Mission Statement

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Mission Statement of the Counseling Program

The mission of the NOBTS Counseling Program is to provide training and supervised experience in evidence-based counseling methods to help people deal with life issues in a biblically sound way and prepare students for licensure in counseling and counseling-related professions. We seek to produce graduates who have the values, knowledge, skills, and personal disposition to promote the mental health and holistic wellness of clients across diverse populations.

Course Description:

This course consists of lectures on the theory and practice of group psychotherapy. Principles relating to group processes will be examined. Various models of groups are considered, including both psycho-educational and process groups. Students will participate in groups, and each student will lead a therapy group during the semester.

Course Teaching Methodology

This course will use the following methods of instruction: reading and writing assignments, lectures, class discussion, group participation and experience, and a written exam.

NOLA2U Live

If you are taking this course as a NOLA2U Live student, please note the following attendance policies:

1. The course on the New Orleans campus will be connected synchronously via Web conferencing with Internet students. These courses will require weekly attendance at the stated class meeting times.
2. Students are only allowed to miss the amount of class time specified in the NOBTS attendance policy as stated in the graduate catalog. (See page 184 in the graduate catalog: <https://www.nobts.edu/resources/pdf/academics/GraduateCatalog.pdf>).
3. Technical issues will not be considered a valid reason for missing a class session.

Attendance Policy

Traditional: Students are expected to attend and participate in the class sessions. Any student missing more than nine hours may receive an automatic grade of "F" for the course. Three tardies will count as one absence.

Program Objectives:

- #1. Equip students to synthesize theoretical and empirical knowledge in the field of counseling.
- #2. Train students to have the necessary academic and clinical skills to obtain professional licensure.
- #3. Equip students to develop a deeper understanding of cultural diversity to enhance counseling skills.

Assignment & Description	Percentage	Due Date
Personal Assessment (Signature Assignment) At the beginning and at the end of the course, student will complete: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Self-Assessment of Group Leadership Skills. Group Leadership Knowledge Test. You will find the questionnaire on Canvas. After completing both assessments the second time (at the end of the semester), write a brief summary of your learning experience as a group leader, based on the Self-Assessment and the Questionnaire.		8/15 11/28
Reading Students are required to read all of the material according to the assignments schedule in this syllabus. Read the Groups: Process and Practice text carefully, as it will help you to prepare for participation in group activities, and it will provide information for your final exam. All reading must be completed by the date assigned in the Student Course Schedule (below).

the same organization. Examples of such therapy or recovery groups include AA, NA, OA, SA, CR, etc. At least one of the groups needs to be a 12-step group. The paper should be a reflection of your experience participating in the groups. The paper should be 4-6 pages in length and address what makes this an effective support group. Each student is to obtain 4-6 outside (scholarly) sources in order to perform a critique of the effectiveness of this particular type of group, including a biblical or theological assessment. Through your resources and your experience combined, assess the pros and cons of this type of group, the strengths and weaknesses you witnessed in the groups, leadership qualities, group setting/duration of the group, changes needed, and how well each meeting attained the overall goal(s) of that particular support group. The student should not simply give a summary of the meeting, and always remember that students should only attend “open” meetings. (Non-members are only allowed in open meetings; therefore, do not attempt to attend a closed meeting.). Also remember that you will be there to learn, not to simply “watch them.” This paper should be done in strict APA format.
Project Choose ONE of the following projects: Project 1: Students will create their own six-session group during the course of the semester. Each student will prepare a binder that contains the following information: title of the group, duration of the group, mission of the group, format of the group, content of the group, admission criteria, marketing strategy, attendance requirements, documentation of therapy, and individual session outlines. This notebook should be comprehensive in scope, thorough in its content and useable for others in the creation of the group you are proposing. Examples of groups might be a support group for divorce, grief, parenting, psychoeducational groups, etc. This binder will be a manual you could give to other counselors, and it would be all that they need to lead your group effectively. It should include all handouts, discussion topics, etc. to fully do a six-session group. Group Therapy Program Grading Rubric Project 1 (Include Copy of Rubric in Your Report) General Information (15 points) _____ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Title of the Group ● Type of Group—detailed description with resources and references clearly identified ● Purpose of the Group ● Target Population ● Format of Group—full description with justification for selection (bibliographic references) ● Admission-Criteria/Process General Policies (15 points) _____ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Completion Criteria—in detail ● Attendance Requirements, Behavior, Drug Testing, Referrals—in detail ● Documentation of Therapy—attached documents with explanation/interpretation Inclusion of the Following Documents (20 points) _____ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Letter for Prospective Clients ● Letter to Prospective Referral Sources ● Intake Form ● Declaration Statement/Group Disclosure Form ● Session Notes ● Client Evaluation of Group ● Discharge Summary Form ● Certificate of Completion 	25%	11/14

Group Participation Each student will be assigned to a small group, and will be required to serve as the Group Facilitator at least one time during the semester. Your ability to take this assignment seriously and accomplish the tasks set before you will demonstrate your level of understanding of small group interactions. Students will participate as group members in a small group activity for a minimum of 10 clock hours over the course of one academic term. (The total group participation hours may also include the time spent in group as part of completing the Project 2 option in the assignment above.) Students will be graded on participation, group skills and self-assessment. A counselor evaluation, as well as a self-assessment of group leadership skills will be used for assessment. Group members will also complete an assessment of the leader in each group session. If a student who is assigned to be a Group Facilitator does not come to class for the assigned class period, that person will receive two grades of 0 (zero) for his/her class participation score. If students who are assigned to be Group Members do not attend class for the assigned class period, each person not in attendance will receive a grade of 0 (zero) for his/her Class Participation score. Two grades may be dropped. Facilitator assignments will be handed out in class in the second week of the semester. Let the professor know if there are any scheduling conflicts between classes you are scheduled to be a leader and the days you would be unavailable for class.	20%
Group Journal Students will complete a journal based on their experience in process groups. Journal entries must be completed no later than Wednesday (of the week following the group session). All journal entries will be completed on Canvas. Each week you will write your reactions to whatever occurs in group. It should include a genuine reflection of the process and your reactions to it, not simply a listing of the activities that occurred. Additionally each week you will answer some questions related to the group process, as listed below: Group Session1: What are my thoughts about being in this group? What is my attitude about being in this group? What are my emotional reactions to being in this group? Group Session 2: What are my initial fears or concerns about being in the group? What role do I see myself and/or find myself playing in this group? Group Session 3: What is my perception or view of individuals in my group? Identify and discuss any of my personal experiences from my past that may be impacting my reaction to individuals in the group. Group Session 4: How do I most want to use time in the group session? What would I like to leave this group having learned or experienced? Group Session 5: How have my initial reactions to certain members of this group changed over time? What turning points have I seen in the group as a whole? Group Session 6: What are the most effective group dynamics that have affected me? What factors have contributed to the success of the group? Group Session 7: What effective group techniques did you use (or see others use) and what were the outcomes? What have you recognized as key events of your group sessions? Group Session 8: What were some of the more outstanding (evident) relationship dynamics within this group? What enabled your group to come to an effective therapeutic closure, or what kept your group from effective termination? Did I (when I led) use time effectively, and on the whole, did our group use time effectively?	20%	Entry Due Dates 1: 9/19 2: 9/26 3: 10/10 4: 10/17 5: 10/24 6: 10/31 7: 11/7 8: 11/14

Disabilities and Accommodations

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary does not discriminate against applicants/ students on the basis of personal disabilities. The Seminary, in voluntary compliance with the American Disabilities Act, will provide reasonable institutional accommodations, modifications, and adjustments to enable and empower students with disabilities to participate in Seminary programs and activities to the fullest extent possible. However, NOBTS cannot support accommodations that place undue hardship on the Seminary or its resources or which alter the essential requirements of curriculum and academic progress. While the seminary does not provide direct assistance to students in the form of equipment or personnel, accommodations may be made by individual professors at their discretion. These accommodations usually take the form of early access to lecture materials in electronic format and additional time to complete tests and assignments. The most efficient way to pursue such accommodations is to provide the Director of Testing and Counseling (Dr. Jeff Nave, jnave@nobts.edu, 504-282-4455 ext. 8004) with documentation of the condition for which you seek accommodation, an explanation of helpful accommodations received in the past, and a description of the specific accommodations you desire. The Director of Testing and Counseling will document your request and communicate on your behalf with the professors who teach the course(s) for which you are registered. The seminary reserves the right to consider each request for “special” accommodations on a case by case basis pursuant to the criteria enumerated above.

Diversity

The Counseling Program at NOBTS affirms the Christian doctrinal position that God created man in His own image, and that Christ died for man; therefore, every person of every race possesses full dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love. We believe the counseling profession affords our students and graduates the opportunity to be “salt and light” (Matthew 5:13-16) whatever their places of service, and that a robust appreciation for and sensitivity to human diversity is key to that end. Further, a learning environment diverse in its people, curricula, scholarship, research, and creative activities expands opportunities for intellectual inquiry and engagement, helps students develop critical thinking skills, and prepares students for social and civic responsibilities. Students and faculty benefit from diversity. The quality of learning, research, scholarship, and creative activities are enhanced by a climate of inclusion, understanding, and appreciation of the full range of human experience. We are committed to nurturing and training a diverse student body in an atmosphere of mutual respect and appreciation of differences. As a result, the counseling program is committed to diversity and equal opportunity and recognizes that it must represent the diversity inherent in American society, reflected in our local community, and aligned with the core values of the NOBTS community.

Emergencies

In cases of emergency, such as hurricanes, disease outbreaks, or other disasters, go to the seminary website (www.nobts.edu) for information. The seminary administration will post information, such as the nature of the emergency, instructions for response, and evacuation and return dates. Please check Canvas for information specific to this course. Because Canvas is available, the course will continue even if the main campus is closed. Please consider registering for the seminary’s priority text messaging service through SelfServe. This service is used only in emergencies, and will allow the seminary to deliver urgent information to you as needed.

Extra Credit

No extra credit is available in this course.

Netiquette

Netiquette refers to appropriate online behavior in Canvas or other online discussions. Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Plagiarism on Written Assignments

NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism and considers it a serious academic and ethical offense. Plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. See the NOBTS Student Handbook for the definition, penalties, and policies associated with plagiarism. See your style guides (APA or Turabian) for correct format for citation in your assignments.

Policy for Graduating Seniors

Graduating seniors are responsible for alerting the professor of your intention to graduate. All of your assignments must be completed by noon (12:00 PM) on the Wednesday prior to commencement exercises.

Late Assignments Policy for Counseling Division Courses

All work is due by 11:59 PM (Central Time Zone) on the due date listed in the syllabus. For this policy, “days” are calendar days from 12:00 AM to 11:59 PM. Work turned in one to seven days late will receive a 10% deduction; work turned in eight to fourteen days late will receive a 20% deduction; work will not be accepted after 14 days. No coursework will be accepted after the last final exam day of the semester as listed in the graduate catalog. In cases of extreme extenuating circumstances, students may appeal to the counseling department faculty for an exception to this policy by completing a form available from the Counseling Division Administrative Assistant.

Professional Conduct

Students are expected to adhere to the appropriate codes of ethics for their particular programs. Any behavior deemed unethical will be grounds for dismissal from the program.

Professor’s Availability and Assignment Feedback

The student may contact the professor at any time using the email address provided in the course syllabus. The professor will make every effort to return answers to emailed questions within a 24-hour period of time. Assignments requiring grading will be returned to the student within a reasonable period of time. Student feedback on graded assignments will be provided through the grading rubric located in the student’s Canvas Grade Book. The student will find comments in the grading rubric, as well as on graded paper assignments. The student may also email the course grader with questions regarding grading.
