

Refugee Mission Trip (MISS5399)
New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary
Church Ministry Division
Workshop March 27-April 2, 2021

Dr. Ken Taylor
Professor of Urban Missions
Office: Dodd 100
Phone:(504) 816-8015
Email: ktaylor@nobts.edu

Mission Statement

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Course Description

In this course students participate in a seminary related mission trip. Students are involved in trip preparation and engage in the mission project while on the field. Students will read and research in areas related to the people they will be working with. Students will reflect on the trip.

Student Learning Outcomes

In order to help fulfill the Great Commission, the students, by the end of the course, should:

1. Be able to apply their knowledge and comprehension of mission principles to the work of the mission trip.
2. Develop a plan to reach the target people group.
3. Value strategic concerns affecting the mission trip.
4. Be able to accomplish the following:
 - a) Participate fully in the mission trip.
 - b) Encourage others to be involved in short-term mission trips.

Course Teaching Methodology

The course will involve the following methodologies:

The prime method of this course is the experiential activities that students will be involved in. They will also gain cultural insight through interaction with other people groups. They will spend time with experienced missionaries during the trip. Students will research the people they will be working with.

Textbook

George, Sam and Miriam Adeney, eds. Refugee Diaspora: Missions Amid the Greatest Humanitarian Crisis of the World. Littleton, CO: William Carey Publishing, 2018.