Exegetical Embedded Assignment Due |

Exegetical Embedded Assignment (Due May 13)
Details:
- The student will write a 4-page, single-spaced paper with the following four elements:
  Translation and location of specified Greek verbs in the text (see class handout). Use the class handout for a hardcopy of this assignment, available on the class webpage.
• Two word or phrase studies in the grammatical structure of the text (1 page each = 2 total pages)
• Application derived from the above exegesis to a contemporary ministry context (sermon brief, or teaching outline, or an explanation of the application, etc., 1 page)
• Attach a bibliography to the paper of resources consulted

Extra Credit Reading
The student may earn a maximum of three (3) points extra credit to be added to the final average by reading the book Linguistics for Students of New Testament Greek by David Alan Black and writing a two page, single spaced critique of the book. The critique must be turned into the professor by last class period. For every day that the critique is late, one point will be subtracted from the extra credit. Points also will be deducted for critiques that are poorly written (bad grammar, etc.). By turning in a critique the student affirms that he/she has read the entire book.
