GENERAL DIRECTIONS

TO THOSE WHO USE THIS ARRANGEMENT.

The first number, is the number of the Arrangement, opposite to which is the number of the Psalm or Hymn in the common edition of Watts. Thus, 169 of the Arrangement, is the 169 page; and the 94th Hymn 2d Boolc C. M. in Watts. St. Anns, and Abridge, the names of tunes in which it may be sung. The sharp se is added to denote the key, and to assist in the selection of other appropriate tunes.

A Psalm or Hymn suited to a particular subject may be found

1. By the table of the first lines, if the first line be recollected, the number opposite to each Psalm and Hymn referring to the number of the Arrangement.

2. By the tables of Psalms and Hymns following the Preface, if the number of the Psalm or Hymn in the common editions be recollected. Thus,

The 84 Psalm 1st Part L. M. is 402 of the Arrangement.

The 63 Hymn 1st Book is 158 of the Arrangement.

3. By referring to the Index of Subjects, or the Syllabus of the Arrangement, when neither the number nor the first line is recollected.

The numbers in the Index of Scriptures, refer to the Psalms and Hymns in the Arrangement, founded upon the passages to which they are opposite. Thus, Genesis, 1st.....58, that is page 58 of the Arrangement contains the Hymn founded on that passage of scripture.

The Psalms and Hymns on the "Perfections of God," on the "Doctrines of the Gospel," and on the "Graces of the Holy Spirit," follow the alphabetical order of the subjects on which they are written.

PREFACE.

THE Paalms and Hymns of the Rev. Dr. Watts are so generally esteemed and so extensively circulated, that any apology is deemed unnecessary for this attempt to facilitate the use of them. Owing to their promiseuous position in the common editions, and also to the extreme deficiency of the Indexes, the use of them has long been attended with many inconveniences, especially to those leading in public worship. These inconveniences have so gested to many persons, the propriety of an arrangement of the whole, into distinct sections or chapters, according to the different subjects of which they treat, interspersing the Paalms and Hymms in one book. Such an arrangement was successfully attempted, some years size, by the Rev. Dr. Rippon, of London ; which met with so great encouragement, as to require four editions in the short space of four years. From his labours, it is just to acknowledgy much assistance has been derived in preparing this American edition.

Dr. Watts, himself, seems to have justified the principle of an arrangement, by following it in several instances. He has judiciously placed together in one book, the Hynns on the Lord's Supper; the advantage of which, is repeatedly experienced at the administration of that ordinance. He has also placed together the Hynns, on Solomon's Songs; the songs to the B. seed Trinity; and the Hosannas to Christ. But, if there be any advantage in having these Hynns arranged under their respective heads, still greater advantage, it is thought, must be derived from having the whole thus arranged.

It is even conjectured, by many, that Dr. Watts would have followed this plan throughout, had it early enough occured to him, and had he published the several parts of his book at the same time. "For," as Dr. Rippon has justly observed, "to have been consistent with himself, he should have distributed the whole work into sections, or none of it; but by setting the example in several chapters, it is presumed he has sanctioned the analysis of every part of the work."

With regard to the interspersion of the Psalms among the Hymns, it is only necessary to observe, that this has been done alrendy, to a considerable extent, by Dr. Watts himself. It will be perceived by any one, who will consult the titles of the first and second books of Hymns, that there are, among them, more pieces composed from the Book of Psalms, than there are, either from the Gospel of Matthew, Mark, Luke or John, or from the important epistle to the Helenews. The interspection, therefore, of the whole, cannot be considered a just cause of complaint; especially, when the use of the whole is thereby made easy: for, by a glance of the eye, all the Psalms or Hymns on a particular subject may be immediately perceived.

It may not be improper to observe here, that great care has been taken to preserve the Psums and Hymns of Dr. Watts entire; at the same time, by a careful comparison of the best educous both European and American, not a few of the typographical errors, and other alterations, which have been accumulating for years, have been corrected.

It ought also to be distinctly noticed, that the number of each Psalm and Hymn in the common editions, is preserved in a completious place, in this; so that, by referring to the directions, and the Tables of Numbers which follow this Preface, no inconvenience will be occasioned by the promiseuous use of this with the old editions of Watts.

The tunes named over each Psaim and Hymn, are such as have received the approbation of some of the best judges of musick. For the selection of them, the subscriber acknowledges himseif chiefly indebied to Mr. Jonathan Huntington, a teacher of musick, who cheerfully undertook the task, at the request of the Standing Conamittee of the Handel and Haydn Society in this town.

The advantages which Ministers and private Christians may derive from this Arrangement; and especially from the enlarged indexes both of subjects and scriptures, which are attached to it, with, it is thought, best recommend it. It is not presumed to be perfect, though it is hoped no errors of magnitude have erept into it. Such as it is, it is humbly commended to the candour of an enlightened Christian publick; and especially to the blessing of Him, who is "fearful in praises," with a fervent desire that it may be instrumental in promoting the interests of piety, and the cause of sacred devotion.

JAMES M. WINCHELL.

PSALMS AND HYMNS.

THE PERFECTIONS OF GOD, ALPHABETICALLY ARRANGED.

PSALM 33. 2d Part. P. M. # 18 St. Hellens, Forty-sixth Psalm. Allsufficiency of God, and vanity of creatures. O HAPPY nation, where the Lord Reveals the treasure of his word, And builds his church, his carthly throne! His eye the heathen world surveys, He form'd their hearts, he knows their ways; But God, their Maker, is unknown.

2 Let kings rely upon their host, And of his strength the champion boast ; In vain they boast, in vain rely : In vain we trust the brutal force, Or speed, or courage of an horse To guard his rider, or to fly.

3 The eye of thy compassion, Lord, Doth more secure defence afford, [stand: When death or dangers threatening Thy watchful eye preserves the just, Who make thy name their fear and trust, 3 When wars or famine waste the land.

4 In sickness or the bloody field, Thou our physician, thou our shield, Send us salvation from thy throne : We wait to see thy goodness shine; Let us rejoice in help divine, For all our hope is God alone.

PSALM 33. 2d Part. C. M. X St. Asaphs, Wareham, Rochester. Allsufficiency of God, Uc.

Where he reveals his heavenly word, And calls their tribes his own. A WATTS.

|2 His eye, with infinite survey, Does the whole world behold; He form'd us all of equal clay, And knows our feeble mould.

- 3 Kings are not rescu'd by the force Of armies, from the grave ;
- Nor speed, nor courage of an horse Can the bold rider save.
- 4 Vain is the strength of beasts or men; To hope for safety thence; But holy souls from God obtain
- A strong and sure defence.
- 5 God is their fear, and God their trust, When plagues or famine spread; His watchful eye secures the just, Among ten thousand dead.
- 6 Lord, let our hearts in thee rejoice, And bless us from thy throne ; For we have made thy word our choice,
 - And trust thy grace alone.
 - PSALM 36. C. M. Barby, St. James, Irish.

Being and attributes of God asserted-

W HILE men grow bold in wicked And yet a God they own, [ways, My heart within me often says, "Their thoughts believe there's none."

- 2 Their thoughts and ways at once declare (Whate'er their lips profess)
- "God hath no wrath for them to fear, " Nor will they seek his grace."
- ¹B LEST is the nation where the Lord 3What strange self-flattery blinds their But there's a hastening hour, [eyes; When they shall see, with sore surprise. The terrors of thy power.

PERFECTIONS OF GOD.

4 Thy justice shall maintain its throne, 5 Though mountains melt away; Thy judgments are a world unknown,

A deep unfathom'd sea. 5 Above these heaven's created rounds, Thy mercies, Lord, extend; Thy truth outlives the narrow bounds,

Where time and nature end. 6 Safety to man thy goodness brings, Nor overlooks the beast: Beneath the shadow of thy wings

Thy children choose to rest.

7 [From thee, when creature streams run flow. And mortal comforts die, Perpetual springs of life shall flow, And raise our pleasures high.

8 Though all created light decay, And death close up our eyes, Thy presence makes eternal day,

Where clouds can never rise.] PSALM 103. 2d Part. S. M. #

Dover, Pelham. Compassion of God. Y soul, repeat his praise, MY soul, repeat ins progreat; Whose mercies are so great;

Whose anger is so slow to rice, So ready to abate.

2 God will not always chide; And when his strokes are felt. His strokes are fewer than our crimes, And lighter than our guilt.

3 High as the heavens are rais'd Above the ground we tread, So far the riches of his grace Our highest thoughts exceed.

4 His power subdues our sins, And his forgiving love,

Far as the east is from the west, Doth all our guilt remove.

The pity of the Lord To those that fear his name, Is such as tender parents feel;

He knows our feeble frame. He knows we are but dust, 6 Scatter'd by every breath ;

His anger, like a rising wind, Can send us swift to death.

Our days are as the grass, Or like the morning flower; If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field, It withers in an hour.

9 But thy compassions, Lord, To endless years endure ; And children's children ever find

HYMN 45. B. 2. L. M. Quercy, Shoel, Wells. Condescension of God.

"HY favours, Lord, surprise our souls ; Will the Eternal dwell with us? What canst thou find beneath the poles, To tempt thy chariot downward thus? 2 Still might he fill his starry throne, And please his ears with Gabriel's songs ; But heavenly Majesty comes down, And bows to hearken to our tongues! 3 Great God ! what poor returns we pay For love so infinite as thine ! Words are but air, and tongues but clay, But thy compassion's all divine.

HYMN 46. B. 2. L. M. 6{ Portugal, Truro, Dunstan. Condescension of God. TP to the Lord, who reigns on high, ¹U^P to the Lord, which has from afar, Let everlasting praises fly, And tell how large his bounties are. 2[He that can shake the worlds he made, Or with his word, or with his rod; His goodness, how amazing great ! And what a condescending God! 3God, that must stoop to view the skies, And bow to see what angels do, Down to the earth he casts his eyes, And bends his footsteps downward too.] 4 He overrules all mortal things, And manages our mean affairs: On humble souls the King of kings Bestows his counsels, and his cares. 5 Our sorrows and our tears we pour Into the bosom of our God; He hears us in the mournful hour, And helps to bear the heavy load. 6 In vain might lofty princes try Such condescension to perform ; For worms were never rais'd so high Above their meanest fellow worm. 70! could our thankful hearts devise .

A tribute equal to thy grace, To the third heaven our songs should rise, And teach the golden harps thy praise.

The world, created by his hands, Still on its first foundation stands. 2 But ere this spacious world was made, Or had its first foundation laid, Thy throne eternal ages stood, Thyself the Ever-living God. 3 Like floods the angry nations rise, And aim their rage against the skies ; Vain floods, that aim their rage so high! 1 THE Lord of glory reigns, he reigns on high : His robes of state are strength and majesty. This wide creation rose at his command, Built by his word and 'sublish'd by his knall. Long stood his throne ere he began creation, And his own Godhead is the firm foundation.

2 God is th' Eternal King: Thy focs in vain Raise their rebellion to confound thy reign. In vain the storms, in vain the floads arise, And roar, and toss their waves against the skies : Foaming at heaven, they rage with wild commontous, But heaven's high arches scora the swelling ocean.

PSALM 93. 2d Part. P. M. Dalston, St. Giles. 115

Bold men refuse their Maker's praise. 7 [What scenes of miracles they see,

And never tune a song to thee ! While on the flood they safely ride, They curse the hand that smooths the tide. 8 Anon they plunge in watery graves,

He fills his own immortal now, And sees our ages waste.

On swifter wings salvation flies : And if he lets his anger burn, How soon his frowns to pity turn ! 5 Amidst his wrath compassion shines ; His strokes are lighter than our sins; And while his rod corrects his saints, His ear indulges their complaints. 6 So fathers their young sons chastise, Are to my God distinctly known : With gentle hands and melting eyes; The children weep beneath the smart, And move the pity of their heart.

PAUSE.

7The mighty Goo, the wise and just, Knows that our frame is feeble dust ; And will no heavy load impose Beyond the strength that he bestows. SHe knows how soon our nature dies, Blasted by every wind that flies; Like grass we spring, and die as soon As morning flowers that fade at noon. But his eternal love is sure To all the saints, and shall endure From age to age his truth shall reign, Nor children's children hope in vaip.

PSALM 103. 1st Part. S. M. # 398 Hopkins, Dover, Watchman. Mercy of God to soul and body. D BLESS the Lord, my soul! Let all within me join, 11 And aid my tongue to bless his name, Whose favours are divine. b 6 [His stubborn foes his sword shall slay, 2 O bless the Lord, my soul,

Nor let his mercies lie Forgotten in unthankfulness, And without praises die. 'Tis he forgives thy sins,

'Tis he relieves thy pain, 'Tis he that heals thy sicknesses, And makes thee young again. He crowns thy life with love, When ransom'd from the grave; He that redeem'd my soul from hell Hath sovereign power to save. He fills the poor with good ; He gives the sufferers rest;

PSALM 139. 1st Part. L. M. X 408 Bath, Blendon, Castle-Street. Omniscience of God.

IT ORD, thou hast search'd and seen L me through ;

Thine eye commands with piercing view My rising and my resting hours, My heart and flesh, with all their powers. 2 My thoughts, before they are my own, He knows the words I mean to speak, Ere from my opening lips they break. 3Within thy circling power I stand; On every side I find thy hand : Awake, asleep, at home, abroad, I am surrounded still with God.

Amazing knowledge, vast and great ! What large extent ! what lofty height ! My soul, with all the powers I boast, Is in the boundless prospect lost. 5"O may these thoughts possess my breast, "Where'er I rove, where'er I rest; "Nor let my weaker passions dare "Consent to sin, for God is there."

PAUSE I.

6 Could I so false, so faithless prove, To quit thy service and thy love, Where, Lord, could I thy presence shun, Or from thy dreadful glory run? 7 If up to heaven I take my flight, 'Tisthere thou dwell'st enthron'd in light: Or dive to hell, there vengeance reigns, And Satan groans beneath his chains. 8 If, mounted on a morning ray, I fly beyond the western sea, Thy swifter hand would first arrive, And there arrest thy fugitive. 9 Or should I try to shun thy sight, Beneath the spreading veil of night, One glance of thine, one piercing ray, Would kindle darkness into day. 10"Omay these thoughts possess my breast, "Where'er I rove, where'er I rest; "Nor let my weaker passions dore "Consent to sin, for God is there,"

PAUSE II.

11The veil of night is no disguise, No screen from thy all-seeing eyes

Thy hand can seize thy foes as soon 42} Through midnight shades as blazing noon. 12 Midnight and noon in this agree, Great God, they're both alike to thee: 17 HENCE do our mournful thoughs Not death can hide what God will spy, And hell lies naked to his eye. 13"Omay these thoughts possess my breast, "Where'er I rove, where'er I rest; "Nor let my weaker passions dare "Consent to sin for God is there."

PSALM 139. 1st Part. C. M. X London, St. Ann's. Omniscience of God.

ITN all my vast concerns with thee, In vain my soul would try To shun thy presence, Lord, or flee

The notice of thine eye.

2 Thine all-surrounding sight surveys My rising and my rest ;

My public walks, my private ways, And secrets of my breast.

3 My thoughts lie open to the Lord Before they're form'd within;

And ere my lips pronounce the word He knows the sense I mean.

4 O wondrous knowledge, deep and high! 43 { Where can a creature hide? Within thy circling arms I lie,

Beset on every side.

5 So let thy grace surround me still. And like a bulwark prove,

To guard my soul from every ill, Secur'd by sovereign love. PAUSE.

6 Lord, where shall guilty souls retire, Forgotten and unknown?

In heaven thy glorious throne.

7 Should I suppress my vital breath. To 'scape the wrath divine,

Thy voice could break the bars of death. And make the grave resign.

8 If, wing'd with beams of morning light, fflight, I fly beyond the west,

Thy hand, which must support my Would soon betray my rest.

9 If o'er my sins I think to draw The curtains of the night,

Those flaming eyes that guard thy law Would turn the shades to light.

10The beams of noon, the midnight hour, I Are both alike to thee:

O may I ne'er provoke that power From which I cannot flee.

PSALM 111. 2d Part. C. M. 8 St. Asaphs, Braintree, Carthage. Perfections of God.

REAT is the Lord; his works of might Demand our noblest songs: Let his assembled saints unite

Their harmony of tongues.

2 Great is the mercy of the Lord, He gives his children food; And, ever mindful of his word,

He makes his promise good. In hell they meet thy dreadful fire, 3 His Son, the great Redeemer, came

To seal his covenant sure; Holy and reverend is his name, His ways are just and pure.

4 They that would grow divinely wis Must with his fear begin; Our fairest proof of knowledge lies

Perfections of God.

GREAT God ! thy glories shall employ My holy fear, my humble joy; My lips, in songs of honour, bring Their tribute to th' eternal King. 2 [Earth and the stars, and worlds unknown,

And treads the rebels to the ground.] 4 [Who shall pretend to teach him skill? Or guide the counsels of his will?

His wisdom, like a sea divine, Flows deep and high beyond our line.] 5 [His name is holy, and his eye Burus with immortal jealousy ; He hates the sons of pride, and sheds His fiery vengeance on their heads.] 6 [The beamings of his piercing sight Bring dark hypocrisy to light; Death and destruction naked lie, And hell uncover'd to his eye.]

Gen. i. 1"NTOW let a spacious world arise;" Said the Creator, Lord : At once the obedient earth and skies Rose at his sovereign word. 2 Dark was the deep; the waters lay Confus'd, and drown'd the land: He call'd the light-the new-born day Attends on his command. 3 He bade the clouds ascend on high ; The clouds ascend, and bear A watery treasure to the sky. And float on softer air. 4 The liquid element below Was gather'd by his hand : The rolling seas together flow, And leave the solid land, 5 With herbs and plants (a flowery birth) The naked globe he crown'd, Ere there was rain to bless the earth, Or sun to warm the ground. 6 Then he adorn'd the upper skies: Behold ! the sun appears : The moon and stars in order rise, To mark out months and years. 7 Out of the deep th' Almighty King Did vital beings frame; The painted fowls of every wing, And fish of every name.] 8 He gave the lion and the worm At once their wondrous birth :-And grazing beasts, of various form, Rose from the teeming earth. adam was form'd of equal clay, Though sovereign of the rest, Design'd for nobler ends than they, With God's own image blest. 10 Thus glorious in the Maker's eye, The young creation stood; He saw the building from on high, His word pronounc'd it good. 11 Lord, while the frame of nature stands, Thy praise shall fill my tongue ; But the new world of grace demands A more exalted song. ^a X E holy souls, in God rejoice, Your Maker's praise becomes your voice: Great is your theme, your songs be new: Sing of his name, his word, his ways, His works of nature, and of grace, How wise and holy, just and true !

2 Justice and truth he ever loves, And the whole earth his goodness proves ; His word the heavenly arches spread. How wide they shine from north to south ! And by the spirit of his mouth Were all the starcy armies made.

3 He gathers the wide flowing seas, (Those watery treasures know their place) In the vast store-house of the deep: He spake, and gave all nature birth, And fires and seas, and heaven and earth His everlasting orders keep :

4 Let mortals tremble, and adore A God of such resistless power, Nor dare indulge their feeble rage; Yain are their thoughts and weak their hands, But his eternal counsel stands, And rules the world from age to age.

PSALM 104. L. M. 62 {

Gloucester, Bath, Italy. The glory of God in creation and providence. ¹M^Y soul, thy great Creator praise : When cloth'd in his celestial rays,

He in full majesty appears, And, like a robe, his glory wears.

[NOTE. This psalm may be sung to a different metre, by adding the following two lines to every stanza, viz.

Great is the Lord ; what tongue can frame An equal honour to his name.]

2 The heavens are for his curtain spread; Th' unfathom'd deep he makes his bed : Clouds are his chariot, when he flies On winged storms across the skies. 3 Angels, whom his own breath inspires. His ministers, are flaming fires;

And swift as thought their armies move To bear his vengeance or his love. 4 The world's foundations by his hand Are pois'd, and shall forever stand : He binds the ocean in his chain, Lest it should drown the earth again. 5. When earth was cover'd with the flood, Which high above the mountains stood, He thunder'd, and the ocean fled, Confin'd to its appointed bed.

Yet thence convey'd by secret veins, They spring on hills, and drench the plains.

7He bids the crystal fountains flow, And cheer the valleys as they go: Tame heifers there their thirst allay, And for the stream wild asses bray. 8From pleasant trees, which shade the brink, The lark and linnet light to drink; Their songs the lark and linnet raise, And chide our silence in his praise.

PAUSE I.

9 God, from his cloudy cistern, pours On the parch'd earth enriching showers; The grove, the garden, and the field, A thousand joyful blessings yield. 10 He makes the grassy food arise, And gives the cattle large supplies ; With herbs for man, of various power, To nourish nature, or to cure. 11 What noble fruit the vines produce! The olive yields a shining juice; Our hearts are cheer'd with generous wine, With inward joy our faces shine. 120 bless his name, ye nations, fed With nature's chief supporter, bread: While bread your vital strength imparts, Serve him with vigour in your hearts.

PAUSE II.

13 Behold the stately cedar stands, Rais'd in the forest by his hands; Birds to the boughs for shelter fly, And build their nests secure on high. 14 To craggy hills ascends the goat; And at the airy mountain's foot The Seebler creatures make their cell ; He gives them wisdom where to dwell. 15 He sets the sun his circling race, Appoints the moon to change her face ; And when thick darkness veils the day, Calls out wild beasts to hunt their prey. 16 Fierce lions lead their young abroad, And roaring, ask their meat from God; But when the morning beams arise, The savage beast to covert flies.

17 Then man to daily labour goes ; The night was made for his repose : Sleep is thy gift, that sweet relief From tiresome toil and wasting grief. 18How strange thy works ! how great thy And every land thy riches fill : [skill ! Thy wisdom round the world we see, This spacious earth is full of thee. 6 The swelling billows know their bounds, 19 Nor less thy glories in the deep, And in their channels walk their rounds; Where fish in millions swim and crees.

With wondrous motions, swift or slow, 4 Israel, a name divinely blest, Still wandering in the paths below. 20 There ships divide their watery way. And flocks of scaly monsters play; There dwells the huge Leviathan, And foams and sports in spite of man. · PAUSE III.

21 Vast are thy works, Almighty Lord, All nature rests upon thy word, And the whole race of creatures stand, Waiting their portion from thy hand. 22 While each receives his different food, His cheerful looks pronounce it good ; Eagles and bears, and whales and worms Rejoice and praise in different forms. 23 But when thy face is hid, they mourn: And, dying, to their dust return ; Both man and beast their souls resign, 64 Life, breath and spirit, all are thine. 24 Yet thou canst breathe on dust again, And fill the world with beasts and men; A word of thy creating breath Repairs the wastes of time and death. 25 His works, the wonders of his might, Are honour'd with his own delight: How awful are his glorious ways! The Lord is dreadful in his praise. 26 The earth stands trembling at thy stroke, And at thy touch the mountains smoke ; Yet humble souls may see thy face, And tell their wants to sovereign grace. 27 In thee my hopes and wishes meet, And make my meditations sweet ; Thy praises shall my breath employ, Till it expire in endless joy. 28 While haughty sinners die accurst, Their glory bury'd with their dust, I, to my God, my heavenly King, Immortal hallelujahs sing.

TP to the hills I lift mine eyes, Th' eternal hills beyond the skies ; Thence all her help my soul derives ; 65 There my Almighty Refuge lives. 2 He lives ; the everlasting God, [flood, That built the world, that spread the The heavens with all their hosts he made, And the dark regions of the dead. He guides our feet, he guards our way: His morning smiles bless all the day ; He spreads the evening vale, and keeps The silent hours while Israel sleeps.

May rise secure, securely rest : Thy holy guardian's wakeful eyes Admit no slumber nor surprise. 5 No sun shall smite thy head by day, Nor the pale moon with sickly ray Shall blast thy couch; no baleful star Dart his malignant fire so far. 6 Should earth and hell with malice burn, Still thou shalt go, and still return Safe in the Lord; his heavenly care Defends thy life from every snare. 7 On thee foul spirits have no power ; And in thy last departing hour, Angels, that trace the arry road, Shall bear thee homeward to thy God.

PSALM 121. C. M. Dundee, Abridge. Preservation by day and night. 'O heaven I hit my waiting eyes, There all my hopes are laid ; The Lord, that built the earth and skies, Is my perpetual aid. 6 Their feet shall never slide nor fall, Whom he designs to keep: His ear attends the softest call; His eyes can can never sleep. 3 He will sustain our weakest powers With his almighty arm, And watch our most unguarded hours Against surprising harm. 4 Israel, rejoice, and rest secure, Thy keeper is the Lord; His wakeful eyes employ his power For thine eternal guard. 5 Nor scorching sun, nor sickly moon Shall have his leave to smite; He shields thy head from burning noon, From blasting damps at night. 6 He guards thy soul, he keeps thy breath, Where thickest dangers come; Go and return, secure from death, Till God commands thee home. The mystery of providence unfolded.

- CURE there's a righteous God. O Nor is religion vain;
- Though men of vice may boast aloud, And men of grace complain,
- 2 I saw the wicked rise, And felt my heart repine,
- While haughty fools, with scornful eyes, In robes of honour shine.
- 3 [Pamper'd with wanton ease,
- Their flesh looks full and fair; Their wealth rolls in like flowing seas,
- And grows without their care.
- 4 Free from the plagues and pains That pious souls endure,
- Through all their life oppression reigns, And racks the humble poor.
- Their impious tongues blaspheme The everlasting God :
- Their malice blasts the good man's name, And spreads their lies abroad.
- But I, with flowing tears, Indulg'd my doubts to rise;
- "Is there a God that sees or hears "The things below the skies."]
- The tumults of my thought Held me in hard suspense,
- Till to thy house my feet were brought, To learn thy justice thence.
- Thy word with light and power Did my mistakes amend ;
- 1 view'd the sinners' life before, But here I learnt their end.

1 WE bless the Lord, the just, the good, Who fills our hearts with joy and food :

Who pours his blessings from the skies, And loads our days with rich supplies. The sends the sun his circuit round, To cheer the fruits, to warm the ground ; He bids the clouds with plenteous rain, Refresh the thirsty ground again.

Divine providence in air, earth, and sea; or, the God of nature and grace.

THE God of our salvation hears L The groans of Zion mix'd with tears; Yet when he comes with kind designs, Through all the way his terror shines. 2 On him the race of man depends, Far as the earth's remotest ends, Where the Creator's name is known, By nature's feeble light alone.

3 Sailors, that travel o'er the flood, Address their frighted souls to God, When tempests rage, and billows roar At dreadful distance from the shore. He calms the raging crowd to peace,

When a tumultuous nation raves Wild as the winds, and loud as waves.

5 Whole kingdoms, shaken by the storm, He settles in a peaceful form :

Mountains establish'd by his hand, Firm on their old foundations stand. New comets blaze, and lightnings fly.

80. 8

From the bright horrors turn their eyes.

7 At his command, the morning ray Smiles in the east, and leads the day ; Doth life and breath and being give ; He guides the sun's declining wheels, Over the tops of western hills.

8 Seasons and times obey his voice ; The evening and the morn rejoice To see the earth made soft with showers, Laden with fruit, and dress'd in flowers. 9 'Tis from his watery stores on high, He gives the thirsty ground supply; He walks upon the clouds, and thence Doth his enriching drops dispense. 10 The desert grows a fruitful field ; Abundant food the valleys yield ; The valleys shout with cheerful voice, And neighbouring hills repeat their joys. 11 The pastures smile in green array; 1 CING to the Lord with joyful voice ; There lambs and larger cattle play ; The larger cattle and the lamb, Each in his language speaks thy name. 12 Thy works pronounce thy p wer divine; O'er every field thy glories shine ; Through every month thy gifts appear ; Great God ! thy goodness crowns the year.

Saints dwell in heaven; or, Christ's accension. 1THIS spacious earth is all the Lord's.

And men, and worms, and beasts, and birds :

He rais'd the building on the seas, And gave it for their dwelling-place.

2 But there's a brighter world on high, Thy palace, Lord, above the sky: Who shall ascend that blest abode, And dwell so near his Maker, God.

The Romans, why their swords employ? 3 He that abhors and fears to sin, Whose heart is pure, whose hands are clean ;

2 But, O what gentle terms, What condescending ways Doth our Redeemer use To teach his heavenly grace! Mine eyes with joy And wonder see What forms of love He bears for me.

3 [Array'd in mortal flesh, He, like an angel, stands, And holds the promises And pardons in his hands: Commission'd from His Father's throne, To make his grace To mortals known.]

[Great Prophet of my God, My tongue would bless thy name; By thee the joyful news Of our salvation came; The joyful news Of sins forgiven, Of hell subdu'd, And peace with Heaven.] [Be thou my Counsellor,

My Pattern and my Counscion, My Pattern and my Guide; And through this desert land Still keep me near thy side. O let my feet Ne'er run astray, Nor rove, nor seek The crooked way.]

6 [1 love my Shepherd's voice; His watchful eyes shall keep My wandering soul among The thousands of his sheep: He feeds his flock, He calls their names; His bosom bears The tender lambs.]
7 [7 to his dear Surety's hand Will I commit my cause; He answers and fulfils His Father's broken laws. Behold my soul At freedom set!

My Surety paid The dreadful debt.]

[Jesus, my great High Priest, Offer'd his blood, and died: My guilty conscience seeks No sacrifice beside. His powerful blood Did once atone; And now it pleads Before the throne]

[My Advocate appears For my defence on high; The Father bows his car, And lays his thunder by. Not all that hell Or sin can say Shall turn his heart, His love away.]

10 [My dear almighty Lord, My Conqueror and my King, Thy sceptre, and thy sword, Thy reigning grace, I sing. Thine is the power; Behold I sit In willing bonds Before thy feet]

11 [Now let my soul arise, And tread the tempter down; My Captain leads me forth To conquest and a crown. A feeble saint Shall win the day, Though death and hell Obstruct the way.]

12 Should all the hosts of death, And powers of hell unknown, Put their most dreadful forms Of rage and mischief on, I shall be safe; For Christ displays

Superior power And guardian grace.

154 HYMN 62. B. 1. C. M. Exeter, Swanwick.

Christ Jesus, the Lamb of God, worshipped by all the creation.

1 COME, let us join our cheerful songs With angels round the throne ; Ten thousand thousand are their tougues,

But all their joys are one.

2"Worthy the Lamb that died,"they cry, "To be exalted thus;"

"Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply, "For he was slain for us."

3 Jesus is worthy to receive Honour and power divine; And blessings, more than we can give, Be, Lord, forever thine.

4 Let all that dwell above the sky, And air, and earth, and seas, Conspire to lift thy glories high, And speak thine endless praise.

5 The whole creation join in one, To bless the sacred name

Of him, that sits upon the throne, 4 But if Immanuel's face appear, And to adore the Lamb.

155 HYMN 1. B. 1. C. M. * Parma, Devizes. 1st Part.

A new song to the Lamb that was slain. 1 REHOLD the glories of the Lamb,

2 Let elders worship at his feet, The church adore around,

With vials full of odours sweet, And harps of sweeter sound.

3Those are the prayers of all the saints,

Jesus is kind to our complaints, He loves to hear our praise.

4 [Eternal Father, who shall look Into thy secret will?

Who but the Son shall take that book, And open every seal?

5 He shall fulfil thy great decrees, The Son deserves it well;

Lo, in his hand the sovereign keys Of heaven, and death, and hell !

6 Now to the Lamb, that once was siain, Be endless blessings paid ; Salvation, glory, joy remain

Forever on thy head:

7Thou hast redeem'd our souls with blood, Hast set the prisoners free; Hast made us kings and priests to God,

And we shall reign with thee.

8 The worlds of nature and of grace Are put beneath thy power ; Then shorten these delaying days, 157 & And bring the promis'd hour.

God reconciled in Christ.

1 DEAREST of all the names above, 2 With pitying eyes, the Prince of Grace My Jesus, and my God! Who can resist thy heavenly love, Or trifle with thy blood?

2 'Tis by the merits of thy death The Father smiles again;

'Tis by thine interceding breath The Spirit dwells with men13 Till God in human flesh I see, My thoughts no comfort find :

The holy, just, and sacred Three Are terrors to my mind.

My hope, my joy begins:

His name forbids my slavish fear, His grace removes my sins.

The works of Moses and the Lamb 1 HOW strong thine arm is, mighty God.

Who would not fear thy name Jesus, how sweet thy graces are! Who would not love the Lamb?

And these the hymns they raise : 2 He has done more than Moses did, Our Prophet and our King;

From bonds of hell he freed our souls, And taught our lips to sing.

3 In the Red Sea, by Moses' hand,

The Egyptian host was drown'd; But his own blood hides all our sins,

And guilt no more is found. When through the desert Israel went,

With manna they were fed ; Our Lord invites us to his flesh,

And calls it living bread.

5 Moses beheld the promis'd land, Yet never reach'd the place ; But Christ shall bring his followers home

To see his Father's face.

6 Then shall our love and joy be full, And feel a warmer flame,

Praize to the Redeemer. 1 DLUNG'D in a gulf of dark despair, We wretched sinners lay,

Without one cheerful beam of hope, Or spark of glimmering day.

Beheld our helpless grief;

He saw-and (O amazing love!) He ran to our relief.

3 Down from the shining seats above With joyful haste he fled,

ADDRESSES TO CHRIST.

And all harmonious human tongues 4 All the assembling saints around Fall worshipping before the Lamb, And in new songs of gospel sound 7 [Yes, we will praise thee, dearest Lord,] Address their honours to his name.

5 [The joy, the shout, the harmony Flies o'er the everlasting hills ; "Worthy art thou alone," they cry, "To read the book, to loose the seals."

6 Our voices join the heavenly strain, And with transporting pleasure sing, " Worthy the Lamb that once was slain, "To be our Teacher and our King !"

7 His words of prophecy reveal Eternal counsels, deep designs ; His grace and vengeance shall fufil The peaceful and the dreadful lines. 8 Thou hast redeem'd our souls from hell

With thine invaluable blood ; And wretches, that did once rebel, Are now made favourites of their God.

9 Worthy forever is the Lord, That died for treasons not his own. By every tongue to be ador'd, And dwell upon his Father's throne !

1 OME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove, With all thy quickening powers,

Kindle a flame of sacred love - In these cold hearts of ours.

Our souls can neither fly nor go, To reach eternal joys.

3 In vain we tune our formal songs, In vain we strive to rise;

Hosannas languish on our tongues, And our devotion dies.

4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live At this poor, dying rate?

Our love so faint, so cold to thee, And thine to us so great?

5 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove, With all thy quickening powers; Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love, And that shall kindle ours.

And adds refreshment to my bed. 8 I'll lift my hands, I'll raise my voice, While I have breath to pray or praise ; This work shall make my heart rejoice, And spend the remnant of my days.

PSALM 63. S. M. 4188 Hopkins, Thacher. Seeking God.

MY God, permit my tongue This joy, to call thee mine; And let my early cries prevail To taste thy love divine.

My thirsty, fainting soul

Thy mercy does implore;

Not travellers in desert lands, Can pant for water more.

3 Within thy churches, Lord, I long to find my place;

Thy power and glory to behold, And feel thy quickening grace.

* 4 For life without thy love No relish can afford ;

No joy can be compar'd to this, To serve and please the Lord.

To thee I'll lift my hands, And praise thee while I live ; Not the rich dainties of a feast

Such food or pleasure give.

In wakeful hours of night, 6 I call my God to mind; I think how wise thy counsels are,

And all thy dealings kind.

Since thou hast been my help, To thee my spirit flies, And on thy watchful providence My cheerful hope relies.

The shadow of thy wings My soul in safety keeps; I follow where my Father leads,

And he supports my steps.

How deep thy counsels! how divine! 4 Fools never raise their thoughts so high Like brutes they live, like brutes they die; Like grass they flourish, till thy breath Blast them in everlasting death.

5 But I shall share a glorious part, When grace hath well refin'd my heart, And fresh supplies of joy are shed. Like holy oil, to cheer my head.

6 Sin (my worst enemy before) Shall vex my eyes and ears no more ; My inward foes shall all be slain, Nor Satan break my peace again.

The tribes with cheerful homage own Their King, and Judah was his throne.

2 Across the deep their journey lay; The deep divides to make them way; 3 [When God's almighty arm had broke With backward current to his head.

3The mountains shook like frighted sheep, Like lambs the little hillocks leap ; Not Sinai on her base could stand, Conscious of sovereign power at hand.

A What power could make the deep divide? Make Jordan backward roll his tide? Why did ye leap, ye little hills? And whence the fright that Sinai feels?

5 Let every mountain, every flood Retire, and know th' approaching God, The King of Israel: see him here! Tremble, thou earth, adore and fear. 6 He thunders, and all nature mourns ;

The rock to standing pools he turns ; Flints spring with fountains at his word, And fires and seas confess the Lord.

Whom will the Lord admit to dwell So near his throne of grace?

2 The man that walks in pious ways, 1 THE earth forever is the Lord's, And works with righteous hands, That trusts his Maker's promises,

And follows his commands.

Nor slanders with his tongue ;

Will scarce believe an ill report, Nor do his neighbour wrong.

4 The wealthy sinner he contemns, Loves all that fear the Lord ; And, though to his own hurt he swears, Still he performs his word.

This man shall dwell with God on earth, And find his heaven secure.

Behold the works his hand hath wrought, What desolations he hath made!

The New Testament in the blood of He took the bread, and bless'd and brake; Christ ; or, the new covenant sealed. 1 "THE promise of my Father's love

"Snall stand forever good." He said-and gave his soul to death, And seal'd the grace with blood.

I set my worthless name;

I seal th' engagement to my Lord, And make my humble claim.

5 The light, and strength, and pardoning And glory shall be mine ; [grace,

My life and soul, my heart and flesh, And all my powers are thine.

'Twas purchas'd with a dying groan, And ratify'd in death.

4 This was compassion like a God, That when the Saviour knew

The price of pardon was his blood, His pity ne'er withdrew.

5 Now, though he reigns exalted high, His love is still as great :

Well he remembers Calvary, Nor lets his saints forget.

6 Here we behold his bowels roll As kind as when he died,

And see the sorrows of his soul Bleed through his wounded side.]

TOME. let as join a joyful tune 16 U To our exalted Lord,

- THE LORD'S SUPPER.
- Ye saints on high, around his throne, | And humbly view the living stream And we around his board.
- 2 While once upon this lower ground, 7 Weary and faint ve stood.
- What dear refreshments here ye found From this immortal food!
- 3 The tree of life, that near the throne |8 In heaven's high garden grows,
- Laden with grace, bends gently down Its ever smiling boughs.
- 4 Hovering among the leaves, there stands 9 While the Eternal Three The sweet celestial Dove ;
- And Jesus on the branches hangs The banner of his love.
- 5 'Tis a young heaven of strange delight 10 [Lord, cleanse my soul from in 6 [Let such amazing loves as these While in his shade we sit;
- His fruit is pleasing to the sight, And to the taste as sweet.
- 6 New life it spreads through dying hearts, And cheers the drooping mind; 518
- Vigour and joy the juice imparts, Without a sting behind.]
- 7 Now let the flaming weapon stand, And guard all Eden's trees;
- There's ne'er a plant in all that land, That bears such fruits as these.
- 8 Infinite grace our souls adore, Whose wondrous hand has made
- This living branch of sovereign power To raise and heal the dead.
- HYMN 9. B. 3. S. M. * 517 8 Thacher, St. Thomas, The spirit, the water, and the blood ET all our tongues be one, L To praise our God on high,
- Who from his bosom sent his Son, To fetch us strangers nigh.
- 2 Nor let our voices cease To sing the Saviour's name: Jesus, the ambassador of peace, How cheerfully he came !
- 3 It cost him cries and tears To bring us near to God;
- Great was our debt, and he appears To make the payment good.
- [My Saviour's pierced side Pour'd out a double flood;
- By water we are purify'd, And pardon'd by the blood.
- 5 Infinite was our guilt, But he, our Priest, atones;
- On the cold ground his life was spilt, And offer'd with his groans.]
- 6 Look up. my soul, to him Whose death was thy desert,

- Flow from his breaking heart There, on the cursed tree,
- In dving pangs he lies, Folfils his Father's great decree,
- And all our wants supplies.
- Thus the Redeemer came, By water, and by blood;
- And when the Spirit speaks the same We feel his witness good.
- Bear their record above,
- Here I believe he died for me, And seal my Saviour's love.
- Nor let thy grace depart;
- Great Comforter, abide within, And witness to my heart.]

B Here his whole name appears complete, Nor wit can guess, nor reason prom, Which of the letters best is writ, The power, the wisdom, or the love. 4 Here I behold his inmost heart, [join; Where grace and vengeance strangely Piercing his Son with sharpest smart, To make the purchas'd pleasures mine. 5 O, the sweet wonders of that cross,

Where God the Saviour lov'd and died! Her noblest life my spirit draws From his dear wounds and bleeding side.

- 57 What shall we pay th' Eternal Son, That left the heaven of his abode. And to this wretched earth came down. To bring us, wanderers, back to God?

Like our espousals, Lord, to thee ; Like the dear hour, when from above We first receiv'd thy pledge of love.

4 The gladness of that happy day, Our hearts would wish it long to stay ; Nor let our faith forsake its hold, Nor comfort sink, nor love grow cold.

5 O! let each minute, as it flies, Increase thy praise, improve our joys; Till we are rais'd to sing thy name, At the great supper of the Lamb.

And bring that coronation day ! The King of grace shall fill the throne. Jesus, my love, my soul's delight; With all his Father's glories on.

HYMN 73. B. 1. L. M. 541 { Winchester, Newcourt. The Church's beauty in the eyes of Christ. 1 KIND is the speech of Christ our Lord,

"Lo, thou art fair, my love," he cries; "Not the young doves have sweeter eyes. 2[" Sweet are thy lips, thy pleasing voice "Salutes mine ear with secret joys ; "No spice so much delights the smell, "Nor milk nor honey tastes so well.] 3"Thou art all fair, my bride, to me; "I will behold no spot in thee." What mighty wonders love performs, And puts a comeliness on worms! 4 Defil'd and loathsome as we are, Adorns us with that heavenly dress, 1'THE wond'ring world inquires to know His graces, and his righteousness. 5" My sister, and my spouse," he cries, "Bound to my heart by various ties,

"Thy powerful love my heart retains "In strong delight and pleasing chains." 2 Yes, my beloved, to my sight, 6. He calls me from the leopard's den, From this wide world of beasts and men, To Sion, where his glories are:

Not Lebanon is half so fair.

7 Nor dens of prey, nor flowery plains, Nor earthly joys, nor earthly pains, Shall hold my feet, or force my stay, When Christ invites my soul away.

HYMN 74. B. 1. L. M. 28 542 { Green's Hundredth, Bath. The church the garden of Christ. WE are a garden wall'd around,

Chosen and made peculiar ground, A little spot inclos'd by grace, Out of the world's wide wilderness. 2Like trees of myrrh and spice we stand,

Planted by God the Father's hand ; And all his springs in Sion flow, To make the young plantation grow.

3 Awake, O heavenly wind, and come, Blow on this garden of perfume; Spirit divine, descend and breathe A gracious gale on plants beneath. 4 Make our best spices flow abroad, To entertain our Saviour God : And faith, and love, and joy appear,

And every grace be active here. 5 [Let my Beloved come and taste "I come, my spouse, I come," he cries, With love and pleasure in his eyes. N 2 WATTS.

SOLOMON'S SONG.

* 16 Our Lord into his garden comes, Well pleas'd to smell our poor perfumes; And calls us to a feast divine, Sweeter than honey, milk or wine.

Affection sounds in every word; 7"Eat of the tree of life, my friends, "The blessings that my Father sends; "Your taste shall all my dainties prove, "And drink abundance of my love."

> 8 Jesus, we will frequent thy board, And sing the bounties of our Lord: But the rich food on which we live Demands more praise than tongues can give.]

HYMN 75. B. 1. L. M. # 548} Winchester, Luton. He makes us white, and calls us fair; The description of Christ, the beloved.

Why I should love my Jesus so; "What are his charms," say they, "above "The objects of a mortal love?"

Shows a sweet mixture, red and white; All human beauties, all divine, In my beloved meet and shine.

3 White is his soul, from blemish free; Red with the blood he shed for me; The fairest of ten thousand fairs; A sun among ten thousand stars.

4 [His head the finest gold excels; There wisdom in perfection dwells, And glory like a crown adorns Those temples once beset with thorns,

5 Compassions in his heart are found, Hard by the signals of his wound ; His sacred side no more shall bear The cruel scourge, the piercing spear.]

6 [His hands are fairer to behold Than diamonds set in rings of gold ; Those heavenly hands, that on the tree Were nail'd, and torn, and bled for me-

7 Though once he bow'd his feeble knees. Loaded with sins and agonies, Now, on the throne of his command, His legs like marble pillars stand.] 8 His eyes are majesty and love, The eagle temper'd with the dove; No more shall trickling sorrows roll Through those dear windows of his soul. 9His mouth that pour'd out long complaints His pleasant fruits at his own feast: Now smiles, and cheers his fainting saints; His countenance more graceful is Than Lebanon with all its trees;

Christ dwells in heaven, but visits on earth. ¹ W HEN strangers stand and hear me tell

What beauties in my Saviour dwell, Where he is gone they fain would know, That they may seek and love him too.

2 My best beloved keeps his throne On hills of light, in worlds unknown;
But he descends, and shows his face In the young gardens of his grace.
3 [In vineyards planted by his hand, Where fruitful trees in order stand, He feeds among the spicy beds, Where lilies show their spotless heads.

4 He has engross'd my warmest love; No earthly charms my soul can move: I have a mansion in his heart,

Nor death nor hell shall make us part.] 5 [He takes my soul ere l'm aware, And shows me where his glories are; No chariot of Amminadib

On wings of faith-above the skies, Till death shall make my last remove, To dwell forever with my love.]

545 HYMN 77. B. 1. L. M. Shoel, Castle Street.

The love of Christ to the Church, in his language to her, and provision for her.

NOW, in the galleries of his grace, Appears the King, and thus he says, "How fair my saints are in my sight, "My love how pleasant for delight !"

2 Kind is thy language, sovereign Lord, There's heavenly grace in every word; From that dear month a stream divine Flows, sweeter than the choicest wine.

3 Such wondrous love awakes the lip Of saints that were almost asleep, To speak the praises of thy name, And makes our cold affections flame.

4 These are the joys he lets us know In fields and villages below: Gives us a relish of his love,

But keeps his noblest feast above.

Fruits new and old, laid up in store, Where we shall feed, but thirst no more 546 HYMN 78. B. 1. L. M. Shoel, Newcourt. The strength of Christ's love, and the sould's jealousy of her own.

3 "O let my name engraven stand "Both on thy heart and on thy hand: "Seal me upon thine arm, and wear

"That pledge of love forever there. 4 "Stronger than death thy love is known,

"Which floods of wrath could never drown;

"And hell and earth in vain combine "To quench a fire so much divine.

5 " But I am jealous of my heart,

"Lest it should once from thee depart: "Then let thy name be well impress'd "As a fair signet on my breast.

6 "Till thon hast brought me to thy home, "Where fears and doubts can never come, "Thy count'nance let me often see, "And often thou shalt hear from me.

7 "Come, my beloved, haste away, "Cut short the hours of thy delay; "Fly like a youthful hart or roe "Over the hills where spices grow."

TIMES AND SEASONS.

MORNING AND EVENING.

547 HYMN 79. B. 1. L. M. X Nantwich, Blendon. A morning hymn.

 GOD of the morning, at whose voice The cheerful sun makes haste to rise, And like a giant doth rejoice To run his journey through the skies.
 2 From the fair chambers of the east The circuit of this race begins.

MORNING AND EVENING.

And, without weariness or rest, Round the whole earth he flies and shines. 30, like the sun may 1 fulfil Th' appointed duties of the day;

With ready mind and active will March on, and keep my heavenly way. 4 [But I shall rove and lose the race, 11 God, my sun, should disappear, And leave me in this world's wild maze, To follow every wandering star.] 5 Lord, thy commands are clean and pure, Enlightening our beclouded eyes; Thy threatenings just, thy promise sure, Thy gospel makes the simple wise. 6 Give me thy counsel for my guide, And then receive me to thy bliss; All my desires and hopes beside Are faint and cold, compar'd with this.

548 HYMN 6. B. 2. C. M. * Abridge, St. Anns.

A morning song.

¹ONCE more, my soul, the rising day Salutes thy waking eyes; Once more, my voice, thy tribute pay To Him that rules the skies.

2 Night unto night his name repeats, The day renews the sound,

Wide as the heaven on which he sits, To turn the seasons round.

3'Tis he supports my mortal frame; My tongue shall speak his praise; My sins would rouse his wrath to flame, And yet his wrath delays.

4[On a poor worm thy power might tread, And I could ne'er withstand: Thy justice might have crush'd me dead, But mercy held thine hand.

5 A thousand wretched souls are fled Since the last setting sun; And yet thou lengthenest out my thread,

And yet my moments run.] 6 Dear God, let all my hours be thine,

Whilst I enjoy the light; Then shall my sun m smiles decline,

549 PSALM 3 L. M. b Ninety-seventh Psalm, Putney.

A morning fisaim.

1 LORD, how many are my foes, In this weak state of flesh and blood! My peace they daily discompose, But my defence and hope is God.

5 Tir'd with the burdens of the day. To thee I rais'd an evening cry : Thou heard'st when I began to pray, And thine almighty help was nigh. 3 Supported by thine heavenly aid, I laid me down, and slept secure : Not death should make my heart afraid, Though I should wake and rise no more. 4 But God sustain'd me all the night; Salvation doth to God belong; He rais'd my head to see the light, And make his praise my morning song.

550 HYMN 81. B. 1. L. M. X Nantwich, Dunstan. A song for morning or evening.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night, Great Guardian of my sleeping hours; Thy sovereign word restores the light, And quickens all my drowsy powers. 31 yield my powers to thy command;

To thee 1 consecrate my days; Perpetual blessings from thine hand Demand perpetual songs of praise.

FSALM 141. L. M. 22
Evening Hymn, Shoel.
Watchfulness and brotherly reproof. A morning or evening Psalm.
MY God, accept my early vows, And let my nightly worship rise, Sweet as the evening sacrifice.
Watch o'er my lips, and guard them, Lord,
From every rash and heedless word; Nor let my fiet incline to tread The guilty path where sinners lead.

3 O may the righteous, when I stray, Smite and reprove my wandering way; Their gentle words, like ointment shed, Shall never bruise, but cheer my head.

4 When I behold them press'd with grief, I'll cry to Heaven for their relief; And by my warm petitions prove How much I prize their faithful love.

552 HYMN 8. B. 2. C. M. Devizes, Christmas.

A hymn for morning or evening. 1HOSANNA, with a cheerful sound, To God's upholding hand:

- And yet secure we stand.
- 2 That was a most amazing power, 2 Through all the dangers of the day That rais'd us with a word,
- And every day, and every hour We lean upon the Lord.
- 3 The evening rests our weary head, 3 Perpetual blessings from above And angels guard the room ;
- We wake, and we admire the bed That was not made our tomb.
- 4 The rising morning can't assure That we shall end the day :
- For death stands ready at the door, To scize our lives away.
- 5 Our breath is forfeited by sin To God's avenging law;
- We own thy grace, immortal King, In every gasp we draw.
- 6 God is our sun, whose daily light 6Sprinkled afresh with pardoning blood, Our joy and safety brings;
- Our feeble flesh lies safe at night Beneath his shady wings.
- HYMN 80. B. 1. L. M. 553{ Quercy, All Saints. An evening hymn.

And every evening shall make known Some fresh memorial of his grace. 2 Much of my time has run to waste, And I, perhaps, am near my home; But he forgives my follies past, He gives me strength for days to come.

3 I lay my body down to sleep: Peace is the pillow for my head ; While well appointed angels keep Their watchful stations round my bed.

4 In vain the sons of earth or hell Tell me a thousand frightful things; My God in safety makes me dwell Beneath the shadow of his wings,

5 Faith in his name forbids my fear: O may thy presence ne'er depart ; And in the morning make me hear The love and kindness of thy heart.

6 Thus when the night of death shall come My flesh shall rest beneath the ground, And wait thy voice, to rouse my tomb. With sweet salvation in the sound.]

HYMN 7. B.2, C. M. # 554 Barby, Bedford.

An evening song. READ Sovereign, let my evening Like holy incense rise; [song,

555, 556 Ten thousand snares attend us roun 1, 1 Assist the offerings of my tongue To reach the lofty skies. Thy hand was still my guard, And still to drive my wants away Thy mercy stood prepar'd.] Encompass me around, But O, how few returns of love Hath my Creator found! 4 What have I done for him that died To save my wretched soul? How are my follies multiplied, Fast as my minutes roll! 5 Lord, with this guilty heart of mine, To thy dear cross I flee, And to thy grace my soul resign, To be renew'd by thee. I lay me down 'to rest, As in th' embraces of my God, Or on my Saviour's, breast. 22 PSALM 4. C. PSALM 139. 3d Part. C. M. # Braintree, Arlington. The mercies of God innumerable. An evening psalm. 1T ORD, when I count thy mercies o'er, L They strike me with surprise ; Not all the sands that spread the shore To equal numbers rise. 2 My flesh with fear and wonder stands, The product of thy skill;

And hourly blessings from thy hands

Thy thoughts of love reveal.

3 These on my heart by night I keep ; 5 The barren clods, refresh'd with rain, How kind, how dear to me ! O may the hour that ends my sleep, Still find my thoughts with thee. 557 PSALM 63. 2d Part. C. M. & Midnight thoughts recollected. 1"TWAS in the watches of the night I thought upon thy power; I kept thy lovely face in sight Amid the darkest hour. 2 My flesh lay resting on my bed; My soul arose on high; "My God, my life, my hope," I said, "Bring thy salvation nigh." 3 My spirit labours up thine hill, And climbs the heavenly road : But thy right hand upholds me still, While I pursue my God. 4Thy mercy stretches o'er my head The shadow of thy wings; My heart rejoices in thine aid ; My tongue awakes and sings. 5 But the destroyers of my peace Shall fret and rage in vain; The tempter shall forever cease, And all my sins be slain. 6'Thy sword shall give my foes to death, And send them down to dwell In the dark caverns of the carth, Or to the deeps of hell. 560 PSALM 147. 2d Part. L. M. # Portugal, Antigua.

Summer and winter. ¹ LET Sion praise the mighty God, And make his honours known abroad, "For sweet the joy, our songs to raise, "And glorious is the work of praise." 2Our children are secure and blest; Our shores have peace, our cities rest; He feeds our sons with finest wheat, And adds his blessing to their meat. 3 The changing seasons he ordains, The early and the latter rains; His flakes of snow like wool he sends, And thus the springing corn defends. 4 With hoary frost he strews the ground; His hail descends with clattering sound. 1 WITH songs and honours sounding Address the Lord on high ; [loud

Over the heavens he spreads his cloud, And waters veil the sky.

2He sends his showers of blessings down

And corn in valleys grow.

3 He gives the grazing ox his meat ; He hears the ravens cry;

But man, who tastes his finest wheat, Should raise his honours high.

4 His steady counsels change the face Of the declining year;

He bids the sun cut short his race. And wintry days appear.

5 His hoary frost, his fleecy snow Descend and clothe the ground;

The liquid streams forbear to flow, In icy fetters bound.

6 When from his dreadful stores on high, He pours the rattling hail,

The wretch, that dares this God defy, Shall find his courage fail.

7 He sends his word, and melts the snow, The fields no longer mourn;

He calls the warmer gales to blow, And bids the spring return.

8 The changing wind, the flying cloud Obey his mighty word:

With songs and honours sounding loud, Praise ye the sovereign Lord.

The hosanna of the children; or, infants praising God. LMIGHTY Ruler of the skies,

A Through the wide earth thy name is And thine eternal glories rise [spread: O'er all the heavens thy hands have made.

YOUTH AND OLD AGE.

2 To thee the voices of the young A monument of honour raise; And babes, with uninstructed tongue, When broken spirits dwell in dust, Declare the wonders of thy praise. 3Thy power assists their tender age To bring proud rebels to the ground ; To still the bold blasphemer's rage, And all their policies confound. 4Children amid thy temple throng To see their great Redeemer's face ; The Son of David is their song, And young hosannas fill the place. 5 The frowning scribes and angry priests In vain their impious cavils bring; Revenge sits silent in their breasts, While Jewish babes proclaim their King.

Your parents' hope, your parents' joy, Attend the counsels of my tongue; Let pious thoughts your minds employ.

2lf you desire a length of days, And peace to crown your mortal state, Restrain your feet from impious ways, Your lips from sander and deceit. 3The eyes of God regard his saints, His ears are open to their cries; He sets his frowning face against The sons of violence and lies. 4 To humble souls and broken hearts,

God with his grace is ever nigh; Pardon and hope his love imparts, When men in deep contrition lie.

So shall the Lord your ways approve, And set your souls at ease.

1.3 His eyes awake to guard the just, His cars attend their cry;

4 What though the sorrows here they taste

Are sharp and tedious too, The Lord, who saves them all at last, Is their supporter now.

5 Evil shall smite the wicked dead, But God secures his own,

Prevents the mischief when they slide, Or heals the broken bone.

6 When desolation, like a flood, O'er the proud sinner rolls, Saints find a refuge in their God,

For he redeem'd their souls.

567 HEME 91. B. 1. L. M. D. Advice to youth; or, old age and death in an unconverted state.

HILDREN, in years and knowledge 1 NOW, in the heat of youthful blood, Remember your Creator, God: Behold the months come hastening on, When you shall say, "My joys are gone." 2 Behold the aged sinner goes, Laden with guilt and heavy woes, Down to the regions of the dead, With endless curses on his head. 3 The dust returns to dust again ; The soul, in agonies of pain, Ascends to God, not there to dwell, But hears her doom, and sinks to hell. Eternal King, I fear thy name; Teach me to know how frail I am; And when my soul must hence remove, Give me a mansion in thy love.

> HYMN 89. B. 1. L. M. b Armley, Eaton.

Youth and judgment. YE sons of Adam, vain and young, Indulge your eyes, indulge your tongue, Taste the delights your souls desire, And give a loose to all your fire. 2 Pursue the pleasures you design, And cheer your hearts with songs and wine; Enjoy the day of mirth ; but know There is a day of judgment too. 3God from on high beholds your thoughts;

His book records your secret faults : The works of darkness you have done Must all appear before the sun.

4 The vengeance to your follies due Should strike your hearts with terror through :

Or men as fierce and wild as they, He bids the oppress'd and poor repair, And build them towns and cities there.

Prayer and hope of victory. For a day of prayer in time of war.

1 NOW may the God of power and grace Attend his people's humble cry! Jehovah hears when Israel prays, And brings deliverance from on high.

Better than shields or brazen walls; He from his sanctuary sends Succour and strength when Zion calls, 3 Well he remembers all our sighs; His love exceeds our best deserts; His love accepts the sacrifice Of humble groans and broken hearts. 4 In his salvation is our hope, And in the name of Israel's God Our troops shall lift their banners up, Our navies spread their flags abroad. 5 Some trust in horses train'd for war, And some of chariots make their boasts ; Our surest expectations are From thee, the Lord of heavenly hosts. Though when the vilest men have power, 6 [O may the memory of thy name Our foes shall fall and die with shame, Or quit the field with shameful flight.] Till thy salvation shall appear, HYMN 30. B. 1. - 2They can't redeem one hour from death, 8 This is the folly of their way ; With all the wealth in which they trust ; Nor give a dying brother breath, When God commands him down to dust.
- 3 There the dark earth and dismal shade Shall clasp their naked bodies round : That flesh, so delicately fed, Lies cold, and moulders in the ground.
- 4 Like thoughtless sheep the sinner dies, Laid in the grave for worms to eat : The saints shall in the morning rise; And find the oppressor at their feet.
- 5 His honours perish in the dast, And pemp and beauty, birth and blood : That glorious day exalts the just To full dominion o'er the proud.

My Saviour shall my life restore, And raise me from my dark abode: My flesh and soul shall part no more, But dwell forever near my God.

The subject of it is the doctrine of the Trinity, which is that peculiar glory of the Divine Nature, that our Lord Jesus Christ has so clearly revealed unto men. and is sonecessary to true Christianity. The action is praise, which is the roost complete and exalted part Our tongues rejoice in tunes of praise of heavenly worship. The beauty of his holiness,

HYMN 91. B. 2. C. M. X Braintree, Barby.

The glory of Christ in heaven. THE delights, the heavenly joys, The glories of the place, Of his o'erflowing grace.

2 Sweet majesty and awful love Sit smiling on his brow; And all the glorious ranks above At humble distance bow. 3 [Princes to his imperial name

Bend their bright sceptres down; Dominions, thrones, and powers rejoice To see him wear the crown.

4 Archangels sound his lofty praise Through every heavenly street, And lay their highest honours down

5 Those soft, those blessed feet of his, That once rude iron tore,

And all the saints adore.

That cruel thorns did wound,

See what immortal glories shine, And circle it around !

7 This is the Man, th' exalted Man, Whom we, unscen. adore!

But when our eyes behold his face, Our hearts shall love him more.

8[Lord! how our souls are all on fire To see thy blest abode :

To our incarnate God !

We long to leave our clay :

SECOND EDITION.

BOSTON :

PUBLISHED BY LINCOLN & EDMANDS, AND JAMES LORING, CORNHILL.

PREFACE.

THE number of Hymns in this Selection has been limited to a little over three hundred, for the purpose of rendering it convenient to bind them in the same volume with the Psalms and Hymns of Dr. Watts, to which they are designed as a Supplement. For the same purpose also, some of the Hymns have been abridged, that the volume might not be extended to an immoderate size.

In one respect at least, it is thought this Selection will be preferable to any now in circulation. It contains the whole of the Sacred Poetry of Dr. Watts, adapted to the purposes of devotion and praise, not found in the common editions.

An addition of nearly eighty Hymns from the pen of that "sweet singer in Israel," to those already in use, cannot but be highly grateful to the Christian public. In point of sentiment and poetry, they will be found worthy of the just celebrity of their distinguished author. Of the character of the other hymns, it is left for the public to judge.

Care has been taken to give as great a variety as the limits of the work would admit. Many excellent Hymns on particular subjects might have been inserted, but they would have excluded others on subjects equally important.

A primary object, after giving the whole of Dr. Watts, has been to select the best Hymns on subjects which he had omitted: and the compiler flatters himself that this work, containing as it does 'MORE THAN A THOUSAND Psalms and Hymns, of approved excellence, will furnish the churches of Christ with a supply of sacred peetry, better suited to all subjects and occasions, than any heretofore published: while, by throwing the whole into one volume, the price is reduced, and the confusion arising from the use of two books, avoided.

DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS, TO WIT:

DISTRICT CLERK'S OFFICE.

REAL BE IT REMEMBERED, that on the twelfth day of L. S. * May, A. D. 2819, and in the forty-third year of the Independence of the United States of America, James M. Winchell, James Loring, Ensign Lincoln, and Themat Edmands, of the said District, have deposited in this office, the otic of a Book, the right whereof they claim as Proprietors, in the words following, to wit:

⁴⁴ A Selection of more than three hundred Hymms, from the most approved Authors, on a great variety of subjects. Among which are all the Hymns of Dr. Weatts, adapted to Public and Private Worship, not found in the Editions now in use. By JAMES M. WINCHELL, A. M. Paster of the First Baptist Church in Boston."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An Act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the Copies, of Maps, Charts and Books, to the Authors and Proprietors of such Copies, during the times therein mentioned:" and also to an Act, entitled, "An Act supplementary to an Act, exitited, An Act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the Copies, during the times therein mentioned; and extending the Benefits thereof to the Arts of Designing, Eagraving and Etching Historical, and other Prints,"

JNO. W. DAVIS, { Clerk of the District of Massachusetts.

PREFACE.

It affords me no small gratification, that both the plan and the select Hymns have received the approbation of many whose judgment and taste the public have long been accustomed to respect. But the consideration that the book may be used in the same congregation with the common editions of Watts, will probably best recommend it to the attention of Christians.

It has long been a subject of regret- among judicious persons, of all religious denominations, that so many hymns should have obtained circulation, which are entirely destitute of poetic merit, and which serve only to corrupt the taste, and excite the passions without benefiting the heart.

The injurious effects of such hymns it is hoped the use of this Supplement will have a tendency to counteract, and at the same time preserve entire those inimitable compositions of Dr. Watts, which many persons of late, have discovered too much willingness to mutilate or neglect. No selection, however excellent, should be suffered to supersede the use of them.

" It is deemed unnecessary to make any apology for taking a few hymns, from authors who differ in doctrinal sentiments, from myself and the churches with which I am in connexion. The hymns themselves, superiour in their kind, and on subjects in which all real Christians agree, must and will be their own apology."

May the great Head of the Church bless this humble effort to promote, mis glory, and the beauty of Christian worship.

JAMES M. WINCHELL.

BOSTON, May, 1819.

SELECTION OF HYMNS.

THE PERFECTIONS OF GOD, ALPHABETICALLY ARRANGED.

HYMN 1. L. M. Addison.

Castle-Street, Nantwich, Italy. Being of God proclaimed by creation. THE spacious firmament on high, With all the blue ethereal sky, And spangled heavons, a shining frame, Their great Original proclaim. 2 The unwearied sun, from day to day, Doth his Creator's power display; And publishes, to every land, The work of an almighty hand. 3 Soon as the evening shades prevail, The moon takes up the wondrous tale, And nightly, to the listening earth, Repeats the story of her birth: 4 While all the stars that round her burn, And all the planets in their turn, Confirm the tidings as they roll, And spread the truth from pole to pole. 5 What though in solemn silence all Move round this dark, terrestrial ball; What though no real voice nor sound Amid their radiant orbs be found: 8 In reason's ear they all rejoice, And utter forth a glorious voice; Forever singing, as they shine-"The hand that made us is divine." HYMN 2. C. M. Steele. 26 Stade, St. Martins, Barby. Condescension of God. ¹ETERNAL Power, Almighty God, Who can approach thy throne?

Accessless light is thine abode,

2 Before the radiance of thine eye,

And all the glories of the sky

Are but the shade of thine.

The heavens no longer shine;

To angel eyes unknown.

3 Great God, and wilt thou condescend To cast a look below?

- To this vile world thy notice bend, These seats of sin and wo?
 - 4 [But O! to shew thy smiling face, To bring thy glories near!
 - Amazing and transporting grace, To dwell with mortals here!]

5 How strange! how awful is thy love! With trembling we adore: Not all the exalted minds above Its wonders can explore.

6 While golden harps and angel tongues Resound immortal lays, Great God, permit our humble songs To rise, and mean thy praise.

HYMN 3. C.M. Watts's Laric Poems. Carthage, St. Anns, St. Davids. Condescension of God.

WIEN the Eternal bows the skies, To visit earthly things, With scorn divine he turns his eyes From towers of haughty kings.

2 He bids his awful chariot roll Far downward from the skies, To visit every humble soul,

With pleasure in his eyes.

3 Why should the Lord, that reigns above, Disdain so lofty kings?

Say, Lord, and why such looks of love. Upon such worthless things?

4 Mortals, be dumb ; what creature dares Dispute his awful will ? Ask no account of his affairs,

But tremble, and be still.

5 Just like his nature is his grace, All sovereign and all free; Great God, how searchless are thy ways! How deep thy judgments be !

8. 9

HYMN 4. C.M. Watts's Luric Poems. 2 5 Forever permanent and fix'd, Abridge, Canterbury. From agitation free, Decrees and Dominion of God.

4. 5

KEP silence, all created things, And wait your Maker's nod : My soul stands trembling, while she sings

The honours of her God.

He sits on no precarious throne,

Nor borrows leave to be.

3 Chain'd to his throne, a volume lies, With all the fates of men,

Withf every angel's form and size, Drawn by the eternal pen.

4 His providence unfoids the book, And makes his counsels shine;

Each opening leaf, and ev'ry stroke Fulfils some deep design.

5 Here, he exalts neglected worms To sceptres and a crown: And there, the following page he turns,

And treads the monarch down.

6 Not Gabriel asks the reason why : Nor God the reason gives;

Nor dares the fav'rite angel pry Between the folded leaves.

7 My God, I would not long to see My fate with curious eyes, What gloomy lines are writ for me,

Or what bright scenes may rise.

8 In thy fair book of life and grace, O may 'I find my name

Recorded in some humble place, Beneath my Lord the Lamb!

> HYMN B. C. M. Rowe. Devizes, St. Anns, Canterburg; Eternity of God.

L Ere time began its race; Before the ample elements

Fill'd up the void of space,

In fluid air was stay'd;

Before the ocean's mighty springs a neir inquiti siones dienlau'd.

SAnd when the pillars of the world, With sudden ruin break,

And all this vast and goodly frame Sinks in the mighty wreck :

Th' astonish'd sun roll back;

While all the trembling starry lamps Their humble hope thou wilt reward Their ancient course forsake:

> HYMN 6. L. M. Needham. X Portugal, Wells, Shoel,

2Life, death, and hell, and worlds unknown Hang on his firm decree : 1YE humble saints, proclaim abroad The honours of a faithful God; How just and true are all his ways, How much above your highest praise ! 2 The words his sacred lips declare, Of his own mind the image bear; What should him tempt, from frailty Blest in his self sufficiency. 3 He will not his great self deny : A God all truth can never lie: As well might he his being quit As break his oath, or word forget. 4 Let frighted rivers change their course,

Or backward hasten to their source; Swift through the air let rocks be hurl'd, And mountains like the chaff be whirl'd;

5 Let suns and stars forget to rise, Or quit their stations in the skies: Let heaven and earth both pass away, Eternal truth shall ne'er decay.

6 True to his word, God gave his Son, To die for crimes which men had done : Blest pledge! he never will revoke A single promise he has spoke.

> HYMN 7. C. M. Steele. 22 Irish, Exeter, Abridge. Goodness of God.

¹Y^E humble souls, approach your God With songs of sacred praise, 遂 For he is good, immensely good, And kind are all his ways.

THOU didst, O mighty God, exist 2 All nature owns his guardian care,

In him we live and move; But nobler benefits declare

The wonders of his love. 2 Before the pond'rous earthly globe 3 He gave his Son, his only Son,

To ransom rebel worms; 'Tis here he makes his goodness known

In its diviner forms.

4 To this dear refuge, Lord, we come; 'Tis here our hope relies;

A safe defence, a peaceful home, When storms of trouble rise.

4 When from her orb the moon shall start, 5 Thine eye beholds, with kind regard. The souls who trust in thee :

THE PERFECTIONS OF GOD.

What honours shall we raise? Not all the raptur'd songs above Can render equal praise,

HYMN 8. L.M. Watts's Lyric Poems. & HYMN 10. L. M. Watts's Lyrics. 28 Portugal, Old Hundred, Blendon. Greatness of God, or God supreme and self-sufficient.

1WHAT is our God, or what his name, Nor men can learn, nor angels teach;

He dwells conceal'd in radiant flame, Where neither eyes nor tho'ts can reach.

2 The spacious worlds of heavenly light, Compar'd with him, how short they fall ! They are too dark, and he too bright; Nothing are they, and God is all. 3 He spoke the wondrous word, and lo !

Creation rose at his command-; Whirlwinds and seas their limits know, Bound in the hollow of his hand. 4There rests the earth, there roll the spheres,

There nature leans, and feels her prop ; But his own self-sufficience bears The weight of his own glories up. 5 The tide of creatures ebbs and flows, Measuring their changes by the moon ; No ebb his sea of glory knows; His age is one eternal noon.

The lofty tune let Gabriel raise : All nature dwell upon the sound, But we can ne'er fulfil the praise.

HYMN 9. C. M. Rippon's Select. Morb Bedford, Abridge, York. Holiness of God.

HOLY and reverend is the name Of our eternal King: Thrice holy Lord, the angels cry;

Thrice holy, let us sing.

2Heaven's brightest lamps with him com-How mean they look and dim! [par'd, The fairest angels have their spots,

When once compar'd with him.

3Holy is he in all his works, And truth is his delight;

But signers and their wicked ways Shall perish from his sight.

Pay, O my soul, to God;

Lift with thy hands a holy heart To his sublime abode.

Whom words nor thoughts can reach;

A broken heart shall please him more Than the best forms of speech, T 2 SUPPLEMENT -

6 Great God, to thy almighty love, 6 Thou holy God, preserve my soul From all pollution free;

The pure in heart are thy delight, And they thy face shall see.

Green's Hundredth, Angel's Hymn. Incomprehensibility of God. OD is a name my soul adores; UTh' Almighty Three, th' eternalOne! Nature and grace, with all their powers, Confess the Infinite Unknown-2 From thy great self thy being springs: Thou art thy own original, Made up of uncreated things, And self-sufficience bears them all. 3 Thy voice produc'd the seas and spheres, Bid the waves roar and planets shine ; But nothing like thyself appears [thine. Through all these spacious works of Still restless nature dies and grows; From change to change the creatures run 5 Thy being no succession knows, And all thy vast designs are one. 5 Thrones and dominions round thee fall, And worship in submissive forms; Thy presence shakes this lower ball,

This little dwelling-place of worms, 6 Then fly, my song, an endless round, 6 How shall affrighted mortals dare To sing thy glory or thy grace? Beneath thy feet we lie so far, And see but shadows of thy face !

7. Who can behold the blazing light ! Who can approach consuming flame? None but thy wisdom knows thy might_ None but thy word can speak thy name

HYMN 11. C. M. Smart. # or b

St. Anns, Huddersfield.

God incomprehensible. TELESTIAL King, our spirits lie, 11 U Trembling beneath thy feet; And wish, and cast a longing eye, To reach thy lofty seat.

2 In thee, what endless wonders meet ! What various glories shine!

The dazzling rays too fiercely beat Upon our fainting mind.

4 The deepest reverence of the mind, 3 Angels are lost in glad surprise, It thou unveil thy grace; An humble awe runs through the skiels, When wrath arrays thy face.

5With sacred awe pronounce his name, 4 Created powers, how weak they be? How short our praises fall! So much akin to nothing, we, And thou, th' eternal All_

5 Lord, here we bend our humble souls, And awfully adore: For the weak pinions of our minds Can stretch a thought no more.

HYMN 12. C.M. Watts's Lyrics. X or b St. Asaphs, Bedford, Stade. Infinity of God. 1 THY names, how infinite they be ! I Great everlasting One! Boundless thy might and majesty, And unconfin'd thy throne.

2 Thy glories shine of wondrous size. And wondrous large thy grace: Immortal day breaks from thine eyes, And Gabriel veils his face.

3 Thine essence is a vast abyss. Which angels cannot sound, An ocean of infinities,

Where all our thoughts are drown'd

4 Thy mysteries of creation lie Beneath enlighten'd minds ; Thoughts can ascend above the sky, And fly before the winds;

.5 Reason may grasp the massy hills, And stretch from pole to pole But half thy name our spirit fills, And overloads our soul.

6 In vain our haughty reason swells, For nothing's found in thee But boundless inconceivables, And vast eternity.

HYMN 13. C.M. Watts's Lurics. & or b Canterbury, Bedford, Abridge. Sovereignty and grace.

THE Lord, how fearful is his name! How wide is his command ! ature, with all her moving frame, Rests on his mighty hand.

2 Immortal glory forms his throne, And light his awful robe;

While with a smile, or with a frown, He manages the globe.

3 A word of his almighty breath Can swell or sink the seas;

Build the vast empires of the earth, Or break them as he please.

4 Adoring angels round him fall, In all their shining forms,

His sovereign eye looks thro' them all, Aud pities mortal worms.

5 Now let the Lord forever reign, And sway us as he will, Sick, or in health, in ease, or paia,

We are his favourites still.

HYMN 14. C. M. Braintree, Irish, Devizes. Love of God.

OME, ye that know and fear the And lift your souis above ; [Lord, Let every heart and voice accord, To sing, that God is love.

2 This precious truth his word declares. And all his mercies prove;

Jesus, the gift of gifts, appears, To shew, that God is love.

3 Sinai, in clouds, and smoke, and fire, Thunders his dreadful name;

But Sion sings, in melting notes, The honours of the Lamb.

4 In all his doctrines and commands, His counsels and designs-

In ev'ry work his hands have fram'd, His love supremely shines.

5 Angels and men the news proclaim Through earth and heaven above,

The joyful and transporting news, That God the Lord is love.

HYMN 15. L. M. Upton's Selection. X Wells, Old Hundred, Portugal. Mujesty of God.

DO thou, my soul, in sacred lays, Attempt thy great Creator's praise; But, O, what tongue can speak his fame! What mortal verse can reach the theme ! 2 Before his throne a glittering band Of seraphim, and angels, stand; Ethereal spirits, who, in flight, Outwing the active rays of light. 3 To God all nature owes its birth : He form'd this pond'rous globe of earth, He rais'd the glorious arch on high, And measur'd out the azure sky. 4 In all our Maker's grand designs, Omnipotence, with wisdom, shines; His works, thro' all this wondrous frame,

Bear the great impress of his name. 5 Rais'd on devotion's lofty wing, Do thou, my soul, his glories sing; And let his praise employ thy tongue, Till listening worlds applaud the song.

HYMN 16. L. M. Rippon's Select. X Leeds, Castle Street. Spirituality of God.

"HOU art, O God, a Spirit pure. Invisible to mortal eyes ; Th' immortal, and th' sternal King. The great, the good, the only wise. 2 While nature changes, and her works | HYMN 19. L. M. Watts's Lyrics, * Corrupt, decay, dissolve, and die, Thy essence pure no change shall see, Secure of immortality.

3 Let stupid heathens frame their gods Of gold and silver, wood and stone; Ours is the God that made the heavens ; Jehovah he, and God alone.

4 My soul, the purest homage pay, In truth and spirit him adore; More shall this please than sacrifice, Than outward forms delight him more.

HYMN 17. C. M. Watts's Sermons. # Irish, Braintree. Trinity.

1FATHER of glory ! to thy name Immortal praise we give, Who dost an act of grace proclaim, And bid us rebels live,

2 Immortal honour to the Son, Who makes thine anger cease;

Our lives he ransom'd with his own, And died to make our peace.

3 To thy Almighty Spirit be Immortal glory given,

Whose influence brings us near to thee, And trains us up for heaven.

4 Let men with their united voice Adore th' eternal God,

And spread his honours and their joys Through nations far abroad.

5 Let faith, and love, and duty join, One general song to raise;

Let saints in earth and heaven combine In harmony and praise.

HYMN 18. L. M. Williams's Psalms, X Old Hundred, Portugal. Unity of God.

ILTERNAL God ! Almighty Cause L' Of earth, and seas, and worlds unknown,

All things are subject to thy laws, All things depend on thee alone. 2 Thy glorious being singly stands, Of all within itself possess'd; Controll'd by none are thy commands Thou from thyself alone art bless'd, 3To thee alone ourselves we owe ; Let heaven and earth due homage pay All other gods we disavow, Deny their claims, renounce their sway.

Their idol deities dethrone ; [lands ; Reduce the world to thy commands ; And reign, as thou art, God alone.

CREATION AND PROVIDENCE.

Blendon, Castle-Street.

God only known to himself. 1 C TAND and adore ! how glorious He, O That dwells in bright eternity ! We gaze, and we confound our sight, Plung'd in th' abyss of dazzling light.

2 Seraphs, the nearest to the throne, Begin, and speak the Great Unknown : Attempt the song, wind up your strings, To notes untried, and boundless things.

3 How far your highest praises fall Below th' immense Original ! Weak creatures we, that strive in vain

To reach an uncreated strain ! 4 Great God, forgive our feeble lays, Sound out thine own eternal praise; A song so vast, a theme so high, Calls for the voice that tuned the slay.

> HYMN 20. L. M. Needham. & Islington, Italy, Gloucester.

Moral perfections of the Deity imitated. REAT Author of th' immortal mind! J For noblest thoughts and views de-Make me ambitious to express [sign'd, The image of thy holiness.

While I thy boundless love admire, Grant me to catch the sacred fire; Thus shall my heavenly birth be known, And for thy child thou wilt me own.

3 Enlarge my soul with love like thine, My moral powers by grace refine; So shall I feel another's wo, And cheerful feed an hungry foe.

4 I hope for pardon, through thy Son, For all the crimes which I have done ; O, may the grace that pardons me, Constrain me to forgive like thee !

CREATION AND PROVIDENCE.

HYMN 21. C. M. Watts's Lyrics. & Braintree, Devizes.

A song to Creating Wisdom. 1 FTERNAL Wisdom, thee we praise! L Thee the creation sings ! [seas, With thy lov'd name, rocks, hills, and And heaven's high palace rings.

4 Spread thy great name through heathen 2 Thy hand, how wide it spread the sky! How glorious to b hold !

Ting'd with the blue of heavenly dye, And starr'd with sparkling gold.

CREATION AND PROVIDENCE.

26, 27, 28 24. 25

3 Thy glories blaze all nature round, 6 Yet nobler favours claim his praise, And strike the gazing sight,

Through skies, and seas, and solid ground, With terror and delight.

4 Infinite strength, and equal skill, Shine through the worlds abroad, Our souls with vast amazement fill,

And speak the builder, God. 5 But still the wonders of thy grace Our softer passions move; Pity divine in Jesus' face

We see, adore, and love.

HYMN 22. L. M. Doddridge. X 2 Deep in unfathomable mines Antigua, Castle Street.

God's goodness to the children of men. ¹Y^E sons of men, with joy record The various wonders of the Lord; And let his power and goodness sound, Through all your tribes the earth around.

2 Let the high heavens your songs invite, Those spacious fields of brilliant light; Where sun, and moon, and planets roll, And stars, that glow from pole to pole.

3 But O ! that brighter world above. Where lives and reigns incarnate love !. God's only Son, in flesh array'd, For man a bleeding victim made.

4 Thither, my soul, with rapture soar, gre, in the land of praise adore ; le theme demands an angel's lay, Amands an everlasting day.

HYMN 23. C. M. Steele. Irish, Braintree, Christmas. Creation and Providence. ORD, when our raptur'd thought - Creation's beauties o'er, [surveys il nature joins to teach thy praise, And bid our souls adore.

2 Where'er we turn our gazing eyes, Thy radiant footsteps shine ;

Ten thousand pleasing wonders rise, And speak their source divine.

3 The living tribes, of countless forms, In earth, and sea, and air,

The meanest flies, the smallest worms, Almighty power declare,

4 Thy wisdom, power, and goodness, In all thy works appear : [Lord, And, O ! let man thy praise record-Man, thy distinguish'd care!

5 From thee the breath of life he drew; That breath thy power maintains, Thy tender mercy, ever new, His brittle frame sustains.

> HYMN 24. C. M. Cowher. 18 St. Anns, Barby, Stade.

The mysteries of Providence ; or, light shining out of darkness.

OD moves in a mysterious way G His wonders to perform; He plants his footsteps in the sea, And rides upon the storm.

Of never-failing skill,

He treasures up his bright designs, And works his sovereign will.

3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take, The clouds ye so much dread Are big with mercy, and shall break

In blessings on your head.

4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense, But trust him for his grace; Behind a frowning providence He hides a smiling face.

5 His purposes will ripen fast, Unfolding every hour;

The bud may have a bitter taste, But sweet will be the flower.

6 Blind unbelief is sure to err, And scan his work in vain ; God is his own interpreter, And he will make it plain.

> HYMN 25. C. M. Beddome. Bedford, St. Martins.

Musteries to be explained hereafter.

1 REAT God of Providence! thy T Are hid from mortal sight; [ways-Wrapt in impenetrable shades,

Or cloth'd with dazzling light.

2 The wondrous methods of thy grace Evade the human eye:

The nearer we attempt t'approach, The farther off they fly.

3 But in the world of bliss above, Where thou dost ever reign,

These mysteries shall be all unveil'd, And not a doubt remain.

4 The Sun of Righteousness shall there His brightest beams display,

CREATION AND PROVIDENCE.

HYMN 26. C. M. Addison. Carthage, Arundel, Irish. Gratitude for divine mercies. Part I. WHEN all thy mercies, O my God, My rising soul surveys, Transported with the view, I'm lost In wonder, love and praise. 2 Thy providence my life sustain'd, And all my wants redress'd, When in the silent womb I lay, Or hung upon the breast. S To all my weak complaints and cries Thy mercy lent an ear, Ere yet my feeble thoughts had learn'd To form themselves in prayer. 4Unnumber'd comforts on my soul Thy tender care bestow'd, Before my infant heart conceiv'd From whom those comforts flow'd. 5 When in the slippery paths of youth With heedless steps I ran, Thine arm unseen convey'd me safe, And led me up to man.

6Through hidden dangers, toils, and death, It gently clear'd my way; And through the pleasing scenes of vice Where thousands go astray.

HYMN 27. C. M. Addison. Bedford, St. Anns, York. Gratitude for divine mercies. Part II. WHENpale with sickness, oft hast thou With health renew'd my face ; And when in sin and sorrow sunk, Reviv'd my soul with grace. 2 Thy bounteous hand with worldly good Has made my cup run o'er; And in a kind and faithful friend Has doubled all my store. 3 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts My daily thanks employ, Nor is the least a cheerful heart, That tastes those gifts with joy. 4 Through every period of my life,

Thy goodness Pll pursue; And after death, in distant worlds, The glorious theme renew.

5 Through all eternity to thee A foyful song I'll raise; For O, eternity's too short

To utter all thy praise. HYMN 28. L. M. Addison. *

Psalm 46, St. Hellens. God our Shepherd. THE Lord my pasture shall prepare,

And feed me with a shepherd's care;

X His presence shall my wants supply, And guard me with a watchful eye. My noon-day walks he shall attend, And all my midnight hours defend. 2 When in the sultry glebe I faint, Or on the thirsty mountain pant; To fertile vales, and dewy meads, My weary, wandering steps he leads ; Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow, Amid the verdant landscapes flow. 3 Though in a bare and rugged way, Through devious, lonely wilds I stray, His bounty shall my pains beguile, The barren wilderness shall smile, With lively greens and herbage crown'd, And streams shall murmur all around. Though in the paths of death I tread, With gloomy horrors overspread, My stedfast heart shall fear no ill, For thou, O Lord, art with me still; Thy friendly staff shall give me aid, And guide me through the dismal shade.

> HYMN 29. L. M. Cowfier. Dunstan, Castle-Street. ALMIGHTY King ! whose wondrous

Supports the weight of sea and land ; Whose grace is such a boundless store, No heart shall break that sighs for more. Thy providence supplies my food, And 'tis thy blessing makes it good ; My soul is nourish'd by thy word ; Let soul and body praise the Lord.

3 My streams of outward comfort came From him who built this earthly frame; Whate'er I want his bounty gives, By whom my soul forever lives.

4 Either his hand preserves from pain, Or, if I feel it, heals again; From Satan's malice shields my breast, Or over-rules it for the best.

5 Forgive the song that falls so low Beneath the gratitude I owe ! It means thy praise, however poor, An angel's song can do no more.

HYMN 30. C. M. Addison. Tisbury, Mear, Rochester. The Traveller's Psalm. How sure is their defence ; Eternal Wisdom is their guide, Their help Omnipotence.

UNIVERSAL PRAISE.

2 In foreign realms, and lands remote, 3 The stormy winds did cease to blow. Supported by thy care,

- Through burning climes they pass un-And breathe in tainted air. [hurt,
- 3 When by the dreadful tempest borne 4 O ! may our grateful, trembling hearts High on the broken wave,
- They know thou art not slow to hear, Nor impotent to save.
- 4 The storm is laid, the winds retire, 5 Let us proclaim to all the world, Obedient to thy will:
- The sea, that roars at thy command, At thy command is still.
- 5 In midst of dangers, fears, and deaths, Thy goodness we'll adore:
- We'll praise thee for thy mercies past, And humbly hope for more.

迷 HYMN 31. L. M. Uhton. Luton, Shoel, Eaton. Gratitude for journeying mercies. 1 TWAS God who kept me by his pow'r, His goodness, O my soul, adore ! Preserv'd by him, to him I raise This monument of grateful praise. 2 Many go out and ne'er return, But leave their families to mourn · The sad irreparable blow. Hasty, and vast, and awful too. S Others return'd in safety, find, Fled from the earth, some lovely mind, abrace in vain the breathless clay, nd wish to grieve themselves away. 4 What woes beyond my powers to count.

What sorrows to unknown amount Might have occur'd to wound my heart, And bid my brightest scenes depart! " But God (his name my soul shall bless) Still crowns my house with life and peace; My life he crowns with every good, HYMN 34. C. M. Watts's Lyrics. & And will be known a gracious God.

6 What can I do but ask his grace, Still to enhance my debt of praise; 1 Jesus, my soul to thee I bring, And long to serve thee while I sing.

HYMN 32. C. M. Madan's Coll. * Stade, Menr, St. Anns. Thanksgiving for deliverance in a storm ¹OUR little bark, on boist'rous seas, By cruel tempest tost, Without one cheerful beam of hope, 3 Thou restless globe of golden light,

Expecting to be lost, 2 We to the Lord in humble prayer Breath'd out our sad distress ;

We begg'd return of peace.

The waves no more did roll; And soon again a placid sea Spoke comfort to each soul Sweet hallelujahs sing

To him who hath our lives preserv'd, Our Saviour and our King.

With heart and voice, again,

And tell the wonders he hath done For us, the sons of men.

HYMN 33. L. M. Evans's Coll. X Green's Hundredth, Islington.

Providence.

THE earth and all the heavenly frame Their great Creator's love proclaim. He gives the sun his genial power, And sheds the soft refreshing shower. 2 The ground with plenty blooms again, And yields her various fruits to men; To men! who, from thy bounteous hand, Receive the gifts of every land.

3 Nor to the human race alone Is his paternal goodness shown: The tribes of earth, and sea, and air Enjoy his universal care.

4 Not e'en a sparrow yields his breath, Till God permits the stroke of death: He hears the ravens when they call, The Father, and the Friend of all.

UNIVERSAL PRAISE.

Parma, Pembroke, Knaresboro'.

Universal Hullelujah.

DRAISE ye the Lord, immortal choir, That fill the realms above ; Praise him, who form'd you of his fire,

And feeds you with his love.

2 Shine to his praise, ye crystal skies, The for of his abode;

Or veil in shades your thousand eves Before your brighter God.

Whose beams create our days,

Join with the silver queen of night. And own your borrow'd rays.

Though feeble, yet with contrite hearts, 4 Winds, ye shall bear his name aloud. Through the ethereal blue :

UNIVERSAL PRAISE.

He makes his wheels of you.

5 Shout to the Lord, ye surging seas, In your eternal roar;

Let wave to wave resound his praise, And shore reply to shore.

6 Thunder and hail, and fires and storms. The troops of his command,

Appear in all your dreadful forms, 4 To him we consecrate our praise, And speak his awful hand.

7 Wave your tall heads, ye lofty pines, To him that bid you grow;

Sweet clusters, bend the fruitful vines On every thankful bough.

8Thus while the meaner creatures sing. Ye mortals, catch the sound :

HYMN 35. C. M. Evans's Coll. X Tisbury, Irish, Devizes. Praise to God.

THE glorious armies of the sky, To thee, Almighty King ! Triumphant anthems consecrate, And hallelujahs sing.

2 But still their most exalted flights Fall vastly short of thee;

How distant then must human praise From thy perfections be?

3 Yet how, my God, shall I refrain, When to my ravish'd sense,

Each creature, in its various ways, Displays thy excellence?

4The blushes of the morn confess That thou art much more fair ;

When in the east its beams revive, To gild the fields of air.

5 The singing birds, the whistling winds, And waters murmuring fall,

To praise the first Almighty Cause, With different voices call.

6 Thy numerous works exalt thee thus, And shall we silent be?

HYMN 36. L. M. Doddridge. 2 Newcourt, Nantwich.

Praise to God for his unnumbered mercies. IN glad amazement, Lord, we stand 2 The lowest step around thy seat Amid the bounties of thy hand : How numberless those bounties are ! How rich, how various, and how fair !

For when his chariot is a cloud, [2 But O! what poor returns we make ! What lifeless thanks we pay thee back ! Lord, we confess, with humble shame, Our offerings scarce deserve the name. 3 Fain would our labouring hearts deviso To bring some nobler sacrifice ;

It sinks beneath the mighty load; What shall we render to our God?

And vow the remnant of our days; Yet what, at best, can we pretend, Worthy such gifts, from such a friend?

5 In deep abasement, Lord, we see Our emptiness and poverty; Enrich our souls with grace divine, And make them worthier to be thine.

HYMN 37. L. M. Evans's Coll. X Italy, Portugal, Shoel, Leeds.

Praise to God through the whole of our existence. OD of my life, through all its days, U My grateful powers shall sound thy praise ; The song shall wake with opening light, And warble to the silent night.

2 When anxious cares would break my rest, And grief would tear my throbbing breast, Thy tuneful praise I'll raise on high, And check the murmur, and the sigh. 3 When death o'er nature shall prevail, And all its powers of language fail, Joy through my swimming eyes shall break, And mean the thanks I cannot speak. 4 But O! when that last conflict's o'er,

And I am chain'd to flesh no more, With what glad accents shall I rise To join the musick of the skies!

HYMN 38. L. M. Watts's Lyrics. & Old Hundred, Wells, Psalm 97.

A duing Saviour. 1 S TRETCH'D on the cross, the Saviour dies :

Hark ! his expiring groans arise ! See, from his hands, his feet, his side, Runs down the sacred crimson tide !

2 And didst thou bleed?-for sinners bleed? And could the sun behold the deed? No! he withdrew his sick ning ray.

And darkness veil'd the mourning day. 3 Can I survey this scene of wo,

HYMN 52. H. M. Doddridge. # Bethesda, Portsmouth. Resurrection of Christ. " Jesus, who bled, He rose to-day."

Ye mortals ! catch the sound --Redeem'd by him from hell, And send the echo round The globe on which you dwell;

Transported, cry-1"Hath left the dead, " Jesns, who bled, No more to die."

All hail, triumphant Lord, 5 Who sav'st us with thy blood ! Wide be thy name ador'd, Thou rising, reigning God ;

ASCENSION OF CHRIST.

HEMN 55. L. M. Wesley's Coll. * Truro, Castic-Street, Nantwich.

Christ's ascension.

UR Lord is risen from the dead ; / Our Jesus is gone up on high : The powers of hell are captive led ; Dragg'd to the portals of the sky. 2 There his triumphal chariot waits; And angels chant the solemn lay : "Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates! "Ye everlasting doors, give way !" 3 Loose all your bars of massy light, And wide unfold the radiant scene ;

He claims those mansions as his right ; Receive the King of glory in. 1" Who is the King of glory, who ?"

The Lord, that all his focs o'ercame ;

CHARACTERS OF CHRIST.

And Jesus is the conqueror's name. 5 Lo! his triumphal chariot waits, And angels chant the solemn lay, "Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates, 4 In every dark, distressful hour, "Ye everlasting doors, give way!

6" Who is the King of glory, who?" The Lord, of boundless power possest; The King of saints and angels too ; God over all, forever blest.

HYMN 56. L. M. Watts's Miscellan. * Antigua, Psalm Ninety-seventh. The humiliation, exaltation, and triumps of Christ.

1 THE mighty frame of glorious grace, 1 That brightest monument of praise That e'er the God of love design'd, Employs and fills my lab'ring mind. 2 Begin, my soul, the heavenly song, A burden for an angel's tongue : When Gabriel sounds these awful things, He tunes and summons all his strings. 3 Proclaim inimitable love!

Jesus, the Lord of worlds above, Puts off the beams of bright array, And veils the God in mortal clay.

4 He, that distributes crowns and thrones, Hangs on a tree, and bleeds, and groans; The Prince of life resigns his breath-The King of glory bows to death. 5 But see the wonders of his power! He triumphs in his dying hour; And, while by Satan's rage he fell, He dash'd the rising hopes of hell. 6 Thus were the hosts of death subdued. And sin was drown'd in Jesus' blood; 4 Rejoice in glorious hope ! Then he arose, and reigns' above, And conquers sinners by his love. 7 Who shall fulfil this boundless song ! The theme surmounts an angel's tongue! We soon shall hear [The trump of God] How low, how vain are mortal airs, When Gabriel's nobler harp despairs !

INTERCESSION OF CHRIST.

HYMN 57. L. M. Steele. Bath, Angel's Hymn. Intercession of Christ.

IHE lives ! the great Redeemer lives ! And now, before his Father, God, Pleads the full merit of his blood.

2 Repeated crimes awake our fears, And justice arm'd with frowns appears ; But in the Saviour's lovely face Sweet mercy smiles, and all is peace,

The world, sin, death and hell o'erthrew; 3 Hence, then, ye black despairing tho'is! Above our fears, above our faults His powerful intercessions rise; And guilt recedes, and terror dies. When sin and Satan join their power, Let this dear hope repel the dart, That Jesus bears us on his heart. 5 Great Advocate, almighty Friend, On him our humble hopes depend: Our cause can never, never fail, For Jesus pleads, and must prevail.

3 No other name will Heaven approve : Thou art the true, the living way, Ordain'd by everlasting love, To the bright realms of endless day.

HYMN 69. L. M. Cennick. 2 Portugal, China, Quercy. Way to Canaan.

2 Yes, thou art precious to my soul ! 1 TESUS, my all, to heaven is gone; He, whom I fix my hopes upon ! His track I see, and I'll pursue The narrow way till him I view.

The road that leads from banishment -

The king's highway of holiness, I'll go; for all his paths are peace. 3 This is the way I long have sought, And mourn'd because I found it not ; My grief, and burden, long has been 2 God did love them, in his Son, Because I could not cease from sin. 4 The more I strove against its power, I sinn'd and stumbled but the more, Till late I heard my Saviour say, "Come hither, soul, I am the way." 5 Lo! glad I come ! and thou, blest Lamb, Shalt take me to thee as I am: / My sinful self to thee I give ! Nothing but love shall I receive.

6 Then will I tell to sinners round What a dear Saviour I have found; I'll point to thy redceming blood, And say, "Behold the way to God !"

HYMN 70. C. M. Hartford Coll. & Irish, St. Martins, Devizes. Praise to the Redeemer.) FOR a thousand tongues to sing My dear Redeemer's praise! The glories of my God and King, The triumphs of his grace !

2 My gracious Master and my God, Assist me to proclaim,

Tospread through all the earth abroad The honours of thy name.

3 Jesus, the name that calms our fears, That bids our sorrows cease;

'Tis musick in the sinner's ears; Tis life, and health, and peace.

4 He breaks the power of reigning sin,

He sets the prisoner free; His blood can make the foulest clean : His blood avail'd for me.

ADOPTION.

HYMN 71. 7s. Humphreys. 义 Finedon, Turin, Hotham. The privileges of the sons of God. 1 BLESSED are the sons of God, They are bought with Jesus'blood,

They are ransom'd from the grave, Life eternal they shall have :

With them number'd may we be, Now and through eternity.

Ere creation was begun; They the seal of this receive, When on Jesus they believe: With them, &c, 3 They are justify'd by grace, They enjoy a solid peace; All their sins are wash'd away, They shall stand in God's great day. With them, &c.

4 They have fellowship with God, Through the Mediator's blood ; One with God, through Jesus one, Glory is in them begun: With them, &cc.

5 They alone are truly blest-Heirs with God, joint heirs with Christ; They with love and peace are fill'd; They are by his Spirit seal'd:

With them number'd may we be, Now and through eternity.

HYMN 72. L. M. S. Stennett. # Portugal, Shoel.

Christians the sons of God.

NOT all the nobles of the earth, IN Who boast the honours of their birth, Such real dignity can claim As those who bear the Christian name,

2 To them the privilege is given, To be the sons and heirs of heaven ; Sons of the God who reigns on high, And heirs of joys beyond the sky.

3 When, through temptation, they rebel, His chast'ning rod he makes them feel; Then, with a father's tender heart, He soothes the pain, and heals the smart.

4 Their daily wants his hands supply, Their steps he guards with watchful eye, Leads them from earth to heaven above, And crowns them with eternal love,

5 If I've the honour, Lord, to be One of this numerous family, On me the gracious gift bestow, -To call thee Abba, Father ! too.

6 So may my conduct ever prove My filial piety and love! While all my brethren clearly trace Their Father's likeness in my face

ATONEMENT.

HYMN 73. C. M. Watte's Sermons. # Abridge, Bedford. The atonement of Christ. ¹HOW is our nature spoil'd by sin? Yet nature ne'er hath found. The way to make the conscience clean, Or heal the plinful wound.

2 In vain we seek for peace with God By methods of our own:

Jesus, there's nothing but thy blood Can bring us near the throne.

3 The threatenings of thy broken law Impress our souls with dread; If God his sword of vengeance draw,

It strikes our spirits dead.

4 But thine illustrious sacrifice Hath answer'd these demands, And peace and pardon from the skies Come down by Jesus' hands.

5 Here all the ancient types agree, The altar and the lamb;

And prophets in their visions see Salvation through his name.

6"Tis by thy death we live, O Lord ; "I'is on thy cross we rest; Forever be thy love ador'd, Thy name forever blest.

HYMN 74. 8's and 7's. Lock H. Coll. * Sicilian Hymn, Love Divine. Gratitude for the atonement. "HAIL! thou once despised Jesus, Hail! thou Galilean King! Thou didst suffer to release us; Thou didst free salvation bring: Hail, thou agonizing Saviour, Bearer of our sin and shame ! By thy merits we find favour; Life is given through thy name.

2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed, All our sins on thee were laid :

By almighty love anointed, Thou hast full atonement made :

All thy people are forgiven Through the virtue of thy blood :

Open'd is the gate of heaven; Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

3 Jesus, hail ! enthron'd in glory, There forever to abide!

All the heavenly host adore thee, Seated at thy Father's side:

There for sinners thou art pleading : 3 He knows what arguments I'd take, There, thou dost our place prepare ; Ever for us interceding,

Till in glory we appear.

14 Worship, honour, power, and blessing, Thou art worthy to receive: Loudest praises, without ceasing, Meet it is for us to give:

Help, ye bright angelic spirits! Bring your sweetest, noblest lays!

COMMUNION WITH GOD.

HYMN 75. C. M. Cowher. 1 York, St. Anus. Walking with God. FOR a closer walk with God, A calm and heavenly frame;

A light to shine upon the road, That leads me to the Lamb!

2 Where is the blessedness I knew When first I saw the Lord;

Where is the soul-refreshing view Of Jesus, and his word?

3 What peaceful hours I then enjoy'd! How sweet their memory still! But now I find an aching void

The world can never fill. Return, O holy dove! return, Sweet messenger of rest!

I hate the sins that made thee mourn, And drove thee from my breast.

5 The dearest idol I have known, Whate'er that idol be,

Help me to tear it from thy throne, And worship only thee.

6 So shall my walk be close with God, Calm and serene my frame; So purer light shall mark the road-That leads me to the Lamb.

HYMN 76. C.M. Watts's Sermons. # or b St. Davids, Abridge.

O that I know where I might find him-Sins and sorrows laid before God.

THAT I knew the secret place, Where I might find my God; I'd spread my wants before his face, And pour my woes abroad.

2 I'd tell him how my sins arise, What sorrows I sustain;

How grace decays, and comfort dies, And leaves my heart in pain.

To wrestle with my God;

I'd plead for his own mercy's sake, And for my Saviour's blood.

4 My God will pity my complaints, And heal my broken bones; He takes the meaning of his saints,

The language of their groans.

5 Arise, my soul, from deep distress, And banish every fear;

He calls thee to his throne of grace, 1 To spread thy sorrows there.

DEPRAVITY.

HYMN 77. LaM. Watts's Lyrics. & or b

German, Eaton. Original sin; or, the first and second Adam. ADAM, our father and our head, Transgress'd, and justice doom'd 3 us dead :

The fiery law speaks all despair, There's no reprieve or pardon there. 2 Call a bright council in the skies ; Seraphs, the mighty and the wise, Speak ; are you strong to bear the load, The weighty vengeance of a God? 3In vain we ask; for all around Stand silent through the heav'nly ground; There's not a glorious mind above Has half the strength or half the love. 4 But, O! unmeasurable grace! Th' eternal Son takes Adam's place : Down to our world the Saviour flies, Stretches his arms, and bleeds, and dies. 5 Amazing work ! look down, ye skies ! Wonder and gaze with all your eyes ; 2'Tis this my powerful lusts contro!, Ye saints below, and saints above, All bow to this mysterious love.

HYMN 78. C. M. S Stennett. b Dorset, York, Wareham.

Inducting sin lamented. ¹WITH tears of anguish I lament, Here at thy feet, my God, My passion, pride, and discontent, And vile ingratitude.

2 Sure there was ne'er a heart so base, So false as mine has been:

So faithless to its promises, So prone to every sin !

3 My reason tells me thy commands Are holy, just, and true;

Tel.s me whate'er my God demands, Is his most righteous due.

And all her words approve;

But still I find it hard t' obey, And harder yet to love.

These strugglings in my breast? When wilt thou bow my stubborn will, Rivers of oil, or seas of blood-And give my conscience rest?

GRACE.

HYMN 79. S. M. Doddridge. & Shirland, Pelham.

Salvation by grace from the first to the last. RACE! us a charming sound ; G Harmonious to the ear!

Heaven with the echo shall resound, And all the earth shall hear.

Grace first contrived the way To save rebellious man;

And all the steps that grace display Which drew the wondrous plan.

Grace led my roving feet

To tread the heavenly road; And new supplies, each hour, I meet,

While pressing on to God. Grace all the work shall crown, Through everlasting days;

HYMN 80. C. M. Irish, Cambridge.

By the grace of God I am what I am. REAT God, 'tis from thy sove-U reign grace

That all my blessings flow; Whate'er I am, or do possess,

I to thy mercy owe.

And pardons all my sin; [sont,

Spreads life and comfort through my And makes my nature clean.

3 Tis this upholds me whilst I live, Supports me when 1 die;

And hence ten thousand saints receive Their all, as well as I.

JUSTIFICATION.

HYMN 81. L. M. Rippon's Selec. Sorb German, Bath. Human rightcourness insufficient to justify.

WHEREWITH, O Lord, shall I

Or bow myself before thy face? How, in thy purer eyes, appear? What shall I bring to gain thy grace? 4 Reason I hear, her counsels weigh, 2 Will gifts delight the Lord most high? Will multiplied oblations please? Thousands of rams his favour buy? Or slaughtered millions e'er appease ? 5 How long, dear Saviour, shall I feel 3 Can these assuage the wrath of God ? Can these wash out my guilty stain? Alas! they all must flow in vain.

4 What have I, then, wherein to trust ?! 4 Thy pard'ning love, so free, so sweet, I nothing have, I nothing am : Dear Saviour, I adore; Excluded is my every boast, My glory swallow'd up in shame. 5 Guilty, I stand before thy face : My sole desert is hell and wrath ; [place; "Twere just the sentence should take

But O, I plead my Saviour's death? 6 I plead the merits of thy Son, Who died for sinners on the tree ; plead his righteousness alone ; O put the spotless robe on me.

HYMN 82. L. M. Wesley. Shoel, Leeds, Italy. Imputed rightcousness.

1 TESUS, thy blood and righteousness, . My beauty are, my glorious dress; 'Midst flaming worlds, in these array'd, With joy shall I lift up my head. 2 When from the dust of death 1 rise, To take my mansion in the skies; E'en then shall this be all my plea, "Jesus hath hy'd and died for me."

Abranam, the friend of God. all the armies bought with blood, of sinners, thee proclaim ! whom the chief I am.

4 This spotiess role the same appears When ruin'd nature sinks in years; No age can change its glorious hue: The robe of Christ is ever new.

50 let the dead now hear thy voice ! Bid, Lord, thy banish'd ones rejoice! Their beauty this, their giorious dress, lesus, the Lord, our righteousness.

PARDON.

HYMN 83. C. M. Steele. York, Canterbury, Wantage. - Pardoning love.

1 HOW oft, alas! this wretched heart Has wander'd from the Lord! How oft my roving thoughts depart. Fo getful of his word !

2 Yet sovereign mercy calls, "Return:" Dear Lord, and may I come ! My vile ingratitude 1 mourn;

O take the wanderer home. 3 And canst thou, wilt thou yet forgive, And bid my crimes remove? And shall a pardon'd rebel live

To speak thy wondrous love?

O keep me at thy sacred feet, And let me rove no more. HYMN 81. S. M. Watts's Lyrics. h

Aylesbury, Ustic. Conf esion and hardon. Y sorrows, like a flood, M Impatient of restraint, Into thy bosom, O my God!

Pour out a long complaint. 2 This impious heart of mine Could once defy the Lord,

Could rush with violence on to sin, In presence of thy sword.

O'ercome by ding love, Here at thy cross I lie,

And throw my flesh, my soul, my all, And weep, and love, and die. 4- "Rise," saith the Saviour, "rise

"Behold my wounded veins ! " Here flows are cred crimson flood, "To wash away thy stains."

See, God is reconciled ! Behold his smiling face! Let joyful cherubs clap their wings, And sound aloud his grace.

PERSEVERANCE.

HYMN 85. L. M. Doddridge. # Querey, Blendon, Angels Hymn.

Noah preserved in the ark, and the believer in Christ.

1 THE deluge, at the Almighty's call, In what impetuous streams it fell ; Swallow'd the mountains in its rage, And swept a guilty world to hell. 2 Yet Noah, humble, happy saint ! Surrounded with a chosen few, Sat in his ark, secure from fear, And sang the grace that steer'd him thro'.

3 So may I sing, in Jesus safe, While storms of engeance round me fall; Conscious how high my hopes are fix'd, Beyond what shakes this earthly ball.

4 Enter thine ark, while patience waits, Nor ever quit that sure retreat, Then the wide flood, which buries earth, Shall waft thee to a fairer seat.

HYMN 86. C. M. F-----. 12 Bedford, Cambridge. Perseverance. I ORD, hast thou made me know thy Conduct me in thy fear; [ways;

REDEMPTION REGENERATION.

And grant me such supplies of grace, That I may persevere.

2Let but thy own Almighty arm Sustain a feeble worm.

I shall escape, secure from harm, Amid the dreadful storn. 3Be thou my all-sufficient friend,

Till all my toils shall cease, Guard me through life, and let my end Be everlasting peace.

REDEMPTION.

HYMN 87. 7's. Rippon's Selection. # Bath-Abbey, Condolence, Cookham. Redeeming love. 1 NOW begin the heavenly theme, Sing aloud in Jesus' name! Ye, who his salvation prove, Triumph in redeeming love. 2Ye, who see the Father's grace Beaming in the Saviour's face, As to Canaan on ve move, Praise and bless redeeming love. 3 Mourning souls, dry up your tears; Banish all your guilty fears; See your guilt and curse remove, Cancell'd by redeeming love.

Welcome all, by sin opprest, Welcome to his sacred rest: Nothing brought him from above, Nothing but redeeming love.

HYMN 28. L. M. Steele: b or 2 Winchester, Eaton.

Redemption by Christ alone. IC NSLAV'D by sin, and hound in chains L Beneath its dreadful tyrant sway, 4 And doom'd to everlasting pains, We wretched guilty captives lay. 2 Jesus, the Lord, the mighty God, An all-sufficient ransom paid : Invalued price ! his precious blood, For vile, rebellious traitors shed. Mesus the sacrifice became,

To rescue guilty souls from hell : The spotless, bleeding, dying Lamb, Beneath avenging justice fell.

4 Amazing goodness ! love divine ! O may our grateful hearts adore The matchless grace ; nor yield to sin, Nor wear its crucl fetters more.

REGENERATION.

HYMN 89. C. M. Tohlady's Coll. & St. Martins, Cambridge, Excter.

Efficacions grace. HAIL! mighty Jeus! how divine Is thy victorious sword!

The stoutest rebel must resign

At thy commanding word.

2 Deep are the wounds thy arrows give, They pierce the hardest he.rt;

Thy smiles of grace the slain revive, And joy succeeds to smart.

Still gird thy sword upon thy thigh, Ride with majestic sway : Go forth. great Prince, triumphantly,

And make thy focs obey.

4 And when thy victories are complete, When all the chosen race

Shall round the throne of glory meet, To sing thy conquering grace;

5 O may my humble soul be found Among that favour'd band !

And I, with them, thy praise will sound Throughout Immanuel's land.

HYMN 90. S. M. Doddridge, 38 Dover, Watchman. Vital union' to Christ in regeneration.

DEAR Saviour, we are thine By everlasting bonds;

Our names, our hearts we would resign, Our souls are in thy hands.

2 To thee we still would cleave, With ever-growing zeal;

If millions tempt us Christ to leave, O let them ne'er prevail.

3. Thy Spirit shall unite

Our souls to thee our head;

Shall form us to thy image bright, That we thy paths may tread.

Death may our souls divide

From these abodes of clay: But love shall keep us near thy side

Through all the gloomy way. 5 Since Christ and we are one,

Why should we doubt or fear?

If he in heaven h th fix'd his throne, He'll fix his members there.

HYMN 91. C. M. S. Stennett. * Swanwick, Barby, Abridge. The converted thicf.

A S on the cross the Saviour hung, And wept, and bled, and died, He pour'd salvation on a wretch, That languish'd at his side.

LAW AND GOSPEL.

The penitent confess'd ;

And thus his praver address'd:

3" Jesus, thou Son and heir of heaven, "Thou spotless Lamb of God!

"I see thee bath'd in sweat and tears, 4 We bless that wondrous purple stream, "And welt'ring in thy blood.

4" Yet quickly from these scenes of wo, Yet are our souls but half redeem'd, "In triumph thou shalt rise,

"And shine above the skies.

5" Amid the glories of that world, "Dear Saviour, think on me,

"And in the victories of thy death "Let me a sharer be."

6 His prayer the dying Jesus hears, And instantly replies,

HYMN 92. C. M. Collier's Coll. b or * Windsor, Bedford, Bangor. Renewing grace.

1 HOW helpless guilty nature lies, Unconscious of its load!

The heart unchang'd, can never rise To happiness and God,

2 Can aught beneath a power divine The stubborn will subdue? 'Tis thine, eternal Spirit, thine

4 To chase the shades of death away, And bid the sinner live;

A beam of heaven, a vital ray, "Tis thine alone to give.

5 O change these wretched hearts of ours, And give them life divine ! Then shall our passions and our powers, Almighty Lord, be thine.

SANCTIFICATION.

HYMN 93. C. M. Watts's Lurics, & or b Windsor, Bedford, Abridge. Sanctification and hardon. 1 1A/HERE shall we sinners hide our heads? Can rocks or mountains save? Or shall we wrap us in the shades Of midnight and the grave?

2 Is there no shelter from the eye Of a revenging God?

2 His crimes, with inward grief and shame, | Jesus, to thy dear wounds we fy; Bedew us with thy blood.

Then turn'd his dying eyes to Christ, 3 Those guardian drops our souls secure, And wash away our sin;

Eternal justice frowns no more, And conscience smiles within.

"Burst thro' the gloomy shades of death, 5 Lord, blast his empire with thy breath, That cursed throne must fall;

Ye flatt'ring plagues that work our death, Fly, for we hate you all.

LAW AND GOSPEL.

HYMN 94. L.M. Watte's Lyrics. Word Green's Hundredth, Carthage,

The law and the gaspel; or. Christ a refuge. 1 "C URST be the man, forever curst, "That doth one wilful sin commit;

" Death and damnation for the first, "Without relief, and infinite."

2 Thus Sinai roars, and round the earth, Thunder, and fire, and vengeance ting ; But, Jesus, thy dear gasping breath, And Calvary, say gentler things ! 3 " Pardon, and grace, and boundless love, "Streaming along a Saviour's blood; "And life, and joys, and crowns above, "Obtain'd by a dear bleeding God." 4 Hark, how he prays (the charming sound Dwells on his dying lips) "FORGIVE!" And every groan and gaping wound Cries, "Father, let the rebels live!" 5 Go, you that rest upon the law,

And toil and seek salvation there: Look to the flame that Moses saw, And shrink, and tremble, and despair.

HYMN 95. L. M. Watts's Ser. * or b

Carchage, Blendon. The gospel the power of God to enlucation. W HAT shall the dying sinner do, That seeks relief for all his wo? Where shall the guilty conscience find Ease for the torment of the mind? 2 How shall we get our crimes forgiven. Or form our natures fit for heaven?

LAW AND GOSPEL. .

Can souls, all o'er defil'd with sin, [clean?] 2 Jesus, thy witness speaks within: Make their own powers and passions 3 In vain we search, in vain we try, Till Jesus brings his gospel nigh ; 'Tis there that power and glory dwell, Which save rebellious souls from hell.

4 This is the pillar of our hope, That bears our fainting spirits up; And find salvation in the Lord.

5 Let men or angels dig the mines, Where nature's golden treasure shines ; Brought near the doctrine of the cross, All nature's gold appears but dross. 6 Should vile blasphemers, with disdain, Pronounce the truths of Jesus vain, We'll meet the scandal and the shame, And sing and triumph in his name.

HYMN 96. C. M. Cowher. York, St. Anns, Devizes.

Legal obedience followed by evangelical. ¹ NO strength of nature can suffice To serve the Lord aright; And what she has, she misapplies, For want of clearer light.

2 How long beneath the law I lay, In bondage and distress !

I toil'd, the precept to obey ; But toil'd without success.

3 Then, to abstain from outward sin,

Was more than I could do; Now, if I feel its power within, I feel I hate it too.

4 Then, all my servile works were done

A righteousness to raise; Now, freely chosen in the Son, I freely choose his ways.

5 "What shall I do?" was then the word, "What shall I render to the Lord ?" 6 O, may I bear some humble part

Is my inquiry now.

And duty into choice.

Eaton, Rothwell.

The inquard quitness to Christianity. UESTIONS and doubts be heard 1(no more; Let Christ and joy be all our theme; His Spirit seals his gospel sure To every soul that trusts in him. W SUPPLEMENT.

The mercy which thy words reveal Refines the heart from sense and sin, And stamps its own celestial seal.

3'Tis God's inimitable hand That moulds and forms the heart anew : Blasphemers can no more withstand, But bow and own thy doctrine true. We read the grace, we trust the word, 4 The guilty wretch that trusts thy blood Finds peace and pardon at the cross ; The sinful soul, averse to God, Believes and loves his Maker's laws. 5 Learning and wit may cease their strife, When miracles with glory shine : The voice that calls the dead to life Must be almighty, and divine.

> HYMN 93. C. M. Walts's Lyrics. X Cambridge, Tisbury. God glorious and sinners saved. FATHER, how wide thy glories shine: How high thy wonders rise!

3 But when we view thy strange design. To save rebellious worms,

4 Here the whole Deity is known; Nor dares a creature guess

Which of the glories brightest shone, The justice, or the grace.

3 What if his gospel bid us strive With flesh, and self, and sin?

The prize is most divinely bright That we are call'd to win.

4 What if the men despis'd on earth, 4 There, with united heart and voice, Still of his grace partake?

This but confirms his truth the more ; For so the prophets spake.

5 Do some, that own his sacred truth, 5 And yet ten thousand thousand more Indulge their souls in sin?

HXMN 107. C. M. Cowher.

Rochester, York, St. Anns. Contentment.

FIERCE passions discompose the mind,

As tempests vex the sea; But calm content and peace we find, When, Lord, we trust in thee,

2 In vain by reason, and by rule; We try to bend the will;

For none but in the Saviour's school Can learn the heavenly skill.

Since at his feet my soul has sat, His gracious words to hear,

Contented with my present state, I cast on him my care.

4" Art thou a sinner, soul?" he said, "Then how canst thou complain ! "How light thy troubles here, if weigh'd "With everlasting pain !

"And thou wilt not repine:

6"'Tis I appoint thy daily lot,

"And I do all things well ; [spot, " Thou soon shalt leave this wretched

"And rise with me to dwell.

"At death thou still shalt find me nigh, "To wipe thy tears away.

8 Thus I, who once my wretched days In vain repining spent;

HYMN 108. L. M. Watts's Sermons. X Bath, Winchester.

2 Not the best deeds that we have done Can make a wounded conscience whole: Faith is the grace,-and faith alone, Fain would I have my soul renew'd :

I mourn for sin, and trust the Lord

To find a sure relief? Can bleeding bulls or goats bestow A balm to ease my grief?

20 never let my thoughts renounce The gospel of my God.

HYMS 110. L.M. Watts's Serm. Morb Putnoy, Querey, Wells. Faithfulness.

) HATH God been faithful to his word, 5 Thy saints in all this glorious war And sent to men his promis'd grace ? Shall I not imitate the Lord, And practise what my lips profess ? 2 Hath Christ fulfilled his kind design, 6 When that illustrions day shall rise, The dreadful work he undertook,

And died to make salvation mine, And well perform'd whate'er he spoke ? 3 Doth not his faithfulness afford

A noble theme to raise my song? And shall I dare deny my Lord, Or utter falsehood with my tongue?

4 My King, my Saviour, and my God ! Let grace my sinful soul renew, Wash my offences with thy blood, And make my heart sincere and true.

HYMN 111. C. M. Needham. * St. Martins, York, St. Davids. Fear of God.

1 TAPPY beyond description he, Who fears the Lord his God ; Who hears his threats with holy awe, And trembles at his rod.

Blending their beauties, both proclaim Their source is from above.

3 Let terrors fright th' unwilling slave; 5Great God, preservemy conscience clean, The child with joy appears; Cheerful he does his father's will, And loves as much as fears.

And shall I fear to own his cause .-

Or blush to speak his name? 2 Must I be carried to the skies

On flowery beds of ease? While others fought to win the prize,

And sail'd through bloody seas? 3 Are there no foes for me to face,

Must I not stem the flood? Is this vile world a friend to grace,

To help me on to God?

1 Sure I must fight, if I would reign; Increase my courage, Lord !

I'll bear the toil, endure the pain, Supported by thy word.

Shall conquer though they die; They see the triumph from afar,

And all thy armies shine,

HYMN 113. L. M. Watts's Sermons. X Green's Hundzedth, Quercy, Bath.

1 DEHOLD the sons, the heirs of God, D So dearly bought with Jesus' blood ! Are they not born to heavenly joys, 5 Come, all ye vilest sinners, come, And shall they stoop to earthly toys? 2 Doth vain discourse, or empty mirth, Well suit the honours of their birth ? Shall they be fond of gay attire, Which children love, and fools admire? 3 Lord, raise our hearts and passions higher :: Touch our vain souls with sacred fire;

Then, with a heaven-directed eye We'll pass these glittering, trifles by. 4 We'll look on all the toys below With such disdain as angels do ;: And wait the call that bids us rise To mansions promis'd in the skies.

HYMN 115. L. M. Watts's Sermons. b Carthage, Armley.

Things of good report. 1 IS it a thing of good report. To squander life and time away? To cut the hours of duty short, While toys and follies waste the day. 2 Doth this become the Christian name, To venture near the tempter's door? To sort with men of evil fame, And yet presume to stand secure? 3Am I my own sufficient guard, While I expose my soul to shame? Can the short joys of sin reward The lasting blemish of my name? 40 may it be my constant choice To walk with men of grace below, Till I arrive where heavenly joys, And never fading honours grow ..

HYMN 116. C. M. Watts's Sermons. 3 Barby, St. David, Wareham. None excluded from hope. 1 TESUS, thy blessings are not few, 2 Tis mercy, mercy we implore; Nor is thy gospel weak; Thy grace can melt the stubborn Jew, And bow the aspiring Greek.

HEREFORE should man, frail child of clay, Who, from the cradle to the shroud, Lives but the insect of a day-

O why should mortal man be proud?

2 His brightest visions just appear, Then vanish, and no more are found ; The stateliest pile his pride can rear 3 But flowers of paradise A breath may level with the ground!

3 By doubt permiex'd, in error lost, With trembling step he seeks his way, How vain of withom's gifts the boast ! Of reason's lamp how faint the ray !

5 God of my life; Fathe divine ! Give me a meek and lowly mind: In modest worth O let me shine, And peace in humble virtue find. .-

HYMN 120. L. M. Doddridge. * Old Hundred, Psalm Ninety-seventh-

Rejoicing in God.

17 HE righteous Lord, supremely great, Maintains his universal state ; O'er all the earth his power extends ; All heaven before his footstool bends. Yet justice still with power presides, And mercy all his empire guides: Mercy and truth are his delight. And saints are lovely in his sight.

3 No more, ye wise ! your wisdom boast ; No more, ye strong ! your valour trust : No more, ye rich! survey your store,-Elate with heaps of shining ore.

4 Glory, ye saints, in this alone,-That God, your God, to you is known: That you have own'd his sov'reign sway, That you have felt his cheering ray. 5 Our wisdom, wealth, and power we find In one Jehovah all combin'd: On him we fix our roving eyes, And all our souls in raptures rise.

Thy grace our rocky hearts can break 16 All else, which we our treasure call, May in one fatal moment fall; But what their happiness can move, Whom, God, the blessed, deigns to love

HYMN 121. S. M. Doddridge. 2 Dover, Pelham. · Rejoicing in the ways of God.

NOW let our voices join Y To form a sacred song;

Ye pilgrims, in Jehovah's ways, With music pass along.

See Salem's golden spires In beauteous prospect rise; And brighter crowns than mortals wear,

Which sparkle through the skies.

Justice and equity.

BLESSED Redeemer ! how divine, How righteous is this rule of thine,

" Never to deal with others worse

" Than we would have them deal with us !??

2 This golden lesson, short and plain, Gives not the mind nor memory pain, And every conscience must approve This universal law of love.

3'Tis written in each mortal breast, Where all our tenderest wishes rest; We draw it from our inmost veins, Where love to self resides and reigns.

4 Is reason ever at a loss? Call in self-love to judge the cause ; Let our own fondest passion show How we should treat our neighbour too. 5 How bless'd would every nation prove. Thus ruled by equity and love ! All would be friends, without a foe. And form a paradise below.

HYMN 124. L. M. Watts's Serm. b Bath, German, Armley.

Justice and truth. 1 REAT God, thy holy law requires To curb our covetous desires, Forbids to plunder, steal or cheat, To practise falsehood or deceit. 2 Thy Son hath set a pattern too, He paid to God and men their due; A dreadful debt he paid to God, And bought our pardon with his blood. 3 Amazing justice! boundless love! Do we not feel our passions move? Do we not, grieve that we have been Faithless to God, or false to men? 4 If truth and justice once be gone, And leave our faith and hope alone; If honesty be banish'd hence, Religion is a vain pretence.

HYMN 125. L. M. Rippon. * Paslm 97th, Blendon, China. Liberality; or, the duty and pleasures of benevolence.

Swift let the great salvation fly ; The hungry feed, the naked clothe ; To pain and sickness help apply. 4 Pity the weeping widow's wo, And be her counsellor and stay ; Adopt the fatherless, and smooth To useful, happy life, his way. 5Let age, with want and weakness bow'd, From others ne'er withheld the due, Your bowels of compassion move ; Let e'en your enemies be bless'd,-Their hatred recompens'd with love. 6 When all is done, renounce your deeds, Renounce self-righteousness with scorn; Thus will you glorify your God, And thus the Christian name adorn.

Hearts, the pure, unsullied spring, Whence the kind affections flow ; Soft compassion's feeling soul, By the melting eye express'd ; Sympathy, at whose control, Sorrow leaves the wounded breast : 3 Willing hands to lead the blind, Bind the wound, or feed the poor; Love, embracing all our kind, Charity, with liberal store: Teach us, O thou heavenly King, Thus to show our grateful mind, Thus the accepted offering bring, Love to thee, and all mankind.

HYMN 127. L. M. Watts's Lyrics. 3 Danstan, Castle Street, Leeds.

Love to Christ, present or absent. WHAT stupendous mercy shines 1 OF all the joys we mortals know, Around the Majesty of Heaven ! 1 OF Jesus, thy lave exceeds the rest, Love, the best blessing here below, The nearest image of the blest.

2 While we are held in thine embrace, There's not a thought attempts to rove; Each smile upon thy beauteous face

义

- And long, or weep in all we do, There's a strange pleasure in the pain ; And tears have their own sweetness too.
- 4 When round thy courts by day we rove, Or ask the watchmen of the night For some kind tidings of our love, Thy very name creates delight.
- 5 Jesus, our God, yet rather come ! Our eyes would dwell upon thy face ; 'Tis best to see our Lord at home, And feel the presence of his grace.

HYMN 128. 7s. Newton. Condolence, Hotham.

Lovest thou me?

1 TIS a point I long to know, 1 Oft it causes auxious thought-Do I love the Lord, or no;

- Am I his, or an I not. 2 If I love, and I thus? Why this dun and lifeless frame? Hardly, sure, can they be worse, Who have never heard his name.
- 3 [Could my heart so hard remain ; Prayer a task and burden prove ; Every trifle give me pain; If I knew a Saviour's love?]
- 4 When I turn my eyes within, All is dark, and vain, and wild ; Fill'd with unbelief and sin: Can I deem myself a child?
- 5 If I pray, or hear, or read, Sin is mix'd with all I do: You that love the Lord indeed, Tell me, is it thus with you?
- 6 Yet I mourn my stubborn will, Find my sin a grief and thrall ; Should I grieve for what I feel, If I did not love at all?
- 7 Lord, decide the doubtful case !! Thou, who art thy people's sun, Shine upon thy work of grace, If it be indeed begun.
- 8 Let me love thee more and more, If I love at alk, I pray ! If I have not loved before. Help me to begin to-day.

4 I would not change my bless'd estate With all that flesh calls rich, or great ; And while my faith can keep her hold, I envy not the sinner's gold.

Thou shalt divide my portion still: Grant me, on earth, what seems thee best, Till death and heaven reveal the rest.

HYMN 145. L. M. Green's Hundredth, Islington. True wisdom.

1 HAPPY the man, who finds the grace, The blessing of God's chosen race; The wisdom coming from above, And faith that sweetly works by love.

2 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, And all her flowery paths are peace, Wisdom to silver we prefer, And gold is dross compar'd with her.

3 He finds, who wisdom apprehends, A life begun that never ends; The tree of life divine she is, Set in the midst of paradise.

Though to their hurt they swear, In whose obedient heart she reigns; He owns, and will forever own, Wisdom, and Christ, and heaven are one.

Return of joy. 1 WHEN darkness long has veil'd my mind,

And smiling day once more appears; Then, my Redeemer! then I find The folly of my doubts and fears. 2 I chide my unbelieving heart; And blush that I should ever be Thus prone to act so base a part, Or harbour one hard thought of thee. 30, let me then, at length, be taught (What I am still so slow to learn,) That God is love, and changes not, Nor knows the shadow of a turn. 1 Sweet truth, and easy to repeat ; But when my faith is sharply tried, I find myself a learner yet,-Unskilful, weak, and apt to slide. 5 But, O my Lord, one look from thee Subdues the disobedient will ; Drives doubt and discontent away, And thy rebellious worm is still. 6 Thou art as ready to forgive, As I am ready to repine,

Thou therefore all the praise receive ; Be shame and self-abhorrence mine.

HYMN 168. L. M. Scott. Quercy, Carthage, Pialm Ninety-seventh-Liberty of conscience.

¹ABSURD and vain attempt ! to bind, With iron chains, the free-born mind; To force conviction, and reclaim The wandering, by destructive flame. 2 Bold arrogance, to snatch from Heaven Dominion not to mortals given ! O'er conscience to usurp the throne, Accountable to God alone.

3 Jesus, thy gentle law of love Does no such cruelties approve; Mild as thyself, thy doctrine wields No arms, but what persuasion yields. 4 By proofs divine, and reasons strong, It draws the willing soul along; And conquests to thy church acquires, By eloquence which Heaven inspires.

3 But Jesus, O! amazing grace! Obey'd and suffer'd in our place, Then took it with him to his throne.

4 Now what is man, when grace reveals The virtue of a Saviour's blood ?

Again a life divine he feels, Despises earth, and walks with God.

5 And what in yonder realms above, Is ransom'd man ordain'd to be?

With honour, holiness, and love, No seraph more adorn'd than he.

BLOW ye the trumpet, blow The gladly solemn sound! Let all the nations know, To earth's remotest bound, The year of jubilee is come, Return, ye ransom'd sinners, home

Exalt the Lamb of God, The sin-atoning Lamb; Redemption by his blood Through all the world proclaim : The year, &c.

Ye who have sold for naught, The heritage above; Come, take it back unbought, The gift of Jesus' loye: The year, &c.

Ye slaves of sin and hell, Your liberty receive; And safe in Jesus dwell, And blest in Jesus live: The year, &c.

The gospel trumpet hear, The news of pardoning grace ; Ye happy souls, draw near, Behold your Saviour's face: The year, &c.

Jesus, our great High Priest, Has full atonement made ; Ye weary spirits, rest; Ye mourning souls, be glad: The year of jubilee is come, Return, ye ransom'd sinners, home!

Dead saints shall from their tombs arise, And spring to life beyond the skies.

A thousand thoughts revolve;

Has God invited sinners near?

And Jesus bought them with his blood?

2 Go, then, my soul, address the Son, To lead thee near the Father's face;

Gaze on his glories yet unknown, And taste the blessings of his grace.

3Vain, vexing world, and flesh, and sense, Retire, while I approach my God; Nor let my sins divide me thence, Nor creatures tempt my thoughts abroad.

While to thine ar.ns, my God, I press, No mortal hope, nor joy, nor fear, Shall call my soul from thine embrace; 'Tis heaven to dwell forever there.

Thy majesty displays; 4 Let noise and flame confound the skies, And drown the spacious realms below; Yet will we sing the Thunderer's praise, In autumn, a rich feast And send our loud hosannas through. To man, and bird, and beast, 5 Celestial King, thy blazing power Kindles our hearts to flaming joys; We shout to hear thy thunders roar, At morn, and noon, 1 Our lips declare. STERN Winter throws his icy chains, Encircling nature round ; How bleak, how comfortless the plains, Late with gay verdure crown'd!

Fills all the heavenly plains.

REAT God, we sing that mighty 1 G hand,

By which, supported still, we stand : The opening year thy mercy shows, Let mercy crown it till it close,

2 By day, by night, at home, abroad, Still we are guarded by our God; By his incessant bounty fed, By his unerring counsel led.

3 With grateful hearts the past we own ; The future, all to us unknown,

We to thy guardian care commit, And peaceful leave before thy feet. 4 In scenes exalted or depress'd,

Be thou our joy, and thou our rest; Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise, Ador'd through all our changing days.

Swiftness of time. New year. REMARK, my soul, the narrow bound of the revolving year; [round ! How swift the weeks complete their How short the months appear.

Praise the mount-O fix me on it, And study artful ways t' increase The speed of its career.

4 Waken, O God, my careloss heart, Its great concerns to see;

That I may act the Christian part, And give the year to thee.

If future years arise ;

HYMN 247. L. M. Doddridge. & Rothwell, All Saints. Close of the year.

MY helper, God ! I bless his name; The same his power, his grace the same ;

The tokens of his friendly care Open, and crown, and close the year. 21 'midst ten thousand dangers stand, Supported by his guardian hand; And see, when I survey my ways, Ten thousand monuments of praise. 3 Thus far his arm has led me on, Thus far I make his mercy known; And while I tread this desert land, New mercies shall new songs demand. My grateful soul on Jordan's shore Shall raise one sacred pilar more; Then bear, in his bright courts above, Inscriptions of immortal love.

HYMN 243. C. M. Doddridge. Close of the year.

SNot many years their rounds shall run Nor many in mings rise,

HYMN 254. L. M. Watts's Sermons. X Green's Hundredth, Eaton. A lovely youth falling short of heaven.

3 But mark the change : Thus spake the Lord,

"Come, part with earth for heaven 3 to-day ;"

The youth, astonished at the word, In silent sadness went his way.

4 Poor virtues, that he boasted so, This test unable to endure,

Let Christ, and grace, and glory go, To make his land and money sure.

5 Ah, foolish choice of treasures here ! Ah, fatal love of tempting gold ! Must this base world be bought so dear.

And life and heaven so cheaply sold ? 6 In vain the charms of nature shine, 6 May thy young servant learn If this vile passion governs me;

HYMN 264. L. M. President Davies. b Armley, Putney. National judgments deprecated, and

1 WHILF o'er our guilty land, O Lord, We view the terrors of thy sword :

O' whither shall the helpless fly, To whom but thee direct their cry? 2 The helpless sinner's cries and tears Are grown familiar to thine cars;

Oft has thy mercy sent relief, When all was fear and hopeless grief. Yet mercy spares this guilty land, 3 On thee, our guardian God, we call, Before thy throne of grace we fall; And is there no deliverance there, And must we perish in despair?

4 See, we repent, we weep, we mourn, To our forsaken God we turn: O spare our guilty country, spare The church which thou hast planted here. Then shall our hearts obey thy word, 5 We plead thy grace, indulgent God : We plead thy Son's atoning blood; We plead thy gracious promises, And are they unavailing pleas?

6 These pleas, presented at thy throne, Have brought ten thousand blessings down On guilty lands in helpless wo; Let them prevail to save us too.

HXMN 267. L. M. Antigua, Shoel.

Praise for national peace. ¹G REAT Ruler of the earth and skies, A word of thy almighty breath Can sink the world, or bid it rise ; Thy smile is life, thy frown is death. 2 When angry nations rush to arms, And rage, and noise, and tumult reign, And war resounds its dire alarms, And slaughter dyes the hostile plain ; 3 Thy sovereign eye looks calmly down, And marks their course, and bounds their power ;

Thy word the angry nations own, And noise and war are heard no more. 4 Then peace returns with balmy wing ; Reviving commerce spreads her sails ;

The fields are green, and plenty sings Responsive o'er the hills and vales. 5 Thou good, and wise, and righteous Lord, All move subservient to thy will; Both peace and war await thy word,

And thy sublime decrees fulal. 6 To thee we pay our grateful songs,

Thy kind protection sull implore; O may our hearts, and lives, and tongues Confess thy goodness, and adore.

And victory flies at thy command, To crown the bright campaign.

3 Thy mighty arm, unseen, was nigh, When we our foes assail'd ;

4 To our young race will we proclaim The mercies God has shown,

That they may learn to bless his name, And choose him for their own.

5 Thus, while we sleep in silent dust, When threatening dangers come.

Their fathers' God shall be their trust, Their refuge, and their home.

HYMN 259. L. P. M. Kippis. 38 Newcourt, Psalm 46.

Chanksgiving for national prosperity. HOW rich thy gifts, Atmighty King ! From thee our public blessings spring;

The eternal joys the gospel shows, All from thy boundless goodness rise,

2 H re commerce spreads the wealthy store,

Which pours from every foreign shore ; Science and art their charms display ;

Religion teaches us to raise Our voices to our Maker's praise,

As truth and conscience point the way,

3With gratefal hearts, with joyful tongues, Io God we raise united songs,

Here still may God in mercy reign ; Crown our just counsels with success, With peace and joy our borders bless, Aud all our sacred rights maintain.

Complaint and hope under great pain. I [ORD, I am pain'd; but I resign My body to thy will ;

'I's grace, 'is wisdom all divine, Appoints the pains I feel.

Thy reasons lie conceal'd from sense, Mysterious and unknown.

5 Is not some smiling hour at hand, The instability of worldly enjoyments. With peace upon its wings? Give it, O God, thy swift command, With all the joys it brings.

HYMN 271. L. M. Cowper. b Bath, German, Old Hundred.

Afflictions sanctified by the word. HOW I love thy holy word, Thy gracious covenant, O Lord ! It guides me in the peaceful way;

I think upon it all the day. 2 What are the mines of shining wealth? The strength of youth, the bloom of health ?--What are all joys, compar'd with those, Thine everlasting word bestows!

3 Long unafflicted, undismay'd,

Thou mad'st me feel thy chast'ning rod, And straight I turn'd unto my God. What though it pierc'd my fainting heart, I bless thine hand that caus'd the smart, It taught my tears awhile to flow; But sav'd me from eternal wo.

5 O! hadst thou left me unchastis'd, Thy precept I had still despis'd; And still the snare in secret laid, Had my unwary feet betray'd.

I love thee, therefore, O my God, And breathe tow'rds heaven, thy bright abode : *

Desiringshe presence of God in affliction ¹THOU only centre of my rest, Look down with pitying eye. While with protracted pain opprest, 4 Dangers of every shape and name I breathe the plaintive sigh.

My heart no more complains.

HYMN 273. C. M. Cowher. b Durham, Bangor, Windsor.

¹ T^{HE} evils that beset our path, Who can prevent or cure?

We stand upon the brink of death, When most we seem secure.

2 If we to-day sweet peace possess, It soon may be withdrawn;

Some change may plunge us in distress, Before to-morrow's dawn.

And oft, when least expected, wealth Takes wings and flies away.

4 The grounds from which we look for Produce us often pain; fruit

A worm unseen attacks the root, And all our hopes are vain.

In pleasure's path, secure I stray'd : 5 Since sin has fill'd the earth with wo, And creatures fade and die;

Lord, wean our hearts from things below, And fix our hopes on high.

HYMN 274. L. M. Cowher. b or 2 Leeds, Eaton, Quercy.

Calling upon Christ in temptation and agliction. ITHE billows swell, the winds are high,

L Clouds overcast my wintry sky; Out of the depths to thee I call, My fears are great, my strength is small.

2 O. Lord, the pilot's part perform ; And guide and guard me through the storm !

Defend me from each threat'ning ill, Control the waves, say, "Peace-be still !?"

3 Amidst the roaring of the sea, My soul still hangs her hopes on thee ; Thy constant love, thy faithful care Is all that saves me from despair.

Attend the followers of the Lamb, Who leave the world's deceitful shore, And leave it to return no more.

HYMN 313. L. M. Gregg. Portugal, Wells.

Not ashamed of Christ.

1 TESUS! and shall it ever be, A mortal man asham'd of thee! 6 Instruct our minds, our wills subdue, Asham'd of thee, whom angels praise, Whose glories shine through endless days'

2 Asham'd of Jesus ! sooner far Let evening blush to own a star; He sheds the beams of light divine O'er this benighted soul of mine.

3 Asham'd of Jesus ! just as soon Let midnight be asham'd of noon: 'Tis midnight with my soul till he, Bright Morning-Star ! bid darkness flee. 4 Asham'd of Jesus ! that dear friend, On whom my hopes of heaven depend ! No; when I blush-be this my shame, That I no more revere his name.

5 Asham'd of Jesus! yes I may, When I've no guilt to wash away, No tear to wipe, no good to crave, No fears to quell, no soul to save. 6 Till then-nor is my boasting vain-Till then 1 boast a Saviour slain ! And O may this my glory be, That Christ is not asham'd of me! 7 His institutions would I prize,

Take up my cross, the shame despise ; Dare to defend his noble cause, And yield obedience to his laws,

Hyms 314. C. M. Bedd mc. # Bedford, St. Anns. Morning before baptism ; or, at the water side. 1 L JOW great, how solemn is the work I Which we attend to-day ! Now for a holy, solemp frame, O God, to thee we pray.

20 may we feel as once we felt, When, pain'd and griev'd at heart, Thy kind, forgiving, melting look,

Reliev'd our every smart.

3 Let graces then in exercise, Be exercis'd again ;

And, nurtur'd by celestial power, In exercise remains

HYMN 315. L. M. Baldwin. X

Wells, Old Hundred.

Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

1 ('OME, happy souls, adore the Lamb, Who lov d our race ere time began ; Who veil'd his Godhead in our clay, And in an humble manger lay.

2 To Jordan's stream the Spirit led, To mark the path his saints should tread; Joyful they trace the sacred way, To see the place where Jesus lay.

3 Immers'd by John in Jordan's wave, The Saviour left his wat'ry grave ; Heaven own'd the deed, approv'd the way.

And bless'd the place where Jesus Liy.

4 Come, all who love his precious name ; Come, tread his steps and learn of him; Happy beyond expression they, Who find the place where Jesus lay.

HYMN 317. C. M. Charmouth, Barby,

The believer constrained by the love of Christ to fellow him.

¹DEAR Lord, and will thy pard'ning Embrace a wretch so vile? [love] Wilt thou my load of guilt remove, And bless me with thy smile?

2 Hast thon the cross for me endur'd, And all its shame despis'd? And shall I be asham'd, O Lord, With thee to be baptiz'd?

3 Didst thou the great example lead, In Jordan's swelling flood?

And shall my pride disdain the deed, That's worthy of my God?

4 Dear Lord, the ardour of thy love Reproves my cold delays; And now my willing footsteps move In thy delightful ways.

HYMN 318. C. M. Ryland. X Bedford, Rochester.

Difficulties in the way of duty surmounted. 1 IN all my Lord's appointed ways, I My journey I'll pursue,

Hinder me not, ye much-lov'd saints, For I must go with you.

2 Through floods and flames, if Jesus lead, I'll follow where he goes ;

Hinder me not, shall be my cry, Though earth and hell oppose.

3 Through duty, and through trials too, I'll go at his command ;

Hinder me not, for I am bound To my IMMANUEL's land.

4 And when my Saviour calls me home, Still this my cry shall be, Hinder me not, come welcome death, I'll gladly go with thee.

HYMN 319. C. M. J. Stennett. X St. Martins, York. Immersion.

2 Thus was his sacred body laid Beneath the yielding wave; Thus was his sacred body rais'd

Out of the liquid grave.

3 Lord, we thy precepts would obey, In thy own footsteps tread,

Would die, be buried, rise with thee, Our ever living head.

HYMN 320. 8.7. b or 2 Northampton Chapel, Sicilian Hymn. Buried with Christ in bantism.

320, 321, 322

TESUS, mighty King in Sion ! Thou alone our guide shalt be; Thy commission we rely on,

We would follow none but thee:

2 As an emblem of thy passion, And thy victory o'er the grave,

We who know thy great salvation Are baptiz'd beneath the wave. 3 Fearless of the world's despising,

HYMN 321. L. M. J. Stennett. # Wells, Luton.

A baptismal hymn. I CEE how the willing converts trace The path their great Redeemer trod! And follow through his liquid grave The meek, the lowly Son of God! 2 Here they renounce their former deeds, And to a heavenly life aspire, Their rags for glorious robes exchange; They shine in clean and bright attire. 3 O sacred rite, by thee, to own

The name of Jesus we begin: This is our resurrection pledge, Pledge of the pardon of our sin. 4 Glory to God on high be given, Who shows his grace to sinful men: Let saints on earth, and hosts in heaven, In concert join their loud Amen.

HYMN 322. L. M. J. Stennett. 2 Portugal, Old Hundred.

A baptismal hymn. 17THE great Redeemer we adore,

Who came the lost to seek and save. Went humbly down from Jordan's shore, To find a tomb beneath its wave.

1 THUS was the great Redeemer plung'd 2" Thus it becomes us to fulfil In Jordan's swelling flood, "All righteousness," he meekly said : "Why should we then to do his will, "Or be asham'd, or be afraid ?"

3 With thee, into thy wat'ry womb, Lord, 'tis our glory to descend ;

'Tis wondrous grace that gives us room, To lie interr'd by such a friend.

4 Yet as the yielding waves give way, To let us see the light again,

323, 324, 325

The gates of death shall open wide, Our dust thy mighty voice shall hear, And rise and triumph at thy side.

HYMN 323. C. M.: Newton. St. James, Mear. After baptism. 1" DROCLAIM," saith Christ, "my wondrous grace "To all the sons of men; "He that believes, and is baptiz'd, "Salvation shall obtain."

2 Let plenteous grace descend on those, Who, hoping in thy word, This day have publickly declar'd That Jesus is their Lord.

Find all-sufficient grace.

HYMN 324. S. M. Stennett. b or X Aylesbury, Watchman. Bantism by immersion. TN such a grave as this, The meek Redeemer lay,

When he, our souls to seek and save, 4 Rise, from these earthly trifles, rise, Learn'd humbly to obey.

2 See, how the spotless Lamb Descends into the stream, And teaches us to imitate What him so well became !

5 Lord, see the sinner's tears, Hear his repenting cry !

Speak ! and his contrite heart shall live ; Speak, and his sins shall die.

6 Speak with that mighty voice, Which shall hereafter spread Its summons through the earth and sea, 3 Eternal Spirit, heavenly Dove, To raise the sleeping dead.

> HYMN 325. L. M. Cast'e-Street, Portugal.

The administrator. " O teach the nations, and baptize," J Aloud th' ascending Jesus cries;

BAPTISM.

5 Thus, when thou shalt again appear,| His glad apostles took the word, And round the nations preach'd their Lord.

2 Commission'd thus, by Zion's King, We to his holy laver bring These happy converts, who have known And trusted in his grace alone.

3 Lord, in thy house they seek thy face, O bless them with peculiar grace: Refresh their souls with love divine, Let beams of glory round them shine.

HYMN 326. C. M. Doddridge. * Abridge, St. Asaphs. A practical improvement of baptism. 1 A TTEND, ye children of your God. The heirs of glory, hear; For accents so divine as these Might charm the dullest car. And through the troubles of the way 3 Baptiz'd into your Saviour's death,

Your souls to sin must die;

With Christ your Lord ye live anew, With Christ ascend on high.

3 There, by his Father's side, he sits, Enthron'd divinely fair;

On wings of faith and love; Above, your choicest treasure lies.

And be your hearts above. 5 But earth and sin will drag us down,

HYMN 327. L. M. Beddome. X Castle Street, Wells.

¹ BEHOLD the grave where Jesus lay, Before he shed his precious blood ! How plain he mark'd the hur ble way To sinners through the mystic flood !

2 Come, ye redeemed of the Lord, Come, and obey his sacred word; He died, and rose again for you ; What more could the Redeemer do?

On these baptismal waters move; That we, through energy divine, May have the substance with the sign. 4 All ye that love Immanuel's name, And long to feel th' increasing flame. 'Tis you, ye children of the light, The Spirit and the Bride invite,.

To Churches and Pastors of Churches.

The Publishers wish you to consider the many advantages which this Hymn Book possesses over any that has ever been published in this

It contains the whole of the common editions of Watts, arranged, and country. furnished with Indexes so copious as to prevent any delay in finding the Psalm or Hymn wanted. This is of itself sufficient to give the book a preference to the common editions. But when it is considered that it contains a Supplement of MORE THAN THREE HUNDRED SELECT HYMNS, ON subjects now become common, but for which no Fsalm or hymn can be found in the common edition of Watts,-that this Selection is arranged, and supplied with Indexes, and more especially, that it contains about EIGHTY Hymns of Dr. Watts's own composition, most of which were never before published in this country ;---and when it is considered also that 120 tunes of the very best kind may accompany the book for a trifling expense, thus gradually introducing a system of good musick through the country-and that it may be used in connexion with the old editions without confusion,-The Publishers flatter themselves that it will not fail to become the standard work in the churches throughout the country. This they know to be the general opinion of those who are acquainted with it. Recommendations might be added from the best judges were it necessary. But the book will speak for itself. No minister especially, who once examines it will be satisfied to be long without one. Several churches have already introduced it, and express a strong desire that it may become general.

Where churches feel unable to purchase a general supply of new books, the work may be introduced by merely furnishing each of the singers with a copy. The congregation may then be occasionally entertained and elevated with an appropriate hymn from the Supplement, nd procure the book when they feel disposed.
