

Financial Aid for Full-Time Students

Extension center students are eligible for NOBTS financial aid as long as they are full-time students. Full-time for extension centers is considered two classes. The classes must either be at the extension or Saturday classes or hybrid courses to count toward full-time status.

Workshops, independent studies, and internet classes do not count toward full-time status. For more information about financial aid from the seminary, please call 504-282-4455 ext. 3348, email financialaid@nobts.edu, or visit www.nobts.edu/financialaid.

Financial Aid for Mississippi Students

The Mississippi Baptist Foundation is still providing tuition assistance to our students. Extension center students are eligible for MBF financial aid as long as they are full-time students. Full-time for extension centers is considered two classes. The classes must either be at the extension or Saturday classes or hybrid courses to count toward full-time status. Workshops, independent studies, and internet classes do not count toward full-time status. For more information about MBF scholarships, please visit www.ms baptist foundation.org.