Mission Statement

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Course Description

This course guides students to understand learning theory, comprehend curriculum design principles, and apply advanced teaching practices. Students will be expected to write lesson plans, evaluate curriculum and articulate a curriculum mapping strategy. Students will be expected to examine and apply advanced pedagogical and andragogical practices.

Student Learning Outcomes

By the completion of the course, each student will be able to demonstrate...

1. Knowledge and understanding of principles of learning by explaining each Level of Learning in the Taxonomies of Bloom, Krathwohl, and Simpson.
2. The ability to evaluate curriculum critically by assessing standardized curriculum for content and construction using an assessment rubric.
3. The ability to write appropriate instructional objectives by including knowledge, understanding, and behavioral outcomes in lesson plans and curriculum
4. The ability to assess learning by selecting appropriate assessment procedures to evaluate targeted outcomes.

Course Teaching Methodology

Students will engage in class discussions, curriculum assessments, and individual learning assignments. The seminar meets on the main campus but is available through NOLA2U.

Course Requirements

All papers should be double-spaced and formatted according to the NOBTS Style Guide <https://www.nobts.edu/resources/pdf/writing/styleguide.pdf> and the 8th edition of Turabian (footnotes, headings/subheadings, margins, pagination, cover page, etc.)

Prior to Seminar

- 1. Curriculum Assessment and Report. Review and report the curriculum currently used in the Bible teaching or discipleship program for your church or ministry. Complete this assignment prior to reading any textbooks. An assessment should consider the following questions. What is the foundational philosophy or strategy? What criteria are used to select the curriculum? Who is responsible for choosing the curriculum? How does the curriculum support the church and/or denomination? The report should not be limited to these questions but include information pertinent to the seminar. Due: Sept 1, 2021
- 2. Learning Style Inventories. Complete assessments prior to the seminar. Take all learning style inventories posted in Blackboard. Write a 1-page report of your inventory results. Bring your report to the seminar and be prepared to discuss your results. Due: Sept 30, 2021

3. Read these Assigned Texts in their entirety.

Estep, James R., M. Roger White, Karen L. Estep. Mapping Out Curriculum in Your Church.
Newton, Gary. Heart Deep Teaching.
Pazmino, Robert W. Basics of Teaching for Christians.

4. Read Designated Portions of these Assigned Texts.

Linhart, Terry, ed., Teaching the Next Generation.
Yount, William. Created to Learn

5. Respond to Textbook Questions. Answer selected questions from selected chapters in the texts. (Questions are posted in Blackboard) Respond to each question with a brief paragraph (3-5 sentences). Due: October 3, 2021

During the Seminar

6. Lesson Aims (Writing Instructional Objectives). Students will develop appropriate lesson aims (instructional objectives) corresponding to the desired outcomes of a teaching experience or professional project.

7. Learning Activities. Students will choose or create learning activities appropriate for achieving the learning outcomes identified in their instructional objectives. Activities will be suggested and modeled during the seminar.

8. Prescribing Assessments. Students will select or develop assessments appropriate for measuring the learning outcomes identified by their lesson aims (instructional objectives.) Assessment development will be discussed during the seminar, and included in the final assignment.

9. Curriculum Evaluation and Mapping. Students will present and discuss the curriculum currently used in their church or ministry context. Assessment tools will be employed to evaluate curriculum. Principles for curriculum mapping will be presented and applied.

Following the Seminar Due:

November 30, 2021

10. Developing a Teaching Unit or Equipping Module. Students will create a complete teaching unit/equipping module (“curriculum plan”) related to a teaching endeavor or professional project, including Purpose, Rationale, Lesson Aims, Learning Activities and Assessments. The teaching unit/equipping module will include the content (explanations, questions, and discussions) necessary to lead learners to achieve the objectives.

Grading

Course Policies

Academic Policies: Academic policies relating to absences, grading scale, final examination schedules, and other topics can be found in the current online catalog: New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Graduate Catalog.

Absences: Absences are not permitted. You must see the Associate Dean, Research Doctoral Programs, for any exception to this policy.

Academic Honesty Policy: All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Assignment Formatting: Unless otherwise noted, all assignments are to be created in Turabian format. All written assignments must be Word documents, written in third person unless otherwise instructed, and created in 12 pt. Times New Roman font. PDFs will be accepted.

Assignment Grading: Assignments requiring grading will be returned to the student within a reasonable period of time. Feedback on graded assignments is provided through the grading rubric located in Blackboard. You will find comments in the grading rubric, as well as on graded paper assignments.

Assignment Submission: All assignments are to be submitted to Blackboard by 11:59 p.m. of the due date unless otherwise indicated. Do not send files as attachments via email to the professor. For technical reasons, this mode of file transmission is extremely inefficient.

Cell phones: Phones must be silenced during class time. The use of a cell phone for the purposes of texting, email or other social media is not permitted. Anyone who is observed text messaging or using an electronic device during class may be asked to drop the course.

Classroom Decorum: Your participation is required for every session. You are expected to:

- Come to the sessions with a constructive point of view, prepared to interact with the readings and resources related to the course topic.
- Dress appropriately and in accordance with the NOBTS Student Handbook.
- Turn off cell phones and not accept any calls and/or text messages during class.
- Utilize laptops and other technology for class purposes only.
- Maintain confidentiality when someone shares personal information.

Disabilities and Accommodations: New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary does not discriminate against applicants/ students on the basis of personal disabilities. The Seminary, in voluntary compliance with the American Disabilities Act, will provide reasonable institutional accommodations, modifications, and adjustments to enable and empower students with disabilities to participate in Seminary programs and activities to the fullest extent possible. However, NOBTS cannot support accommodations that place undue hardship on the Seminary or its resources or which alter the essential requirements of curriculum and academic progress. While the seminary does not provide direct assistance to students in the form of equipment or personnel, accommodations may be made by individual professors at their discretion. These accommodations usually take the form of early access to lecture materials in electronic format and additional time to complete tests and assignments. The most efficient way to pursue such accommodations is to provide the Director of Testing and Counseling (Dr. Jeff Nave, jnave@nobts.edu, 504-282-4455 ext. 8004) with documentation of the condition for which you seek accommodation, an explanation of helpful accommodations received in the past, and a description of the specific accommodations you desire.

Diversity: NOBTS affirms the Christian doctrinal position that God created man in His own image, and that Christ died for man; therefore, every person of every race possesses full dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love. We believe our students and graduates have the opportunity to be “salt and light” (Matthew 5:13-16) whatever their places of service, and that a robust appreciation for and sensitivity to human diversity is key to that end. Further, a learning environment diverse in its people, curricula, scholarship, research, and creative activities expands opportunities for intellectual inquiry and engagement, helps students develop critical thinking skills, and prepares students for social and civic responsibilities. Students and faculty benefit from diversity. The quality of learning, research, scholarship, and creative activities are enhanced by a climate of inclusion, understanding, and appreciation of the full range of human experience. We are committed to nurturing and training a diverse student body in an atmosphere of mutual respect and appreciation of differences. As a result, NOBTS is committed to diversity and equal opportunity and recognizes that it must represent the diversity inherent in American society, reflected in our local community, and aligned with the core values of the NOBTS community.

Late Assignments: Late assignments will be accepted with a penalty. Expect a 10% grade reduction for each week late. Approval to submit a late assignment must be obtained. Contact the professor to explain your rationale for a late submission.

Netiquette: Netiquette refers to appropriate online behavior in Blackboard or other online discussions. You are expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. You are expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Plagiarism: NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism. Plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. See the NOBTS Student Handbook for definition, penalties, and policies associated with plagiarism.

Recording Policy: Recordings of class, including any audio and/or video recordings, regardless of the media or format, and regardless of the intended or actual use, are not permitted without prior written permission of the professor. The class will be notified in advance should any such recording be approved. This policy is intended to protect the privacy of the students.

Revision of the Syllabus: The course syllabus is not a legal contract. Any syllabus revision will be preceded by a reasonable notice to students. The standards and requirements set forth in this syllabus may be modified at any time by the professor. Notice of such changes will be by announcement in class or by email notice.

Withdrawal from the Course: The administration has set deadlines for withdrawal. These dates and times are published in the academic calendar. Administration procedures must be followed. You are responsible to handle withdrawal requirements. A professor can't issue a withdrawal. You must do the proper paperwork to ensure that you will not receive a final grade of "F" in the course if you choose not to attend once you are enrolled.

Additional Information

Blackboard and CampusNexus Student: You are responsible for maintaining current information regarding contact information on Blackboard and CNS. The professor will utilize both to communicate with the class. Blackboard and CNS do not share information so you must update each. Assignment grades will be posted to Blackboard.

Correspondence with the Professor: Every effort is made to respond to emails and phone calls within 24-48 hours, excluding weekends. Please feel free to contact the professor(s) with any question you may have regarding this course.

Help for Writing Papers at "The Write Stuff"

This is the official NOBTS Writing Center online help site for writing academic papers and essays. <http://www.nobts.edu/writing/default.html> You will discover writing guides, tips, and valuable information to help you become a better writer. Go here for Turabian and APA style helps and guidelines. You will also find language fonts for Greek and Hebrew.

Hurricane/Severe Weather Evacuation: For up-to-date weather information stay tuned to:
