The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Purpose of the Course

The purpose of this course is to explore the nature of teaching, the Biblical model of instruction, curricular design, the learner's impact upon instruction, theories of practice, and methods of instruction. The expositional process will receive special attention given that it undergirds the teaching process.

Core Value Focus

Doctrinal Integrity – Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. The doctrinal statements used in our evaluations are our Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message Statement.
Spiritual Vitality – We are a worshiping community, with both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.
Mission Focus – We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.
Characteristic Excellence – What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
Servant Leadership – We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us.
Annually, the President will designate a core value that will become the focus of pedagogy for the year. For 2013-2014 academic year that Core Value is Doctrinal Integrity.

Curriculum Competencies Addressed

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary curriculum is guided by seven basic competencies: biblical exposition, Christian theological heritage, disciple making, interpersonal skills, servant leadership, spiritual and character formation, and worship leadership.

This course will emphasize the following curriculum competencies:
1. Biblical Exposition: To interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.
2. Interpersonal Relationships: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.
3. Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.
4. Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion. As a ministry leader, intentionally engage in the process of growing in relationship with God and becoming conformed to Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Course Description

The course explores the nature of teaching, the Biblical model of instruction, curricular design, the learner's impact upon instruction, theories of practice, and methods of instruction. The expository process will receive special attention given that it undergirds the teaching process.

Learning Objectives

In order to serve churches effectively through Christian Education, the student, by the end of the course, should:

1. Be able to apply their knowledge and comprehension of the Biblical model of instruction as exemplified by Jesus Himself, the domains of learning, and a variety of different methods of instruction based upon differing theories of practice to provide a foundation for the practice of Christian Education in the local church.
2. Value the use of instructional theory in the local church teaching ministry.
3. Be able to develop and evaluate teaching plans targeting the learning domains, exhibiting appropriateness both for the lesson content and lesson audience, and demonstrating proper exegesis of the Scripture passage.

Required Readings

The following texts and resources are required reading for class discussions and are to be read in their entirety unless otherwise specified.

Optional Texts

Course Teaching Methodology

Units of Study
The topics of study that will be covered in the course are as follows: biblical models of instruction, Scripture exegesis, lesson plan development, examination of educational theories, teaching-learning process, learning objectives, teaching methods, and lesson plan evaluation.

Teaching Method
This course will emphasize a format of teaching and learning including small groups, case studies, lecture, PowerPoint presentations, videos, and analysis of interaction with the goal of providing balanced instruction to engage the mind, the will and the emotion of the student.

Delivery Format
The course will be delivered in the bi-weekly semester-long format with 8 class sessions.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

The student is expected to complete the course assignments in the three learning domains: cognitive, affective, and psychomotor.

Cognitive Domain of Learning

1. Exegetical Paper: (20%) Due: Unit 3 (insert due date)
   Students will write a 5-page historical-context or exegetical paper on a passage of Scripture that they will develop into a lesson plan later in the semester. The paper should include information on the book of the Bible – its author, dating, purpose, major themes, etc. (no more than a page of the paper content) and specific explanation and implications of the selected passage. Students should consult at least 5 scholarly sources outside of the required textbooks to support the content of the paper. Students should use section headings in their papers and a set of sample headings appear below:

- Bible Book Information: Author, Dating, Purpose, Major Themes, etc.
- Text Observations: What does the text say?, Who is the communicator? Who is the audience? What are the setting, context, and structure of the text?
- Text Interpretation: What was the intended meaning of the text to the original audience?
- Biblical Principle: What is the timeless truth from the text?
- Life Application: How does the text apply to a believer in Christ?, How does the text apply for a non-believer in Christ?
- Life Transformation: Based on the biblical principle, what must a believer do or change? How should/could a non-believer respond to the biblical principle?

2. Textbook Reading: (10%)
   Due: Unit 4 & Unit 8 (insert due dates)
   Students will read the required texts by following the weekly reading schedule. Completion of reading before each class session is intended to improve understanding of course content and enhance discussion participation. The professors reserve the right to monitor reading through a variety of means, such as class assignments, discussion questions, reading percentage, etc. Students will be asked to indicate their reading percentage of the required text the class session before Spring Break and the last class session. Textbook Reading Assessment will be conducted via Blackboard (online).

Affective Domain of Learning

3. Student Needs Assessment: (10%)
   Due: Unit 4 (insert due date)
   Students will conduct a Student Needs Assessment for a specific age group that either they teach or is in their church by using the “Student Needs Assessment Instrument” in Table 9 of Creative Bible Teaching to complete the assignment. Note: Students may complete the Student Needs Assessment on the same age group of teaching observation to enhance student’s observation skills and student’s ability to provide rationale for observation paper.

4. Bible Teaching Observation: (20%)
   Due: Unit 5 (insert due date)
   Each student will observe a Bible teaching session in a church, in-person not via technology, of a Sunday school, small groups, discipleship class, etc. During the observation time, students should pay attention to the teacher – his/her teaching methods, lesson structure, exegesis of Scripture, interaction with those present, application of Scripture, and the “take-away” from the lesson (implication for the participants) and the students – their participation, engagement in learning, interaction with teacher, evidence of knowledge learned and expression of “buy-in” to implement lesson content, etc. Students will submit a 5-page written report of the observation, including the following sections:
   a) The setting and target audience of the teaching session (setting – rural, urban, inner city, etc. and demographics of group – # of students, age range, gender, etc.)
   b) A description and diagram of the physical setting in which the teaching was held
   c) A description of the curriculum or materials used by the teacher (evidence of planning, preparation, and lesson plan development).
   d) Identification of the primary Scripture text taught during the session and the text principle taught.
e) After the observation, student should verify the exegesis is accurate and the principle is present in text. Did your research of the text align with the teacher observed?
f) Teaching methods used by the teacher.
g) A summary about students present (# of students, identity engagement in lesson, interaction with teacher, evidence of learning, expression of ‘buy-in’ to principle implementation, etc.)
h) Things you observed that were excellent and contributed to the teaching-learning process. Provide explanation of why you endorse (at least 1 page of content)
i) Things you would do differently if teaching this same group and this same passage. Provide rationale for the changes you would make (at least 1 page of content)

Psychomotor Domain of Learning
5. Teaching Idea and Lesson Aims: (10%) Due: Unit 7 (insert due date)
Students will submit a one-page paper with one teaching idea and three lesson aims (cognitive, affective, and psychomotor/behavioral) for the selected passage of Scripture researched in the exegetical paper. Students should use the format of the lesson aims provided in Creative Bible Teaching (p.143).

6. Teaching Plan and Rationale Paper: (25%) Due: Unit 8 (insert due date)
With the selected Scriptural text of the exegetical paper, students will write a detailed lesson plan to teach in a particular ministry setting. Lesson plans should be written such that a person would be able to teach a lesson using only the plan with no need to consult additional resources. For the purposes of this course, the lesson plan should be constructed according to the HBLT teaching model presented in Creative Bible Teaching. In addition to the detailed lesson plan, the student will be required to write a rationale for each area of the lesson plan. These following are the minimum requirements for the lesson plan and rationale:

- The lesson plan should be written according to Table 14 in Creative Bible Teaching with a specific age group in mind (preschool, young children, older children, young students, older students, young adults, median adults, or senior adults).
- The rationale should be a minimum of 8 pages double spaced, 12pt font, one-inch margins, with Turabian cover sheet, page numbers, and section headings.
- The usage of at least 8 sources other than the required textbooks to support rationale paper content.

7. Class Participation: 5% Due: Each Class Session
Each student is expected to participate fully in class sessions through discussions and activities. This portion of the course grade will be evaluated by the professor with regard to attendance, meaningful participation, activity completion, and evidence of discussion engagement. All students begin with 100 and the class participation grade will be reduced 5 points for each absence and/or when students fail to adhere to the NOBTS Student Handbook policies pertaining to appropriate dress, usage of cell phones, computers and all other electronic devices during class sessions and group activities.
Course Policies

The following policies will serve to govern both the student and professor for the duration of this course.

Assignment Submission
All assignments are to be submitted at the beginning of class on the due date. Assignments not submitted at the beginning of class are considered late and late assignments will incur an initial 10-point penalty and accumulate a one-point penalty for each additional day. Late assignments are due no later than the final day of class, no exceptions. If all course assignments are not received by the final day of class, a grade of zero is automatically earned for the missing assignments. Late assignments may be submitted to the NOBTS office suite (C-115) located on the opposite side of Johnson Ferry Road from Johnson Ferry Baptist Church. Assignments should not be e-mailed to the professor.

Assignment Format
All assignments are to be typed, double-spaced with 12-point font (Times New Roman preferred) and 1-inch margins unless otherwise indicated. Assignment pages should be stapled together with a Turabian format cover page that includes name, date of submission and assignment title. A Turabian style guide is available in the NOBTS library and located on the NOBTS web site at http://www.nobts.edu/resources/pdf/Extensions.Old/turabiantutor7thjan08.pdf.

Absences
Class attendance is essential for effective learning. Class periods missed because of late enrollment will be counted as absences. Arriving late to class or leaving class early will count as ½ of an absence. According to the NOBTS Catalog, the maximum number of absences without failure for a 3-hour course is nine classroom hours (3 class sessions). A grade of “F” will be assigned to students who fail to attend class the minimum number of hours.

Classroom and On-line Decorum
Classroom participation is required for every class session due to the nature of the bi-weekly format of the course. A positive attitude can only enhance the learning experience. Therefore, for the purposes of this class, a positive attitude and participation are defined as productive and interactive engagement with classroom presentations and classroom dialogues throughout a full class session. You cannot participate effectively if you are not focused on the subject matter while in the classroom. Consequently, the student is expected:

- To come to class with a constructive point of view, prepared to interact with the readings and resources on the course topic in discussion groups and classroom dialogues.
- To dress appropriately and in accordance with the NOBTS Student Handbook (i.e., no ball caps or flip-flops).
- To turn off cell phones and not to accept any phone calls during class.
- To use laptops, iPads and other electronic devices appropriately to enhance class participation and abstain from social media (i.e., Face Book, messaging, etc.) and ministry responsibilities (e-mails, web site updates, etc.) during class sessions.
Netiquette
Appropriate Online Behavior. Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Academic Honesty Policy
All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.
