Mission Statement
New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Core Value Focus
The seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. The core value focus for this academic year is Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. The doctrinal statements used in our evaluations are our Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message Statement.

Curriculum Competencies
All graduates of NOBTS are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in each of the following areas: Biblical Exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, Servant Leadership, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Worship Leadership. The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are: Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, and Servant Leadership.

Course Description
This course is designed to review specific leadership skills, which could be effectively employed in leading the women’s ministry program of a local church.

Student Learning Outcomes
By the completion of this course, the student should be able to accomplish the following:
1. Explore her own leadership style through textbook reading, class discussions, and the leadership project.
2. Examine different skills of leading and relating to others through textbook readings and the annotated bibliography.
3. Understand the unique challenges of leadership through textbook readings, class discussions, and the leadership interviews.
4. Integrate the essentials of leadership in the local church through the leadership project.
5. Evaluate personal leadership skills in her ministry context through textbook readings and the leadership project.
Textbooks
The following texts and resources are required reading for class discussions and are to be read in their entirety unless otherwise specified.

   A newer version (2014) of this book is available only as an eBook. Either will be acceptable for this course.

Course Teaching Methodology

Teaching Method. This course will utilize textbook reading, slideshow presentations, discussion board, video lecture, and interactive discovery-learning.

Units of Study. Topics will include:
1. What is Leadership
2. Biblical Foundations for Women as Leaders
3. Essentials of Leadership
4. Leadership Profiles (Components of Relationships)
5. Styles of Leadership
6. The Disciplined Life of a Leader (Self-Concept/Understanding Ourselves/Self-Evaluation)
7. Communication Skills of Leadership
8. Leadership Development (Group Discussions/Small Groups)
9. Leadership Challenges (Difficult People/Decision Making/Conflict Management)
10. Methodology for Leadership/Conclusion

Course Requirements

1. Textbook Reading. The student is expected to complete the ongoing reading assignments including textbook reading and course content, and then submit a signed statement at the end of the course, indicating what percentage of the textbooks and course content have been completed, due October 16, 2020.

2. Participate in class discussion. Participation is determined by postings and responses in the Threaded Discussions held each week. These discussions will be related to the material covered in each week's content. All students are required to post a minimum of three responses in the main discussion each week: one in answer to the presenting questions, and two in response to classmates’ postings. In order for the threaded discussion to be of maximum benefit to everyone involved, it is recommended that you stay as close to the course schedule as possible—so that everyone will participate in the discussion in the same week. Late postings will be penalized one point for each day late. Please limit discussions in this venue to the assigned topic. Students may e-mail or use the miscellaneous forum to discuss other topics with your classmates. Please note the course will close on Blackboard on Friday, October 16 at 11:59pm.
3. Develop an annotated bibliography. The student will develop an annotated bibliography of at least 10 works outside of the textbooks addressing leadership skills in the church, especially as it relates to women. Include the bibliographical information for each entry along with a 3-4 sentence description of the work, due October 16, 2020.

4. Conduct Interviews. The student will conduct two interviews with women leaders in ministry (can be a paid staff or volunteer layperson, parachurch leader, or seminary professor). Submit a typed summary of the findings from the interviews which should include but are not limited to: (1) the leader’s philosophy of ministry; (2) hints/guidelines this leader uses in program planning; (3) ways this leader develops leaders within her ministry; and (4) the ‘take-away’ or highlight of the interview. Current Turabian guidelines for title page and format are to be followed, due October 16, 2020.

5. Complete a Leadership Evaluation Project.
   The project will include the evaluation of the student’s own leadership skills and establishment of personal leadership goals. The student will evaluate herself as a leader by considering all components of the class including:
   - Leadership with church staff
   - Leadership with women in the church
   - Leadership with family

   The student will develop her own mission statement as a leader and then list specific goals for her future development as a leader. Also, the student will outline plans for evaluating fulfillment of these goals.

   The evaluation should be based on personal reflections, research from the textbooks and at least 3 additional sources, and information gained from Leadership Evaluation Forms (forms will be provided in class) completed by a minimum of two people in the groups previously identified. In addition to evaluation of leadership skills, the student will make recommendations for personal improvement of skills.

   This report should be 10-12 pages, typed double-spaced following A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations by Kate Turabian, published by University of Chicago Press, due October 30, 2020.

All assignments should be emailed to christinasebastian@msn.com, according to their specified due dates listed above.

Evaluation of Grade
This course will follow the grading system for the Graduate School:

- A = 93 – 100  15% = Textbook Reading
- B = 85-92  20% = Discussion Board Participation
- C = 77-84  20% = Annotated Bibliography
- D = 70-76  20% = Leadership Interviews
- F = Below 70  25% = Project

Writing Style Guide
Writing assignments should follow the NOBTS/Leavell College Manual of Form and Style (revised August 2019). To access this manual on the seminary website, please use the following link: https://www.nobts.edu/_resources/pdf/writing/StyleGuide.pdf.

Help for Writing Papers at “The Write Stuff”
NOBTS maintains a Writing Center designed to improve English writing at the graduate level. Students can receive writing guides, tips, and valuable information to help in becoming a better writer.

Academic Policies
Academic policies related to absences, grading scale, final examination schedules, and other topics can be found in the current online catalog: New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Graduate Catalog.

Policy for Graduating Seniors
Graduating Seniors are responsible for alerting the professor of your intention to graduate. All of your assignments must be completed by noon (12:00 PM) on the Wednesday prior to commencement exercises.

Netiquette
Netiquette refers to appropriate online behavior in Blackboard or other online discussions. Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Academic Honesty Policy
All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Plagiarism on Written Assignments
NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism. Plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. See the NOBTS Student Handbook for definition, penalties, and policies associated with plagiarism.
Late Work
An automatic 5-point deduction will be taken for work submitted after the due date. Additional points will be deducted based on the number of days the submission is late. Requirements must be received by the end of each semester or the student will receive a course grade of an “F”.
