Autopsy of a Deceased Church: 12 Ways to Keep Yours Alive by Thom Rainer; Can These Bones Live: A Practical Guide to Church Revitalization by Bill Henard; Taking Your Church to the Next Level: What Got You Here Won’t Get You There by Gary McIntosh; and There’s Hope for Your Church: First Steps to Restoring Health and Growth by Gary McIntosh. The total cost for the books (Amazon) is approximately $50.

Course Teaching Methodology
In coordination with the lectures, reading assignments, and class discussions, cases will be presented that involve the revitalization of small, medium, and large churches; churches in rural, small town, medium-sized cities, and metropolitan areas; churches with white, black, Hispanic, and Asian congregations; churches that have declined because of various problems; and churches that have not baptized anyone in years. Students will enhance their skills in leading church revitalization through three closely related ways:

1. Analyzing and developing solutions to different problems churches confront that hinder the revitalization process.
2. Constructing "principles for church revitalization" through case study discussions of revitalized churches in a variety of contexts.
3. Developing conceptual tools and frameworks that help make sense of church revitalization.
In addition to internet case/class interactions, students will have discussions with church leaders who have led their churches to become revitalized. This exposure to and interaction with these real-world practitioners will help "bring to life" some of the issues discussed in the readings/cases.

A. Case Report:
A major part of this course involves student reporting on the revitalization of an assigned church. During the first four weeks of class, a church will be assigned in consultation with each student by the professor. Following the assignment of a case by the professor, demographic information and an internal growth analysis of each church will be provided to the student by the professor’s associate, David, at the Leavell Center for Evangelism & Church Health at NOBTS. He can be reached at lcresearch@nobts.edu or by calling 504-816-8820. The church will preferably be located near where the student lives so that he/she will be able to make on-site visits. Using a questionnaire posted on Blackboard, each student will interview church leaders and (if possible) visit the church site and take digital pictures that can be used to develop a PowerPoint presentation along with the written report in .pdf format and either Word or WordPerfect format.

Both the PowerPoint and report file will be emailed to the professor. The case study should follow the interview and reports guidelines posted on Blackboard. The report should be at least 15 double-spaced pages. It is intended to be an analytic report of issues central to the student’s assigned case. Due date: April 25.

B. Book Reports:
Students will submit four book reports. Each report should contain a brief summary of the book. Most of the report should be an evaluation of the book in which the book’s strengths and weaknesses are noted. The report should be emailed to the professor by midnight on the Monday of the week the class is scheduled discuss the book. The report should be at least five double-spaced pages. Due dates: Henard, Can These Bones Live? - Feb 1; Rainer, Autopsy of a Deceased Church - Feb. 22; McIntosh, There’s Hope for Your Church - Mar. 14; McIntosh, Taking Your Church to the Next Level - April 4.
