Textbooks

Seminar Teaching Methodology
The seminar will consist primarily of presentations by the students and the professors including student dialogue and interaction. Assigned projects will be designed to sharpen the student’s knowledge and skills in biblical exegesis and exposition, as well as sermon development.

Note: Dr. Parker will deal primarily with background and exegesis from the Book of Joshua. Dr. Nix will deal with exposition and preaching from the Book of Joshua.

Seminar Requirements

2. Each student will prepare a Background Brief on a Critical Issue or Major Theme from the the Book of Joshua. The topics will be assigned by Dr. Parker on a “first come, first served” basis. Students must contact Dr. Parker directly for the Background Brief assignment. The Background Brief is to be 6-8 pages double-spaced in length. Each student will make a 15-20 minute verbal presentation of the Background Brief during the seminar. Consult Turabian 8th edition as to format and style guide for the Background Brief. The Background Brief is due at the beginning of the seminar on August 31, 2020. PLEASE NOTE: In addition to the content assessed by the professor, this Background Brief will be graded by the Writing Assessment Coordinator as to grammar, form, and style according to Turabian 8th edition. A proper cover page, headings, footnotes, pagination, and bibliography should be included in the paper.
3. Each student will prepare one (1) Exposition from a selected text in the Book of Joshua. The texts will be assigned by Dr. Nix on a “first come, first served” basis. Students must contact Dr. Nix directly for the Exposition text assignment. The Exposition must reflect use of the two required textbooks plus two (2) other books from the Bibliography. Footnotes from the texts should be in Turabian form. The Exposition is to be 10-12 pages double-spaced in length. Each student will make a 20-25 minute verbal presentation of the Exposition during the seminar. The paper and its presentation should include key homiletical points for the expository preaching of your passage. The Exposition is due at the beginning of the seminar on August 31, 2020.

Note about Exposition from Dr. Nix: Exposition is presenting, explaining, or expounding a text of Scripture, usually involving commentary and interpretation. You explain, argue, apply and illustrate the material at hand. You are to use as references the two assigned commentaries and at least two additional commentaries. Make for certain that any direct quotes are footnoted. Also, be sure to include your interpretation of the textual material. Do not simply repeat what is stated in the commentaries. Use the commentaries for the foundation, but also tell the listeners how you interpret the text and how it can apply to their lives. You can choose to do either a verse by verse exposition format, or take the passage as a whole. Illustrations can be employed, but they should not be lengthy. Make sure you develop as fully as possible the assigned text. Consider the following: If a person was completely unfamiliar with that passage of Scripture and he read your Exposition, when he finished, would he be able to understand that text, what it meant in its context, and how it applies to his Christian journey now?

Choose One (1) of the following options:

Option 1: A combination Exegesis and Exposition paper of Joshua chapters 23 and 24. The paper should also include a full sermon manuscript of a selected text from Joshua 23 or 24. The length of the sermon manuscript should not involve more than 7 pages of the document.

Option 2: Select 10 Theological Concepts from the Book of Joshua and give a 1 to 2 page reflection for each concept. Cite the references from the Book of Joshua where the theological concept is located. (Example: Sin and Its Consequences is a theological concept – sin of Achan’s family – one or more references in the Book of Joshua that address the concept).
