Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

The seminary has five core values.

1. Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. This course addresses Doctrinal Integrity specifically by preparing students to grow in understanding and interpreting of the Bible.

2. Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshipping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word. Spiritual Vitality is addressed by reminding students that a dynamic relationship with God is vital for effective ministry.

3. Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. This course addresses Mission Focus by helping students understand the biblical foundations for fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments.

4. Characteristic Excellence: What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Characteristic Excellence is addressed by preparing students to excel in their ability to interpret Scripture, which is foundational to effective ministry.

5. Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us. Servant Leadership is modeled by classroom deportment.

The core value focus for this academic year is Characteristic Excellence.

Course Description

The seminar is designed to involve students in researching, understanding, and communicating the Christian Worldview and its implications for ministry. Issues addressed include the nature of worldviews, the uniqueness of the Christian worldview in comparison to other worldviews, and the reasonableness of the Christian worldview. Special attention is given to issues related to communicating and defending the Christian worldview in the context of contemporary ministry. The seminar also prepares students to engage in worldview reflection in other professional doctoral seminars, the final project proposal, and the final project report.
Student Learning Outcomes

Students successfully completing the seminar will demonstrate
- foundational knowledge of the methods and tasks of Christian worldview and apologetic methodology;
- awareness of the critical significance of worldview for the church and biblical communication;
- knowledge of philosophical foundations that contribute to worldview studies;
- appreciation of various approaches for communicating to contemporary audiences;
- ability to develop strategies for communicating the Christian worldview in a variety of settings;
- commitment to attentive reading, solid research, sound reasoning, and clear and substantive writing.

Competencies Addressed

Christian Theological Heritage, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Biblical Exposition

Required Readings and Textbooks

Other Suggested Texts

Seminar Assignments

Please note all assignments may be turned in via Blackboard

Reading Schedule

The following selected chapters from Craig and Moreland should be read before the workshop: 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 31.

All other books should be read before the first day of the seminar. A reading report will be turned in stating that all reading, or what percentage of the reading, was completed. The reading report is due on the last day of the seminar.
Book Reviews
Prepare written reviews of Colson, Naugle, and Penner. Each book review should be at least 8 pages in length. The text of each review should be written (Times New Roman 12pt, double spaced, Turabian format), reflect serious study and analysis, and include the following sections:

- biographical sketch of author(s)
- author’s purpose
- author’s thesis or major arguments
- summary of contents
- significant teachings or insights
- strengths and weaknesses
- contributions to ministerial formation
- five questions related to the book for seminar discussion

The reviews are due the first day of the seminar.

Reflection Paper
Using Craig and Moreland and Penner as your primary sources, write a personal reflection paper (8-10 pages, double spaced, Turabian format) concerning how a person may effectively communicate the Christian worldview in a variety of situations. Students should consider audience, content, Bible references, and various sermonic and apologetic styles. Special attention should be given to the specific topic and audience. While sermonic methodologies needs to be considered, students should also reflect on the variety of other settings in which a Christian worldview may be communicated (debate, evangelistic events, coffee shops, etc.). The paper is due 2 weeks after the workshop.

Final Project
The final project is a paper (18-20 pages, double spaced, Turabian format) addressing the following:

Part 1: Definition of a worldview
Part 2: Philosophical and worldview trends in contemporary culture
Part 3: Communication principles and methodologies to address contemporary culture
Part 4: A sample communication in which the Christian worldview is communicated to an audience. This may be in the form of a sermon outline, debate manuscript, evangelistic dialogue, etc.

The final project should be written in Turabian format. Students may use the required books of the course, as well as others to have a minimum of 10 sources. The project is due 4 weeks after the workshop.

Evaluation

- Reading Assignments 10%
- Seminar Discussions 10%

Policy Regarding All Assignments
All assignments should be submitted in either .doc (Microsoft Word) or .wpd (WordPerfect) on Blackboard unless otherwise stated.

Policy on Late Assignments
All work is due on the assigned day and at the assigned time. The grade for late assignments will automatically be reduced by 10 points. Assignments that are over one week late will not be accepted.

Academic Policies
Academic policies related to absences, examinations, and other topics can be found in the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Academic Catalog 2016-2017.

Academic Honesty Policy
All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Help for Writing Papers at “The Write Stuff”
NOBTS maintains a Writing Center designed to improve English writing at the graduate level. Students can receive writing guides, tips, and valuable information to help in becoming a better writer.

Plagiarism on Written Assignments
NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism. Plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. See the NOBTS Student Handbook for definition, penalties, and policies associated with plagiarism.

Emergency Plan
In the event of a hurricane or other emergency, go to the seminary web site for information: www.nobts.edu. Also, students should use Blackboard to follow any announcements that may be posted. Students should ensure their current email address is updated on Blackboard.
