Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College is to prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Course Description

This course takes a fresh look at the biblical role of discipleship for the purpose of equipping students to creatively explore ways to address the purpose of disciple making as Jesus commanded. Students will explore the biblical content of discipleship, the biblical mandate for discipleship, and possible contemporary expressions of “doing” discipleship in the church. Specific attention is given to the equipping of families of students to disciple teenagers within the context of the family.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to:

Cognitive:

- Explore how the Bible is our textbook to disciple making
- Describe and explain the role of personal discipleship growth

Affective:

- Discuss how spiritual disciplines are used by God to shape spiritual formation.
- Grasp the urgency of equipping parents to disciple their children

Psychomotor:

- Enlist, train, and encourage adult volunteers who will help in the implementation of a discipleship model. Build relationships with students, youth workers, and parents of teenagers.
- Articulate a vision and describe a strategy for discipleship for students and their families in the context of the local church.

Course Requirements

1. Discipleship Essay (15%)

Due: Feb. 3

Based upon the Allen Jackson article, "Theology and Youth Ministry, Then and Now" in Journal of Baptist Theology and Ministry Spring 2016 (posted on Blackboard), each student will write a 4-5 page essay entitled, "The Biblical Basis for Discipleship with Youth and Families."

After reading the text, and staying close to the biblical theme organize your essay into three parts:

- a. Information–From a biblical perspective, what did you learn about discipleship?
- b. Urgency–Based upon your reading why is discipleship important?
- c. Action–Based upon biblical information in the article as well as in your personal opinion, what should we do as a church?

2. Discipleship Essentials (20% total)

The essential elements of discipleship are

- a. Scripture Memorization Each student will memorize key discipleship passages according to the assignments in the syllabus. Students will complete a report on Blackboard concerning memorization of scripture. (4%) Due Feb. 17
- b. Personal Testimony Each student will write a 2-3 page personal testimony regarding conversion and call to ministry. (8%) Due on March 3
- c. Bible Study Preparation Each student will research a Bible study method (e.g. topical, verse-by-verse, inductive, etc.) and write a 2-3page sample study for youth and families using the selected method. (8%) Due: March 22

3. Critical Book Review (15%)

Due: November 17

Reading on discipleship is foundational to thinking about disciple making with youth and families in the church. Pick a book from the Optional Text (or present one of your choosing to the professor for approval) and prepare a critical book review. See Blackboard for “How to Prepare a Critical Book Review.”

4. Synthesis Paper (25%)

Due: December 8

Based on what you learned, write a 10-12 page paper describing your strategy for disciple making with youth and families. Include your “heroes” in discipleship, your “non-negotiables” regarding discipleship, your personal conviction for disciple making, and your suggestions for a strategy to facilitate discipleship content and relationships in a local church.

5. Exams (15%)

Due: December 12

Complete a final examination.

6. Class Participation (10%)

Each student is expected to participate in classroom interaction through the semester.

Due: Weekly.
