Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Emphasis

Doctrinal Integrity – Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. The doctrinal statements used in our evaluations are our Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message Statement.

Spiritual Vitality – We are a worshiping community, with both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Mission Focus – We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Characteristic Excellence – What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Servant Leadership – We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us.

Annually, the President will designate a core value that will become the focus of pedagogy for the year. For 2019-2020 academic year that Core Value is Spiritual Vitality.

Course Description

This workshop is an overview of the professional doctoral programs and an introduction to research writing. It is designed to guide students into intentionally planning their entire program and to orient them to research/writing skills in preparation for their remaining seminar work and the project in ministry. This workshop must be taken during a student's first trimester in the program.

Course Methodology:

1. Presentation. The professor and guest lecturers will guide the students to an understanding of the basic principles of both the NOBTS Professional Doctoral Programs and basic research writing skills.
2. Group Discussion. Students will dialogue about the Professional Doctoral Programs and their relationship to their respective ministries.
3. Individual Assignments. The students will complete assignments related to the philosophy of the Professional Doctoral Programs, research writing, and the study of Turabian as a stylistic guide.

Student Learning Outcomes

At the conclusion of the course the student should be able to:

1. Clearly explain the NOBTS Professional Doctoral Programs.
2. Discuss rationally goals for his/her D.Min. or D.Ed.Min. program and explain how those goals fit into his/her present ministry and future ministry plans.
3. Describe in detail a plan to complete his/her D.Min. or D.Ed.Min. program.
4. Effectively utilize Turabian (8th ed.) as a stylistic guide for research writing.
5. Demonstrate basic writing skills.

Course Requirements:

1. Program Handbook Reading: Each student will read thoroughly the Doctor of Ministry Handbook or the Doctor of Educational Ministry Handbook (whichever is applicable) and be prepared to discuss it during all workshop sessions. The handbooks may be downloaded from the ProDoc website (www.nobts.edu/cme). A statement that the student has completely read the handbook must be included with assignment #4.

2. Discussion of Turabian: Each student will study and be prepared to discuss selected chapters (15-20, 25) in A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations. Students should be prepared for this assignment at the beginning of the first workshop session.

3. Craft of Research Report: Following Turabian guidelines each student will write a 3-5- page (typed, double-spaced) report on The Craft of Research. Students should provide a brief summary of the five major parts of the book, a discussion of the nature of research, and a discussion of ways the book will be helpful in seminars, workshops, and the Project in Ministry.

The Craft of Research Report is due the first day of the workshop. You will post the paper in Assignments (in Blackboard). Do not use chapter headings but instead use subheads (Turabian A.2.2.4).

Note: Copies of materials related to research writing and using the Turabian format are available on the ProDoc website Resources page.

4. Intentional Plan for Completing the Degree: Each student will submit a 4-6 page (typed, double-spaced) paper describing an intentional plan for the completion of the Professional Doctoral Program. Components of the paper should include: (1) the relationship of the program and your specialization to current and future ministry; (2) two to three personal growth goals; (3) some seminars you might like to take and a rationale for each; (4) some specialized directed studies (if any) you might like to develop and a rationale for each; (5) two to three possible project in ministry ideas; and (6) a tentative time schedule for anticipated completion of the program.

First person may be used, but otherwise the Turabian guidelines should be followed. Do not use chapter headings but instead use subheadings (Turabian A.2.2.4). The Intentional Plan is due the first day of the workshop in hard copy. A statement that the student has read the entire handbook should accompany this assignment.

5. Post-Seminar Assignment: The professor will give a post-seminar assignment at the seminar, which will include instructional segments to enhance academic writing. The modules will be available in Blackboard at the completion of the workshop. You are expected to complete all of the modules to before a grade will be assigned.

Course Evaluation:

An evaluation of PASS or FAIL is granted for all Professional Doctoral workshops and will be determined jointly by the professors using the following criteria:

1. The student completes all course assignments according to schedule and in a manner reflective of doctoral-level work.
2. The student attends and actively participates in all workshop sessions with a positive and enthusiastic attitude.
3. The student demonstrates a grasp of the make-up of the Professional Doctoral programs and a working knowledge of basic research writing skills.
4. NOTE: Some students who demonstrate inadequate research writing skills may be required to get additional help prior to the project in ministry stage of their program.

Blackboard

Note to All Students: Blackboard instructions are included in the overview presentations. You may enroll yourself in the class before or during the overview workshop. Pre-assignments will be submitted the first day of class. Post-assignments should be submitted through Blackboard. Enrollment instructions can be found at the following website.
