things. The biblical foundation and the relevant historical developments are considered in developing a comprehensive statement of Christian teaching concerning construction of a Christian understanding of each doctrine.

Student Learning Outcomes

The student, by the end of the course, should:

1. be able to analyze the processes, methods, assumptions, and world views of historical, theological, and philosophical disciplines.
2. be able to apply their knowledge and understanding of the key Christian doctrines of the work of Christ, salvation and the Christian life, the Holy Spirit, the church, and last things (eschatology) to the process of interpreting Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.
3. organize a Christian understanding of doctrine into their decision making process.
4. value the influence of various historical, theological, philosophical traditions, and worldviews.
5. be able to practice prolegomena, the methodology of the study of theology.
6. be able, with the help of resources, to articulate and defend evangelical and Baptist positions on specific theological issues.

Course Teaching Methodology

The course will involve the following methodologies: assigned readings, online discussion boards, reflective essays, and book reviews. These methods are consistent with the belief that some learning will occur outside of the classroom (as students read assigned texts, write reflective essays, and research and write papers) as well as in the online classroom (from online discussions). My goal is not that students will be indoctrinated to affirm all my views; rather, my goal is that students think critically about their own views, gain a better understanding of other views, and be able to assess the strengths and weaknesses of the supporting claims.

Biblical Authority

This course operates under the assumption that the Bible is the inspired, totally true and trustworthy Word of God. While history, tradition, and reason play no small role in the theological task, the Bible holds ultimate authority in Christian doctrine and practice. The Baptist Faith and Message (2000) provides the structure of this course's content.

A Note about Web-Based Learning

Web-based courses are, by nature, a different kind of learning experience than courses taught in the traditional classroom. Because of this structure, this web-based course is more reading and writing intensive than traditional classroom courses. Rigorous study of the deep things of God can be a rewarding experience for anyone who participates in it, but it also calls for extra diligence and integrity in completing the work. This reality does not mean that a web-based course cannot be successful in equipping you, the student, for effective, God-honoring ministry. It simply means utilizing a different strategy. Internet courses allow room for independent learners to thrive—to work at a responsible pace, to engage in student-led discussions, and to take ownership of the learning of course content. Note that your instructors are praying for your success.

Textbooks

Required:

- Erickson, Millard J. Christian Theology, 3rd ed. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker, 2013. (You may substitute Erickson's 2nd edition or Grudem's Systematic Theology; a chart for converting the reading assignment is provided in this syllabus.)
- _____. The Concise Dictionary of Christian Theology, rev. ed. Wheaton, IL: Crossway, 2001.
- Harwood, Adam, and Kevin Lawson, eds. Infants and Children in the Church: Five Views on Theology & Ministry. Nashville, TN: B&H Academic, 2017.
- Holy Bible. You may use any reliable, modern translation.
- Stott, John R. W. The Cross of Christ, anniv. ed. Downers Grove, IL: IVP, 2006.

Course Requirements (450 total points possible)

Summary:

Vocabulary Quizzes. Ten at 10 points each = 100 points.

Discussion Boards. Five initial posts at 10 pts. each and ten replies at 5 pts. each = 100 points.

Book Reviews. Two at 50 points each = 100 points.

Cross of Christ Ministry Project. 50 points.

Research Paper. 100 points.

Details:

- Vocabulary Quizzes. Weekly quizzes will cover the words from the vocabulary lists included in the syllabus. Each quiz covers the words in the corresponding vocabulary list (e.g. Quiz #1 will cover the words on Vocabulary List #1). The definitions may be found in the Erickson dictionary. Each quiz will be "active" for 6 days beginning on the Monday morning of that week. The allotted time is 15 minutes. Never use the back button or the test will end and you will be graded on what you have completed. The quizzes are NOT open book. Ten quizzes at 10 points each = 100 points.

- Discussion Boards. Students will be required to answer discussion board questions. These discussion questions will be based on the assigned reading and additional resources located in Course Documents. Students are required to make at least three (3) substantive posts to each question. The initial post will be your answer to the question posed. This post should be 250-300 words. The two replies offered in response to other student posts should be 100-150 words. A substantive post is defined as a post that both exhibits a thoughtful response based upon the class material and that, in the case of reply posts (see above), furthers the discussion thread by posing new questions or thoughts to which other students may respond. Each initial post must be submitted by Thursday of the week it is due so that peers will have time to submit a reply. When replying to a post, please be respectful and peaceable, especially when disagreeing with the views of another person. Be sure to address the content of the initial post, not the tone or personality of the author. Please cite the textbook and another source parenthetically (for example: Erickson, 225). Be sure to support your assertions with biblical-theological support, rather than providing only unsupported assertions (also called opinions). When possible, avoid first person (“I, me, my”); simply state things as fact. You may cite Bible verses, but please do not include any quotations due to space constraints. In order to facilitate informed discussions, these discussion board posts and replies should only be composed after reading the assigned material. Each of the initial posts will be graded as follows (replies will be each graded similarly on a 5-point scale):

 - 10 pts. - meets length requirement; excellent content, grammar, and syntax.
 - 9 pts. - minor problem with the length, grammar, or syntax.
 - 8 pts. or less - multiple problems.
 - There are 5 initial posts (10 pts. each) and 10 replies (5 pts. each) = 100 points.
- Book Reviews (1,500–1,800 words each). Students will read and review two books, Infants and Children in the Church and The Cross of Christ. For a helpful overview of critical book reviews, see this paper. Each review should be structured as follows:

Summary (500–600 words)

Begin with a one or two-sentence biography of the author or each contributor. In the summary section, students should summarize and explain the author’s thesis and supporting arguments. This section might include an outline of the book’s contents and definitions of key terms.

Critique (1,000–1,200 words)

The critique should address many of the following:

- critique of the author’s thesis, assumptions, supporting arguments, method, sources, logic, and style;
- specific examples of strengths and weaknesses (such as any relevant areas not addressed) of the book
- discussion of the book’s usefulness for the intended audience, how the book contributes to its field, other books which explore the issue;
- closing sentence either recommending the book or not and explaining why.

Cite page numbers parenthetically. Footnote only outside sources. Use quotations sparingly. Avoid first person. No title page is required (Students should provide name, date, and word count for each section at the top of page one). Please format in single-spaced, 12-point Times New Roman font. 50 points each. = 100 points.

- Cross of Christ Ministry Project. Theology done well should result in faithful Christian ministry. After reading the course materials on the doctrine of salvation and John Stott’s The Cross of Christ, students will be required to do a ministry project related to the doctrine of the doctrine of salvation. Students may choose to do one of the following:
 - 1) Write a full-length sermon or Bible study manuscript (2,000-4,000 words) on the doctrine of salvation and present it in a church or Bible study group, and write a reflection paper (800-1,000 words) after making the presentation.
 - 2) Share the gospel with a non-believer and write a reflection (800-1,000 words) on the witnessing encounter.
 - 3) Write a counseling case study (appropriate length) based on the contents in The Cross of Christ and a reflection (800-1,000 words) on the case study.

Whatever option the student chooses, the student must write a brief reflection on the value of doctrinal study for completing these tasks. Please submit both the project and the reflection in the online classroom. 50 points.

- Research Paper. All students are required to write a brief research paper (12-15 double-spaced pages in length) on a particular doctrinal topic/question. Students may choose from the following topics or seek approval from the professor on another topic. Students should read the available research paper resources in the “Paper Writing Resources” section before writing. This includes an essay by John Frame entitled “How to Write a Theological Research Paper” and a comprehensive grading rubric for the assignment.

A focused paper is usually better than a broad paper (e.g., like trying to cover the doctrine of Christ in ten pages). Students may select a doctrinal topic and seek to investigate how a particular theologian in history addressed that issue, or may begin with a particular theologian and investigate his or her unique theological perspective (e.g., Calvin’s understanding of imputation or Karl Barth’s doctrine of inspiration).

Late Work

Because life and ministry happens, late work will be accepted—but with a penalty. For every day an assignment is late, five points will be deducted.
