Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

The following learning activities and assessments are to be completed as described below by the scheduled dates. All written assignments will be submitted through Blackboard.

Course Assignments

Before the Seminar

1. Church Ministry Analysis: Each student will analyze either his/her current church or a prior church in which he/she is/was active with regard to the church's practice of Christian education. Specific attention is to be given to the church's development and implementation of the theological rationale for the educational ministry (including Sunday School, small groups, discipleship groups, age group gatherings, mission organizations, or other education programs.) Assessment of the Christian education model followed by the church/ministry and its ministry is to be provided. The educational ministry of the church is also to be evaluated with regard to: 1) biblical integrity, 2) theological soundness, 3) implementation of the four functions of the church, 4) budget allocation, and 5) value to the church. The analysis should be a total of eight complete pages. Be prepared to present your analysis to the class and answer questions from the class during the seminar. Submit through Canvas no later than March 8, 2026.
2. Ten Questions from Textbook Readings: Students will read the assigned textbooks prior to class and be prepared to present and defend stated approaches to church assessment and strategies for growth and/or health during class discussion. Prior to the seminar, using the textbook readings, each student will write a definition of Christian Education and explain the relationship of Christian Education to discipleship and spiritual formation (at least two paragraphs describing the relationship with no more than one page). Students will also generate a list of 10 questions from the reading assignments. Proposed questions should reflect significant concepts addressed in the texts and the implications for various ministry contexts. Submit both the definition of Christian education and the ten questions. Students will present and defend their definition of Christian Education to the class. Submit through Canvas no later than March 8, 2026.

3. Book Summary: Each student will complete a four-page summary and review of a specific assigned textbook (one of the practitioner resources) using a template supplied by the professor. Copies will be provided to all seminar participants via Canvas. Students will be expected to lead a class discussion regarding the contents of the assigned text. Assignments will be made by February 1, 2026.

Each summary should include a brief summary of the book, key ideas and principles, strengths and weaknesses of the author's position, points of agreement and disagreement. The application insert should be related to the student's personal ministry context and should identify at least five potential application points. Headlines and bullet points should be cited on the reverse side with adequate space for notes by class members. Summaries should be available online but be prepared to distribute copies to other participants in the seminar. Submit through Canvas no later than March 8, 2026.

4. Resource Review: Examine resources linked to Baptist state conventions, Lifeway, and other Christian education sites that you may discover. Identify at least five tools, training venues, or planning manuals that are available and that you would consider using for your church or ministry. Summarize these resources on a one- or two-page list and submit through Canvas. Students will discuss their findings and provide a rationale for use and a recommendation to others in the class. Chapter (s) assignments will be made by February 1, 2026. Submit through Canvas no later than March 8, 2026.

During the Seminar

5. Textbook Presentation and Discussion: Each student will present the key ideas, theological framework, and practical applications addressed in an assigned textbook chapter(s). Students will make their chapter(s) summary available through Canvas and be expected to lead a class discussion regarding the contents of the assigned material. The professor will send individual assignments via email before class.
6. Seminar Participation: Students are expected to be active participants in all sessions of the seminar. Note: The seminar actually begins with the receipt of the syllabus and continues until all assignments are completed and submitted. The seminar does not consist only of the class time component.

Following the seminar

7. Theological Rationale Paper: Each student will prepare a four-page paper presenting a theological rationale for Christian education. The purpose of the paper is for the student to demonstrate the theological rationale and foundation for the practice of Christian education in a local church or ministry setting. (For a guide, reference Chapter 3 in Practicing Christian Education). Due through CANVAS on April 27, 2026.

8. Annotated Bibliography: Create an annotated bibliography of sources that inform the philosophy and strategy for Christian Education in your church or ministry. Each entry should be a 4-6 sentence single-spaced paragraph. A minimum of twelve (12) sources including course textbooks should be cited. Each annotated bibliographic entry should contain the correct format Turabian format. Each annotation that follows should contain your appraisal and considerations of the text, not just a synopsis of the text. Due through CANVAS on April 27, 2026.
9. Abbreviated Strategic Ministry Plan: Each student will prepare an abbreviated strategic ministry plan for his/her church or ministry situation. Instructions will be provided during the on-campus portion of the seminar with regard to the scope and length of the report. It is anticipated that the paper will follow a format created from a synthesis of the presented material. Due through CANVAS on May 11, 2026.
