Mission Statement
New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary prepared servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Course Description
This second course in systematic theology introduces the student to the doctrines of the work of Christ, salvation and the Christian life, the Holy Spirit, the church, and last things. The biblical foundation and the relevant historical developments are considered in developing a comprehensive statement of Christian teaching concerning construction of a Christian understanding of each doctrine.

Student Learning Outcomes
The student, by the end of the course, should:

1. Be able to understand theological method and the doctrines of the work of Christ, salvation, the Holy Spirit, the church, and last things biblically, historically, and systematically.

2. Be able to apply theology by integrating these doctrines into a coherent, comprehensive, and consistent Christian worldview.

3. Be able to communicate these doctrines in the particular ministry calling and context of the learner.

Required Textbooks

Course Teaching Methodology
The course will involve the following methodologies: video lectures from Dr. Putman, reading, online testing, and writing a doctrinal sermon.

Course Requirements

1. Attendance and Reading Report (15%)

Students are expected to view all lectures online and read all required materials for the course. Blackboard keeps a record of how much of each video is viewed by each student. Students will submit a reading report at the end of the semester.
2. Exams (60%)—Four Tests (15% each)

Students will take four open-book, open-note exams in this course, each of which count for 15% of the student’s total grade. These examinations are timed and feature a random pool of questions. No collaboration or group work in these exams is allowed. ANYTHING from the reading, notes, or lectures is fair game for these exams, so students must do reading and viewing of lectures in advance to finish the exams in a timely manner.

In each of these exams, students will demonstrate their UNDERSTANDING of theological content (student learning outcome #1) by a number of multiple choice, true-false, and fill-in-the-blank questions. Students will also demonstrate their ability to APPLY the content of the course in essay answers that will be written prior to beginning the objective portion of the exam (student learning outcome #2).

3. Doctrinal Sermon (25%) -- Unit 15

Every student will write a 6–8-page single-spaced sermon manuscript for a doctrinal sermon (with spaces between each paragraph). Students can write on any doctrine addressed in this section of Systematic Theology II (the work of Christ, salvation, the Holy Spirit, the church, and last things).

Each sermon should contain an introduction, a main idea, explanations of the biblical text, illustrations, applications, and a conclusion/invitation.

Students who preach or teach their lesson in a church context by the end of the semester and who provide a one-page summary of their feedback can get 25 extra-credit points on the grade of this assignment.

The sermon may be a straightforward exposition of a doctrine in a particular text (e.g., the providence of God in Rom. 9) or a topical, yet text-driven sermon that traces a doctrine through a book or multiple books of the Bible. Instructions on how to write a doctrinal sermon can be found in chapter 14 of Putman, The Method of Christian Theology. A video will also be posted in UNIT 9 that goes over this content.

The sermon will be graded this way:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>DOMAIN</th>
<th>LEVEL</th>
<th>INADEQUATE (0–69 F)</th>
<th>BASIC (70–77 D)</th>
<th>COMPETENT (77–85 C)</th>
<th>GOOD (86–92 B)</th>
<th>EXCELLENT (93–100 A)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>UNDERSTANDING</td>
<td>The student shows an ability to understand the content of the doctrine taught.</td>
<td>The student fails in his or her basic understanding of the biblical doctrine.</td>
<td>The student has an overly simplistic understanding of the doctrine that fails to account for the major biblical data and historical resources.</td>
<td>The student has an adequate understanding of the theological content but does not demonstrate much critical thought in this area.</td>
<td>The student has a solid understanding of the issues involved in the content and shows good interaction with the resources.</td>
<td>The student has a superior understanding of the content and shows excellent interaction with the resources.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>APPLICATION</td>
<td>The student demonstrates an awareness of the practical implications of the doctrine.</td>
<td>The student has given no serious thought to the application of the doctrine.</td>
<td>The student has given little attention to the application of the doctrine.</td>
<td>The student shows some effort at applying the doctrine but does miss key applications.</td>
<td>The student does well in applying the content of the doctrine to the Christian life.</td>
<td>The student has great insight as to how the doctrine applies to the Christian life.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Evaluation of Grades
The student's grade will be computed as follows:

1. Attendance and Reading Report 15%
2. Exams (15% each exam) 60%
3. Doctrinal Sermon 25%

Total 100%

All assignments must be submitted to pass the course. Students who fail to complete an assignment will not receive a passing grade.

Extra Credit Opportunities

1. Writing Center Evaluation

Students who submit their doctrinal sermon (the complete assignment) to the Writing Center a week before its due date will receive a ten-point bonus on their paper grade. Students must show proof of this by attaching the email from the Writing Center.

2. Extra Credit Book Review

Students in need of extra credit can contact the professor about writing a 5–6 page book review of a book that focuses on one of the doctrinal topics covered in this course. The text must be pre-approved by the professor, and students can earn up to 5% extra credit on their overall average for this assignment.

The reviews should be between 2000-4000 words and should conform to the NOBTS style guide (linked in the Blackboard course). Because book reviews are primarily about one source, use parenthetical citations for the primary text and footnotes only for external sources.

A few questions to consider while reading these monographs: What is the main purpose or thesis of this book? To whom is this book written? Did the author(s) fulfill his or her purpose? What are some of the author's working assumptions (e.g., his or her denominational background, field of research, or view of Scripture)? Does the author provide strong biblical, philosophical, and historical support for his or her positions? Are there any points of contact between this book/writer and other texts read during the course of the semester? How might the content of this book affect ministry in the local church or ministry within your particular calling? Are there any ideas that changed your particular way of thinking on the subject matter at hand? Would you recommend this book to someone else?
• A papers (93-100) clearly state the book’s thesis, successfully and succinctly outline its argument in its own terms, demonstrate advanced critical engagement with the argument and content of the book, make clear and well structured arguments, and exhibit a proficient grasp of grammar, spelling, and style.

• B papers (85-92) clearly state the book’s thesis, show an attempt to understand the book on its own terms and critically reflect on the issues at hand, make arguments, and show sufficiency in grammar, spelling, and style.

• C papers (77-84) state the book’s thesis, present the content of the book, raise preliminary critical questions for further evaluation, limit evaluation to approval or disapproval of the author’s arguments, and make repeated mistakes in grammar, spelling, and style.

• D (70-76) and F (0-69) papers lack evidence of grasping the book’s thesis and content, limit evaluation to preformed judgments without serious consideration of the book’s ideas, contain major grammatical, spelling, and stylistic errors, and demonstrate little or no attempt to proofread.

SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY

Bird, Michael F. Evangelical Theology: A Biblical and Systematic Introduction. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2013. Bird is an Anglican and Reformed NT scholar from Australia who has written a systematic theology that integrates the insights of contemporary biblical theology into a systematic textbook.

Erickson, Millard J. Christian Theology. 3rd ed. Grand Rapids: Baker, 2013. Erickson represents a moderate Calvinistic framework. Erickson is philosophically and apologetically robust as a theologian and provides great historical content along the way. His text is the basis of many of the lectures in this course.

offers an excellent historical examination of each of the doctrines discussed. Dr. Garrett is the go-to expert on Baptist doctrine.

Lewis, Gordon and Bruce Demarest. Integrative Theology. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2010. This evangelical theology—available in one-volume and three-volume editions—integrates biblical exegesis, historical research, apologetics, and pastoral application in its discussion of every doctrine.

Williams, J. Rodman. Renewal Theology: Systematic Theology from a Charismatic Perspective. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 1996. Williams was a leading intellectual figure in the neo-charismatic movement called “renewal theology.” This is an excellent exposition of contemporary charismatic and Pentecostal theology.
