Mission Statement

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Course Description

The purpose of the seminar is to equip ministers to actively assist people in crisis. Among the crises that will be addressed are divorce, death, child abuse, neglect, adoption, children with special needs, miscarriages, infertility, abortion, drug abuse, domestic violence, alcoholism, substance abuse, and addictions.

Student Learning Outcomes

When students have completed this seminar, they should be able to:

1. Identify basic guiding principles for ministering to people in crisis at varying developmental levels.
2. Develop an awareness of crises frequently experienced by people in ministries.
3. Explore the possible roles of the church in ministering to individuals in crisis.
4. Present a ministry plan, appropriate for use in the local church that addresses a particular crisis.
5. Demonstrate an ability to implement the basic guiding principles for ministering to people in crisis.

Textbooks

Wright, H. Norman. The Complete Guide to Crisis and Trauma Counseling: What to Do and Say When It Matters Most. Minneapolis, MN: Bethany House, 2011.

Course Teaching Methodology

The course will involve the following methodologies: lecture, class presentation/discussion, and practice in developing a ministry plan.

Course Requirements

Pre-Seminar Assignments

1. Annotated Analysis. Each student will read the four required textbooks, plus three books of the student's choice on the presentation topic in assignment #2 and submit a typed (single spaced) annotated analysis of 1-2 pages per book. Format: a. bibliographical entry; b. a summary of the book; c. one (or more) helpful feature(s) of the book concerning crises that people may experience; d. one (or more) helpful feature(s) of the book concerning ministering to people in crises; e. one (or more) weaknesses of the book and recommendations for improvement.

Note: The Annotated Analysis is due on the first day of the seminar (April 27, 1:00 p.m.).

2. Crisis Presentation. Each person is to develop a presentation, 40-45 minutes in length (exclusive of class discussion time), on a crisis facing persons in the twenty-first century. Students should prepare presentation slides and handouts for the class. Guiding a discussion and responding to questions by other members in the seminar is also expected; the discussion time will be approximately 15 minutes. Presentations should be well organized with clearly stated objectives. Each student should compile a list of resources (at least 20) related to the presentation topic. The presentation slides, the handouts, and list of resources should be posted on Canvas by April 26, 11:59 p.m. [Note: Presentation and discussion lengths may be adjusted by the professor depending upon class size.]

The topic of each student's presentation should be approved by the professor. Email Dr. Osborn, bosborn@nobts.edu, with two possible topics no later than April 2. Topics will be approved on a first come, first served basis.

During the Seminar Assignments

3. Attendance/Participation. Each student is expected to attend and participate fully in the entire seminar. Because of the limited amount of class time, please plan to arrive on time and stay for the duration of the seminar.

4. Textbook Discussion. Each student will lead a discussion on assigned portions of the textbooks. Assignments will be made by April 2 and will depend upon the number of students in the class.

5. Presentation/Discussion. Each student will present the approved topic and guide the subsequent discussion.

Post-Seminar Assignment

6. Ministry Plan. Each student will develop a paper detailing a ministry plan addressing an identified crisis facing persons in his/her church or ministry context. The paper should include an overview of the crisis within the ministry context and a specific plan for ministering to people experiencing the crisis. The paper should be written in a Turabian style format with a title page, table of contents, introduction, body of the paper, conclusion, and a selected bibliography (12-15 resources). The body of the paper should be 15 pages, double-spaced. Due date: May 15, 11:59 p.m. Submit on Canvas.

If you are taking this course as a NOLA2U Live student, please note the following attendance policies:

1. The course on the New Orleans campus will be connected synchronously via Web conferencing with Internet students. These courses require attendance at the stated class meeting times.
2. Due to the short nature of this course, no absences are allowed.
3. Technical issues will not be considered a valid reason for missing a class session.

Evaluation of Grade

The student's grade will be computed as follows:

Annotated Analysis/Reading Assignments	20%
Textbook Discussion	10%
Presentation	40%
Ministry Plan	30%
Final Grade:	100%

Attendance Policy

Intensive and Weekend Hybrid Classes: Students are expected to attend and participate in the class sessions. Because of the nature of the intensive, students who miss any portion of the class may receive a grade of "F" for the course.

Late Assignments: Due to the brief nature of this seminar, no late work will be accepted. Please make sure to get your assignments in on time in order to complete the course successfully.
