Course Requirements and Grading

Student Responsibilities

1. Read syllabus carefully
2. Students will complete all reading assignments (Bible, class text and notes) following the Reading Assignment Schedule, confirmation that reading has been completed and will be submitted along with assigned questions. A penalty of 2-points per day will be assessed for late reading and questions submission.
3. Students will answer individual questions each week supplied by the class text SOT (see schedule for page and questions to answer) and post answer on Blackboard, along with stating one has completed all readings to date.
4. A book summary of K. Kitchen’s text, Reliability of the Old Testament, it must be at least 10 pages, not including the title page. Please be sure to summarize each chapter, as well as the introduction and conclusion if applicable. This assignment is due by 11:59 p.m. (ET) on Friday of Week 12 (4/15). The summary can be written as the reading is being done then collected into one coherent paper for submission. Each section should have its own heading in the paper. The major topics discussed in each section of the book should be summarized well. These are not intended to be book reviews, but summary re-statements of the authors’ work in your own words. A 5 point per day reduction for late work. Please use the following guidelines (see rubrics in Assignments): - Rubric found on BB under Information
   - Limit direct quotations from the books. Summarize the authors’ concepts in your own words.
   - Add a title page in Turabian format for Book Summary. Title page does not count toward the total number of pages.
   - With the exception of the title page, use 1-inch margins all around.
5. There will be a midterm and final.
6. Discussion Board – a series of questions are posted on DB for students to interact with, dealing with specific topics related to critical issues of the OT (based on reading). Each student will post a 250-word post followed by a 200-word reply to one other student’s post the following week. So kept current 2-point penalty reduction for each day late.
7. Research Paper
   a. A 10-page paper, double spaced, one inch margins, (Note title page and bibliography do not count, 5 point off for each page short), following Turabian format.
   b. Research paper must either: 1) address an issue in Old Testament Studies (e.g. Date of the Exodus), 2) discuss a theological concept (e.g. sacrifice), see suggested topics under Information on BB.
   c. Minimum bibliography = 8 sources, 4 of these sources must be from scholarly journals, see list under Information on BB.
   d. Research paper is due Wk. 15, Monday May 2, by midnight, 5-point reduction per day for late work, after two weeks it will not be accepted.
