The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Purpose of the Course
The purpose of this course is to introduce the student to the field of social work and to its underlying philosophy and processes.

Core Value Focus
The course will emphasize the seminary’s current core value focus assigned annually by the Administrative Council. For the 2015-2016 academic year, the core value is Mission Focus.

Doctrinal Integrity – Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. The doctrinal statements used in our evaluations are our Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message Statement.

Spiritual Vitality – We are a worshiping community, with both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Mission Focus – We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Characteristic Excellence – What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Servant Leadership – We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us.
Curriculum Competency Addressed

This course will address the following curriculum competency:

Interpersonal relationships: This course provides the student an opportunity to develop an awareness of the worth and dignity of each person. In addition, students will consider how to utilize social work processes to enhance the well-being of individuals, families, groups, and communities.

Course Description

The student is introduced to the field of social work and to its underlying philosophy and processes. The major divisions of social work – casework, group work, community organization, and administration and research – will be discussed. The challenge to the churches and their responsibility in the community are an integral part of the course.

Student Learning Outcomes

The student, by the end of the course, should:

1. Be able to apply their knowledge and comprehension of social work to the process of serving churches and community agencies through social work ministries.

2. Value social work methods.

3. Be able to utilize social work skills in the local church and community.

Required Readings

The following texts and resources are required reading for class discussions and are to be read in their entirety unless otherwise specified.

Required Texts

Supplemental Resources

Social Work: Journal of the National Association of Social Workers.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

Reading Accountability Test
Students are responsible for reading the textbook for the course. One multiple choice test on the textbook will be available on Blackboard. The textbook may be used during the test. However, students may not share answers or discuss the test.

Helping Paper
Topic: “My Philosophy and Theology of Helping”
Include the following in your paper: your personal/professional views about helping; your attitudes toward helping; your Biblical/theological basis for helping; your personal and professional experiences of helping; your role models for helping; your recommendations for strengthening your future helping relationships.

The paper should be a minimum of 8 pages. The paper should be typed, double-spaced, with 12 point type. A printed copy of the paper should be submitted at the beginning of class on the assigned due date. [See the grading rubric attached to the syllabus for more information.]

Group Discussion
Students will participate in 7 group discussions in class. Group discussions will last 45-50 minutes. The discussions will focus on readings from the Garland textbook. Each student will be responsible for leading a group session. Students should choose questions from the end of each assigned chapter to discuss in the group. Students also may add their own questions. Grades for class discussion will be based upon attendance, participation, and facilitation. Missing more than one group session will lower a student’s score by one letter grade.
Paper on Practice Area
Each student will select a social work practice area to research. The paper should include the following information: a. Description of the field of social work practice; b. History or development of the practice area; c. Role of the social worker in the practice area; d. Clients served in the practice area; e. Primary methods of intervention used in the practice area; f. Current issues/concerns within the practice area; g. Future of social work in the practice area.

The body of the paper should be 14-15 pages. Students should have at least 12 sources, excluding textbooks, for the paper. One of the sources should be an interview with a social worker in the field of practice.

Exams
Students will complete midterm and final exams on the assigned dates.

Course Policies

Policy on Late Papers/Assignments
All work is due at the beginning of the class on the assigned day. Late assignments will be reduced by 10 points. Assignments that are more than one week late will not be accepted.

Style Guides for Assignments
Social work students should use the APA style guide for all assignments. Non-social work students may use Turabian or APA.

Academic Honesty Policy
All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Plagiarism
Students are reminded to demonstrate high standards of conduct in writing assignments and to not violate the Seminary’s policy on plagiarism in the current Graduate Catalog and the Student Handbook.
Classroom Parameters
Please arrive on time.
Turn off cell phones. Utilize laptops and other technology for class purposes only.
Respect the professor and other members of the class.
Maintain confidentiality when someone shares personal information.
Participate in class and group discussions. Students are expected to dialogue with guest speakers who come to class. In order to enhance classroom participation, the professor prefers that students not use laptops or other technological devices in class on the days when guest speakers are present.

Netiquette
Appropriate Online Behavior. Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Emergency Plan
In the event of a hurricane or other emergency, go to the seminary web site for information: www.nobts.edu. Also, students should use Blackboard to follow any announcements that may be posted. Students should ensure their current email address is updated on Blackboard.
