Luis Munoz Bueno in EWP Competition!

Congratulations to Luis Munoz Bueno (theology), whose paper proposal “Is God’s Goodness Alone Conducive to Economic Development?” was accepted for participation in the Oikonomia Network’s Economic Wisdom Project competition at SEBTS. He will be one of ten finalists presenting their papers on June 3 for cash prizes of $2,000, $1,500, and $1,000.

The Kern Family Foundation created the Economic Wisdom Project in 2012 to stimulate research relating faith to work and economics, thereby providing biblical wisdom for Christian stewardship in the twenty-first century. This competition parallels the Young Scholars Competition sponsored by the Land Center for Cultural Engagement at SWBTS last year.

Pray for Luis as he completes his paper!

Research Proposals Due April 1

In order to attend RDOC9303 Prospectus Development June 6-10, 2016, a student must submit 4 copies of the research proposal to the guidance committee chairperson on or before April 1, 2016. The guidance committee chairperson will enlist two division readers to provide feedback in addition to the second member of the guidance committee, and the student will need to work with the chairperson to make any required revisions before the guidance committee approves the document. A Research Proposal Report form indicating guidance committee approval and 2 copies of the finalized document must be received by the ReDOC office no later than May 13, 2016.

If you submit a proposal to your guidance committee chairperson by April 1, please notify the ReDOC office. Students with approved proposals can register for the June miniterm course RDOC9303 in the April 11-25 online registration.

April 1 Deadline for Centennial Issue of the JBTM

Faculty and alumni: April 1 is the deadline for article proposals for the centennial issue of the NOBTS Journal for Baptist Theology and Ministry. The 2017 issue of the journal will commemorate the centennial of the founding of NOBTS. Authors must hold the PhD in a relevant area.

Program Dates and Deadlines

- April 1: Research proposals due to guidance committees; Qualifying Exam applications due to ReDOC Office
- April 11-25: Research doctoral registration for summer, fall 2016
- April 15: Dissertation defense deadline
- April 29: Dissertation final copies due

Prospectus Approval

David Evans (Christian education), “What Church Characteristics Influence Selected Millennials to Attend Tennessee Southern Baptist Churches?”

Oral Exam

Congratulations to the following student who passed the Oral Comprehensive Examination:

Allyson Nance (New Testament)

You can apply to take the oral exam when you complete course work and your guidance committee has approved your research proposal. The examination application form must be signed by the guidance committee and submitted to the ReDOC office for approval no later than 2 weeks prior to the anticipated date of the exam.

ReDOC Schedule for 2015-2016

The following are the remaining ReDOC meetings for 2015-2016.

- April 13 (3/14 IRB)
- May 11 (4/11 IRB)
- June 1 (5/2 IRB)

NEW: An IRB request and a pdf of a prospectus using human subjects must be received by redocsec@nobts.edu no later than one month prior to the meeting at which the prospectus will be considered. See the Program Materials page for the form and details.

A prospectus to be considered by ReDOC must be reviewed by your guidance committee and 9 copies submitted through your chairperson to the Office of Research Doctoral Programs no later than one week before the scheduled ReDOC meeting. Proposals for research involving human subjects must be received one month before the meeting.

Likewise, matters such as directed study proposals and requests to take courses at other institutions must be submitted one week before the ReDOC meeting at which they will be considered.

Also e-mail a pdf of the prospectus or directed study proposal to phd@nobts.edu. Do submit a hard copy of the directed study approval page.

Please keep in mind that final approval of your prospectus is granted by your doctoral guidance committee after you make any revisions your committee deems appropriate in light of feedback from ReDOC.

If you are required to go through the Institutional Review Board approval process for research with human subjects, your committee cannot approve your prospectus until the IRB assesses the risk to and protection of the participants.

NOTE: If you think your guidance committee has approved your prospectus but you have not seen your approval in the ReDOC News, please let us know.
Call for Papers for the Centennial Issue Commemorating the Founding of NOBTS

Can You Dig It? The Gezer Water System Expedition 2016

May 22-June 10, 2016
$650* per week + Airfare

*Extra days: $100/day

Sponsored by The Moskau Institute of Archaeology/Center for Archaeological Research of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and the Israel Nature and Parks Authority

The Project: Participate in the excavation of an ancient Canaanite water system at Tel Gezer in Israel.

Dates: May 22-June 10, 2016. Volunteers should plan to arrive no later than May 21, and those working all three weeks should plan departures for June 11 or 12.

Cost: $1,905 for the 3-week season, or $650 per week (extra days: $100/day) + airfare. Costs cover room, board, and weekend travel. Preference will be given to three-week participants. Participants are responsible for their own flights to and from Israel. The dig will arrange airport pickup.

Weekend Travel: The expedition will arrange several field trips covering key areas of Israel. Weekend travel costs are included in the excavation pricing.

Accommodations: Volunteers will be housed in air-conditioned rooms at the Neve Shalom Guest House, with three to four persons per room.

Academic Credit: Undergraduate or graduate course credit for up to 6 semester hours is available. Additional tuition fees apply.

$650/week + airfare
