The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Purpose of the Course
The purpose of this course is to instruct students in the fundamentals of intentional sports ministry, particularly as these relate to youth ministry.

Core Value Focus

Doctrinal Integrity – Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. The doctrinal statements used in our evaluations are our Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message Statement.

Spiritual Vitality – We are a worshiping community, with both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Mission Focus – We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Characteristic Excellence – What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Servant Leadership – We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us.

Annually, the President will designate a core value that will become the focus of pedagogy for the year. For 2013-2014 academic year that Core Value is Doctrinal Integrity.

- Unit Four: Introduction to Adventure Recreation and Practicum

Teaching Method. This course will utilize lecture and interactive discovery/learning. This course will be team-taught; thus, the student should expect different presentation formats to enhance the learning experience.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

Pre-Assignments: Prior to the first class of the weekend, each student will:

1. Prepare a 3-to-5 minute devotion suitable for adults (appropriate for use during half-time presentation; therefore, consider audience—spectators at game, some churched, some not). Turn in a written version at the first class meeting. Volunteers will be asked to present theirs during class time.

2. Read Sports Ministry for Churches. Then write a review on Chapter 1 “Spiritual Application of Sports,” Chapter 2 “Philosophy of Sports in the Church,” and two other chapters of your choice (except for chapters 5, and 6, 7). Each chapter’s review should consist of a half-page of chapter summary (“what it says”) and a half-page of personal reflection (“what it says to you”). With title page, you should turn in a five-page paper.

a. Write two one-page papers (double-spaced). In the first paper, reflect on a coach you had in your growing-up years. (If you never had a coach, interview someone else for this report.) In the second paper, interview a junior or senior high school student who is involved (or has been involved) in a sport with a coach. In these papers, note the following: type of sport/activity; age at the time of interaction; and significant memories as a result of this experience. Answer these questions (not verbatim, but in summary):

- What character traits were communicated by this coach?
- What was the team’s motto? What motivational phrases were used?
- Did the coach’s teachings and lifestyle go together? For example, if he taught patience, was he a patient man?
- To what extent were they win at all costs?
- Did he/she coach from a negative or positive respect?
- What lessons did you learn from this coach?

b. Watch one of the movies listed below (or another as approved by Dr. Jackson) for insights into positive and/or negative coaching experiences and techniques. Come prepared to discuss your movie with special attention given to Thompson’s ELM Tree of Mastery, the ROOTS of Honoring the Game, and anything else that stood out to you in the reading. Plan to show a short clip from your assigned movie to emphasize one of these points. Type up a one-page summary of your observations comparing your movie’s primary coach figure to the principles presented in Double-Goal Coach. Email Dr. Jackson A.S.A.P. to name your top two choices; movies will be assigned in the order of the preferences being received. Please choose from the following: Coach Carter; Facing the Giants; Friday Night Lights; Glory Road; Hoosiers; Kicking and Screaming; Miracle; Pride; Radio; Rebound; Remember the Titans; and We are Marshall.

Course Evaluation

1. Pre-assigned readings and preparation 30%
2. Class Participation/Evaluation 30%
3. Post-Assignments 40%

Course Policies

Course Due Dates:
All post-assignments must be completed and submitted to Dr. Jackson’s office no later than four weeks after the course completion. Yes, they may be postmarked by that date. No, do not ‘overnight’ them. A letter grade will be issued based on your performance in the evaluative percentage areas listed above.

Materials Fee
A $50.00 materials fee will be required in addition to the matriculation fee. This fee will cover all required resources related to this on-site training for sports ministry.
Important Information:
We will meet in Hardin Student Center room 219 for this workshop. Class time will be divided between the classroom and the Recreation Center. Be prepared to wear comfortable clothes and gymnasium-acceptable shoes for all sessions. You will need to secure housing as usual for Thursday and Friday nights. Remember that the YMI classes follow their own schedule (not the typical seminary workshop schedule, beginning on Thursday at 6 p.m.). Our goal is to complete the classroom portion of the course by 12:30 p.m. on Saturday.

Netiquette:
Appropriate Online Behavior. Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Academic Honesty Policy
All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.
