Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values.

1. Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. This course addresses Doctrinal Integrity specifically by preparing students to grow in understanding and interpreting of the Bible.

2. Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshiping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word. Spiritual Vitality is addressed by reminding students that a dynamic relationship with God is vital for effective ministry.

3. Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. This course addresses Mission Focus by helping students understand the biblical foundations for fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments.

4. Characteristic Excellence: What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Characteristic Excellence is addressed by preparing students to excel in their ability to interpret Scripture, which is foundational to effective ministry.

5. Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us. Servant Leadership is modeled by classroom deportment.

The core value focus for this academic year is characteristic excellence.

Curriculum Competencies

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following areas:

1. Biblical Exposition: to interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.

2. Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.

3. Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.
4. Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.

5. Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.

6. Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.

7. Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

Course Description

This second course in systematic theology introduces the student to the doctrines of the work of Christ, salvation and the Christian life, the Holy Spirit, the church, and last things. The biblical foundation and the relevant historical developments are considered in developing a comprehensive statement of Christian teaching concerning construction of a Christian understanding of each doctrine.

Student Learning Outcomes

The student, by the end of the course, should:

1. Be able to understand theological method and the doctrines of the work of Christ, salvation, the Holy Spirit, the church, and last things biblically, historically, and systematically.
2. Be able to apply theology by integrating these doctrines into a coherent, comprehensive, and consistent Christian worldview.
3. Be able to communicate these doctrines in the particular ministry calling and context of the learner.

Biblical Authority

The instructor of this course operates under the assumption that the Bible is the inspired, totally true and trustworthy Word of God. While history, tradition, and reason play no small role in the theological task, the Bible holds ultimate authority in Christian doctrine and practice. The Baptist Faith and Message (2000) provides the structure of this course’s content.

Course Teaching Methodology

The course will involve the following methodologies:

- Lectures
- Online discussions
- Written assignments
- Assigned reading
- Ministry task

Required Textbooks

Course Requirements

1. Attendance and Participation (10%)

Students are expected to participate in classroom discussion and to read all required materials prior to class attendance. The professor reserves the right to require of students a “pop” quiz to keep them accountable for required readings. Students will be required to hand in a reading report at the end of the semester.

2. Theological Reflections (60%)

Every student will give twelve 2-3 page (double-spaced, Times New Roman 12 pt.) answers to the following questions based on reading assignments in four sets of questions. In each of these assignments, students should demonstrate (1) reading comprehension of the assigned materials, (2) critical reflection on the ideas and content in the reading, and (3) the student’s ability to apply the theological content to vocational ministry. These questions are due in sets of four. Put all answers to a Question Set in a SINGLE document on Blackboard.

Question Set #1 (due 9/13) — Work of Christ (cite Erickson page numbers parenthetically in each of your answers). Read Erickson, chs. 35-38.
   1. Describe the three offices/roles of Christ’s ongoing ministry. How do we as believers continue to reflect these aspects of Christ’s work.
   2. Describe the major views of the nature of the atonement. What position do you hold and why? Use Scripture and reasoning to justify your position.
   3. Describe the different positions on the extent of the atonement. What position do you hold and why? Use Scripture and reasoning to justify your position.

Question Set #2 (due 10/15) — Salvation (cite Erickson and Witherington page numbers parenthetically in each of your answers). Read Erickson chs. 42-48; Witherington, chs. 1-4.
   4. What are the elements of the ordo salutis? What order do you put the elements in and why?
   5. Explain your understanding of the doctrine of election. Use Scripture and theological resources to explain your position.
   6. Make a case for or against the doctrine of eternal security. Use Scripture and reasoning to justify your position.

Question Set #3 (due 11/12) — Pneumatology and Ecclesiology (cite Erickson and Witherington page numbers parenthetically in each of your answers). Read Erickson chs. 39-41, 49-53; Witherington, chs. 10-13.
   8. Compare and contrast the arguments for and against cessationism and continuationism. Describe your own position.

Question Set #4 (due 12/3) — Eschatology (cite Erickson and Witherington page numbers parenthetically in each of your answers). Read Erickson 54-58; Witherington, chs. 6-8.
   10. Describe the basic millennial positions; then describe your own position.
   11. Compare and contrast exclusivism, inclusivism, universalism, and pluralism.
   12. Describe the various views on the doctrine of hell. Use Scripture to explain your own position.

The schedule below has the reading assignments and questions asked for each theological reflection.

3. Scripture Memory Quizzes (15%)

Students will have weekly Scripture memory quizzes based on a verse related to the topic of the week. I am not requiring a particular translation, but students must memorize verses from a particular English version and note on their quizzes which version they are quoting. The Scripture memory verses are listed in the course schedule down below. The same verses used in the weekly Scripture memory quizzes will be used on the final exam, so retention is crucial.
4. Final Exam (15%)

Every student will complete a comprehensive final exam at the end of the semester that covers all assigned readings, Scripture memory verses, and class lecture notes. Students are responsible for detailed notetaking, as not everything discussed in class will be on the PowerPoints made available to students.

All assignments must be submitted to pass the course. Students who fail to complete an assignment will not receive a passing grade.

Extra Credit Opportunities

1. In Defense of Doctrine Reading Report

Students who read or complete reading In Defense of Doctrine and list it in their reading report will earn one additional point on their final grade.

2. Book Review

Students may write one (1) critical book review of a book related to the course and pre-approved by the professor. Students can earn up to five (5) points on their final grade with a quality critical book review. Extra credit book reviews are due the week of the final exam.

3. ETS Report

Students attending the annual national meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society in San Antonio, TX on November 15-17, 2017 may write a 1000-word report on papers attended (at least three). Students can earn up to seven points on their final grade with submission. For registration information, please visit http://www.etsjets.org.

4. “Talking About Race” Forum

Students who attend the “Talking About Race” forum presented by the Institute for Faith in the Public Square on September 27 and write a 500-word report about the forum will receive three points on their final grade. Visit www.faith-publicsquare.org for more details.

Class Behavior

As noted above, attendance and class participation are necessary for meeting the requirements of this class. Students are expected to be attentive and prepared for each class session. Students who are engaged in private conversations or doing work for other classes may be asked to leave the class; repeat violations may result in removal from the course. Rude or disruptive behavior is also not permitted.
Laptop Guidelines

Laptops are permitted in class as long as they are used for taking notes or accessing Blackboard materials related to this particular course. Students using laptops are requested to sit in the front of the classroom for accountability purposes. Gaming, e-mail, social networking, and web browsing of any kind are strictly prohibited. Failure to heed this policy will result in dismissal from the class session; repeat violations may result in removal from the course. Any student using Facebook during a class meeting may be asked to leave the class, repeat offenders for the remainder of the semester.

Late Work

Because life and ministry happens, late work will be accepted—but not without penalty. For every day an assignment is late, five points will be taken off. No assignment over two weeks late will be accepted. Failure to submit every assignment will result in failure of the course.

Help for Writing Papers at “The Write Stuff”

NOBTS maintains a Writing Center designed to improve English writing at the graduate level. Students can receive writing guides, tips, and valuable information to help in becoming a better writer.

Plagiarism on Written Assignments

NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism. Plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. See the NOBTS Student Handbook for definition, penalties, and policies associated with plagiarism.

Remember the words of the proverb: “Whoever walks in integrity walks securely, but he who makes his ways crooked will be found out” (Prov. 10:19).
