New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Course Description

This seminar is designed to address the issue of discipleship development in the contemporary church. Emphasis will be placed on identifying biblical descriptions of a disciple and strategies for making disciples. Students will discover, analyze, and develop tools to evaluate the various stages of disciple development in their churches and produce a strategy for moving people to the next step. Students will engage in research, development testing, administering, and interpreting an assessment instrument; book reviews; strategy planning; and creative presentation.

Student Learning Outcomes

At the conclusion of the seminar students should be able to:

1. Identify and support a biblical definition of a disciple.
2. Catalog biblical processes for making disciples.
3. Discover and evaluate contemporary assessment instruments designed to measure congregational discipleship stages.
4. Assess the spiritual development of the congregation she/he serves.
5. Chart the course for disciple-making in his/her congregation.

Textbooks

NOTE: Review the list of assignments before purchasing textbooks. Not all textbooks will be required by each participant in the class. Each participant will be assigned an additional book for review and presentation during the seminar.

The following book will be used as a strategic framework during the class. Become familiar with the specific elements of the strategy process.

Seminar Requirements

Before the Seminar

- 1. Definition and Strategy. Students will read the Malphurs text and respond to selected questions from each chapter. The list of questions for each chapter will be available in Blackboard by March 13, 2021. Particular attention should be given to answering two important questions: (1) "What" is a disciple? (2) How do you make one? The report does not have to be in Turabian format but should include a header with Name, Course, Date and Assignment. (see sample in BB) 1.5 spacing is acceptable. Answers should be complete. Due Date: Submit through the Assignment area in Blackboard by May 2, 2021.
- 2. Talking Points. Each Student will read and identify at least seven talking points (key ideas, observations, insights, criticisms, etc.) from each of the four core textbooks. Include a complete bibliographic entry and talking points for each book. Accompany each talking point with 3-4 explanatory sentences. Use parenthetical citations as appropriate. A cover page is not necessary; however, you must identify your work with a header including your name, assignment, date, course name. Be prepared to discuss textbooks in class. All textbooks will be discussed during the seminar. Submit through the Assignment area of Blackboard. Due: May 2, 2021.
- 3. Book Summary: Each student will complete a summary and critical review with application of an assigned book. Students are expected to create a four-page summary using the template supplied by the professor and available in Blackboard. Each summary should include a brief summary of the book, key ideas and principles, strengths and weaknesses of the author's position, points of agreement and disagreement. The application portion of the summary (pages 5-6 of the template) should be related to the student's personal ministry context and should identify at least five potential application points. Headlines and bullet points should be cited on the reverse side with adequate space for notes by class members. Each student will be expected to present his book reviews to the class. Due Date: Summaries are to be submitted in the assignment area and posted in the designated Discussion Board thread in Blackboard by May 2, 2021.

4. Curriculum Review. Each student will conduct a search of current discipleship curricula and select one for a review. The final curriculum choice should be approved by the seminar instructor(s). Please email Dr. Stewart for approval before beginning your work (jsherrer@nobts.edu). First come, first served with curriculum selections. Review the curriculum using the following criteria: biblical integrity, objectives, content, delivery method, appeal, reproducibility (not copying but process), and leader training. The review will be submitted through Blackboard and made available to all students through the Discussion Board. Pictures can be added for emphasis and communication. Brief summaries, lists and bullet points are encouraged. Dedicate one segment to a general criticism. Each student will be expected to make a brief presentation to the class. Preparations should be made prior to the seminar as no time will be allocated. Due Date: In addition to submitting the curriculum review in the Assignment portion of Blackboard for evaluation, reviews are to be posted in the Discussion Board in Blackboard for access by other students by May 2, 2021. Generate a thread, introduce the review with a paragraph and attach the document.
5. Disciple Making Assessment. Students will conduct a survey of their congregation (entire congregation or representative sample) using the survey questions in Appendix D of Strategic Disciple Making. Student will write a brief report (1-2 pages single spaced) of their findings to be presented during the seminar. Due Date: Submit through Blackboard by May 2, 2021.

During the seminar

6. Seminar Participation: Students are expected to be active participants in all sessions of the seminar. Students are expected to contribute with meaningful dialogue during the seminar. Seminar Presentations: Each student will be expected to make two presentations (assignments 3 & 4) during the seminar.

Note: The seminar actually begins with the receipt of the syllabus and continues through the material completed after the three-day component. The seminar does not consist only of the three-day session time component.

Following the seminar

7. Application of Disciple-Making Strategies. Each student will evaluate his current church or ministry setting utilizing the ideas and principles discovered and discussed during the seminar. In this post-seminar assignment, the student will present possible strategies and implementation plans for their church or other ministry context. Evaluation will be approximately 6-7 pages, double-spaced, written according to the most current Turabian edition regarding footnotes, headings/subheadings, margins, pagination, cover page, etc. The Application Paper will be evaluated by the Writing Assessment Coordinator for re: grammar, writing style, and Turabian formatting. Please email the assignment, in a Word document, to pgarrett@nobts.edu. She will evaluate the document by inserting comments and email the edited document back to the student. After revising and correcting the assignment, upload into Blackboard.

Due Date: June 12, 2021.

The Transformational Discipleship Assessment (TDA) provides individuals or groups with the ability to assess their current status in eight different areas of discipleship. Knowing where you are is the first step toward taking proactive steps in your discipleship.

The Transformational Discipleship Assessment (TDA) is an online assessment that can be purchased for an individual, small group, Sunday School class or even an entire church (bulk pricing available). If purchasing for a group, change the quantity of TDA assessments to match the number of individuals who will be taking the assessment and the price per assessment will be calculated automatically. When you complete your purchase, there will be an "activate membership" link that will appear on the confirmation. Click that link and it will show you your passcode and where to go to register.
