Mission Statement
The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Course Purpose, Core Value Focus, and Curriculum Competencies Addressed
- Course Purpose: To give training and experience in personal witnessing under the guidance of a qualified supervisor.
- Core Value Focus: Mission Focus – We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries (online Graduate Catalog, 2015-2016, p. 4). Our confessional commitments are outlined in the Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message 2000.
- Curriculum Competencies Addressed: Disciple Making Competency

Course Description
The purpose of this course is to give the student evangelistic tools and supervised training and experience in sharing the Gospel with non-Christians. In addition, the student will receive some exposure to materials to use in teaching others how to witness (online Graduate Catalog, 2015-2016, p. 238).

Student Learning Outcomes
In order to stimulate evangelistic church growth and health, the students, by the end of the course should:
1. Be able to apply their knowledge and comprehension of the ministry of personal evangelism, approaches to personal evangelism, and the biblical and theological aspects of personal evangelism to stimulate evangelistic church growth and health through mobilizing the church for evangelism.
2. Organize sharing the Gospel with non-Christians into their lifestyle.
3. Be able to share the Gospel with non-Christians.
4. Be able to train others in the use of various evangelistic tools for sharing the Gospel with non-Christians.

Course Teaching Methodology
This course will be composed of class lectures and discussions, periodic evaluation over course reading material, small group activities and accountability, and the personal involvement of students in local church evangelism.

Textbooks
One on One: Evangelism Made Simple. Personal Evangelism Kit. Alexandria, LA: Evangelism/Church Growth Team of the Louisiana Baptist Convention, 2008. (The kit can be ordered from LBC at: http://louisianabaptists.org/order/1on1. Cost is $33 which includes shipping. When you place your order, you will receive the first two chapters and an audio link to the PRAY Gospel presentation. The kit will be shipped the next business day.)

Requirements
1. TEXTBOOKS. Students will complete assigned readings of the textbooks according to the course requirements and schedule in this syllabus.

2. QUIZZES. A quiz may be given at any class session on recent class lectures or the assigned readings for that day. The form of the quizzes may be objective or subjective. Under no circumstances will any quiz ever be given in advance or as a make-up. At the end of the semester, students may drop at least one quiz grade.

3. THE PRAY GOSPEL PRESENTATION. Students will memorize the PRAY presentation of the Gospel. Memorization must include the verses of Scripture which accompany the PRAY presentation (students may choose which translation they desire to use). A midterm exam will be given to assess students’ understanding and comprehension of the PRAY presentation of the Gospel. Due: Midterm Exam – October 15.

4. EVANGELISM TEAM. Students will spend 1.5 hours per week for 10 weeks in a personal evangelism ministry through a local church. Each student will turn in the Evangelism Team Information Form on September 3. The team members are responsible for insuring that their supervisor views the Supervisor Training Presentation available through the Supervised Ministry website at: http://www.nobts.edu/SupervisedMinistry/SupMin1/Default.html. The Supervisor Training Verification Form should be secured and turned in on September 17. The team will also meet with their supervisor twice during the semester to evaluate the team’s ministry. The team supervisor will complete an evaluation of each student’s ministry at the end of the semester (see attached packet). Teams will turn in a Weekly Report Form of their witnessing experiences (see attached packet). All forms are available at the Supervised Ministry website. Due: December 15.
5. EVANGELISM REFLECTIONS. Students will submit two typed verbatim accounts and four reflection papers (see attached packet) from personal witnessing experiences in which the student shared the Gospel with an unbeliever during the semester. The evangelism reflections should be completed and turned in during class. Due: 1 Verbatim Account and 2 Reflections at Midterm -- October 15 at 8:00 AM; 1 Verbatim Account and 2 Reflections at Final Exam – December 15 at 9:00 AM.

6. FINAL EXAM. Students will complete a final comprehensive exam which will cover all materials presented in class throughout the semester. Due: December 15 at 9:00 AM.

Course Evaluation

Although it should go without saying, students are expected to exercise the highest of ethics and integrity in keeping with the character of Christ when completing all assignments. The grading scale and attendance requirements will be according to those outlined in the current Graduate Catalog. The value of assignments will be as follows:

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all classes. Absences of more than six hours will result in the student automatically failing the course. A student’s tardiness three times will be counted as one absence. This policy also applies to leaving early. Please inform the instructor if you will be leaving the class before the end of the period.
