Mission Statement

The mission of the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandment through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. The core value focus for this academic year is Doctrinal Integrity. In demonstrating Doctrinal Integrity, we affirm the Bible as the Word of God. Therefore, “we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it” (Graduate Catalog, p. 5). Our confessional commitments are outlined in the “Articles of Religious Belief” and the “Baptist Faith & Message 2000.”

Curriculum Competencies

All graduates of NOBTS are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in each of the following areas: Biblical Exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, Servant Leadership, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Worship Leadership. The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are Biblical Exposition, Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Worship Leadership.

Course Description

In this course, videotaped sermons, as well as sermons preached by students in class, will serve as the basis for a study of preaching content, structure, and style. Prerequisite: PREA5300 Proclaiming the Bible.

Student Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, the student will:

1. Be able to apply homiletical concepts, principles, and resources helpful for effective oral interpretation of Scripture, sermon construction, and sermon delivery;
2. Value Christian proclamation as a vital part of personal ministry;
3. Demonstrate acceptable proficiency in performing Christian proclamation with the aid of an instructor or course resources, whether as one called to preach or as one with some other Christian calling.

Embedded Assignment

The New Testament sermon presentation is an embedded assignment that will be completed by all students for all sections of this course. The grading rubric for this assignment is attached to the syllabus (p. 11). Please complete the assignment according to the syllabus (rf., p. 3) and the grading rubric.

Textbooks

The following five textbooks are required (will be cited in class notes and/or in assignments):

Arthurs, Jeffrey D. Devote Yourself to the Public Reading of Scripture. Grand Rapids: Kregel, 2012.

Bounds, E. M. Preacher and Prayer. Any edition.

Fasol, Al. A Complete Guide to Sermon Delivery. Nashville: Broadman & Holman Publishers, 1996.

Heisler, Greg. Spirit-Led Preaching. Nashville: B & H Publishing, 2007.

McDill, Wayne V. The Moment of Truth. Nashville: Broadman & Holman Publishers, 1999.

The following textbook is optional:

York, Herschael W., and Bert Decker. Preaching with Bold Assurance. Nashville: Broadman & Holman Publishers, 2003.

Course Teaching Methodology

The course will involve the following methodologies:

Online content notes, discussion, mentor interaction, and other instructional methods will be utilized to review and teach important fundamentals and principles about sermon construction, delivery, oral interpretation, and voice, as well as to present and discuss applicable print and other resources. Writing assignments will be required to facilitate experiential learning and skills development in sermon building and communication. Student preaching, feedback, and discussion will be used to promote personal insights about oral interpretation and sermon delivery. The online preaching laboratory and student self-study will be important instructional components. Listener feedback forms and personal critique forms will be utilized to aid personal analysis in assessing preaching competency needs and strengths of students in sermon construction and delivery.

Course Requirements

Students are required to complete the following course assignments/requirements:

1. Annotated Analyses: Submit a one-page single-spaced annotated analysis for each of the five required textbooks (Arthurs, Bounds, Fasol, Heisler, and McDill). Each analysis should give a correct bibliographic listing of the book with its associated annotations, which answer the following questions:

- a. What is a two-paragraph (or less) summary of the book?
- b. What is one (or more) helpful feature(s) of the book for Christian proclamation?
- c. What is one difficulty, deficiency, or limitation in using the book for Christian proclamation?

The analyses should be completed and posted to the Assignment Menu according to the course schedule below.

2. Interviews: Interview three senior pastors regarding sermon preparation and delivery. The interviews are to include questions regarding the pastors' sermon development process and steps to sermon delivery. The student is to write a five-page (double-spaced) reflection paper on the discussions with the pastors. The student should use the following questions for the interviews:

- a) Why is spiritual preparation for preaching important? How do you prepare spiritually for the sermon development process and preaching moment?
- b) What is the process through which you go each time you prepare a sermon? How does that look regarding your weekly schedule?
- c) What part of the sermon development process do you spend the most time studying/researching and also preparing?
- d) What sources do you consult for illustrations?
- e) What is your process for the application of sermon points/truths?
- e) How do you make the transition from considering the sermon to considering the audience's reception of the sermon?
- f) What is the most important element of sermon delivery?
- g) What have been some weaknesses you have discovered in your sermon delivery, and how have you worked to improve in these areas?

Note: The reflection paper should serve as the student's synthesis of the ideas and responses from the interviews with the three pastors, rather than just a list of responses to the questions. However, the student should include the responses to the questions as an appendix or attachment to the reflection paper. These attached responses will not count toward the page requirement for the reflection paper. (The attached responses may be single-spaced, while the body of the reflection paper is to be double-spaced.) The reflection paper for the interviews should be completed and posted to the Assignment Menu according to the course schedule below.

3. Old Testament Devotion: Prepare and video tape one devotional presentation of ten to twelve minutes in duration, based on an Old Testament passage (selected by the student from any of the following Old Testament books: Genesis through Psalms). The student also is to submit a sermon brief in the format of the rhetorical sermon brief form in this syllabus. This devotion is to be presented before an audience, preferably at least twelve people. The student is to have six listeners complete and submit a sermon feedback form to the student, who will discuss the devotion and the sermon feedback forms with the mentor. The student also must meet with the mentor, who has filled out a sermon feedback form, to discuss the devotion. The student is then to complete a personal summary critique form. The student will submit the completed personal summary critique form and the mentor's feedback form to the professor. The summary critique form should include a summation of the feedback from the listeners, the mentor, and the professor. The sermon feedback form that the six listeners and mentor will complete and the personal summary critique form are available under the Course Documents menu on Blackboard. Instructions for uploading the devotion video will be posted on Blackboard. The OT devotion video, sermon brief, and critique form should be completed and posted to the Assignment Menu according to the course schedule below.

4. New Testament Sermon: Prepare and video tape one preaching presentation of a New Testament passage (selected by the student from any of the Gospels, Matthew through John, or from Acts). The preaching presentation is neither to exceed eighteen minutes nor to be less than fifteen minutes in duration. The student also is to submit a sermon brief in the format of the rhetorical sermon brief form in this syllabus.

The student is to present this message in a local church setting. A minimum of twelve people (preferably twenty or more) must be present. The student is to have six listeners complete and submit a sermon feedback form to the student, who will discuss the sermon and the sermon feedback forms with the mentor. The student also must meet with the mentor, who has filled out a sermon brief form, to discuss the sermon. The student is then to complete a personal summary critique form. The student will submit the completed personal summary critique form and the mentor's feedback form to the professor. The summary critique form should include a summation of the feedback from the listeners, the mentor, and the professor. The sermon feedback form that the six listeners and mentor will complete and the personal summary critique form are available under the Course Documents menu on Blackboard. Instructions for uploading the sermon video will be posted on Blackboard. The NT sermon video, sermon brief, and critique form should be completed and posted to the Assignment Menu according to the course schedule below.

Note: The New Testament sermon presentation is an embedded assignment that will be completed by all students for all sections of this course. The grading rubric for this assignment is attached to the syllabus (p. 11). Please complete the assignment according to the syllabus and the grading rubric.

5. Mentoring: The student will be required to fulfill the requirements of the mentorship, including a minimum of 30 hours working in the ministry setting during the semester. These specified hours do not include the weekly scheduled times for worship and Bible study. The student will meet with the mentor each week to discuss personal spiritual formation, course content, ministry issues, and hours worked. The student will submit weekly reports of the mentorship and ministry experiences. The reports should contain three sections: one paragraph devoted to personal spiritual formation, one paragraph devoted to the mentorship experiences of the week, and one paragraph devoted to the ministry experiences of the week. The student will submit the weekly reports in two stages. The first four units of weekly mentor reports are due at the end of Week 4, and the final four units of weekly mentor reports are due at the end of Week 8, according to the course schedule below.

6. Final Exam: The final exam will cover class notes, the required course texts, and reflection on the personal presentations and feedback. The final exam will be available online in Blackboard and should be completed and posted to the Assignment Menu according to the course schedule below.

Evaluation of Grade

All course objectives will be evaluated through the grading of the annotated analysis, devotional presentation, preaching presentation, critique/feedback evaluation, and final examination. Any responses on discussion boards and blogs should adhere to the basic rules of grammar. Student responses should not include the use of abbreviations or texting type responses.

The student's final grade will be determined as follows:

1. Annotated textbooks analyses	20%
2. OT devotional presentation/critique/evaluation and responses	20%
3. NT preaching presentation/critique/evaluation and responses	25%
4. Interviews (reflection paper)	20%
4. Final examination	15%

The professor will utilize both sites to communicate with the class. Blackboard and SelfServe do not share information, so students must update each site.
