Dissertations Due March 1

If you are planning to submit your dissertation by March 1, please let the ReDOC office know if you have not already done so (e-mail is fine). The Program Materials page has all the necessary information:

- Dissertation Fee and Order Form
- ProQuest agreement
- Copyright, abstract, vita formats
- Dissertation Processing Notebook
- ThM/PhD Graduation Application

All parts of the dissertation should be submitted by the deadline, including dedication and acknowledgments, if any.

Applications to receive the ThM only are due by February 15. Students planning to submit dissertations can apply for graduation as late as March 1.

LifeWay is in the process of changing regalia providers. Rental and purchase forms are linked on the Program Materials page under Graduation.

Oral Exams

Congratulations to the following students who passed the Oral Comprehensive Examination:

- Nolan Helder (Christian ed.)
- Christina Sebastian (Christian ed.)

You can apply to take the oral exam when you complete course work and your guidance committee has approved your research proposal. The examination application form must be signed by the guidance committee and submitted to the ReDOC office for approval no later than 2 weeks prior to the exam.

Note: Your guidance committee cannot allow you to submit the prospectus to ReDOC until you pass orals.

ReDOC Schedule for 2018-2019

The following are the ReDOC meetings for 2018–2019:

- March 13 (2/13 IRB; summer directed studies)
- March 25—Doctoral Admissions (DeMent Room, 9:00 a.m.)
- April 10 (3/11 IRB)
- May 8 (4/8 IRB; fall directed studies)
- June 5 (5/6 IRB)

An IRB request and a pdf of a prospectus for research using human subjects must be submitted to the guidance committee chair, who must forward them to redocsec@nobts.edu, indicating permission to proceed, no later than one month prior to the meeting at which the prospectus will be considered. See the Program Materials page for the form and details.

A prospectus to be considered by ReDOC must be reviewed by your guidance committee and 10 copies (double-sided printed is allowed) submitted through your chairperson to the Office of Research Doctoral Programs no later than one week before the scheduled ReDOC meeting. Prospectuses for research involving human subjects must be received one month before the meeting.

Likewise, matters such as directed study proposals and requests to take courses at other institutions must be submitted one week before the ReDOC meeting at which they will be considered.

Also e-mail a pdf of the prospectus or directed study proposal to phd@nobts.edu. Do submit a hard copy of the directed study approval page.

If your research involves human subjects, you must go through the Institutional Review Board approval process. Your guidance committee cannot approve your prospectus until (1) the IRB assesses the risk to and protection of the participants; (2) you submit your revised prospectus, consent form, and IRB request; and (3) the IRB approves your treatment of human subjects as reflected in these documents. You cannot contact study participants before approval of both the IRB and your guidance committee. IRB approval is valid for two years.

The maximum length for the prospectus is 30 pages of text plus the selected bibliography.

NOTE: If you think your guidance committee has approved your prospectus but you have not seen your approval in the ReDOC News, please contact the ReDOC office.

Research Proposals Due to Guidance Committees by April 1

In order to attend RDOC9303 Prospectus Development June 3-7, 2019, a student must submit 4 copies of the research proposal to the guidance committee chairperson on or before April 1, 2019. The guidance committee chairperson will enlist two division readers to provide feedback in addition to the second member of the guidance committee, and the student will need to work with the chairperson to make any required revisions before the guidance committee approves the document. A Research Proposal Report form indicating guidance committee approval and 2 copies of the finalized document must be received by the ReDOC office no later than May 17, 2019.

If you submit a proposal to your guidance committee chairperson by April 1, please notify the ReDOC office. Students with approved proposals can register for the June miniterm course RDOC9303 in the April 1-15 online registration.

American Baptist Historical Society

Calls for Papers

American Baptist Quarterly (ABQ) is the peer-reviewed journal of the American Baptist Historical Society. Both established and emerging scholars are invited to submit papers written from original research. Articles and essays should be between 6,000 and 10,000 words. If you are interested in submitting a paper for one of the upcoming issues, please contact editor Curtis Freeman (CFreeman@div.duke.edu) as soon as possible.

The following are proposal deadlines and issue themes:

March 1 Celebrating Women in Ministry: biblical, theological, and historical reflections, upon the occasion of the 40th anniversary of American Baptist Women in Ministry

June 1 On Foreigners and Neighbors: biblical, theological, ethical, and historical perspectives on immigration and hospitality

June 1 Baptists in Rhode Island

Torbet Prize

The American Baptist Historical Society announces a Call for Papers for the Torbet Prize. This $500 award is given yearly for the best essay in any area of Baptist History. Each year ABHS seeks essays from authors who have not already been published in a major scholarly work. The Research and Publication Committee will be the judges, and the winning essay will be published in an upcoming issue of the American Baptist Quarterly.

Entries should be no more than 7,500 words with sources cited following the Chicago Manual of Style. Send entries to ABHSooffice@ABHSarchives.org. The deadline for the next award is September 1, 2019. See e-mail blast for more information.

Mercersburg Society Roth Prize

The Mercersburg Society is offering a Roth Prize for the best student paper on any historical or contemporary topic related to Mercersburg theology. The winner of the $750 award will be invited to present the paper at the June 2019 Mercersburg Society Convocation, and the paper may be published in the New Mercersburg Review.

According to Anne T. Thayer, Diefenderfer Professor of Mercersburg and Ecumenical Theology and Church History at Lancaster Theological Seminary in Lancaster, PA, “Mercersburg Theology developed in the German Reformed Church in the mid-19th century under the leadership of John Williamson Nevin and Philip Schaff. They took the incarnation as their theological starting point and went on to stress the importance of the universal Church as the body of Christ organically developing through history. . . . Students taking courses in Theology, Church History, American Christianity, or Worship might well find the Mercersburg tradition a fruitful topic for in-depth study.”

Papers should be submitted to Dr. Thayer at athayer@lancasterseminary.edu by May 20, 2019.

Can You Dig It? Tel Hadid Expedition 2019

June 2-27, 2019
