Delivery Format

The course will be delivered online.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

A rubric for each assignment may be found on Blackboard in Assignment Upload. Unless otherwise indicated, assignments are due on Sundays at 11:59 p.m. CST.

1. Preparation for Class -Reading

Due: See Course Schedule

Read the assigned texts prior to class so you can actively relate to all discussions. Reading the assigned chapters is extremely important as class discussion boards will not cover all of the assigned reading material but are designed to supplement text reading and provide opportunities to process what you have read. A minimum of one to two hours of reading and studying will be needed to be prepared for each unit.

2. Exams (7.5% each = 15%)

Due: Weeks 10 and 16

You are expected to take examinations at the scheduled times. Unless otherwise indicated, exams are open book/open note. Do not make the mistake of thinking that you will be able to find all of the answers while taking the test. In fact, because of the application nature of the questions, many of the answers are not word for word in your text. You should understand key concepts, be able to apply what you have learned and have asked any questions prior to starting the test.

Tests will cover materials presented through class discussions, presentations, and assigned reading. Exams will consist of objective questions (true/false and multiple choice) and subjective questions (identification and essay/short answer). All tests will be posted on Blackboard under Assignments and available from 12:30 a.m. Monday until 11:59 p.m. CST on Sunday. The exam can be opened one time only and must be completed within the time allotted. A few tips about taking a test on Blackboard:

- Be on a computer (not a tablet or phone), “wired” to the wall, and not on Wi-Fi. You may lose connection to the exam if you do not follow this instruction.
- Do not hit the “save” button to save answers during a single-attempt test – “saving” implies that you wish to complete the test later and this is not allowed in a single-attempt test. Any attempt to do so will likely kick you out.
- Use Firefox or Chrome. Past experience has demonstrated that you should not use Internet Explorer or Safari to take exams. Why? I do not know. I only know that it is true.
- Compose your response to a short answer/discussion question in a Word document and then paste your answer into the test. By doing so you will have a copy of your answer should you get kicked out of the exam.

If you believe a question is keyed incorrectly, please send an email with the full questions, the answer you selected, why you believe your answer is the correct answer, and the textbook page or reference to support your answer. Mistakes in keying the test are possible, and you may find errors. Often, by going through these steps, students discover that what is keyed as the correct answer is, in fact, correct. This assignment is related to SLOs #1-3.

3. Jesus’ Teaching Ministry (15%)

Due: Week 3

Section I

Read through the Gospel of Luke and, for each chapter (except Chapter 1), identify at least one of teaching method used by Jesus. Develop a chart with the following categories:

- Scripture reference
- “title” of teaching incident
- teaching method(s) employed
- the targeted learner(s)/audience
- the learner’s/audience’s response.

Section II

Write a 3-page paper comparing and contrasting your findings about Jesus in Teach Like Jesus by Hunt. Submit both sections in one document. This assignment is related to SLO #1.

4. Thinking and Faith Formation Paper (20%)

Due: Week 6

Write a 5 to 7-page paper including the following elements after reading Section Two of Teaching the Next Generations: A Comprehensive Guide for Teaching Christian Formation and completing the inventories posted in Unit 3: Thinking and Faith Formation:

- a description of your learning and teaching styles (1-1.5 pages), responding to the following:
  - How do you as a student learn best?
  - How you do usually teach?
  - Which style(s) represent(s) how you learn and teach?
  - What are your strengths? Weaknesses?
- a description of your “multiple intelligences” (as described by Gardner) (1-1.5 pages)
- a description of your spiritual gifts (1-1.5 pages)
- a description of how an understanding of gifts, style, and intelligence enhance Bible teaching. (1-1.5 pages)
- a list of three things that you will do to improve your teaching based upon your readings and self-evaluation. Include a strategy to achieve success. (In other words, how will you go about it?) (1-1.5 pages) This assignment is related to SLO #2.

5. Philosophy of Bible Teaching (20%)

Due: Week 11

Write a 2 to 3-page paper in first-person presenting your basic philosophy of Bible teaching. Include at least one paragraph about each of the following in the teaching/learning process.

- Role of the teacher
- Role of the Holy Spirit
- Role of the learner
- Teacher/learner relationship
- Equipping of the teacher (ongoing)

See <https://bible.org/seriespage/3-developing-philosophy-teaching> . This assignment is related to SLOs #1 & 2.

6. Curriculum Evaluation & Critical Review: (20%)

Due: Week 14

Step 1: Evaluate one Bible lesson from those posted on Blackboard using the Curriculum Evaluation Guide.

Step 2: Write a 3-page Critical Review of your findings, highlighting strengths and weaknesses found in the curriculum. Support your critique with a minimum of three sources. The textbooks may be used as sources for the critique. Submit the completed Curriculum Evaluation Guide and the Critical Review to Blackboard. This assignment is related to SLO #5.

7. Discussion Boards (10%)

Due: Weekly

Threaded Discussion: Participate in weekly threaded discussions. These discussions are an essential component of the participation grade for the course. Your comments will be graded on their substance and thoughtfulness, and should reflect appropriate application of emerging knowledge and vocabulary in the topic area. Each posting should add value to the discussion. Adding value to the discussion would include things like an example illustrating your position, posting a website, asking question of your fellow classmates, giving a personal example, bringing in something from the textbook, videos or from some outside reading to support your opinion.

Replying to the Postings of Your Classmates: In addition to writing your own response, each unit you will post a response to at least two other students' responses. In your replies to other students you can: 1) Expand on or clarify a point made in the answer. 2) Offer an additional argument to support a position taken in an answer. 3) Suggest ways in which an idea could be more clearly expressed. 4) Identify passages where you think the writer misunderstood a concept or applied it incorrectly. 5) Disagree with a point or position made in a response.

Your contributions to the Discussion Board Topic are worth 20 points for each week for a total of 10% of your final grade. There is NO MAKE-UP option for participation in the weekly Discussion Board. You cannot complete "other assignments" or extra credit to "make-up" for not being able to participate.

The week begins on MONDAY and ends on SUNDAY. Your initial post to the posted questions(s) must be made by Wednesday at 5:00 p.m. CST of each week. Responses to other students' posts must be made by Friday at 5:00 p.m. CST. Any threaded discussion posted after 11:59 on Sunday will not be viewed by the professor or grader and will not count towards class participation for that week. This assignment is related to Student Learning Outcomes #1 and #2.

Course Policies

The following policies will serve to govern both the student and professor for the duration of this course.

Absences: You are permitted a maximum of 9 hours of absence from this course. However, participation in this course is partially based on attendance. You can't participate if you are absent.

Academic Honesty Policy: All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Assignment Formatting: Unless otherwise noted, all assignments are to be created in Turabian format. All written assignments must be Word documents, written in third person unless otherwise instructed, and created in 12 pt. Times New Roman font. PDFs will not be accepted.

Assignment Submission: All assignments are to be submitted to Blackboard by 11:59 p.m. of the due date unless otherwise indicated. Do not send files as attachments via email to the professor. For technical reasons, this mode of file transmission is extremely inefficient.

Classroom Decorum: Your participation is required for every class session. You are expected to:

- Come to the class with a constructive point of view, prepared to interact with the readings and resources related to the course topic.
- Dress appropriately and in accordance with the NOBTS Student Handbook.
- Turn off cell phones and not accept any calls and/or text messages during class.
- Use laptops appropriately during class.

Disabilities and Accommodations: New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary does not discriminate against applicants/ students on the basis of personal disabilities. The Seminary, in voluntary compliance with the American Disabilities Act, will provide reasonable institutional accommodations, modifications, and adjustments to enable and empower students with disabilities to participate in Seminary programs and activities to the fullest extent possible. However, NOBTS cannot support accommodations that place undue hardship on the Seminary or its resources or which alter the essential requirements of curriculum and academic progress. While the seminary does not provide direct assistance to students in the form of equipment or personnel, accommodations may be made by individual professors at their discretion. These accommodations usually take the form of early access to lecture materials in electronic format and additional time to complete tests and assignments. The most efficient way to pursue such accommodations is to provide the Director of Testing and Counseling (Dr. Jeff Nave, jnave@nobts.edu, 504-282-4455 ext. 8004) with documentation of the condition for which you seek accommodation, an explanation of helpful accommodations received in the past, and a description of the specific accommodations you desire. The Director of Testing and Counseling will document your request and communicate on your behalf with the professors who teach the course(s) for which you are registered. The seminary reserves the right to consider each request for “special” accommodations on a case by case basis pursuant to the criteria enumerated above.

Electronic Devices: Electronic devices may be used in class only for taking notes and other activities assigned by the professor. Other activities are strictly prohibited. Laptops may not be open during presentations unless requested by the presenter. Phones must be silenced during class time. Any student found violating this policy may be asked to leave class and will be counted absent.

Grading Scale: Your final grade will be based on your total accumulation of points as indicated under the Assignments and Evaluation Criteria section of this syllabus according to the grading scale in the current NOBTS catalog.

Late Assignments: Only under extreme circumstances, and with prior approval, will a late assignment be accepted. Late assignments will be assessed an initial 10 percent penalty and 1 percent for each day after the due date (i.e. 10/1 points for a 100 point assignment, 3/.3 points for a 30 point assignment). No assignments will be accepted more than two weeks after the original due date. Missed presentations may not be made up.

Netiquette: Appropriate Online Behavior: Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Plagiarism: A high standard of personal integrity is expected of all students. Copying another person's work, submitting downloaded material without proper references, submitting material without properly citing the source, submitting the same material for credit in more than one course, and other such forms of dishonesty are strictly forbidden. Although anything cited in three sources is considered public domain, we require that all sources be cited. Any infraction will result in failing the course. Any infraction will be reported to the Dean of Students for further action.

Professor's Absence or Tardiness: If the professor is late in arriving to class, you must wait a full 20 minutes after the start of class before you may leave without being counted absent, or you must follow any written instructions that may be given to you.

Recording Policy: Only official NOBTS recordings of class (CIV, BlueJeans, Flex, etc.) are permitted. Student recordings, including any audio and/or video recordings, regardless of the media or format, and regardless of the intended or actual use, are not permitted without prior written permission of the professor. The class will be notified in advance should any such recording be approved. This policy is intended to protect the privacy of the students.

Revision of the Syllabus: The course syllabus is not a legal contract. Any syllabus revision will be preceded by a reasonable notice to students. The standards and requirements set forth in this syllabus may be modified at any time by the professor. Notice of such changes will be by announcement in class or by email notice.

Withdrawal from the Course: The administration has set deadlines for withdrawal. These dates and times are published in the academic calendar. Administration procedures must be followed. You are responsible to handle withdrawal requirements. A professor can't issue a withdrawal. You must do the proper paperwork to ensure that you will not receive a final grade of "F" in the course if you choose not to attend once you are enrolled.

Additional Information

Blackboard and CampusNexus Student (CNS): You are responsible for maintaining current information regarding contact information on Blackboard and CNS. The professor will utilize both to communicate with the class. Blackboard and CNS do not share information so you must update each. Assignment grades will be posted to Blackboard. Helpful resources are available on campus and an important part of the seminary experience is learning how to ask for help. Asking for support sooner rather than later is almost always helpful. If you or anyone you know experiences any academic stress, difficult life events, or feelings like anxiety or depression, we strongly encourage you to seek support.
