The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Purpose of the Course

The purpose of this course is to study educational philosophies that have influenced Christian education because of their respective responses to the metaphysical, epistemological and axiological questions. The study provides an investigation into the contemporary influence of alternative philosophies on the ministry of Christian education.

Core Value Focus

Doctrinal Integrity – Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. The doctrinal statements used in our evaluations are our Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message Statement.

Spiritual Vitality – We are a worshiping community, with both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Mission Focus – We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Characteristic Excellence – What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Servant Leadership – We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us.

Annually, the President will designate a core value that will become the focus of pedagogy for the year. For 2018-2019 academic year that Core Value is Doctrinal Integrity.

Curriculum Competencies Addressed

This course will address the following curriculum competencies:

1. Theological and historical perspective: Students will develop a personal view as they compare and contrast secular philosophies with Christian, biblical and historical positions and perspectives.
2. Disciple making: Principles and practices of education and underlying theories will be explored and applied to contemporary disciple making methodologies and Christian education programs.
3. Spiritual and character formation: Students will compose a personal philosophy of Christian education integrating the concepts, principles, and ideas introduced in this course with their own experiences.

Course Description

This course is a study of educational philosophies that have influenced Christian education because of their respective responses to the metaphysical, epistemological and axiological questions. The study provides an investigation into the contemporary influence of alternative philosophies on the ministry of Christian education.

Student Learning Outcomes

The student involved in this course should be able to accomplish the following:

1. Apply their knowledge and comprehension of the basic philosophical questions of metaphysics, epistemology, and axiology; and knowledge of the major philosophical movements and their educational implications in order to provide a foundation for the practice of Christian Education in the church.
2. Value the study of philosophy and its implication in the practice of Christian education.
3. Be able to formalize and communicate a personal philosophy of education.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

Unless specified, all papers should be double-spaced, written according to Turabian guidelines regarding footnotes, headings/subheadings, margins, pagination, cover page, etc.

1. Reading and Quizzes. Students will read Exploring the History and Philosophy of Christian Education as well as Philosophy and Education. Students will also be asked to report the quantity of the text read for a numerical grade. Five quizzes will be given throughout the semester on the unit reading. Students will be expected to discuss the content of the two texts as well as incorporate ideas and principles presented in these texts into their Personal Philosophy of Education paper. Due Date: 5/7/19
2. Philosophy of Education Presentation and Handout. Students will be assigned one of the five philosophies detailed in Philosophy and Education. Students will prepare a class presentation and 5-6 page companion handout on an assigned philosophy and related/emerging educational theories. Students should draw on sources beyond the primary texts. Content should include brief history, key personalities, principles and ideas, classical and modern expressions and examples of the philosophy (3-4 pages) and related/emerging educational theories (1 page). The document should also include implications for contemporary Christian education (1 page). Handouts are expected to be available to other students via discussion boards following the class presentations. Format does not have to be Turabian, creativity in design and layout is encouraged. Preliminary presentation and handout Due: 3/26/19
3. Reaction Paper. Students will also generate a 2-3 page reaction paper detailing how their assigned philosophy and theory relates to the other philosophies and educational theories. Analyze, compare and contrast the principle ideas. Due Date: 4/16/19
4. Group Presentations. Students with the same assigned philosophy will be teamed together and expected to collaborate to prepare and present the assigned philosophy and an educational theories to the class. Presentations will be scheduled during class time. Due Date: 3/26/19 – 4/2/19
5. Personal Philosophy. Students will write a Personal Philosophy of Education. This work (10-12 pages) should be typed and double-spaced following the guidelines of the most recent edition of Turabian with the proper NOBTS cover page. See the guide included in this syllabus for further instructions. Due Date: 5/10/19
6. Participation. Students are expected to actively participate in class discussions. A grade will be assessed based upon attendance, attentiveness, and attitude.

Course Policies

Writing Assignments: Unless specified, all papers should be double-spaced, written according to the most recent edition of Turabian regarding footnotes, headings/subheadings, margins, pagination, cover page, etc.

CEEF 6301 Foundations in Christian Education

Personal Philosophy of Education Guide

1 Peter 3:13-16 says, “Who is there to harm you if you prove zealous for what is good? But even if you should suffer for the sake of righteousness, you are blessed. And do not fear their intimidation, and do not be troubled, but sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts, always being ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, yet with gentleness and reverence; and keep a good conscience so that in the thing in which you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ will be put to shame.”

The purpose of this work is to cause you to think through the things that you believe about ministry philosophy and to be able to make a biblical defense of those concepts.

Use the following components of a personal philosophy of ministry, Biblical Matters, Theological Matters, Philosophical Matters, and Praxis Matters, to outline your personal philosophy of ministry in the areas listed below. Be sure to explain each of the components (Biblical, Theological, Philosophical, Praxis) for each area listed below completely giving scriptural evidence for your reasons. Cite the Scripture, and explain how it supports your position.
