The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church.

The Purpose of the Course

The purpose of this course is to educate students about the life-long and multi-dimensional process of human development and to apply that knowledge to a variety of ministry contexts.

Core Values

The seminary has five core values. The focal core value for 2018-19 is Doctrinal Integrity. This course supports the five core values of the seminary.

Doctrinal Integrity – Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. Our confessional commitments are outlined in the Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith & Message 2000.

Curriculum Competencies Addressed

All graduates of NOBTS are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in each of the following areas: Biblical Exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, Servant Leadership, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Worship Leadership. The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are:

Interpersonal relationships: Students will interact in class and engage in service projects that will provide opportunities to enhance their interpersonal skills.

Spiritual and Character Formation: Students will practice the spiritual discipline of service to others.

Disciplemaking: Students will apply their understanding of lifespan development to ministry across the lifespan.

Course Description

In this course students will explore the different stages of human life through course readings, a service learning project, and by writing a developmental biography. Emphasis is given to the application of subject knowledge to ministry contexts.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course you will be able to demonstrate:

1. an understanding of theories, methods, and research findings related to lifespan development.
2. an understanding of how developmental concepts, theories, and principles apply to everyday life and ministry contexts.
3. an ability to document the effects of major biopsychosocial influences on the development of individuals across the lifespan.

The Embedded Assignment

Developmental Biography (30%)

Due: See Course Schedule

You will write a developmental biography of a fictional individual over the course of the semester. You may be asked to comment on your individual in class discussions. For the developmental biography include the following:

- Demographic Characteristics: Introduce your individual. For the time of your subject's birth, provide demographic characteristics including: gender, socio-economic status, ethnicity, cultural background, family composition, parental characteristics, physical and psychological health of family members. These characteristics will impact your developing individual at each stage. While you may choose to apply autobiographical details to your individual, this is not a developmental autobiography assignment. This information is due first and is separate from the life stages.
- In 1.5 to 2 pages for each of the assigned seven life stages (Infancy, Early Childhood, Middle Childhood, Adolescence, Young Adulthood, Middle Adulthood, Late Adulthood), apply information from each unit regarding that life stage to all aspects (physical development, cognitive development, social/emotional development, spiritual development) of your growing and maturing individual. You must connect each life stage to the prior stages. For example: You should connect the prenatal stage to the infancy stage. What kind of prenatal care did the mother receive? Was the child full term? Were there any environmental (i.e. smoking, drugs) or medical complications for the developing fetus? You may also address the mother's emotional state, her age, and the family's reaction to the birth. The infancy stage will then be connected to the early childhood stage and so forth.
 - Demographic Characteristics February 3
 - Infancy February 10
 - Early Childhood March 3
 - Middle Childhood March 10
 - Adolescence March 17
 - Young/Middle Adulthood April 7
 - Late Adulthood April 21

NOTE: The developmental biography for infancy will be returned by Wednesday, February 13 with feedback. Consider the infancy developmental biography as a practice run. You will receive essential feedback which will be helpful as you construct the subsequent life stage biographies. After feedback, you may resubmit the infancy developmental biography for final grading. The infancy life stage is the only stage which may be resubmitted after feedback.

YOU WILL NOT RECEIVE A SEPARATE GRADE FOR EACH INSTALLMENT.THE ASSIGNMENT GRADE WILL BE POSTED AFTER THE LAST INSTALLMENT (LATE ADULTHOOD).

If you are struggling with the application of the material for a particular developmental stage, you may interview someone who is in the stage or who has a child in that particular stage. Communicate to the interviewee that the purpose of the interview is to gain a better understanding of the stage and that you will not be sharing their experiences with the class. A rubric for this assignment is located at the end of this syllabus and is also posted on Blackboard in Assignments Upload. This assignment is related to Student Learning Outcome #2 and #3. This assignment is an embedded assignment that will be completed by all students for all sections of this course. The rubric for grading this assignment is attached to this syllabus. Please complete the assignment according to this rubric.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

A rubric for each of the following assignments may be found on Blackboard in Assignments.

1. Readings/Assignments:

Due: See Course Schedule Below

All readings/assignments should be completed prior to Discussion Board due dates so you can actively relate to all discussions. Reading the assigned chapters is extremely important as Discussion Boards will not cover all of the assigned reading material but are designed to supplement text reading and provide opportunities to process what you have read. A minimum of one to two hours of reading and studying will be needed to be prepared for each unit. This assignment is related to Student Learning Outcome #1.

2. Quizzes: (10%)

Due: See Course Schedule Below

In order to help you keep up with the assigned readings, open-book quizzes will be given during the semester over the designated content assigned for that unit. You may use notes, your textbook, and any other material that we use in class. You may not “Google” answers. You are trusted to be honest in your academic endeavors. Weekly quizzes will open on Monday at 12:00 a.m. and must be taken by 11:59 p.m. on Sunday. Missed quizzes may not be made up. Late quizzes will not be given. This assignment is related to Student Learning Outcome #1.

3. Examinations (5): (6% each/Total=30%)

Due: See Course Schedule Below

You are expected to take all examinations at the scheduled times. Unless otherwise indicated, exams are open book/open note. Do not make the mistake of thinking that you will be able to find all of the answers while taking the test. In fact, because of the application nature of the questions, many of the answers cannot be found word for word in your text. You should understand key concepts, be able to apply what you have learned and have asked any questions prior to starting the test.

Tests will cover materials presented through class discussions, presentations, and assigned reading. Exams will consist of objective questions (true/false and multiple choice) and subjective questions (identification and essay/short answer). All tests will be posted on Blackboard under Assignments and will be available at 12:00 a.m. on Monday and will close at 11:59 p.m. CST on Sunday. The exam can be opened one time only and must be completed within the time allotted. A few tips about taking a test on Blackboard:

- Be on a computer (not a tablet or phone), “wired” to the wall, and not on Wi-Fi. You may lose connection to the exam if you do not follow this instruction.
- Do not hit the “save” button to save answers during a single-attempt test – “saving” implies that you wish to complete the test later and this is not allowed in a single-attempt test. Any attempt to do so will likely kick you out.
- Use Firefox or Chrome. Past experience has demonstrated that you should not use Internet Explorer or Safari to take exams. Why? I do not know. I only know that it is true.
- Compose your response to a short answer/discussion question in a Word document and then paste your answer into the test. By doing so you will have a copy of your answer should you get kicked out of the exam.
- If you believe that an answer to a question is keyed incorrectly, please send an email with the full questions, the answer you selected, why you believe your answer is the correct answer, and the textbook page or reference to support your answer. Mistakes in keying the test are made, the textbook publisher makes mistakes, and it is possible that you will find errors. Often, by going through these steps, students discover that what was designated as the correct answer was in fact correct. This assignment is related to Student Learning Outcome #1.

4. Application Projects (10% each/Total=20%) Due: App Project 1—3/17;
App. Project II—5/5

Complete two projects selected from the application projects presented in the syllabus. Each project is associated with a chapter in Essentials of Human Development. Detailed instructions for each assignment are posted on Blackboard.

5. Developmental Biography (25%) Due: See Course Schedule
Refer to the description under The Embedded Assignment.

6. Discussion Board Participation (15%)

Threaded Discussion: Topic oriented discussions are graded and open during a set period of time. Your task is to discuss an assigned topic and demonstrate your knowledge, understanding, and insight, much like you would in a classroom discussion. Your comments will be graded on their substance and thoughtfulness and should reflect appropriate application of emerging knowledge and vocabulary in the topic area. Each posting should add value to the discussion. Adding value to the discussion would include things like an example illustrating your position, posting a website, asking question of your fellow classmates, giving a personal example, bringing in something from the textbook, videos or from some outside reading to support your opinion.

- Replying to the Postings of Your Classmates: In addition to writing your own response, each unit you will post a response to at least two other students' responses. Your response must be more than "Yeah, I agree." In your replies to other students you can: 1) Expand on or clarify a point made in the answer. 2) Offer an additional argument to support a position taken in an answer. 3) Suggest ways in which an idea could be more clearly expressed. 4) Identify passages where you think the writer misunderstood a concept or applied it incorrectly. 5) Disagree with a point or position made in a response.
- Spelling and grammar count. You should write in complete sentences and present well-developed ideas.

Once a due date has passed, you can no longer receive credit for submitting a discussion posting. No exceptions to this policy are made. You cannot complete "other assignments" or extra credit to "make-up" for not being able to participate. Consider the discussion board the classroom. If you want to participate in a discussion, you need to show up on time, when everyone else is discussing that topic, in order to get credit for participating. You need your classmates in order to get credit for responding to someone, just as they need you to post an interesting statement to which they can respond.

Your contributions to the Discussion Board Topic are worth 20 points for each week for a total of 15% of your final grade.

The week begins on MONDAY and ends on SUNDAY. Your initial post to the posted questions(s) must be made by Wednesday at 5:00 p.m. CST of each week. Responses to other students' posts must be made by Sunday at 11:59 p.m. CST. Any threaded discussion posted after 11:59 will not be viewed by the professor or grader and will not count towards class participation for that week. This assignment is related to Student Learning Outcomes #1 and #2.

A rubric for class participation may be found in Assignments Upload. This assignment is related to Student Learning Outcomes #1 and #2.

Course Policies

Academic Honesty Policy: All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Assignment Formatting: Unless otherwise noted, all assignments are to be created in Turabian format. All written assignments must be Word documents, written in third person unless otherwise instructed, and created in 12 pt. Times New Roman font. PDFs will not be accepted.

Assignment Submission: All assignments are to be submitted to Blackboard by 11:59 p.m. of the due date unless otherwise indicated. Do not send files as attachments via email to the professor. For technical reasons, this mode of file transmission is extremely inefficient.

Grading Scale: Your final grade will be based on your total accumulation of points as indicated under the Assignments and Evaluation Criteria section of this syllabus according to the grading scale in the NOBTS 2013-2014 catalog.

A 93-100 B 85-92 C 77-84 D 70-76 F 69 and below

Late Assignments: Only under extreme circumstances, and with prior approval, will a late assignment be accepted. Late assignments will be assessed an initial 10 percent penalty and 1 percent for each day after the due date (i.e. 10/1 points for a 100-point assignment, 3/3 points for a 30 point assignment). No assignments will be accepted more than two weeks after the original due date. Missed presentations may not be made up.

Netiquette: Appropriate Online Behavior: Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Plagiarism: A high standard of personal integrity is expected of all students. Copying another person's work, submitting downloaded material without proper references, submitting material without properly citing the source, submitting the same material for credit in more than one course, and other such forms of dishonesty are strictly forbidden. Although anything cited in three sources is considered public domain, we require that all sources be cited. Any infraction will result in failing the course. Any infraction will be reported to the Dean of Students for further action.

Recording Policy: Recordings of class, including any audio and/or video recordings, regardless of the media or format, and regardless of the intended or actual use, are not permitted without prior written permission of the professor. The class will be notified in advance should any such recording be approved. This policy is intended to protect the privacy of the students.

Revision of the Syllabus: The course syllabus is not a legal contract. Any syllabus revision will be preceded by a reasonable notice to students. The standards and requirements set forth in this syllabus may be modified at any time by the professor. Notice of such changes will be by announcement in class or by email notice.

Withdrawal from the Course: The administration has set deadlines for withdrawal. These dates and times are published in the academic calendar. Administration procedures must be followed. You are responsible to handle withdrawal requirements. A professor can't issue a withdrawal. You must do the proper paperwork to ensure that you will not receive a final grade of "F" in the course if you choose not to attend once you are enrolled.
