“No Baptist holds the Bible in a higher place, and the Baptist stands alone in his historical development in his reverence for the Word of God. The Baptist has been characterized as the one to whom the Bible is the sole source of authority and the one to whom the Bible is the supreme authority. The Baptist is the one who has consistently defended the historicism and the literalness of the Bible as revealed in its own context.” The Baptist Faith and Message 2000 (Article I – The Scriptures)

The student may instead choose to analyze how the same text is treated or used in one sermon each by any three of the above preachers. This analysis will be presented by the student in-class and should be approximately twenty (20) minutes total. The student may distribute notes, outlines, media, etc. To avoid duplication the student will notify the professor of his choices. In the case of duplication it will be “first come, first served.”

Choices Due: August 26

In-Class Presentation Due: September 23
3. Introduction Paper: The student will write an introduction paper on the book of Genesis. The paper should include sections covering the following: author, date, genre, significant themes, and structure (which will also include an outline of the book). The paper is to be 12-15 pages, double-spaced and should contain adequate footnotes and a bibliography with a minimum of ten sources.

   DUE: October 14

4. Annotated Analysis: The student will submit one typed, 4-page, single-spaced (or 6 pages for students taking 6340) annotated analysis of two of the required textbooks (all three for students taking 6340), plus two of the supplemental textbooks (three for students taking 6340). Format: each one-page single-spaced analysis should give a correct bibliographic listing of each of the four (or six) books with their associated annotations that answer the following questions:

a. What is a two-paragraph (or less) summary of the book?
b. What is one (or more) helpful feature(s) of the book for preaching?
c. What is one difficulty, deficiency, or limitation in using the book for preaching?

A cover page is to be used, but do not include an intervening blank page.

   DUE: October 28

5. Sermon Series: Students will prepare a sermon series of 8-12 sermons from one of the following sections of Genesis: Chapters 1-11; 12-36; or 37-50. The student must submit: (1) a one-page overview of the entire series, including texts, titles, and 3-sentence summary for each sermon; (2) a sermon brief and sermon study notes for each sermon; (3) one sermon manuscript from a particular message in the series; and (4) a selected bibliography of resources useful for the preacher in implementing this preaching plan in a local church ministry.

   DUE: November 11

6. Preaching: Students completing the three-hour course will preach one sermon in class from the selected sermon series. The message should be 20-30 minutes in length. A single-page sermon brief will be prepared prior to the preaching experience and submitted to the professor prior to the student’s preaching; the student will retain a copy for his personal use. The student should be prepared on that day to answer questions from the class and / or professor about his exegesis, preparation, interpretation, understanding, and homiletic form. Copies of the single-page brief will be provided for each classmate by the student following the in-class discussion of the sermon. Students enrolling in PREA6240 (2 hours credit) will omit this assignment.

   IN-CLASS MESSAGE DUE: November 11

7. Peer Evaluation: Each student will complete a sermon evaluation form for each of the students who preach. He will hand it to the preacher at the end of the class period. When evaluating that day’s preacher, the student should be helpful, not hurtful; constructive rather than destructive; aware of strengths as well as areas for needed improvement; and reflect an attitude of humility and teachability at all times.
8. Pericopal Breakdown: Students taking the class for 3 hours (PREA6340) will divide the entire book of Genesis into preaching units. This will be a rudimentary document that only shows the chapter and verse divisions to be used as sermon texts. Sermon titles or outlines are not necessary. The student will email the pericopal breakdown to the professor and all other students in the class before the last day of the semester.

DUE: December 8

TYPES OF MESSAGES TO BE PREACHED:
Any of the types of biblical messages will be acceptable (e.g. deductive, inductive, biductive; dramatic monologue, narrative, etc.). However, the message should reflect a thorough exegesis of the biblical passage used as the basis, should be characterized by hermeneutical accuracy, and exhibit the very best use of the principles of effective development and delivery appropriate to the sermon-type selected. The student would also do well to select a sermon-type with which he is familiar and experienced in using. The messages must be original with the student. Messages previously prepared for other classes or preaching occasions may not be used.

Messages are to be neither less than twenty (20) nor more than thirty (30) minutes in length. Responsibility for staying within the prescribed sermon length resides with the student. Penalties will be incurred for going under or over the time designation.

SERMON BRIEF:
For help concerning form and the elements to be included on the submitted sermon brief, refer to “Guidelines for Deductive/Inductive Sermon Briefs”. The sermon brief will be submitted to the professor prior to the student’s scheduled preaching assignment. The student will retain a copy for personal use.
