Mission Statement

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

We are here not merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Course Description

In this course, students will become familiar with key principles related to church planting. Emphasis will be given to the biblical basis of church planting/replanting, the motivation for church planting/replanting, and factors making for effective church planters/replanters. Various models of church planting will be addressed as well as factors effective in the growth of new churches. Students will also be introduced to the respective church planting strategies of the North American Mission Board and the International Mission Board.

Course Teaching Methodology

The course will involve the following methodologies:

A variety of teaching methods will be utilized such as class presentations by the professor using Power Point and handouts. Other teaching methods include small and large group discussion, group projects, multi-media presentations, utilization of missions related websites, and other communication mediums. A Blackboard shell for the class will be utilized extensively as a resource for students. Students will be expected to be thoroughly prepared for class discussions through readings and the Blackboard weekly unit supplements.

Student Learning Outcomes

To help fulfill the Great Commission, the students, by the end of the course, should:

1. Students will develop a working definition of biblical church planting.
2. Students will explore a variety of leadership principles.
3. Students will examine the role of prayer in church planting leadership.
4. Students will explore the role of leadership in multiplication.
5. Students will consider foundational concepts and principles for healthy leadership in church planting.
6. Students will develop a personal philosophy and integration of biblical leadership in their ministry setting.
