REDOC NEWS

JANUARY 2020

VOLUME 22, ISSUE 6

Presidential Inauguration January 30

On Thursday, January 30, 2020, Dr. Jamie Dew will be sworn in as the ninth president of NOBTS. Events will include

- 11 a.m. inauguration chapel led by SBC Executive Committee president Dr. Ronnie Floyd
- 2 p.m. reception at HSC
- 7 p.m. inauguration ceremony in Leavell Chapel
- 9 p.m. dessert reception in HSC

Guests from sister seminaries and other SBC entities will be in attendance, and NOBTS artifacts from the Baptist Bible Institute's beginning will be on display.

Come join with your NOBTS family in celebrating God's ongoing goodness to us!

Serve Day Tomorrow: January 28

In keeping with our calling to minister with the basin and the bowl, NOBTS faculty, staff, and students will go into New Orleans neighborhoods to serve the residents on January 28 from 12:30 to 3 p.m.

To join a ministry team, sign up online or follow the crowd after lunch in the cafeteria.

ERLC Seminar in Nashville

The Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission will offer a seminar on contemporary moral issues in social thought and public policy May 18-22, 2020 in Nashville, TN.

Dr. Andrew Walker, Associate Professor of Christian Ethics and Apologetics at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and frequent visiting professor at NOBTS, will focus on "the central ethical debates happening in contemporary culture and how those debates spill into areas of public policy."

Through assigned reading, class discussion, and individual research, the student will develop an understanding of these issues and a Christian moral response to conflicts related to "family integrity, justice, religious liberty, and human dignity."

Our partnership with the ERLC provides the opportunity for NOBTS PhD students to enroll in this seminar by registering for ETHC9490 Contemporary Issues in Public Policy during our April 20-May 4 online registration. Look for the syllabus link on our 2020-2021 seminar schedule in February.

Drop-Add

To drop or add a course after registration closes, contact the ReDOC office for approval to complete the Drop-Add Request form on the Registrar's web page. The Spring 2020 semester deadline is Friday, January 31.

ReDOC Schedule for 2019-2020

The following are the ReDOC meetings for 2019–2020:

February 12 (1/13 IRB)
March 11 (2/11 IRB; summer directed studies)
March 30—Doctoral Admissions (DeMent Room, 9:00 a.m.)
April 8 (3/9 IRB)
May 13 (4/13 IRB; fall directed studies)
June 3 (5/4 IRB)

An IRB request and a pdf of a prospectus for research using human subjects must be submitted to the guidance committee chair, who must forward them to redocsec@nobts.edu, indicating permission to proceed, no later than one month prior to the meeting at which the prospectus will be considered. See the Program Materials page for the form and details.

A prospectus to be considered by ReDOC must be reviewed by your guidance committee and 11 copies (double-sided printing is allowed) submitted through your chairperson to the Office of Research Doctoral Programs no later than one week before the scheduled ReDOC meeting. Prospectuses for research involving human subjects must be received one month before the meeting.

Likewise, matters such as directed study proposals and requests to take courses at other institutions must be submitted one week before the ReDOC meeting at which they will be considered. Also e-mail a pdf of the prospectus or directed study proposal to phd@nobts.edu. Do submit a hard copy of the directed study approval page.

If your research involves human subjects, you must go through the Institutional Review Board approval process. Your guidance committee cannot approve your prospectus until (1) the IRB assesses the risk to and protection of the participants; (2) you submit your revised prospectus, consent form, and IRB request; and (3) the IRB approves your treatment of human subjects as reflected in these documents. You cannot contact study participants before approval of both the IRB and your guidance committee. IRB approval is valid for two years.

The maximum length for the prospectus is 30 pages of text plus the selected bibliography. Documents with text longer than 30 pages will not be accepted.

NOTE: If you think your guidance committee approved your prospectus but you have not seen it in the ReDOC News, contact the ReDOC office. You cannot contact human subjects before approval.

Calls for Papers

American Baptist Quarterly (ABQ) is the peer-reviewed journal of the American Baptist Historical Society. Both established and emerging scholars are invited to submit papers written from original research. Articles and essays should be between 6,000 and 9,000 words. If you are interested in submitting a paper for one of the upcoming issues, please contact editor Curtis Freeman (CFreeman@div.duke.edu) as soon as possible.

The following are proposal deadlines and issue themes:

"Fundamentalism and the Baptists, 1900-1950"

A Call for Articles for the American Baptist Quarterly

The fundamentalist movement is 100 years old, and there is perhaps no group of American Christians that has been more affected than the Baptists. See, for example, the battles over fundamentalism in the Northern Baptist Convention in the 1920s, the various fundamentalist Baptist denominations that have emerged in the past century, and the fundamentalist takeover of the Southern Baptist Convention in the 1980s.

This issue of the American Baptist Quarterly solicits articles on fundamentalism and the Baptists in the first half of the twentieth century. Articles should be historical explorations of the origins, nature, and/or impact of early fundamentalism among Baptists, as well as examinations of seminal figures, groups, events, and ideas pertaining to Baptist fundamentalism (and anti-fundamentalism).

Articles should be between 5,000 and 8,000 words in length (notes included), double-spaced, 12-point font, with notes gathered at the end of the manuscript (and no bibliography). Citations must conform to the 16th edition of the Chicago Manual of Style. Please submit proposed articles by March 01, 2020 to ABQ Associate Editor William Trollinger (wtrollinger1@udayton.edu), who also welcomes inquiries.

FTE DOCTORAL FELLOWSHIPS FOR 2020-2021

The Fund for Theological Education offers the Fellowship for Doctoral Students of African Descent and the Fellowship for Latino/a, Asian-Pacific Islander, and First Nations Doctoral Students. Each fellowship recipient receives an award up to $25,000. Qualified candidates must be

- Students of African, Latino/a, Asian, Pacific Islands or First Nations descent who are citizens or permanent residents of the U.S. or Canada
- Enrolled full time in a ThD or PhD program in religion, theological studies, or biblical studies
- Finished with coursework by the beginning of the awarded fellowship year (September 1, 2020)
- In a position to write full time during the fellowship year if applicant is at the dissertation stage

The applicant's dissertation committee must have approved the dissertation research proposal and writing plan and given the student full approval to proceed (ABD) before submission of an application.

Mercersburg Society Roth Prize

The Mercersburg Society Roth Prize is named for Jeffrey Roth, a founding member of the Mercersburg Society. The purpose of the prize is to promote the study of Mercersburg Theology from a variety of angles.

This annual prize of $750 is given for the best student paper on any topic, historical or contemporary, pertaining to Mercersburg Theology. Undergraduate, graduate, and seminary students are welcome to submit papers written in their courses or arising from independent study. Papers should be approximately 15-20 pages in length, complete with appropriate documentation.

The recipient of the prize will be invited to present the winning essay at a Mercersburg Society Convocation (held annually in June). At the decision of the editors, the paper may then be published in the New Mercersburg Review.

Inquiries may be sent to Dr. Anne Thayer: athayer@lancasterseminary.edu
Submissions for 2020 must be received by May 20, 2020.
