Oral Exams

Congratulations to the following students who passed the Oral Comprehensive Examination:

Karla Ra (New Testament)
EK Seo (psychology/counseling)
Phillip Weaver (Christian education)

You can apply to take the oral exam when you complete course work and your guidance committee has approved your research proposal. The examination application form must be signed by the guidance committee and submitted to the ReDOC office for approval no later than 2 weeks prior to the anticipated date of the exam.

Prospectus Approvals

David Judd, “Examining Online Learning Experiences in Christian Education through a Community of Inquiry Framework”

Riddle of the Month

How do successful students navigate the PhD program?

By reading the PhD Manual and ReDOC News.

ReDOC Schedule for 2014-2015

The last ReDOC meeting for 2014-2015 will be June 3.

NOTE: IRB requests must be received by redocsec@nobts.edu no later than one month prior to the meeting at which the prospectus will be considered. See the Program Materials page for the form and details.

A prospectus to be considered by ReDOC must be reviewed by your guidance committee and 9 copies submitted through your chairperson to the Office of Research Doctoral Programs no later than one week before the scheduled ReDOC meeting.

Likewise, matters such as directed study proposals and requests to take courses at other institutions must be submitted one week before the ReDOC meeting at which they will be considered.

Also e-mail a pdf of the prospectus or directed study proposal to phd@nobts.edu. Do submit a hard copy of the directed study approval page.

Please keep in mind that final approval of your prospectus is granted by your doctoral guidance committee after you make any revisions your committee deems appropriate in light of feedback from ReDOC.

If you are required to go through the Institutional Review Board approval process for research with human subjects, your committee cannot approve your prospectus until the IRB assesses the risk to and protection of the participants.

NOTE: If you think your guidance committee has approved your prospectus but you have not seen your approval in the ReDOC News, please let us know.
GCRN Paper Contest

The Great Commission Research Network is sponsoring a research paper contest for doctoral students whose graduation will not occur before December 1, 2015. The paper should be 15-20 pages double spaced on the topic of “The Relevance of Donald McGavran’s Teachings in the Twenty-First Century.” The winner will receive $1,000 and present the paper at the GCRN annual conference at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary October 1-2, 2015 with conference fee and housing paid.

The paper is due to JMorris@swbts.edu by August 1, 2015. Winners will be notified by September 1, 2015.

Providence Learning Center will offer classes in theological German again this summer on the following schedule:

- German 1: June 1-19
- German 2: June 29-July 17

Classes meet 9 AM-1 PM Monday through Friday in HSC 202. Tuition for each session is $500.

These classes are not for academic credit. Students will not receive academic credit on a transcript, and no credit from these classes can be transferred to another institution. These continuing education courses prepare students to take the German exam administered through the ReDOC office for PhD program application or for second nonbiblical language certification for Old and New Testament majors. Students who complete a course will receive a Certificate of Completion from Providence Learning Center upon request.

To enroll, come to the first class session on Monday, June 1 at 9:00 AM. At this meeting, you will complete a registration form for the first course. After completing the first week of class, your student account will be charged $500 for German 1. Likewise, you can register for the second course on Monday, June 29. After the first week of German 2, your account will be charged an additional $500 to cover the second course.

If you have any questions or need further information, please contact Lenny Price in the Providence Learning Center at lprice@nobts.edu or (504) 282-4455, ext. 3286. To schedule a German exam, contact the ReDOC office.
